TAKE BOTH HOLIDAY GAMES LEAFS FATTEN THE AVERAGES

Gather Twenty-Nine Hits and Nineteen Runs Against Doolan's Hustlers for the Good Crowds---Hearne Supplies Two Home Runs.

Larry Lajoie's Leafs celebrated Confederation Day in fitting style. We had visitors from Rochester, N. Y., but our boys were hardly the kindly hosts to the travelers. It was a great day for the home talent.

Some four thousand holiday fans saw the Leafs put over a 11-to-2 victory in the morning. Our crew unpacked 13 safe raps, including two home-run smashes by Bunny Hearne. Jacobson threw in a triple, and Schultz a double.

There was not much difference to the program in the afternoon. The little Leaflets gathered up 16 hits in this set-to, and eight runs. Rochester got a lonely tally and seven hits off Thompson. Close to ten thousand viewed the lively contest. This made six straight wins for the Toronto hopes.

The long trip from Richmond, Va., failed to shake the batting streak out of the Leafs' bat bag. They opened up yesterday morning at the giddy pace and rolled up 13 hits and 11 runs against Rochester. The Hustlers were allowed two runs.

Bunny Hearne was the batting hero with two home runs into the right-field bleachers. Whiteman, Lajoie, Schultz and Blackburne each collected two hits.

Altenberg had to retire from the game in the seventh. He singled and stole second, and Sandberg's throw hit him on the head. He was knocked out cold. Thompson ran for him and finished in right field.

The visitors broke in front in the second with two runs. A single, a sacrifice, a walk, a stolen base and Schacht's timely single did the work.

The locals caught them in the third, and then it was a romp home. With two down, Hearnu dropped one into the bleachers. Collins dropped Altenberg's fly, and he promptly stole second. Thompson bounced a triple off the right-field fence to score him.

We waited until the sixth, and then put over three. With Jacobson out of the way, Whiteman and Lajoie dropped singles over third. Costello rolled out, but Schultz's double to deep centre counted two. Blackburne got a blow in right field for the other one. Kelly singled to right, and Blackburne raced to third. He was called out on a close one.

The seventh was a four-run round. After Hearne had died, Altenberg beat out one, stole, and retired from the game when Sandberg hit him on the head. Thompson ran for him. Jacobson walked, and Thompson scored on Whiteman's rap. Lajoie's poke let Jacobson home, and Whiteman counted on Costello's infield out. Schultz drove the other in and died stealing.

Blackburne singled in the eighth, and Hearne dropped his second homer into the bleachers, to score our last two runs.

Close to ten thousand fans greeted the teams when they started the second tussle. The Leafs again brought out the big stick and touched Mr. Lohman up for sixteen safe connections. We got eight runs and Rochester one.

The Leafs started after Lohman early, and Thompson was given something to work on. Jacobson and Whiteman were the big clouters with three hits each.

In only two innings did the Leafs fail to register hits, and it was the kind of a game that tickles a big crowd.

Rochester's only run was the result of Sandberg's hit into the bleachers in the third inning. Manager Lajoie collected two hits, and both of them drove in runs. Each side fielded faultlessly and supplied a double play to add the necessary ginger.

Larry's boys went right to work. The first inning netted a run. Altenberg singled off the pitcher's glove and moved up on a passed ball. Jacobson beat out one, and Whiteman rolled out. Lajoie was deliberately walked. Costello raised a high fly and Altenberg easily beat the return home.

We chalked on another in the second. Blackburne singled, but Kelly forced him at second. Thompson tripled and he romped home. The third saw us gather two. Whiteman singled and a passed ball gave him a hoist. He rode home on Larry's single. Costello died, but Schultz doubled to send Larry home.

Another two came our way in the seventh. Thompson dropped a hit in left and Altenberg neatly sacrificed. Jacobson supplied the hit to score the pitcher. Whiteman lifted out. Manager Lajoie was there with the needful and Jacobson ambled in.

Our last turn at bat, the 8th, was also productive of two counters. Blackburne bounced a hit off Lohman's glove. Kelly was robbed of a hit when Schweitzer pulled a one-hand catch on his low liner. Thompson flied out. Altenberg singled, and Jacobson walked. Whiteman hit sharply to short and two runners scored.

BEARS HAND GRAYS A DOUBLE TROUNCING

At Providence (International)—Wretched fielding and poor work in general by the Grays were large factors in yesterday's double defeat at the hands of Newark. The Bears batted out the first game, 6 to 1, and were presented with the second, 9 to 7. Scores:

First game—									R.	H.	E
Newark	0	0	0	2	0	2	0	0	—6	10	1
Providence	0	1	0	0	0	0	0	0	—1	5	3

Providence	1	1	0	1	0	0	0	4	0—	7	14	8

Batteries--Ross, Enzmann and Blackwell; Peters, McTigue and Allen.

At Montreal—Buffalo took both ends of the holiday bill here, 4 to 0 in the morning, and 6 to 1 in the afternoon. The Royals could only find the Buffalo hurlers for six scattered hits in the double offering, three in each game. Scores:

Morning game—									R.	H.	E.

Batteries—McCabe and Onslow; Hersche and Howley.

At Richmond—Richmond won both games from Baltimore after five hours and a half of baseball. The opening game went fifteen innings, Enright's drive over the fence sending home the winning run. The score was 15 to 14, while that of the last game, seven innings by agreement, was 2 to 1. Umpire Mullen's decisions aroused the fans, and police aid was necessary to keep the crowd off the field. EASTERN DIVISION WINS C. & M. GAME

Fine Attendance at Patriotic Cricket Match in Ideal Weather at Varsity.

The game between representatives of the clubs in the eastern and western divisions of the league, staged for the benefit of the funds of the Canadian Red Cross Society, on Varsity Campus yesterday, was full of interest from start to finish. Perfect weather, a good wicket and an old-time attendance of spectators all helped to add interest to the event. Ladies of the Red Cross Society catered for the occasion and the luncheon and refreshments provided by them on the ground were of superior quality. A large number of subscription tickets have been disposed of, and it is hoped that a nice sum will be available for the cause. After luncheon had been partaken of, on the reassembling of the players, at the instance of the Rev. Eustace Vesey, the vice-president of the league, the players remained for a minute motionless and bareheaded on the field as a mark of respect to those of their companions who have left their homes and country to "play the game" on the fields of France and Belgium, and in this the spectators also showed their sympathy by standing uncovered around the ground.

With regard to the play: On paper the team selected by the clubs of the eastern district did not appear to have a ghost of a chance to carry off the honors of the day against such powerful batting organizations as the western clubs, but the glorious uncertainty of the game was again exemplified in a marked manner, the "weaker brethren" proving their superiority in all points of the game, leading their opponents in both innings and eventually winning with a margin of forty runs to the good. The representatives of the clubs in the eastern division were: H. Roberts, M. Moyston and F. Seal (Albions); G. Tunbridge, H. Headley and W. B. Capps (St. Cyprians); R. Hill, T. Wilkinson and A. Green (Woodgreen), and W. N. Gilbert, J. Gaunt and Jarvis (Broadview). In the western division Dovercourt C.C. was represented by J. Simmons, W. Butterfield and F. Colborne; St. Edmunds by T. Lambert, W. Barnes and T. Jones; Old Country by H. C. MacGregor, W. M. Raeburn and J. Forrestall, and West Toronto by F. Saxton, W. C. Green and N. Banks. Messrs. Duncan Cameron and F. Ing of Newmarket officiated as umpires. Seal of the Albions and Green of West Toronto captained the representative teams:

Winning the toss, the captain of the easterners elected to bat, and sent Roberts and Tunbridge to bat. Simmons and Jones opened the attack. Roberts scored three by a fine hit to leg off Simmons' first ball, but after adding four singles was bowled by Jones, when the total stood at 12. Tunbridge and Headley raised the score for the second wicket to 31 when the former hit at a full pitch by Simmons, and missing it paid the penalty. In his fourteen were five drives for three off each bowler, but he should have been out after making one run, Colborne failing to hold a catch. Hill was next to succumb, being caught in slip by Saxton off Forrestall, when he had made three singles. Seal was caught by Saxton off Raeburn in the long fill. Capps started well, getting a four and two holes off successive balls of Simmons, but a break from the off by Forrestall dismissed him and Wilkinson retired from the same cause without scoring. The last men added two runs and the innings closed for 60 runs.

The start of the westerners was disastrous, the first six wickets (four stumped and two bowled) falling to the enticement of Moyston for 11 runs. Forrestall opened well with a fine leg hit for six off Moyston, but was bowled by Wilkinson after adding a single. Green and Barnes raised the score from 19 to 31 when the former was caught at slip by Tunbridge off Moyston. Careful play was now the order of the day, and assisted by Colborne, who contributed seven singles, Barnes carried the score to 46 when he was c b Roberts for a useful and patient 12, in which was a hit to leg for four off Moyston. The tenth and eleventh wickets fell at the same total, closing the innings.

Tunbridge and Roberts again started the batting for their side and the former set such a lively pace that 41 runs were registered off the first eight overs before the separation came, Roberts being bowled by Forrestall for a careful 10, and Tunbridge being caught by Lambert off Forrestall, after making 32 runs, included in which was a list for six off Barnes and three fine drives for four, two off Raeburn and one off Saxton. Headley was bowled by Forrestall, after contributing four, and Moyston put up a ball of Simmons to short leg, which Banks secured.

In the meantime Hill was playing a careful game, and added 15 to the score, three three's and three two's, before being bowled by Simmonds, the fifth wicket falling at 65. Seal and Gaunt then opened a partnership, the latter leaving after adding five, a four and six, for 78. The remaining five batsmen simply did the running for Deal, who ultimately carried hit bat for a well-played 19 and the inning closed for 92.

With 108 runs to get in their second essay the Western team again started badly, Lambert being caught at point by Capps, off Moyston, for one, and Colborne being bowled by Roberts for five, after getting the previous ball away for four. Then Saxton and MacGregor had a long partnership, putting on 32 runs before the latter was caught by Capps off Tunbridge. Simmons was bowled to Moyston at 42, Saxton bowled by Tunbridge at 43 and the only other batsman to make a stand was Green, who was dismissed by a shooter of Wilkinson's with the final score at 65, after an aggressive inning of 16.

John R. Hall Makes New Record at Guelph

Guelph, July 2.—The half mile record on the Guelph track was broken and some splendid races were put on here this afternoon before several thousand people. It occurred in the free-for-all half mile championship and the record of 1.04½ was made by John R. Hal of St. Catharines. Previously the track record was 1.06. The 2.30 class brought out some splendid horses and a fine contest resulted.

Competitors for a championship auto race failing to show up, R. B. Robson gave a two and a half mile exhibition with a McLaughlin auto, covering the distance easily in 3.34. He also beat half mile dirt track record by 2¾ seconds, doing the half mile in 39¼ seconds. Lampman of Hamilton, who was expected to race, came in too late. The results:

Free-for-all, half mile championship—

John R. Hal, Ed. Swartz, St. Catharines	2	1	1	1
Frank Bogash, jr., Swartz & Son, Welland	1	2	2	2
Hedger, Edgar, Weston	3	3	3	3

F. Ward's Ruth Wins A.Y.C. Skiff Race

The Hurst Trophy, a handicap for all classes, was the holiday attraction at Ward's Island of the Alexandra Yacht Club.

Frank Ward's skiff, Ruth, proved the winner, while the Gracia, with Ned Savin at the stick, and making her first start under A.Y.C. colors, finished second. Jimmie Filby got third place with his dinghy. This was Jimmy's second race of the day, he having won the W. I. A. race in the morning. The rear-commodore acted as official starter. Results:

SCOTLAND VICTORS AT THE STADIUM

Defeat England, One Goal to Nil, in T. & D. International.

The second game staged by the T. and D. F. A. of the international series took place yesterday between selected teams representing Scotland and Ireland. The best talent available in the city was selected, and, despite all counter-attractions, the game was witnessed by the largest crowd that has attended these series of games during the past two seasons.

Scotland were without the services of McKay and Jackson, their places being taken by Allen and Pedan. Ireland was as selected. Teams lined up as follows:

Scotland—McAlpine (R.C.D.), Allan (Ulster), Tunstal (T.S.R.), Pedan (Dunlops), Hampton (Wychwood), Taylor (O. C. C.), Carter (Dunlops), Bell (T.S.R.), McCullough (48th), Hamilton (O.C.C.), Wilson (R.C.D.).

Ireland—Williams (Ulster), Edwards (Dunlops), Carmichael (R.C.D.), Hunter (Baracas), Carey (Ulster), Adgey (Ulster), W. Forsythe (Ulster), Andrews (Wychwood), Allan (O.C.C.), G. Forsythe (Ulster), Reed (Ulster).

Linesmen—J. Dobbs, C. Harrison.

Referee—Sid Banks.

Scotland won the toss, and Allan kicked off for the Irishmen. Play ruled very even, both sides striving to score. Carter and Hamilton were always prominent. Bell put in two great shots, which deserved to score. Williams in goal making several brilliant saves. Just before half-time Cardy put in the best shot of the half, only missing the goal by inches. Half-time arrived with no scoring.

Upon resuming, Scotland pressed strongly. Carter made a great run from half-way, beating all opponents, his centre going just wide of goal. Reed and Forsythe made some good runs, but found Allen and Tunstal in great form. The defensive play of the Scottish backs was excellent and saved their side frequently. Cardy, for Ireland, was most effective in breaking up the Scottish forwards. The winning goal for Scotland came from Wilson, who made a fine run up on the left, and, centring, Bell met the ball, placing it in the net, Williams having no chance.

Until the end of the game even play ruled. Just before time was called Reid made a great effort to equalize, shooting from the touch-line. McAlpine rose to the occasion and saved brilliantly. Time was called and a splendid game closed with Scotland winning by one goal to nil.

For the winners, Allen and Tunstal at back, Pedan and Taylor at half-back, and Carter, Bell and Hamilton, were the best. For Ireland, Williams in goal played a great game; Cardy was one of the best halves on the field, and Reed and G. Forsythe were the pick of the forwards.
