A LEADING city physician who had a very sick patient, had a notice posted on the door which in effect read as follows: "This man is trying to rally, but if his friends want to kill him they must come to see him often, stamp around in the hall, slam the doors after them, and talk him weary." Since the notice has been posted the sick man is recovering.—Moncton Times.

A TERRIBLE accident occurred at Montagues Gold Mines, Halifax Co., N. S., Thursday, which resulted in the death of four men. They were working in the Kye-System mine. A hole was drilled in the rock, and a blast of powder inserted and fired. The explosion tore away the wall separating the new mine, from an old unused one, filled with water. The water rushed in and drowned the miners before they had an opportunity to escape.

THE Probate Court was occupied last week in making final decrees in the Intestate Estate of Will D. Turnbull, who was one of those killed at Valparaiso, in Dec., 1891, by its citizens in a street row with sailors of the American ship "Baltimore." The Chilian Government had to pay the American Government $75,000 indemnity, of which the Admiralty apportioned $10,000 to the representatives of Turnbull. Mrs Gen. T. McRae of Kildare Capes, in this Island, was sole devisee of the next of kin. The estate was administered by Chas Palmer, Q. C., of this city, who last summer proceeded to Washington and succeeded in obtaining the amount. Mrs McRae, we understand, has acted very liberally with the other members of the family.—Guar.

THE city clerk of Montreal received the following letter the other day. It was dated from Hempstead, Texas:

DEAR SIR,—Did you know Owen Connolly, who died at Montreal some nine or ten years ago. He left a fortune estimated at $100,000, half of which was destined in the will to build a college for the education of poor Irish boys. The bishop, however, refused this sum of money, and we have never heard anything about the matter since. Owen Connolly was my father's brother, and if you can give me any information as to the manner in which his property was disposed of you will greatly oblige.

(Sgd.) MISS MAGGIE CONNOLLY.

No doubt the writer of the above had reference to Owen Connolly who died here.

A Practical Joke.

A DRY GOODS CLERK DRIVES INSANE BY JOKE PLAYED BY FRIENDS.

MUNCIE, Ind., Dec. 29—John Rudy, a well-known young dry goods clerk of Yorktown, is a raving maniac today as the result of a practical joke perpetrated on him on Sunday night by some friends. A party of young men went to Cammack station to spend the evening. Some members of the crowd secured the services of a stranger to imitate a sheriff. The man approached Rudy, placed his hands on the young man's shoulders, and read an imaginary warrant that charged Rudy with stealing a horse. The young man was badly frightened and took to his heels for liberty. He ran four miles to his home. He was exhausted and fell into his father's arms unconscious. Soon afterward he became flighty, and is now a raving maniac. He imagines a gang of Indians are chasing him, and it has required half a dozen men to manage him all day. The participants in the joke will likely be arrested.

Charlottetown Hospital.

During the past year there were admitted to the Charlottetown Hospital 128 patients. Of this number 42 were treated without any charge whatever. Fifty-nine were discharged well, thirty-three relieved, twelve incurable, and nine died. There are still in the hospital fifteen patients.

The surgical operations numbered thirty-five. Ninety-four persons received free out-door relief at the dispensary.

The total amount received by collections during the year was $652.52. Other contributions from charitable persons amounted to $162.67.

The primary object of the hospital is charity to the sick poor, and, secondarily, the providing of special facilities for treatment in times of sickness to those who can afford to pay. But the very limited income of the institution is an insuperable barrier to the extension of free accommodation to all the sick poor of the province; and beyond a certain never failing number free admission can be given only to persons in extreme conditions. The revenue of the hospital required to meet a very large expenditure is derived in part from receipts from paying patients, from a proportionate share of the amount paid by the Dominion Government for the care of sick mariners, from the yearly collection in the city, but principally from the industrial work of the Sisters themselves. No general collection is in favor of the hospital has been taken up since the year 1888. The hospital receives no Government gratuity or civic grant of any kind apart from the remission of $75 a year on the amount of $135 collected for taxes.

The Lady Superior is sincerely grateful to the many kind friends who have assisted her in her efforts to maintain the hospital.—COM.

Sporting Notes.

The first race between McCormick and Wilson Breen was won by the latter by half a lap. The ice was poor. The three miles were made in 10.14. The second race takes place tonight.

A Jacksonville, Fla., despatch says it is rumored that if unable otherwise to prevent the Corbett-Mitchell fight, Governor Mitchell will declare martial law in Duval county, which will make him absolute master of the situation.

Fred C. Breen and R. M. Laidlaw have signed articles for a series of three races for $50 a side each race. The first race, five miles, takes place on the 10th inst. and the one and three mile races on the 12th, one hour being allowed between each race. All three races will be skated at St. John.

The skeleton cutter has been in use for ice racing in Canada for years, but American genius comes out this winter with a sulky sleigh for speeding horses on the ice or snow. It is little less than a sulky on runners, and weighs but 30 pounds, the weight of a bicycle. It is made of steel and hickory. The seat is as high from the ground as in the pneumatic sulky, and the horse is hooked as far back.

The six days' bicycle race at Madison Square Gardens, New York, was won by Schock, who beat Martin's record of 1,466 miles, made in October, 1891, by 134 miles. He also beat his own record of 1,505 miles, which he held the past five years. The finish was as follows: Schock, 1,600 miles, Walter, 1481, Martin, 1,430, Albert, 1,410, VanEmburg, 1,407, Golden, 1,313, Neizel, 1,190, Barton, 1,006, Ashinger, 874. The scoring in the race was done by electricity. Each rider had a wooden pole on which were ten incandescent lamps. As he completed a lap his score lit a lamp, and so on until all ten were lighted, when upon the completion of a mile the lights were all extinguished, only to be relighted in order again.

Matt. Ziegler, one of the oldest settlers of Seattle, Wash., has invented a tricycle that for speed will revolutionize the world. He has been working on it for ten years, and has just got it completed. He took it out recently for the initial trip, and fully 1000 people were out to see the trip. At the first effort the steer gear did not work right, but after a little changing he went off all right and made a mile in less than two minutes. The machine has two large wheels and one small steering wheel. The larger wheels or drivers, as he calls them, are seven feet in diameter. The driving power is got on three motions, the principal one being the rider's weight, and it is impossible to stop the driving gear in the centre. Brakes must be applied to bring it to a standstill. The inventor claims that a person can easily travel 50 or 60 miles an hour on good roads.

Dr Norman J. McDonald, son of John McDonald, Head of Hillsborough, P. E Island, died at his home in Alburquerque, N. M., on the 15th December. During his last illness he was attended by Rev. Father Alohune, and he died a very happy death, a fitting close to the exemplary Christian life which he lived. His long and painful illness was rendered as easy as possible by the devoted attention of his kind and loving wife and the presence of his sister, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Hughes were also present during his last hours. His remains were buried in Santa Barbra cemetery, Alburquerque.—Cor.

Court of Chancery.

THURSDAY, Dec. 28.—Thomas Alley vs. Albert Duchemin and Edmund Duchemin—An application made before the Vice Chancellor on Nov. 21st, 1893, for leave to issue execution against defendants for costs of suit for injunction against defendants in the year 1890, and also for an order of committal for a breach of said injunction made by said defendants shortly afterwards, and for the costs of said order. The Vice Chancellor grants leave to complainant to issue execution for costs of said injunction suit, but refuses the order for committal and costs of said breach of injunction on the ground that this application, after the lapse of 13 years, is too stale.

THE Black Hawk coal mines at Glace Bay, C. B., which have been idle for nine years, are to be sold under a mortgage for $77,000 to secure the bond holders. The property is owned chiefly in New York, and the Bank of Nova Scotia is one of the principal bond holders. The Dominion Coal Co. is said to be after the property.

John Hopkins, the new Mayor of Chicago, is a Catholic, and the first Catholic in the history of the city to occupy that honorable position. It is a decided pleasure to see one of the greatest cities of the United States—the city to which the eyes of the whole world have been turned during the year now just closing—the City of Wonders, as Cardinal Gibbons aptly called it—giving this answer to the invitation of A. P. A. fanatics to exclude Catholics from all offices on account of their faith. We know nothing of Mayor Hopkins, but trust that, as he is a Catholic, he is a practical one—such a Catholic as Sir Stuart Knill, the late Lord Mayor of London. The Catholic who is true to his religion cannot be false to any public office he may hold.

The Empress Eugenie has settled down into the solitude which best enables her to endure her memorable and cumulative sorrows, says the writer in the London Western Mail. Her tall, sad figure goes in and out among us with only the recognition of silent sympathy. The Empress likes to have communication with as few people as possible. For instance, when she shops (she does her own shopping) she she likes to be waited on by the same salesman always. I was witness of an incident of this sort the other day. The Empress went into a well-known West End shop and asked for Mr. ——, (naming one of the head men) She was told he was out, whereupon she remarked that she would call again, and went away. I was told that she would certainly come again; that Mr. ——always waited on her; and that she would not be served by any one else.

Inquest in the Murchison Case.

An inquest on the body of the late Mrs. Dr. John Murchison, whose death under peculiarly sad and painful circumstances, occurred New Year's Day, was held Tuesday night by Dr. Conroy, Coroner. Dr. Conroy was accompanied by Dr. Taylor, who performed the autopsy on the body. The inquest, which took place at Dr. Murchison's home, Bonshaw, was begun about 8 o'clock and was not finished until after midnight. Then the jury retired and after upwards of an hour's deliberation returned the following verdict: "That the deceased Isabella Murchison, came to her death, from the effects of chronic illness, and that her death, in the opinion of this jury, was very materially hastened on account of the assault and disturbance caused on the night of Dec. 8th, 1893."

The jury was composed as follows: Samuel Beaton, Foreman; John Currie, Alex. McNevin, Don. McPhee, Henry D. White, Peter McDonald, John Gaudet.

But her ways are not always old ways. In fact she has discarded many unsatisfactory old ways. For instance, to-day she is using

2 YEARS OF SUFFERING.

LIFE A TORTURE.

Kendrick Outhouse, of Tiverton, N. S., says: For several years I suffered from severe attacks of biliousness, which came on periodically, about every ten days. I had awful headaches and the smell of anything cooking turned me sick. I became weak and nervous, and had no ambition or strength to work. I passed many sleepless nights, and for days could not retain food on my stomach. I suffered intensely with piles and hives, and my life was a constant torture to me. I became so weak that my friends gave up all hopes of my recovery. My brother brought me a bottle of

I had not taken them long before I commenced to improve and in a short time I was completely cured. I have not suffered from piles or biliousness since, now 2 years, and am as strong and hearty as any man could wish to be. I firmly believe that
