Gower St. Silver Jubilee Services.

MORNING.

Yesterday was a memorable one at Gower Street Methodist Church. Men talk to-day of its opening for public worship, and speak with pleasure and pride of Bishop Carman and Dr. Potts. In coming years a third great event in connection with the building and third name will share the grateful recollections, the Silver Jubilee, and the Rev. Carl Garland. Dr. Carman and Dr. Potts were giants in North American Methodism. Mr. Garland, a St. John's boy, who, in young manhood's days had worshipped in Old Gower St., and New, has proved himself their peer.

The decorations combined beauty with good taste. There was nothing garish, no overcrowding. The delicate festooning was more like tracery than evergreen. Across the choir gallery in green on a background of white, were the dates 1896-1921, and across the organ similarly, the words, "Praise Ye the Lord." So exquisitely was the work done that at first it suggested the brush of the painter, but the green was from the forest, each sprig placed with an artists's skill. There were many willing hands that helped in beautifying the Sanctuary, mostly if not all, members of the congregation, amongst them the Pastor and his gifted wife, and Mr. Reginald Hearder.

The morning service opened in the usual form, those present in the rostrum being the Rev. E. W. Forbes, M.A., B.D., pastor of the Church, the venerable and Rev. William Swann, the Rev. T. B. Darby, M.A., and the Rev. Carl N. Garland, of Grace Methodist Episcopal Church of Bangor, Maine, U.S.A., Miss Elsie Tait, Mus. Bac, presided at the organ. The anthem, "I will magnify the Lord." (Goss) followed prayer by Rev. Mr. Darby. Miss Marjorie Hutchings taking the solo part. The sermon was based on the request of the mother of Zebedee's children, "Grant that these my two sons may sit, the one on thy right hand, and the other on the left, in thy Kingdom." (St. Matthew, 20 v. 21). It was a sermon that must have appealed to all The central thought, perhaps, was that the hour of accomplishment was not necessarily the crowning moment. Gethsemane led to Calvary. Man's greater achievements whether attained in joy or sorrow, in triumph or suffering, resulted from the gethsemanes of life. A few appropriate words of a personal character preliced the address, which was listened to throughout with deepest interest. A solo, "The Lord is My Shepherd" by Miss Marjorie Mutchings followed and after a hymn the morning service closed with the Benediction by the Rev. Wm. Swann.

AFTERNOON.

A large gathering of Sunday School scholars and of the congregation attended in the afternoon, when a special service arranger by Superintendent W. H. Peters and his co-workers, was presided over by Mr. G. W. Gushue. The main feature was, "twenty-five events in the story of the Church year by year" told by twenty-five scholars. Mr. P. H. Hudson, Secretary-Treasurer, gave a brief sketch of the past quarter century in the Gower Street Sunday School. The Rev. Carl Garland delivered an address.

EVENING.

In the evening the spacious church was filled to its utmost seating capacity. The pastor, Rev. E. W. Forbes, B.D., conducted the service, and with him in the pulpit were the preacher of the evening, the Rev. C. Garland, and the Rev. Wm. Swann, who delivered the opening prayer. Mr. Garland's sermon was based on the text, "Mark ye Well Her Bulwarks," Psalm 48-13, the text used at the Dedicatory service twenty-five years ago. Expressing his conviction that the world was on the eve of a great religious revival and the Church moving forward to greater triumphs, the preacher first dealt with the forces arrayed against her, and then dwelt upon her tremendous sustaining bulwarks. In dealing with the former he quoted a recent utterance of the Supreme Pontiff of the Roman Catholic Church which attributed the condition of the world to five great ends—a widespread sense of lawlessness, hatred, the desire after pleasure, materialism and sensualism and enlarging upon them he took occasion to condemn in unqualified terms the violation of the Prohibition law. But while all these evils were rampant, the Church would carry on, inspired by her great mission and sustained by the bulwarks of Christian manhood, youth and consecrated wealth. Mr. Garland preached for just an hour and delivered a forceful and inspiring message. The special musical items of the service were an anthem "Come let us return unto the Lord," (Jackson), by the choir, Miss Russel taking the solo part and a solo by Mr. Lloyd Woods, "O God have Mercy," (Mendelssohn).

TO-NIGHT.

In the Methodist College Hall to-night the Rev. Carl Garland will lecture under the distinguished patronage of His Excellency the Governor of Newfoundland. His subject will be—"From Flanders Field to the Skyline of the World." As he speaks from personal participation in the War, and a wide experience of men and affairs, the lecture is being looked forward to with pleasurable anticipation.—Daily News.

"Digby" Defeated.

G.W.V.A. WIN EASILY.

Despite the strong gale which swept the field, the football game which was played on Saturday afternoon between the "Digby" and the G.W.V.A. was a fair exhibition. The ship's team seemed greatly handicapped by lack of practice and were not a match for our boys, who beat them by four goals to one. Playing against the wind in the first half the G.W.V.A. twice found the net, Callahan and J. Adams doing the needful. The only goal scored by the "Digby" was obtained by Saulsbury. In the second half the G.W.V.A. had things all their own way, but the "Digby" put up a good defence and only two goals weere scored during the half through Madigan and Callahan. The referee was second engineer Lydon.
