GAINED A POUND A DAY.

A Lanark County Farmer's Remarkable Cure.

Taken with Bilious Fever the After Effects of Which Brought Him Almost to the Grave—He Gladly Speaks for the Benefit of Other Sufferers.

Smith's Falls Record.

Mr Joseph N. Barton, who lives about a mile from the village of Merrickville, is one of the best known farmers in the township of Montague. Up to the spring of 1894 Mr Barton had always enjoyed the best of health. At that time, however, he was taken with a bilious fever the effects of which left him in a terribly weakened condition. When the time came around to begin spring operations on the farm he found himself too weak to take any part in the work, and notwithstanding that he was treated by an excellent physician, he was constantly growing weaker and his condition not only greatly alarmed himself but his friends. Having read so much concerning Dr Williams' Pink Pills, he determined to give them a trial, and without consulting his physician he began their use. He only used one box, and, not feeling better, he discontinued the use of the pills. This was where he now admits he made a serious mistake as he not only fell back to his former weakness, but became worse than before. He could now do no work of any kind, and the least exertion left him almost helpless. Life was a misery to him and he was on the point of giving his case up as hopeless when a friend strongly urged him to again begin the use of Dr Williams' Pink Pills. He agreed to do so, and by the time he had used three boxes, there was a marvellous change in his appearance, and he felt like a new man. He still continued to use this life-saving medicine, with astonishing results. During his illness he had fallen in weight to 135 pounds, but he soon increased to 180 pounds. In fact, as he says, the increase averaged about a pound a day while he was taking the pills. He is now able to do any kind of work on his farm, and it is needless to say that he is not only a firm believer in the efficacy of Dr Williams' Pink Pills, but loses no opportunity to sound abroad their praise, with the result that others in his locality have benefitted by his experience and advice.

To those who are weak, easily tired, nervous, or whose blood is out of condition, Dr Williams' Pink Pills come as a veritable boon, curing when all other medicines fail, and restoring those who give them a fair trial, to a full measure of health and strength. They will be found an absolute cure for St. Vitus' dance, locomotor ataxia, rheumatism, paralysis, sciatica; the after effects of la grippe, loss of appetite, headache, dizziness, chronic erysipelas, scrofula, etc. They are also a specific for the troubles peculiar to the female system, correcting irregularities, suppressions and all forms of female weakness. In the case of men they effect a radical cure in all cases arising from mental worry, overwork, or excesses of any nature. Dr Williams' Pink Pills are sold only in boxes bearing the firm's trade mark and wrapper (printed in red ink), and may be had of all druggists or direct by mail from Dr Williams' Medicine Company, Brockville, Ont., or Schenectady, N. Y., at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2 50.

It was at dinner, and there had been chicken, of which the little daughter of the house had partaken with great freedom. "I want some more chicken," said Frances. "I think you have had as much as is good for you, dear," said Frances's mamma. "I want more." And Frances pouted. "You can't have more now; but there is a wish bone that you and mamma can pull. That will be fun. You pull one side and I'll pull the other, and whoever gets the longer end can have her wish come true. Why, baby, you've got it! What was your wish, Frances?" "I wish for some more chicken," said Frances, promptly. She got it this time.

Two strangers in a first class railway carriage have got into somewhat friendly conversation. The windows have just been let down on account of the closeness of the day, and the desultory chatter is consequently turned to the subject of ventilation.

"I make it," says one of the two, "I make it an invariable practice to advise people to sleep with their bedroom windows open all the year round."

"Ha, ha!" laughed the other, "I perceive that you are a doctor."

"Not at all!" was the confidential reply. "To tell you the truth, strictly between ourselves, I am—a burglar!"

Rev. J. M. McLeod, Pastor of Zion Church, Vancouver, B. C., writes, July 3rd, 1894:—"It is nearly three months since I finished the package of K. D. C. which you sent me; and though I have for more than twenty years suffered from indigestion that one package seems to have wrought a perfect cure. Since taking your remedy I have not had the slightest symptom of a return of my old enemy. It affords me much pleasure to recommend K. D. C. to the numerous family of dyspeptics as the best known remedy for that most distressing malady.

Cheerfulness chirms us with a spell that reaches into eternity, and we would not exchange it for all the soulless beauty that ever graced the fairest form on earth.

Lawyer Quibble—What was the greatest trial you ever presided over, judge? Judge Kidby—Bringing up ten daughter.

She—"I have an instinctive feeling that I can trust you." He (passionately)—"Ah, my darling, would that some others felt that way!"

For Croupy Children—MINARD'S HONEY BALSAM.

"Father," said the boy, "what is insolvent?" "Insolvent," was the reply, "is merely a long word used to describe a short condition."

"I hear Miss Impecune, that you have the bicycle craze." "Yes. That is, I have the craze, but I'm sorry to say that I haven't the bicycle."

New boarder—"What's the row upstairs?" Landlady—"It's the professor of hypnotism trying to get his wife's permission to go out this evening."

Tippie—I haven't much faith in a girl who is always fishing for compliments.

Sibly—No; like all anglers, she is sure to lie about what she has caught.

For Worms in Children—Cherokee Vermifuge.

Nervous Old Lady—Now you'll be careful going down, won't you, young man? Elevator Boy—Oh, you needn't be afraid, ma'am; I ain't killed anyone yet this week.

An old lady having been told of the theory of the moon being inhabited, remarked, with emphasis—"Nonsense! What becomes of the people when there is nothing but a little streak of it left?"

An afflicted husband was returning from the funeral of his wife when a friend asked him how he was. Well, said he pathetically, I think I feel the better for that little walk.

For Biliousness—MINARDS FAMILY PILLS.

She—It must be terrible for a man when he is married to have to ask his wife for money.

He—There is something far worse.

She—What is that?

He—Suppose she hasn't any to give him?

I can always tell when my husband has been drinking, said a young wife.

Yes? said another young wife.

Yes. I know it the moment he kisses me.

I can also tell when my husband has been drinking, said the other.

Yes?

Yes; when he doesn't kiss me.

At an evening service in Edinburgh the minister, who was much given to metaphor, in the course of an eloquent sermon, thundered forth, "What is that I hear?" Upon which his old beadle, starting up from a surreptitious nap, called out, in a very audible voice, "Deed, sir, it's nae'hing but the clock chappin' eicht."

Well, Jimmie, how much did you put in the Sunday school box to-day?

Ten cents, said Jimmie. It was good business, too. Teacher gave me a card for being the most generous boy in the class, and I swapped it off for a postage stamp worth fifteen cents with Billy Wilkins.

Word Received of the Complete Recovery of Mrs John Dowly.

Owen Sound, June 24—Word has been received here of the complete restoration to health of Mrs John Dowly, wife of a former resident of the town. The intelligence has been very gladly received as Mrs Dowly has many friends here who are well aware of the lamentable condition of her health during the past six or seven years. Her illness has been found to result from a severe kidney complaint and she has been restored to health by a judicious use of Dodd's Kidney Pills, a remedy which is now well known to most of the residents in this locality as having previously effected some very extraordinary cures.

The Churches and the Liquor Traffic.

The western association of the Baptist churches of Nova Scotia met last week in the town of Digby. The following is an extract from an account of this gathering as given in the Halifax Herald:

The report on temperance was presented by Rev. A. F. Browne. It was of a very pronounced and definite character. Being in substance as follows:

"We earnestly recommend that all churches in this association consider themselves obligated to employ every legitimate means for the success of the temperance caucus. That the utmost care be taken to secure a perfect harmony between public utterances and private action on this great subject. That our 12,000 church members be urged to solidly unite in a battle to the death against the entire traffic in intoxicating liquors. And that every Baptist church have a pledge of total abstinence as a part of its covenants."

Before the writer had finished reading the report every seat in the church was occupied and the standing room began to fill up with the crowd, eager to hear what would be said on this often discussed, but always popular question. The report was spoken to by E. C. Simonson, who took for his subject:

"THE VOTING DUTY OF CHURCH MEMBERS IN THE MATTER OF PROHIBITION."

Mr Simonson took the ground that no one would be a consistent member of a Baptist church who would vote for a candidate who was not a prohibitionist and pledged to make prohibition a leading issue, regardless of party ties.

Rev. W. H. Jenkins asked the question: "Ought a pledge of total abstinence to be a condition of membership in Baptist churches? His answer was a very emphatic and well proven "Yes."

Rev. A. F. Brown spoke of the terrible results occasioned by liquor made in civilized countries and sent to lands whose inhabitants are counted as savages. Christian countries annually give a few thousand dollars that missionaries may be sent to the heathen, for the purpose of saving their souls, while at the same time millions of dollars are gained by Christian countries from sending the vilest of vile rum to the same heathen lands, where it annually carries off almost a million of the helpless natives. The church of God has the power to stop this terrible method of gaining money by wholesale murder. Until this power is applied by united action the church, in an important respect, remains far short of her duty.

Rev. B. H. Thomas spoke on the theme, "The royal commission—what next?" He declared the commission a great failure. It had expended a lot of the people's money and gained no good object.

THE NEXT THING MUST BE A UNITED DEMAND FOR PROHIBITION from all members of all Christian churches.

The report, although taking the most advanced ground, was passed by a hearty and unanimous vote.

Miss Jessie Ackerman—second-round-the-world missionary of the W. C. T. U. whose journeyings have covered a distance equal to three times round the globe, and occupied seven years says:

"I have often been asked since my return to the home land when I intended to take up foreign work again. I shall never take up work in heathen lands again. I have no message to the heathen; if I have a mission or a message it is to the voters of Christian lands."

The Congregational Union, meeting in Hamilton, has passed a resolution protesting against the attempt to restore in Manitoba a condition of things under which a section of the people was left to a large extent uneducated. A report protesting against the finding of a majority of the Royal Commission on the Liquor Traffic was also adopted.

Religious Intelligencer.

THE ONLY WAY.

The only way you can squeeze the Devil out of the liquor traffic is by putting a rope of constitutional prohibition around the traffic and strangling it into an everlasting death. You can never kill the devil in it until you kill it, and you can never kill it by regulation.

—Methodist Protestant.

Recent statistics show the expenditure of seventeen and a half million dollars in a year by the population of the Transvaal, So. Africa, for intoxicating drinks, an average of eighty-one dollars per capita.

Why Such Waste?

The Canada Presbyterian, after referring to the enormous expenditure in Canada for liquors and the enormous cost entailed on the Government because of its results, very appropriately asks:

"What do we get in return for the vast amounts which the nation expend in liquor? is a fair question. It is one in accordance with common sense as well as with any intelligent self-interest. Whatever of good we may get, it is a fact declared by the most competent authorities of all kinds, that for this outlay we get as a return by far the greater part of all the poverty, disease, ignorance, vice, crime, lunacy, social and domestic misery and suffering that exist over the whole land. We spend millions upon millions in this department of our national business, and whatever of questionable good or enjoyment we may get in return, no one doubts or can deny that all this misery, domestic ruin, vice, crime, lunacy, national deterioration and degredation is the direct and necessary return we get for all our outlay on liquor. And the more money we spend the worse it becomes. It is not as in some kinds of business, in which, by spending more business may at last be put on a sound and well-paying basis, and thus justify greater outlay. It is not so with liquor, the greater the outlay the worse the returns."
