DAILY REVIEW OF THE LOCAL MARKETS

Though there are absolutely no changes in local markets since the last report, indications are that prices will shortly advance. The heavy snow elsewhere will probably retard receipts of foodstuffs, and it is very likely this will result in a stiffening of prices. Local houses have, however, good stocks on hand, and unless traffic becomes further disorganized, the rise may not take place.

In the retail market several increases will be announced in the near future, probably today. A number of staples will be raised in price, but grocers decline to give details before the announcements are made in their advertisements. There are practically no nuts on the market, although the prices given govern what remain in stock.

The holiday trade has been greater by at least 25 per cent. than ever before. Wholesalers report that collections are more than up to the average, with a prospect of better settlements than for several years. In the retail branch there is the same evidence of prosperity. Cash transactions, last have been steadily growing recently, reached high watermark at the beginning of the present week.

Yesterday's quotations were as follows:

JANE NOBLE.
ELLEN ADAMS.

Port Essington, B.C., December 15, 1906.

Tyee Smelter.—In an interview recently, W. J. Watson, superintendent of the Tyee Smelter at Ladysmith, said that with the advent of 1907 the smelter would be going full blast, the company having secured a number of contracts which would keep the bunkers full continuously. During the past year the plant has only been running half time.

To stop a cold with "Preventics" is safer than to let it run and cure it afterwards. Taken at the "sneeze stage" Preventics will head off all colds and grippe, and perhaps save you from Pneumonia or Bronchitis. Preventics are little tooth-some candy cold cure tablets selling in 5 cents and 25 cent boxes. If you are liable if you begin to sneeze, try Preventics. They will surely check the cold, and please you. Sold by C. H. Bowes.

QUEER MONEY.

"Tobacco used to be the money of Virginia," said the antiquary. "A wife cost 150 pounds of tobacco—you know they imported their wives into the colony from England—though it was possible to secure a wife cheaper and thin wife for as little as 100 pounds.

"Whales' teeth are still used in the remote Fijis as money, and nails were for the money of Scotland, as dried cod was Newfoundland's money.

"In Angola, when a young sport goes out to make a night of it, instead of putting his pockets with silver and gold, he slings on his back a big bundle of rice straw mats of assorted sizes. These are the Angolan currency. A beer costs one small mat, a whisky two, a Welsh rare-bit twenty-five, and so on.

"Salt passes for money in Abyssinia, beeswax in Sumatra, tea in Tartary, and iron hoes in Madagascar."

SIGNIFICANT INITIALS.

London Daily Mail.

A journalist in Berlin has been exercising his ingenuity in attempts to explain the meaning of the letter S which appears with more or less frequency after the names of German military officers in the records kept at the ministry of war and in the Kaiser's military cabinet. He has come to the following conclusions: The S after an officer's name means that the particular officer "sauft" (drinks); SS means that he "sauft stark" (drinks hard); SSS denotes that he "sauft sehr stark" (drinke very hard); SSSS means that he "sauft sehr stark schnapps" (drinks very hard schnapps); finally, SSSSS means that the "schnapps" is "schlecht" (bad). An officer with five S's is summarily dismissed by the Kaiser.

It's a pleasure to tell our readers about a cough cure like Dr. Shoop's. For years Dr. Shoop has fought against the use of Opium, Chloroform, or other unsafe ingredients commonly found in cough remedies. Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure has withstood the Pure Food and Drug Law recently enacted, for he has worked along similar lines many years. For nearly 20 years Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure containers have had a warning printed on them against opium and other narcotic poisons. He has thus made it possible for mothers to protect their children by simply insisting on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Sold by C. H. Bowes.

THE ANNUITY.

M. A. P.

A Scottish life office sold an annuity to Mr. Pat Maloney, and paid, and paid, and paid until they reckoned his age was about 100, when they sent an inspector to Tipperary to interview the annuitant, and to make sure they were paying the annuity to the proper person. The emissary called at the cottage and asked if Mr. Pat Maloney was in no, he was in the field, ploughing. A centenarian working plough-man seemed rather an anomaly. The insurance man found the field, and a man of about 80 at work. "Are you Mr. Patrick Maloney?"

"Yis," he says, "I am."

"Are you the Mr. Maloney who draws the annuity from the Insurance Company?"

"Yis, bedad, and me father before me."

The time used is Pacific Standard for the 120th meridian west. It is counted from 0 to 24 hours, from midnight to midnight. The figures for height serve to distinguish high water from low water.

The height is measured from the level of the lower low water at spring tides. This level corresponds with the datum to which the soundings on the Admiralty chart of Victoria harbor are referred, as closely as can now be ascertained.
