The current year promises to be crowded with stirring events.

GENERAL NOTES AND NEWS

Prime Minister Crispi, of Italy, has resigned.

Baird's French Ointment will cure the Itch in a few days, cures Salt Rheum, Chapped Hands, Scald Head, Obstinate Sores and Wounds.—Sold by druggists.

The Times makes an apology to Parnell and nt the Pigott forgeries.

Children troubled with Worms will find sure relief by using that pleasant and efficient remedy McLean's Vegetable Worm Syrup. Sold by all dealers. Price 25 cents.

A Pittsburg man has named his fast horse Everything because everything goes.

Nothing Like it.

"I was troubled with liver complaint for a good many years, but was cured by one bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters. I have never found any medicine to help me like B. B. B. In fact one bottle made a complete cure." W. J. West, Parkhill, Ont.

Patrick Egan has made public a number of letters on which Pigott founded his forgeries.

Common Croup

Is often fatal when not remedied in time, Leslie B. Nicholson, 19 Wellesley Ave., Toronto, says: "As a quick cure for croup, colds, sore throat, chilblains, etc., I can recommend Hagyard,s Yellow Oil." It is a sure cure. Directions accompany each bottle.

The Comte de Paris has instructed his sympathisers in the Deputies to act with the Boulangists.

Partly gave up.

"In the year 1885 I coughed for six months, and having unsuccessfully tried many remedies, I partly gave up, thinking I had consumption. At last I tried Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam, less than one bottle of which cured me, leaving me as well asever I was." Henry W. Carns, Wabash, Ont.

A Chicago woman has just married a man named Nail. There's one woman, then, who can hit a Nail on the head everytime.

Remember that Ayer's Cherry Pectoral has no equal as a specific for colds, coughs, and all affections of the throat and lungs. For nearly half a century it has been in greater demand than any other remedy for pulmonary complaints. All druggists have it for sale.

Four negatives were recently taken of a cannon ball that occupied only one-fortieth of a second in passing a given space.

Avoid Appearances.—A worthy gentleman, having an unusual red nose, was long suspected of being a tippler on the sly, by those not well acquainted with his strictly temperate habits. His unfortunate disfigurement was readily cured by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

There is a man in Los Angelos whose business it is to travel east with the corpses of people who go to Southern California to find health and who die instead.

Health Failing Fast.

I was swollen from head to foot from dropsy of six months' standing, and my health was failing fast, but after taking one bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters, I am quite well, and thinking there is no medicine equal to B.B.B., and to it I remain a true freind." Joseph Heric, Linwood, Ont.

The rumor is revived that Sir John Macdonald will retire and that Sir Charles Tupper will become leader of the Government.

High Valuation.

"If there was only one bottle of Hagyard's Yellow Oil in Manitoba, I would give one hundred dollars for it," writes Philip H. Brant, of Monteith, Manitoba, after having used it for a severe wound and for frozen fingers, with, as he says, "astonishing good results."

Gladstone and Chamberlain were observed in animated conversation in the House of Commons the other evening.

A Dreadful Doom.

To be unable to satisfy hunger without being distressed by heartburn, indigestion, sick stomach, dizziness or faintness, seems a dreadful doom. All who suffer thus will find prompt relief and permanent cure in Burdock Blood Bitters. B. B. B. positively cures dyspepsia in any form.

John W. Watson, the principal author of 'Beautiful Snow,' is a brakeman on the New York Elevated Railroad at a salary of $9 a week. Thus the whirligig of time brings in its revenges.

Consumption Can be Cured

By proper, healthful exercise, and the judicious use of Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil and Hypophosphites, which contains the healing and strength-giving virtues of these two valuable specifics in their fullest form. Dr. D. D. McDonald, Petitcodiac, N. B., says: "I have been prescribing Scott's Emulsion with good results. It is especially useful in persons with consumptive tendencies." Put up in 50c. and $1.

Dr. Hole, the English Dean of Rochester, protests against the addition of three commandments to the Decalogue, 'Thou shalt not play cards,' Thou shalt not drink a glass of wine,' and 'Thou shalt not dance.' The Dean also advocates the opening of museums and galleries Sunday.

Should have Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It saves thousands of lives annually, and is peculiarly efficacious in Croup, Whooping Cough, and Sore Throat.

"After an extensive practice of nearly one-third of a century, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is my cure for recent colds and coughs. I prescribe it, and believe it to be the very best expectorant now offered to the people."—Dr. John C. Levis, Druggist, West Bridgewater, Pa.

"Some years ago Ayer's Cherry Pectoral cured me of asthma after the best medical skill had failed to give me relief. A few weeks since, being again a little troubled with the disease, I was promptly the same remedy. I gladly offer this testimony for the benefit of all similarly afflicted.'—F. H. Hassler, Editor Argus, Table Rock, Nebr.

"For children afflicted with colds, coughs, sore throat, or croup, I do not know of any remedy which will give more speedy relief than Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I have found it, also, invaluable in cases of whooping cough."—Ann Lovejoy, 1251 Washington street, Boston, Mass.
