which it is recommended. It is not my intention, therefore, either to cloak it in mystery, or in any way deceive the public by overrating its virtues; on the contrary, I shall simply endeavour to give a brief statement of its usefulness, and flatter myself that its surprising efficacy will enable me to furnish such proofs of its virtues as will satisfy the most incredulous, that Consumption may and "CAN BE CURED," if this medicine be resorted to in time.

For sale by Peters & Tilley, King's Street, St. John, N. B. October 24 7.

MARRIED.

On the 22d ult., by the Rev. Robert Irvine, Mr. Arthur Kerr, to Miss Elizabeth Bigger, both of the Parish of Portland.

On the 30th ult., by the same, Mr. J. Irving Dickson, of the Parish of Simonds, to Miss Mary Kilgore, of this city.

On the same day, by the same, Mr. James Aiton, of the Parish of Hampton, K. C., to Mrs. Isabella, widow of the late John Nimo, of the same Parish and County.

At Sussex, on Thursday, 25th March, by the Rev. John Francis, Mr. Elias Cleaveland, to Miss Elizabeth Walters, both of that place.

At Fredericton, on the 29th ult., by the Rev. W. Q. Ketchum, Curate of Fredericton, Mr. John Hamilton of Gagetown, to Miss Mary Wilson of the same place.

At the same time and place, by the same, Mr. William Smith, of Petersville, County of Queen's to Miss Susan Ann Wilson, of Gagetown.

At Yarmouth, (N. S.) on the 23d ult., by the Rev. J. T. F. Moody, Thomas H. Moberly, Esq., Sub-Collector of Her Majesty's Customs at that Port, to Grace Hester, daughter of Mr. Joseph Hawkins, at Halifax.

DIED.

In Portland, on Thursday last, Frances Elizabeth, only daughter of Mr. Thomas Templeman, aged three months and thirteen days.

On the 1st instant, after an illness of two days, during which she evinced Christian fortitude and resignation to the Divine will, Mary, widow of the late Mr. Thomas Anderson, of this City, aged 54 years.

On Saturday morning, after a short but severe illness, Jane, wife of Mr. John Frost, in the 26th year of her age, leaving a disconsolate husband and one child to mourn their loss.

On Sunday morning, after a long and painful illness, Isabella, wife of Mr. Lorenzo F. Langan, in the 33rd year of her age, leaving a husband and two children to mourn their irreparable loss. "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord."

Yesterday, of inflamation, Janet, daughter of Mr. Robert Jardine, aged eight months. Funeral tomorrow, Saturday, at 3 o'clock.

At Lock Lomond, on Friday evening, the 2d instant, after a short illness, Mr. Ephraim C. Sentell, in the 36th year of his age, leaving a widow and three small children to lament their irreparable loss.

At Fredericton, on Tuesday last, the 30th ult., after a brief but painful illness, aged 50 years, Mr. James Willox, Merchant and Saddler, a native of Aberdeen, Scotland, and for more than thirty years past an inhabitant of Fredericton, in which city he was universally esteemed. He has left a widow and two children, with an extensive circle of relatives and friends to lament his decease.

Very suddenly, at Fredericton, on Monday the 29th ult., Sarah Elizabeth, wife of Mr. Andrew Payne, and second daughter of the late Captain James Segee, aged 34 years.

On board the Packet steamer Alhambra, on her passage from New Orleans to Cincinnatti, on the 23d ult., Mr. Samuel Fairweather, aged 25 years, of the firm of J. & S. Fairweather, of this city. Mr. F. left here in November last for England, in the pursuit of health—remained there a short time, and not finding any improvement, took passage for New Orleans, and was on his way home when he was called hence to be no more. Few young men possessed a more amiable disposition, and his loss will be regretted by a large number of sorrowing relatives and friends.

At Salisbury, Westmoreland County, on Saturday the 27th March, in the 41st year of her age, Lavinia, wife of Mr. James Price, leaving a disconsolate husband and twelve children to mourn the loss of a kind partner and tender parent.

At Hampton, K. C., on the 28th February, Sarah, relict of the late Mr. Stent Raymond, aged 86 years. Mrs. R. was one of the early settlers of this Province, and has left numerous friends to lament their loss.

At his residence, Waterborough, Grand Lake, Queen's County, on the 26th of March, Mr. Richard Cox, in the 56th year of his age, leaving a wife and seven children, together with a numerous circle of relatives to mourn their loss.

At Buctouche, N. B., on Friday 2d inst., after an illness of thirty one hours, Fanny Douglass, youngest daughter of A. B. Smith, Esquire, in the 6th year of her age. The bereaved parents have to mourn the departure of a child of extraordinary promise.
