JEWS ARE CELEBRATING ANOTHER NEW YEAR

5670 of the Jewish Calendar Commenced at Sunset on Wednesday.

The Jews of London and Western Ontario are today celebrating the commencement of the 5670th year of the Jewish era which commenced last evening at sunset.

A large number have gathered at the synagogue on Richmond street near Simcoe street, and services were held this morning. They will be continued this evening, and the same programme will be carried out tomorrow.

The majority of the outsiders are from villages where there are no synagogues. A rule of the Jewish religion states that there must be twelve male members above thirteen years of age in the community before the services can be conducted, and as a result many are in London from St. Thomas, Granton, Berlin, Glencoe and other places.

A week from tomorrow, Saturday, Sept. 25, is the day of atonement and the Jews will commence the longest fast of the year.

No person, even the children, will partake of any food or drink of any kind from sunset Friday evening till the same time the day following. Annually the day of atonement or forgiveness is observed.

ARTHUR BOLLARD'S DEATH

Jury Says It Was Due to After-Effects of Fight.

Peterboro, Sept. 15.—"That Arthur Bollard came to his death indirectly from the effects of a fight he had in Chemong Park on the night of Aug. 20." Such was the verdict returned by the jury empanelled by Coroner Gray to inquire into the death of Arthur Bollard, of Toronto, who died at Chemong Park, a summer resort near here, on Friday, Aug. 27, after an hour's deliberation tonight.

A noiseless typewriter is announced from Vienna, where it will shortly appear on the market. The inventor claims that 50 of them in a room together will not make a sound loud enough to be heard above a conversation.
