AMUSEMENTS

AMATEUR CONTEST

Opera House Friday Night Promises Good Show

There will be great doings in the Opera House on Friday night in the big amateur contest which will be staged directly after the regular performance by the Musical Revue. Already there are nine contestants entered and the programme will surely be entertaining, novel and amusing. The Union Alley Quartette will positively appear—there will be coon shouters, banjo players, buck and wing dancers, an acrobat team, all made up from the best colored talent in the city. As there is considerable rivalry, the audience will surely enjoy a treat. There will be four prizes.

FINE MID-WEEK SHOW AT THE GEM THEATRE

"The Great Silence," a Gripping Mystery Feature — Billy Quirk in Vitagraph Comedy

A three part drama of keen interest, compelling power, and exciting situations, entitled "The Great Silence" was presented yesterday at the Gem Theatre with a cast of popular players headed by that favorite of the "movies," Francis X. Bushman. The story held the attention of all from the opening, as it was captivating in theme and action, the unfolding of the gripping plot being capably accomplished. The story was replete with an air of mystery until towards the close when it was cleared to the satisfacton of all. This enjoyable feature will be repeated today.

Billy Quirk was one of the chief laugh-makers in the delightful Vitagraph comedy "Burglarious Billy" which was also shown. He certainly provided laughter in the many perplexing situations in which he found himself. For the week end another chapter in "The Perils of Pauline" serial will be shown, entitled "The Lureof the Counterfeiters."

STRONG BILL FOR REST OF WEEK AT OPERA HOUSE

There will be an entire change in the pictures at the Opera House tonight and for the balance of the week, the programme including a corking Keystone comedy, "The Escort," a comedy in one reel. "The Country Mouse," and the wonderful Gaumont Graphic showing the latest actual scenes from the war zone in France and Belgium and scenes in England where some of the Canadian troops are quartered. The Gaumont Graphic photographers are right on the battle line all the time and they catch the exciting scenes and incidents as they happen.

PATRIOTIC DANCE.

The Knights of Columbus have again loaned their beautiful hall room to the ladies of Lancaster for a patriotic dance to be held on Friday evening. All who attended the New Year's eve ball will be glad to learn that tickets can be obtained from Mrs. Sturdee, Mrs. Anglin, and Mrs. Dunham, West St. John, and J. M. Roche, King street. The object is to provide an entertainment for the soldiers of the construction corps.

PLAN TO TRAIN THE ABORIGINES

Australian Chief Inspector of Aborigines Reports on Scheme For Native Military Force

Melbourne, Australia, May 27—The administrator of the Northern Territory of Australia, His Excellency, Dr. Gilruth, has received a report from the chief inspector of aborigines, J. T. Beckett, containing proposals to train for military purposes aborigines and half castes.

Mr. Beckett proposes that all half castes, including women, should come under legal control of the aborigines department, making exceptions of adults over 21 years of age if they can satisfy the officials that they are properly employed and able to manage their own affairs. Mr. Beckett is of opinion that it is necessary that half-caste women should be protected, for after reaching the age of 16 years of age they are practically unprotected as at present they are to a great extent far removed from the law.

In Mr. Beckett's recommendation he proposed that two half-caste stations should be established, one in the neighborhood of Darwin, the capital of the Territory, the second further south, in the Alice Springs locality. Both these stations would be controlled by the military authorities. Half castes and chosen aboriginal youths would receive training at both these stations for mounted regiments, and they would also be instructed in horse rearing for remount for the Commonwealth military forces.

The Half Castes

Mr. Beckett affirms that in the Northern Territory the best shots and the smartest men for looking after cattle are the half castes, and the labor that would appeal most to them are these duties. Not long ago Mr. Beckett was given an opportunity of demonstrating a machine gun in action before some half castes, and he promptly received a request that measures should be taken to enable these men to be retained for regular military work.

Mr. Beckett does not omit women from his scheme. He asserts that quite half of the girls are as capable as are the men, and he further recommends that they should be trained at the stations in duties for which they are qualified, in Red Cross and camp work. He thinks they might learn to ride, and this being a mobile corps, they would show more efficiency in Red Cross work.

In concluding his recommendations Mr. Beckett says that the stations could be made reserves for the natives, and he feels confident of the possibility of forming a well organized corps of aborigines, from which non-commissioned officers should be drawn from those half castes showing the highest efficiency. The administrator of the Northern Territory said that the question would be given every consideration when he returned to Darwin.

FRIENDS DINE D. J. CORR AND MAKE PRESENTATION

A rollicking time was enjoyed last evening at Bond's restaurant, when about fifty friends of D. J. Corr assembled in his honor, tendering him a sumptuous banquet and presenting to him a set of handsome furnishings for a den in the new home he will occupy following a nuptial event next month. A fine programme of toasts, songs, readings, and music, gave delight, following a delicious repast. Best wishes were extended to Mr. Corr for future happiness and many tributes were paid to his popularity.

The chair was taken by J. A. Barry under whose direction the following programme was successfully carried out Toast, "The King," proposed by the chairman, and honored in music; "Our City," proposed by Dr. D. J. Mullin, responded to by M. W. Coholan; "Our Guest," proposed by W. J. Higgins, St. Stephen; solo, M. T. Morris; toast, "Our Militia," proposed by the chairman, spoken to by Lieut. F. J. Corr, Lieut. Murdoch and Lieut. Coster; reading, S. C. Hurley; toast, "Our Amateur Theatricals," proposed by the chairman, replied to by James Barry and Wm. Pyne; toast, "The Ladies," proposed by Mr. Higgins, and responded to by F. J. Casey and W. M. Ryan; monologue, Mr. Farnum; toast "The Press," proposed by the chairman and replied to by J. B. Dever.

Mr. Corr gave a neat speech of thanks expressing his appreciation of the kindness of his friends in thus remembering him. Those present greeted him with "He's a Jolly Good Fellow," "See Him Smiling," and other refrains, enthusiastically given. The banquet gave delight to all present, and as it was late in beginning about 11 o'clock, it was early this morning before the gathering dispersed. D. Arnold Fox acted as accompanist throughout the evening.

New York City's payroll amounted to $105,629,448 in 1914.

If Catarrh Keeps You Hawking Use "Catarrhozone"—The Quickest Cure

Nothing Known So Sure For Throat Weakness, Bronchial Trouble, &c.

No doctor attempts today to cure a genuine case of catarrh or bronchitis except by the inhalation method. Stomach dosing has been discarded because useless medicine so taken affects only the stomach—never reaches the seat of catarrh.

The advanced physician recognizes that only air can be sent into the lungs and bronchial tubes. Fill this air with healing medicaments and you solve the problem. No combination of antiseptics is so successful as Catarrhozone. It contains the richest pine-balsams and the greatest healers known.

One breath of Catarrhozone instantly circulates over the area that is afflicted with catarrh. Relief is instant—suffering stops at once—germs are destroyed—every taint of disease is removed. Think it over seriously. Here is a remedy that clears the throat, relieves hoarseness, coughing and bad breath. Irritating phlegm is cleared out, inflamed bronchial tubes are healed, throat and voice are strengthened.

Catarrhozone is pleasant and certain. You breathe Catarrhozone—you don't take it. Large $1.00 size is guaranteed; smaller size 50c, and trial size 25c, at all dealers everywhere.
