LONDON WON SECOND GAME AND SERIES IS NOW A TIE

Timely Hitting in Third Inning Gave London a Lead Which St. Thomas Was Unable to Overcome—Dinsmore and Gurney Feature in the Infield.

[BY JINX.]

St. Thomas, Sept. 4.—Even the valuable services of big leaguer "Glad" Graney could not stem the tide of defeat against the Saints today, and the flags are flying half-mast this evening. The glooms are in possession, but there are a few optimistic fans who still believe that Manager Stewart and his clan will win out in the series. But the outlook is not so bright now. The fact that the section hands are liable to lose out in this series after all is beginning to bother the natives of the burg. The result of Thursday's game in London is creating a lot of interest. If only Stewart can win that, then the Saints will have a chance.

EXCITEMENT IN RAILWAYVILLE.

They are becoming excited about it in St. Thomas, and there promises to be a large horde of the natives around the score-board tomorrow evening when the results from London are pouring in. St. Thomas is being stirred for the first time in years. Not since the night that Jumbo, the largest elephant in the world, honored the town by allowing himself to be killed inside its portals, has there been so much excitement. They are even thinking of getting out the old rusty key and winding up the town clock, which has been dormant for these many years. They want to know the exact time so that they will be able to keep tab on the London game. The old method of reckoning time by the arrival and departure of the traction cars to London is being put aside. And when they begin to bother about such a thing as time in St. Thomas, believe us, the folks are excited about something.

St. Thomas Fans Were Peeved.

The score in today's occurrence was 7 to 3 in favor of Johnny Cocash and his teammates. And we will have to admit that London was lucky. The St. Thomas fans were unkind enough to insinuate during the third inning that the Saints were throwing the game. Such was not the case. A couple of errors by King, which filled the bases, led to these insinuations, but in all justice to King and to the St. Thomas and London teams be it stated that his errors were made on difficult chances, and it was just such an inning as London had the day before when the Saints scored four runs. It was baseball luck, and the St. Thomas fans never thought of accusing London the day before of throwing the game.

No, the Saints did not throw the game today, and they have not the slightest intention of throwing any game to anybody. Both teams played real baseball, and it was a more interesting game by far than that of Tuesday.

A Change May Be Made.

But the insinuations of the St. Thomas fans have had an effect which the managers of both teams failed to foresee when they arranged for the series. As a result, it is likely that some arrangement will be made between the two teams tomorrow at London whereby the game on Friday will either be postponed or played in London, and if a fifth game is necessary lots will be drawn to decide where it will be played. Both managers state that they figured on rain on one of the dates at least when they drew up the five-game series, and thought that four games would be about all they could play, with a double-header on the Saturday, if it was necessary.

Errors Did Not Count Much.

Both teams played good ball in this game. The Saints had eight errors, but three of them came in innings in which there was no score, and three of them came in the seventh inning when London had the game cinched, and did not need the two runs they scored.

In the third inning, when London scored four runs, only two errors were made by the Saints, and one of them was a wide throw by Silcox in an effort to make a fast play at first base, after fielding a bunt. The other errors were all made on difficult chances or wild throws, and not one of the Saints' miscues looked intentional and prearranged.

"Glad" Graney the Feature.

As in Tuesday's game, "Glad" Graney was the star of the conflict, and it was worth the price of admission alone to see him perform. He can hit the ball when he pleases, and generally takes two strikes before he lamms it out. Then he shows something in the shape of a sprint to first base, and has the London team up in the air while he is on bases with his trick baserunning. His whole playing is marked by headwork, and his success in outguessing the other fellows. He laid down a pretty bunt in the fifth, and only some fast work by Fitzpatrick, who excelled himself, caught him at first base.

Gurney and Dinsmore Shine.

For the London team, Gurney and Dinsmore starred. Dinsmore is a find at shortstop, and he is a second Harry Brant, his playing being somewhat similar to the former London player. However, "Dinny" is quicker on his feet than Brant, and he made the St. Thomas fans sit up and take notice when he pulled off a couple of fast fielding stunts. In the third inning, with Powers on third and Silcox on second and two out, Keifel hit what looked like a sure single to left. Gurney made an attempt to reach it with his gloved hand, and managed to deflect it. Dinsmore was also running to intercept the ball. Gurney turned the ball in Dinsmore's direction when he touched it, and Ernie, without stopping, scooped it up and threw Keifel out at first by a narrow margin. It was the prettiest play of the day, and brought a cheer from the crowd.

The Game.

In the first inning, Bierbauer reached first on King's fumble, after two men were out, and was safe on second when he knocked the ball out of King's hand, King getting another error. Cocash walked, but Fox was thrown out by King.

The Saints went out in order in the first and second, and London had two men left on bases in their half of the second, Speer and Fitzpatrick making hits with two down, Gurney being unable to bring them in. In the third, Dinsmore was passed by Silcox, and Bierbauer singled to centre. Cocash hit to Kopp, who threw to Sweeney to catch Bierbauer, but Bierbauer beat the ball and the bases were filled. Fox then doubled to right with a long fly over Keifel's head, Dinsmore, Bierbauer and Cocash scoring. Fox went to second when Silcox threw wild to catch him, and King let Neale's grounder get away from him, Fox scoring. The next three batters were retired in order.

Saints Score Three.

The Saints came back with three in the fourth after Bierbauer had scored another for London in the first half, Sweeney's wild throw with Looey on second, bringing him in. The four that St. Thomas got were nearly all earned runs. Graney led off with a three-bagger over Sammy Smith's head, and scored on Newashe's sacrifice fly to Cocash. King flied to Fox, but Stewart and Sweeney made singles. Powers then doubled to right, and Fox made a wild throw to the plate to catch Sweeney, Silcox was thrown out.

London got two more runs in the seventh, errors by Silcox and King, and a single by Fitzpatrick turning the trick. In the sixth and eighth the Saints looked threatening, but neat double plays put an end to their chances. In the ninth, the side was retired in quick order, and London had carried off the honors in the second game and evened up the series.

Pitchers Hit Hard.

Both Silcox and Fitzpatrick were hammered hard, but Fitz was able to keep the St. Thomas hits scattered, and the Saints could not get them when they were needed. Six of the St. Thomas bingles came after two men were out and the third put-out was made before a run could be chased across the plate.

NO GAME FRIDAY TWO ON SATURDAY

London-St. Thomas Series Will Be Settled in This City in Saturday's Big Double-Header.

Owing to the fact that the result of yesterday's game in St. Thomas has given rise to the rumor that the London-St. Thomas games are fixed, Manager Cocash and "Dad" Stewart have decided to call Friday's game off and play a double-header in London on Saturday. No matter who wins today's game, the championship will be decided on Saturday, and London fans will have the opportunity to witness the final games. A double-header on Saturday will attract a big crowd, and as there is quite a bit at stake, London fans should find both games interesting. "Glad" Graney, of the Cleveland team, will play with the St. Thomas club, and it is worth the price of admission alone to see him play. The first game will start at 2:30 and the second at 4 o'clock.

ANOTHER APPEAL FOR HARVESTERS.

On account of the urgent appeal from the west for additional farm laborers, the Grand Trunk Railway have decided to run two more farm laborers' excursions on Sept. 4 and 6 from all station in Canada.

The rate to Winnipeg is $10, plus half-cent mile from Winnipeg to destination, but not beyond MacLeod, Calgary or Edmonton.

RETURNING, half-cent mile to Winnipeg, plus $18 to destination in Eastern Canada. The farmers along the Grand Trunk Pacific pay the maximum wage, and this is an excellent chance to visit the west.

The route via Chicago is an attractive one, as many large cities and towns are passed en route, which breaks the monotony of the journey, as there is something new to see all the time. The Grand Trunk Pacific Railway is the shortest and quickest route between Winnipeg-Saskatoon-Edmonton.

Ask nearest Grand Trunk agent for full particulars, or write A. E. DUFF, D. P. A., Union Station, Toronto, Ont. 100k

Yale Man, Who Defeated Hilton, Is Himself Put Out of the Running—Evans Puts Out Detroit Man.

Chicago Golf Club, Wheaton, Ill., Sept. 4.—Four Chicagoans, three easterners and one Englishman, tonight remain in the competition for the national amateur golf championship.

The second elimination round of 36 holes played here brought the curtain down on C. G. Waldo, jun., of Brooklawn, who yesterday defeated Harold Hilton, of the Royal Liverpool Club, the title holder. Waldo was put out by Paul Hunter, of Midlothian.

W. J. Travis, former British and national champion, was eliminated by Jerome Travers, metropolitan champion and twice national champion.

Travers struck a terrific pace, going out in the afternoon play hole after hole under par.

Charles Evans, jun., of Edgewater Club, Chicago, western champion, with H. B. Lee, of Detroit, had an easy match. Evans was dormie on the twenty-seventh tee and took the match at the next green.

ROOSEVELT ON THE BOSSES

Ottumwa, Iowa, Sept. 4.—If he had made terms with the "bosses" at the Republican convention, Col. Roosevelt said today, they would have turned to him with the presidential nomination.

Speaking at Mount Zion, the colonel said:

"Our opponents did not steal the nomination from me at Chicago last June. They stole it from you. They do not like me, but it is you they are really afraid of, and they opposed me because they believed I really represented you. If I had been content at any moment to stop representing you, the bosses would have turned to me with a whoop of delight. All I would have had to do would have been to stretch out my little finger, and they would have come to me if I had stopped representing you."

If they're not good, we'll make them good, for nothing.

BISONS' BATTING BEAT THE LEAFS

But Montreal Beat Rochester, So Toronto Is Still Leading the League By Three Games.

Buffalo, Sept. 4.—The soaring Leafs went down to defeat at the hands of the Bisons this afternoon in the opening battle of the series, 9 to 4. Opportune hitting on the part of the Stallings family accounted for the Bisons' triumph. Kent pitched good ball for four innings, then weakened, and a procession of wallops netted the Bisons four runs. Mueller replaced Kent in the seventh, but was unable to stop the Bisons' hitting, Murray driving the ball to the centre field flag pole with McCabe on first and Deininger on third, for a home run. The score:
