POETRY, &c.

BE A COMFORT TO YOUR MOTHER.

AIR—"O'er the muir amang the heather."

Come here, my laddie, come awa'!
And try your first new breekies on ye;
Weel, weel I like to see you braw,
My ain wee sonsy smiling Johnnie!
Strip aff, strip aff! your bairnish claes,
And be a laddie like your brother,
And gin your blest wi' health and days,
Ye'll be a pleasure to your mither.

Now rin and look ye in the glass!
And see how braw you're now and bonnie;
Wha e'er wad think a change o' claes
Could mak' sic change on my wee Johnnie?
You're just your daddy's picture now!
As like as ae bean's like anither!
And gin ye do like him, I trow,
Ye'll be an honour to your mither.

But upward as ye grow apace,
By truth and right keep ever steady;
And gin life's storms ye whiles maun face,
Aye meet them firmly like your daddy.
If steep and rugged be your way,
Ne'er look behind nor stand and swither!
But set a stout heart to the brae,
And be a comfort to your mither.

ALEXR. RODGER.

HIGHLY IMPORTANT.—The Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun, thus happily hits off the excitement which was occasioned by the arrival of the news by the late British steamer, and the consternation which it scattered among a certain class about the Capitol. Writing to the Editors on the 24th instant, he says:

"When your extra arrived through the telegraph, there was a tremendous commotion. The cry arose far and wide. "The steamer's arrived!" The men shouted, the women looked bewildered, the children wondered what was the matter, the dogs barked, the roosters crowed, and last, but not least, an incorrigible dandy was seen to run off and pay his tailor's bill.

"Is there going to be war?" asked an apple woman.

"Dreadful war," said a mischievous fellow.

"O, then what shall I do, for I shall have to sell apples to the British, and folks say they are bad pay."

"The steamer's arrived," shouted a negro into a barber's shop. "Has it?" said the barber as in his excitement he thrust the lather brush into the mouth of a shaver.

"The news is come," shrieked a cook as she fell down into the kitchen with a large turkey, and a dish of oysters.

"The Cambria has arrived," said a corporal of a volunteer company to his wife, as he took down the inkstand to write his resignation.

"There is to be war," said a young blade to his sweetheart, "and if you wont have me I'll enlist." The dear creature gave him a "long long kiss of youth and love," sweeter than the very sweetest loaf sugar, and the Rev. Mr. —— was straightway called in to tie the knot.

"The steamer's arrived," said a married gentleman to a fair young creature, as he looked into her face and caught a glimpse of heaven in the depths of her deep blue eyes. "So it seems," said his wife, who that moment came unexpectedly out of a dry goods store, and caught Mr. Caudle and Miss Prettyman together.

American Ideas of the Golden Age.—Preacher's Idea of the Golden Age:—When all the world is converted, and I get two thousand dollars a-year. Publisher's Idea:—When authors can be cheated with impunity, and I can pirate books and steal copyrights without a word of murmur from anybody. Author's Idea:—When magazines have at least one page devoted to common sense, and when I shall get a fair chance by means of an international copyright. Horse's Idea:—When the devil gets all the omnibuses, and I can ride in a carriage drawn by the cabmen who used to drive me. Mr. Caudle's Idea:—When women learn patience and silence, and wives become dumb waiters to their husbands. Mrs. Caudle's Idea:—When husbands furnish all the money their wives want, without asking impertinent questions; and eat what's set before them without any grumbling.

"A GREAT LIE," says the Poet Crabbe, "is like a great fish on dry land: it may fret and fling, and make a frightful bother, but it cannot hurt you. You have only to keep still, and it will die of itself."

The 17th Part of a Mile.—When Professor Lyell was in America, and expressing his admiration of a large steam ship on board of which he was travelling, the Captain told him that seventeen of such vessels would make a mile. Mr. Lyell was startled, and at first incredulous, but he found it to be true.

Jack's Conclusion.—"Did you take the note, and did you see Mr. Thomson, Jack?" "Ees, Sir." "And how was he?" "Why, he looked pretty well, but he's very blind." "Blind! what do you mean?" "Why, while I wur in the room, he axed me where my hat wur, and it wur on my head all the while!"

Timidity a great Obstacle to Success.—The first appearance of Mrs. Siddons in London was a failure, arising, in a great measure, from her timidity, the great obstacle, as she herself afterwards declared, to the early development of her powers.

Why is a man who has the influenza like a House of Representatives?—Because first the ayes have it, and then the noes.

Parisian Newspapers.—In Paris there are 396 newspapers with 700,000 subscribers, and in the departments of France, 898, with about 350,000 subscribers.

A NATURAL REMEDY

Suited to our Constitutions, and competent to the cure of every curable disease, will be found in

WRIGHT'S INDIAN VEGETABLE PILLS

OF THE

NORTH AMERICAN COLLEGE OF HEALTH.

THESE extraordinary Pills are composed of plants which grow spontaneously on our own soil; and are therefore better adapted to our constitutions, than medicines concocted from foreign drugs however well they may be compounded; and as the INDIAN VEGETABLE PILLS are founded upon the principle that the human body is in truth,

SUBJECT TO BUT ONE DISEASE,

viz: corrupt humors, and that the said medicine cures this disease on

NATURAL PRINCIPLES,

by cleansing and purifying the body; it will be manifest, that if the constitution be not entirely exhausted—a perseverance in their use, according to directions, is absolutely certain to drive disease of every name from the body.

When we wish to restore a swamp or morass to fertility, we drain it of the superabundant waters; in like manner, if we wish to restore the body to health, we must cleanse it of impurity.

The Indian Vegetable Pills will be found one of the best, if not the very best, medicines in the world for carrying out the

GRAND PURIFYING PRINCIPLE,

because they expel from the body all morbid and corrupt humors, the cause of disease, in an easy and NATURAL MANNER, and while they every day

GIVE EASE AND PLEASURE,

disease of every name is radidly driven from the body.

CAUTION.

The citizens of New England are respectfully informed that in consequence of the great popularity which the above named Indian Vegetable Pills have earned by their astonishing goodness, a gang of counterfeiters are now industriously engaged in palming on the unsuspecting, a valueless and perhaps dangerous medicine, under the name of Indian Vegetable Pills.

This is to inform the public that all genuine medicine has on the boxes

WRIGHT'S INDIAN VEGETABLE PILLS

(Indian Purgative.)

OF THE NORTH AMERICAN COLLEGE OF HEALTH

And also round the border of the label, will be found in small type, "Entered according to Act of Congress in the year 1840, by WM. WRIGHT, in the Clerk's office, of the District Court, of the Eastern district of Pennsylvania."

It will further be observed that the printed directions for using the medicines, which accompany each box, are also entered according to Act of Congress and the same form will be found at the bottom of the first page.

The public will also remember, that all who sell the genuine Indian Vegetable Pills are provided with a certificate of Agency, signed by

WILLIAM WRIGHT, VICE PRESIDENT

and that pedlars are never in any case allowed to sell the genuine Medicine. All travelling agents will be provided with a certificate of agency as above described; and those who cannot show one will be known as base impostors.

☞ Persons in this city and vicinity will also be on their guard against purchasing medicine purporting to be the Indian Vegetable or Purgative Pills, of Apothecaries or Druggists, as they are not allowed to sell my medicine, and any composition which they may offer as such must of necessity be COUNTERFEIT and injurious; therefore never purchase of them.
