LONDON AND ENVIRONS.

—Little slots for nickles,
Open-mouthed but dumb,
Give the jawious school girl
Wads of chewing gum.

—Be sure and hear Harold Jarvis, the great tenor, on June 15. Particulars in amusement column.

—The receipts of the Hamilton St. George's Society from the Old English Fair in that city were $510 59.

—Mrs. Shuttleworth associated with Mrs. Eliot were secreteries for the Old English Fair, not Miss Priddis as was reported.

—The regular weekly drill of No. 2 company of the Young Liberal Club fleet will be held this evening at the Star livery.

—Mr. Harry Smith, the noted Toronto stenographer, is the guest for a day or two of his father, Supt. Smith, of the street railway company.

—G. T. R. Conductor H. Bell, of Pt. Edward, accompanied by Mrs. Bell and daughter Alice, is visiting his parents on Rectory street, East London.

—A dispatch says: "H. P. Jackson, his son, H. P. Jackson, and his son-in-law, Harry Mill, formerly of London, have been arrested in Detroit for counterfeiting."

—The crowd at Victoria Park last night numbered between 3,000 and 5,000 persons. The weather was perfect, the music charming, and the whole affair most enjoyable.

—Rev. W. J. Clark, Mr. J. Cheesbrough, Mr. Lawrence Gibson and Mr. John Cameron, of this city, have gone to attend the Presbyterian General Assembly at Brantford.

—Mr. John Roddy, the obliging day baggageman at the C. P. R. station here, nurses a lame leg as the result of an accident which befell him while watering the lawn yesterday.

—Major Stacey, St. Thomas, has received a first class special course grade "A" certificate from the School of Infantry here, and Second-Lieut. McLaughlin a second class certificate.

—In the report of Rev. E. D. Silcox's address before the union he was credited with saying he was a "Highland Scotchman." This was a mistake. It should have been his people were Highlanders.

—The St. Thomas Times says Rev. J. B. Silcox, the new pastor of Emmanuel Congregational Church, Montreal is "60 years of age." His brother, E. D., of Embro, says that's not so, for he was born in 1847.

—Mr. E. W. Devlin, of the firm of R. C. Struthers & Co., leaves to-day for a month's holidays, during which time it is his intention to take in the World's Fair and all the principal cities in the west, including Victoria, B. C. There is a rumor to the effect that he will not return alone.

—R. H. Whale, principal of the St. Thomas Art School, leaves for Paris on Saturday to study under Constaine, also to study at South Kensington School of Art. Mr. J. R. Peel, of this city, will look after the art school during Mr. Whale's absence of one year.

—Lovers of boating are loud in their disapproval of the authorities permitting men and boys to bathe in the river during these pleasant evenings when rowing is so enjoyable. A favorite spot where these bathers indulge is just east of the Cove bridge.

—Miss Annie Clarkson, of Port Stanley, who has been organist in the Methodist Church for the past seven years, on the eve of her departure to Port Dover, as a slight recognition of her faithful services, was presented by the members of the congregation with a well filled purse and a complimentary address.

—The members of the London Amateur Opera Company respectfully request the numerous young men who, for lack of some other occupation and better sense, stand across the road and misbehave themselves during the "Pinafore" rehearsals, to postpone their presence until the night of the performance, June 23. Otherwise a policeman may assist the crowd in moving on.

—At a well-attended meeting of the London Hunt Club held last evening the date of "Farmers' Day" was fixed for Wednesday, June 28. On that day, as formerly, the country friends of the club will be handsomely entertained. It was also decided that a new club house must be secured at once. The proprietor of "Glenmore" will be interviewed at once, and unless he agrees to make great improvements new quarters will be procured.

—In connection with the late evangelistic services held by Messrs. Crossley and Hunter at Napanee over 700 names were given the secretary as seekers. Of these 35 went to the Church of England, 88 to the Presbyterian and 427 to the Methodist churches. Besides 125 outsiders have allied themselves with various churches. The receipts were $876 25. The expenses were $25 29. Over $800 were given to the evangelists.

—Mr. F. G. Inwood, grand master of the A. O. U. W., was married yesterday at Napier, Ontario, to Miss Annabel Sutherland, second daughter of the late James Goodson Sutherland. Mr. and Mrs. Inwood left on an extended tour of the Southern States. They will visit the World's Fair and other points of interest before they return. On Monday Mr. Inwood was presented, by his fellow employes of the Bradstreet company, with a handsome silver water service.

—By an advertisement in another column it will be seen that passengers for the steamer Persia from St. Catharines to Montreal and intermediate points can now leave London on the 8:05 train Tuesday mornings instead of at 6 as formerly. The boat is timed to leave St. Catharines at 1 p.m., but Messrs. G. M. Gunn & Son, the agents here, have arranged to have the boat wait should the train be late.

—The executive committee of the Canadian Order of Chosen Friends met at Hamilton the other day. It was decided to extend the order to the other provinces in the Dominion and to Newfoundland, making the C. O. C. F. a Dominion society in future. Ald. W. F. Campbell, of Dundas, was appointed grand inspector, under salary. This order is in an exceeding flourishing condition, with a membership of about 7,200 and a cash surplus in the Bank of Hamilton of over $36,000.

—Miss Laird, daughter of Rev. J. G. Laird, of this city, took far greater honors in the recent Provincial University examinations than has yet been reported. She is a student of the first year, and she takes first-class honors in mathematics, English, German, French and Italian. The London Collegiate Institute teachers many will feel proud of the triumphs of this young lady in the higher field. Coming so soon after Miss Laird's matriculation honors, when she took the first scholarship in mathematics and modern languages, these new honors are all the more significant.

—St. Peter's Cathedral was crowded this morning. The marriage of Mr. John O'Flaherty, proprietor of the Wellington House, to Miss Lou Garnier occasioned the interest. Mr. Joshua Garnier, father of the bride, gave the young lady away. Mr. O. R. Brener supported the groom, while Miss Hattie Clarke assisted the bride. Father Tiernan officiated. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was partaken of at the Wellington House. Only a few near relatives and friends of the blissful couple were present. Mr. and Mrs. O'Flaherty left at noon for a trip up the lakes as far as Duluth.

—William Coyne and John Gavin were in the Police Court this morning charged with vagrancy. W. H. Bartram appeared for the former and Frank Love for the latter. Martin Burke, who occasioned the arrest, said he had merely informed the constable that the men were on the corner of Piccadilly and Waterloo streets. The policeman, however, asserted that Burke came to him and said that five young men were acting in an unbecoming manner. Magistrate Parke recalled Burke, but he adhered to his story. The prisoner was discharged. Thomas Cahill, William street, was arraigned on two charges—one of larceny and one of disorderliness. No evidence was forthcoming in the first accusation, but $2 or three days was the penalty for the other.

—A "swell" event took place in the city yesterday. Mr. Fred Bartold, of Port Stanley, aged about 75, who was brought into prominence about a year ago through his wife committing suicide by taking strychnine, and Mrs. Schultz, a blushing bride of some 80 summers, and fully as many winters, came into the city yesterday afternoon and were made one, until death do them part. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Schulte. The bride and groom were got up regardlessly for the occasion, and their unique and picturesque appearance was the admiration of all who saw them.—[St. Thomas Journal.

Council of the Ontario C. of P.

The council of the Ontario College of Physicians and Surgeons met yesterday, when the following officers were elected for the year: President, Dr. Cl. T. Campbell, London (acclamation); vice-president, Dr. L. L. Philips, Brantford (acclamation); registrar, Dr. R. A. Pine, Toronto (re-elected); treasurer, Dr. W. T. Aikens, Toronto (re-elected); solicitor, B. B. Osler, Q.C.

They Won Honors.

The following obtained honors in the recent law school examinations:

First year—W. E. Buckingham, D. C. Ross, R. J. Grant, F. A. E. Redden, Gideon Grant, S. Price, R. A. H. Depries, V. A. Sinclair, R. E. Gagen.

Second year—Walter Gow, W. H. Tilley, J. F. Faulds, D. J. Sicklestiel, J. R. Logan, W. H. B. Spotton, B. M. Jones, R. M. Thompson, Hugh E. Ross, J. Warne, J. Lale, F. A. W. Ireland, J. Ashworth, G. R. Geary, H. C. Small.

Third year—J. C. Haight, D'Arcy Tate, W. E. Woodruff.

Homing Pigeons' Race.

Mr. J. B. Land, of the Grand Pacific, liberated at noon last Saturday two homing pigeons, owned by R. Aiken, of Toronto, and half an hour later three others owned by J. Gardner, jun., of the same place. They were contestants in a race, and immediately on gaining their freedom they flew straight for that city. Mr. Land received word yesterday that the three pigeons last liberated had beaten the others by an hour and a half, thus winning the race handily in 3 hours and 12 minutes. The distance was 117 miles. After the result had been made known those interested met and passed Mr. Land a hearty vote of thanks for his kindness and efficiency in acting as liberator. Other birds will be forwarded to him during the summer.

A Woman's Missionary Experience.

A small company of ladies assembled in Cronyn Hall yesterday afternoon for the purpose of hearing Mrs. Spendlove. The meeting was held under the auspices of the Woman's Auxiliary, which organization the speaker represents in the missionary field at Mackenzie River. Mrs. Spendlove is a tall brunette of pronounced type, with a very motherly figure. She spoke fluently; her voice, however, not being exceptionally clear. The lecturer's remarks were confined almost entirely to her twelve years' missionary experience, and at the conclusion the ladies present asked a number of questions. A telegram was read from Bishop Baldwin, stating that he and his wife had arrived at Father Point. A resolution, moved by Mrs. Hill and seconded by Mrs. White, was presented, expressive of gratitude for this fact, and felicitation on the restoration to health to the Bishop and Mrs. Baldwin.

"It's Greatly to His Credit."

Three ladies who went down the river to Wonderland on Monday afternoon will cherish grateful recollections of the gallant Capt. Foster for many days to come—and for good reasons. The trio, like the "three little maids from school" were brimful of fun, and at the same time—like Mrs. John Gilpin when celebrating the twentieth anniversary of her wedding—they had a practical turn of mind; so they took with them a basket and garden trowel, with the intention of gathering ferns. At Wonderland, away from the din and dust of the city, untrammeled by the attendance of chaperon or beau, the time passed merrily away. The little party rambled and ran, and walked and talked (?) enjoying themselves in a dozen different ways, and finally resolved to walk to Springbank and take the last boat for home—but they didn't get there! The fact is they lost their way, and after scrambling among bogs, brambles, bushes and barbed wire fences they descried the boat starting on its homeward trip. The ladies hailed some passing boatmen, hoping in that way to reach the city, but the oarsmen were either deaf or hard-hearted, and no assistance could be got from that quarter. Finally, before starting for a weary tramp along the pipe line road, they decided to endeavor to hail Capt. Foster's boat, and did succeed in attracting the skipper's notice. Now the captain runs his craft on standard (not solar) time, and he is a man of promptitude. Besides, there was no landing-place near by. He was loath to stop. But the sight of three fair ones in distress was too much for the commander's big heart, so he "hove to," and ran the Thames greyhound as near as possible to the river bank. The gang-plank was thrown out and the weary wanderers were speedily, if not ceremoniously, hustled on board. There were no ferns in the basket, and, in the classic language of a bystander, "there are no flies on Capt. Foster."

The Branding of Butter and Cheese.

OTTAWA, June 13.—The recent customs order to enforce the branding of all American cheese shipped from Montreal as "products of the United States" is followed by another under the terms of which American butter will be marked in the same conspicuous way so as to protect the genuine Canadian article.

Murdered, Not Married.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., June 13.—The mangled body of Justave Koenig, a well-known young business man, was found beside the Hannibal Railway track yesterday. He had been murdered and robbed, after which the body was laid on the track. Koenig was to have been married next Sunday.

High Court C. O. F.

OTTAWA, June 13.—Mayor Durocher welcomed the fourteenth annual convention of the High Court of Canadian Order of Foresters in St. John's Hall this afternoon. About 250 delegates were present. An address of welcome was presented by the local Foresters. In the evening the convention settled down to business, the various reports of the officers being read, showing the order, which is a purely Canadian one, to be in a very flourishing condition.

A Mysterious Principle.

We are blessed by a mysterious principle known as life. By its influence we are enabled to maintain our existence in the midst of agents which are constantly seeking our destruction. Our bodies are composed of elements which exist everywhere in the matter around us, but gathered into new combinations and moulded into peculiar forms.

Men and women—the old and young—are not all blessed with vigorous, strong, robust life. Unfortunately for Canada, we have our thousands who barely move and breathe; they do not possess that vigor, strength and health which means true life. Can any sane individual assert that the weary, tired, broken-down, nervous, sleepless and dyspeptic man or woman enjoys life as they should? We know that many of them are weary and tired of lives of suffering.

Hold! suffering mortals. Do not despair; maintain courage and hope; there is rescue for you if you wish to walk the pleasant highway of health and true life. Know you not that Williams' Royal Crown Remedy banishes the foes by which you are beset? Are you not aware that this remedy emancipates the slaves of disease and suffering?

You have been asking for freedom from pain for many years; physicians and advertised remedies have deceived you. Now you have the true agency of health offered; will you accept it? We guarantee cure, satisfaction and new life; can the power of mortal man promise greater blessings.

Williams' Royal Crown Remedy is King; Williams' Royal Crown Remedy is a conqueror; its triumphs are multitudinous and wonderful. Try it, and know what true life means. x
