Mr. Edward Patterson Dayton, C. E., on St. John & Quebec railroad at Fredericton, and Miss Minnie Pearl Sawyer, of Southampton (N. B.), were quietly married on Wednesday, Jan. 20, at Woodstock (N. B.) by Rev. Frank Orchard. Mr. and Mrs. Dayton arrived home on Thursday evening and were met at the station by a host of their young friends. An informal reception was held during the evening at the home of the groom's parents, when many of the young people of St. Marys called to extend congratulations to the newly married couple. Mr. and Mrs. Dayton will reside for the winter with the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Bruce Dayton, St. Marys.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Gregory, who have been spending a month here with Mr. Gregory's parents, will leave for their home in Montreal Saturday.

The officers' dance last evening at The Palms was a delightful affair. About thirty couple were present. All the rooms at The Palms were engaged for the occasion. Supper and bridge were enjoyed downstairs and dancing in the ball room upstairs. The programme included fourteen dances, with two supper extras. Mrs. Harrison and Lady Ashburnham were the hostesses.

Fredericton, Jan. 28—The section of the Divisional Ammunition Column stationed here has been recruited almost up to full strength of 150. The latest to join is J. C. Spicer, B. A., of Parrsboro, a graduate of the U. N. B. and an LL. B. of Harvard. His cousin, W. S. Spicer of St. John, has also joined as artificer. Government buyers were able to secure only six horses in Woodstock and will forward them to this city for the artillery. There is no lack of suitable horses but the price offered is not sufficiently attractive.

The officers of the garrison here were hosts at a dance at The Palms last evening. Lord and Lady Ashburnham were the chaperons.
