SULZER IMPEACHED AT CLOSE OF AN ALL NIGHT SESSION

His Wife Makes Valiant Attempt to Save Him by Confession That She Diverted Funds Without His Knowledge or Consent.

ALBANY, N. Y., Aug. 13.—(Can. Press.)—William Sulzer, governor of New York, was impeached by the lower house of the legislature at 5.15 o'clock this morning after an all-night session by a vote of 79 to 45 on charges of having diverted campaign contributions to his private use and having made under oath false statements as to his campaign receipts.

An eleventh hour declaration on the part of the governor's wife that she had diverted some of his campaign contributions to the purchase of stock, because she felt the household needed money, failed to avert impeachment. The roll call was one of the quickest accomplished since the assembly began the consideration of impeachment proceedings. But one member rose to explain his vote.

Organization leaders who had sparred for time all night in the fear that their program of impeachment would be wrecked by lack of votes, welcomed new-comers to the assembly chamber, summoned from New York during the early hours, and assured of victory by their presence started a rapid fire of legislation with the adoption of the impeachment resolution.

A roll call showed the adoption of the resolution by a vote of 79 to 32. A committee was appointed to acquaint the senate with the assembly on the findings at the meeting of the senate scheduled for 11 o'clock this morning. Majority leaders asserted their belief that with the presentation to the senate of the articles of impeachment, William Sulzer would automatically cease to be governor and Martin H. Glynn, lieutenant-governor, would assume his office and functions as acting governor. Mr. Sulzer's lawyers entertained a different view.

With the adoption of the articles and the appointment of the two committees the assembly sat down to further work. A resolution calling for the appointment of nine managers to conduct on behalf of the lower house the impeachment proceedings was adopted, and Speaker Smith announced its membership.

Shorn of Their Terrors.

In the light of revelations contained in Mrs. Sulzer's declaration to Senator Palmer yesterday afternoon, Governor Sulzer's friends are inclined today to view the ordeal which confronts him with less apprehension than before his impeachment. By her assertion that she diverted part of the campaign contributions sent her husband to private purposes without his knowledge and used them to purchase stocks in Wall street, she has shorn the articles of impeachment of many of their terrors, his friends declare.

Monday, Sept. 22, was this afternoon made a tentative selection for the date of trying Governor Sulzer on the impeachment charges. This selection, subject to change, was reached at a conference among Senator Wagner, president pro tem of the senate, and judges of the court of appeals.

The impeachment has raised a vital question as to whether, under the constitution, the governor will vacate his office pending final adjudication of the impeachment issue by the senate and court of appeals sitting jointly as a trial court. The indications are that he will contest bitterly the theory of the opposition that he becomes automatically barred.

Lieutenant-Governor Martin H. Glynn came into Albany from his summer home at Cedar Hill during the forenoon and went to his newspaper office as usual. He declined to comment on the situation.

The fact that the various state departments and bureaus are divided in their allegiance to the executive and the Democratic organization which is seeking to depose him stimulates interest in the complicated situation. The possibility of two men endeavoring to discharge the functions of the chief executive at the same time suggests conditions that the courts alone would have power to deal with.

OPPOSES HARBOR ABANDONMENT

The Olympic Still Calls at Queenstown, Therefore the Cunarders Can.

CORK, Aug. 13.—(Can. Press.)—A deputation representative of all the business interests in Cork and Queenstown started for London today to protest against the decision of the postmaster-general to permit the big Cunard line mail steamers to omit Queenstown as a calling port. The decision of the postmaster-general was rendered on the plea of the Cunard line that it is dangerous for such vessels as the Mauretania and Lusitania to enter the harbor, but members of the deputation deny this, and as proof of their contention point out that the White Star line steamer Olympic, which is much larger than the Cunarders mentioned, has no difficulty in calling at Queenstown.

MRS. MARTHA AVANN.

Mrs. Martha Vickers Avann, a resident of Toronto for 61 years, died yesterday at the residence of her son, J. E. Avann, 19 Hazelwood avenue.

Mrs. Avann was born in Lincolnshire, England, in 1851. She came to Canada in 1856, coming to Toronto after a short residence in Montreal. She is survived by one son, J. E. Avann, and a daughter, Mrs. F. Parry. The funeral will take place this afternoon, from 19 Hazelwood avenue, to St. James' Cemetery.

DEACON BEATEN UP ON HIS HONEYMOON

Church Members Maltreat Him For Wedding Girl of Another Denomination.

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 13.—(Special.)—Walter Stratton, 35 years old, a deacon in the Roanoke Boulevard Christian Church here, who married Miss Alta Barber of Humboldt, Kan., was taken from his bride by men members of the congregation at the close of the church services and severely hazed.

Members of the hazing party said they sought "to punish" Deacon Stratton for going outside the church circle for a bride.

The hazers met Mr. and Mrs. Stratton at the church door. While two of them guarded Mrs. Stratton the others took Stratton to a pasture a mile away and tied him to a tree. They then went to his boarding house and were "wrecking" his room when Stratton, having burst his bonds, appeared. He was "paddled" and set free. He was not injured.
