Prizes in the Tournament.

The trophies and prizes of the Canadian Lawn Tennis Association, whose championship tournament is now in progress at Niagara-on-the-Lake, will be on exhibition today in Messrs. Ryrie Bros.' window, Yonge-street. Notable among the prizes is a very handsome cup presented by Mr. R. W. P. Matthews, a Canadian champion of a few years ago. The Canadian championship trophy is now inscribed with the name of nine winners, the last of whom is Mr. Leo Ware of Harvard, who will defend the cup on Saturday against the winner of the all-comers. Another prominent trophy is the ladies' championship cup, which has been won for two years in succession by Miss Juliette Atkinson of Brooklyn, and now becomes her property if she succeeds in winning it this week.

Tennis Brilliant in the Extreme.

Niagara, Ont., July 15.—The play to-day was brilliant in the extreme. Niagara Golf Club.

Niagara-on-the-Lake, July 15.—The adjourned annual meeting of the Niagara Golf Club was held last night at the residence of the president, Mr. George K. Birge. The Niagara Club, which is one of the oldest in Canada, is endeavoring to maintain the sport on their picturesque links, and this year has a much larger membership than usual. It is probable that the club will give its usual tournament during the first week in September. In addition to the 18-hole course on the Fort George common, the club has also laid out a new nine-hole ladies' course on the Fort Mississauga common, where the first links were laid some 17 years ago. The following officers were elected: President, George Birge; captain, Capt. R. G. Dickson; secretary, Capt. J. Weir Anderson; committee, Charles Hunter, E. Wyly Grier, J. Burns, Herbert Bissell, Stewart Houston.

First Game at Ottawa.

Ottawa, July 15.—The Ottawas played their first match at home to-day, and were beaten in a walk by Syracuse by 8 to 1. There was little life in the game. About 2500 people were present, and the public seemed delighted with the sport, which was new to many of them. O'Brien was put out of the game in the third innings, and Becker replaced him. Score:
