RUGBY UNION FOOTBALL.

Ontario Agricultural College versus Trinity College.

The annual friendly football match between the Ontario agricultural college and Trinity college, Toronto, came off on Saturday afternoon on the ground of the latter. Play commenced at 3 o'clock amidst very unfavorable weather, the snow which fell in the morning making the ground in poor condition for play. Nevertheless, a hard and exciting game was contested. During the early part of the first half the Trinity captain, by some exceedingly pretty play, secured a try which Lewin failed to improve upon. It was at this point that the O. A. C. men, who were not quite up to the regulations of the new method of scrimmaging, played a fine forward game, proving too heavy for their opponents all through the match, thus forcing them to defend their goal, which was hard pressed two or three times. This defence was kept up in grand style by the Trinity men, yet continued pressure proved too much for the home team, who were obliged to rouge it in self-defence.

During the second half R. E. Brown picked up the ball from outside the scrimmage; instantly dropping it before being collared it was rushed through and kicked over Trinity's goal line by Poe. The half-back for Trinity endeavored to save his team by falling on the ball, but being quickly followed up by Poe was knocked down and the ball fell from behind him, and was at once touched down by Patterson amidst great cheering. An argument ensued, Trinity raising an objection as to R. E. Brown being off side when he picked up the ball. The umpires being referred to, declined to express an opinion, neither seeing the point in question; so the decision was left to the referee, who gave it against the Agricultural college. How or why R. Brown was off side none could understand. Virtually the match would have been in favor of the Guelph college, but owing to the disputed try, the game was given to Trinity by 4 points to 1.

The match proved an exciting one all through, and the O. A. C. team fully appreciated the kind hospitality shown to them by the Trinity men. R. Walker, one of the Guelph college forwards, was sadly missed. The teams were:

Agricultural college—Back, A. Parker; half-backs, H. Paget, Donaldson, S. Calvert; quarter-backs, J. W. Patterson (captain), W. J. Gilbert; forwards, R. E. Brown, R. M. Maclean, H. March, E. Hinge, P. Poe, Morgan, F. Macdonald, Jeffrey, R. Kennedy.

Trinity college—Auld, Anderson, J. St Brougall, H. Brougall, Beck, Cayley (captain), Davis, W. Jones, C. M. Jones, Lewin, Mackenzie Mattheson, Smith, B. Beaumont and G. Beaumont.

The Varsity-Toronto football match for the Toronto challenge cup, which was to have taken place this afternoon, has been indefinitely postponed. There will, however, be a practice match of the Torontos with Trinity college on Trinity's grounds to-morrow (Wednesday) afternoon at 4 p.m. sharp. The following players are expected to be on hand from the Toronto club: Morris, Harvey, Bethune, Sayers, McDonell, Torrance, Rose, Harrison, Hime, Smith, Craig, Prior, Boyd, J. L. Wyatt, Richardson, Auld, O'Brien, Barker, Kane, VanKoughnet and Featherstonhaugh. It is hoped that all players will be on hand at the appointed time.

The Toronto-Britannia annual match which was to have been played here this year will unfortunately not take place, as the Britannias will not be able to get away again, owing to half of their team being up in Toronto on Thanksgiving day.

The Mange.

Editor World: Would you kindly inform me, through the columns of your paper, of a cure for the mange? N. S. E.

Mange—1 oz. blk. sulphurate quick silver; 1 oz. sulphate of potash, 3 dram. nitre of potash. Mix and divide into 20 powders. Give one every night and morning. Divide into 40 for small dogs.

Ointment—Powdered charcoal 2 oz., potash 1 dram, powdered sulphur 4 oz., lard 6 oz., turpentine ½ oz. Don't use ointment until you have given powder 1 week, then rub in well and wash the following day with soap and water.

Red Mange—White hellebore 2 oz., beer 1 qt. Rub in well. Be careful of the eyes. Keep dog in dark warm place for four hours.

General Notes.

The hounds will meet to-day at Davisville, Yonge street, at 3 p.m sharp.

During the past season the racing stables of Pierre Lorillard, Edward Corrigan, and the Dwyer brothers won $264,791 in stakes and purses. Lorillard heads the list with $94,537.

Among all the famous stallions brought to this country from time to time it is doubtful if any, from pedigree and performance, have been more entitled to notice than the imported bay horse Midlothian, now standing at Dr. Smith's stable on Temperance street. He was bought the other day for a reasonable figure at the disposal of a part of the Friedenheim stock in New York. Midlothian is a dark bay by Rataplan or Strathconan out of Lufra, dam of Lowlander, one of the staunchest horses of his time, and Austerlitz, winner of the Liverpool Grand National in 1877. Lufra was by Windhound, the sire of Thomanby, winner of the Derby in 1860. Midlothian as a 2-year-old won the valuable Brocklesby stakes at Lincoln, and as a four-year-old accomplished what no other horse has done, namely, secured at Goodwood—in 1878—from large fields of horses, the Stewards cup, carrying 109 lbs., and the Chesterfield cup, carrying 108 lbs., running both races within two days of each other. He was bred by Lord Scarboro', was sold by him to Sir John Astley, and by him to the Duke of Hamilton, in whose colors he won the races mentioned. From the duke he was purchased by an agent of Mr Easton and brought to America in 1881. He was then sold to Commodore Kittson, at whose stud he has been ever since, that is, until Charley Boyle bought him the other day, to be transferred to Canada.

The Monday Pop.

The third concert of the Monday "Pops" was given in the pavilion last night. The hall was filled with the usual fashionable audience with which these concerts are patronized. The program was entirely in the hands of the string quartet and Miss Emma Thursby, soprano soloist, and they succeeded admirably throughout in sustaining the unflagging interest of the large audience. The quartet club played in excellent form, the ensemble and general balance showing an improvement over previous performances. The first number was a quartet in D minor, Mozart, and the second part opened with an Andante-Tschaikowsky and Scherzo-Cherubini. These were followed by a trio in D minor, Reissiger, for piano, violin and 'cello, by Messrs. Carl Martens, Jacobsen and Corell. Mr. Jacobsen, whose playing has been so frequently referred to, played a violin solo concerto in E, Mendelssohn. The finale movement was given with great dash and fire, and led to an unanimous encore. Miss Thursby, who is not unknown in Toronto, won a decided triumph. Her voice, which is of a light timbre and high range, is particularly sweet and pure, and her selections were fitly chosen with a view to the display of her executive powers. In the Mazurka by Chopin and the Bird Song, Taubert, she created quite a furore. Her artistic trilling and treatment of the difficult floral passages showed wonderful taste and culture. The concert was a decided success.

About A New Drill Shed.

Col. Soudan Denison, Col. Grasett, and Col. Gray, representing the officers of the Toronto militia, urged the council last night to assist in the erection of a new drill shed. The present building was altogether inadequate for drill purposes, and lacked other desirable accommodation. A larger shed was wanted in a central locality. The scheme would involve an expenditure of between $75,000 and $80,000. The government would do nothing unless the city guaranteed about half the amount. The deputation proposed that the council should submit a by-law for the amount required to the ratepayers, in whose hands they were satisfied to leave their case. The matter was referred to the executive committee.

Award Against the City.

The award of the arbitrators re the several matters in difference between the city and County of York, arising out of the annexation of Yorkville, Brockton and Riverside, was submitted to the council last night by the city solicitor as follows: Payable on account of administration of justice to December 31, 1884, $1784.91; for other matters referred to the arbitrators, $13,943 97; half of arbitration expenses, 467.50; total, $16,196.38. Mr. McWilliams did not consider there was any ground for moving against the award, and asked that it be paid, adding that debentures could be issued for the amount.

BOARD OF TRADE GRATUITY FUND

A Mutual Assessment Plan Adopted—The Entrance Fee to be Raised.

A special meeting of the Board of Trade was held yesterday morning, President Darling in the chair. The attendance was small. The following new members were elected: Jas. Morrison, F. Wootten, T. Woodbridge, John Morrow, R. Watson, Fred. A. Clary, John Leckie, Robert A. Barton, Thomas West, Robert McClain, Robert Cuthbert, G. V. Martin, J. K. Peer, J. W. De C. O'Grady, W. R. Johnston, H. B. Hunt, James E. Day, W. A. Law, and A. Crawford, Toronto; M. M. Elliott, Brampton; Jos. Williams, Glen Williams; J. H. Dracas, Streetsville; W. T. Lockhart, Newcastle; James Slater, London.

In the evening the members were present in large numbers. The subject of discussion was the report of the council made in compliance with a resolution passed some time ago to the effect that some scheme be drawn up that would make it an object for all present members to retain their membership. The council reported through the president that they had considered the subject of gratuities upon a mutual assessment plan, adopted, especially by the New York Produce exchange and other similar organizations in the United States, upon the recommendation of the most reliable actuaries in that country. Briefly stated, it is proposed that each member shall contribute, at the outset, $5 gratuity fund; and that, upon the death of any member, there shall be levied an assessment of $4 against each surviving member, and the number of such assessments shall not exceed ten in any one year; out of such assessments there shall be paid to the legal representatives of each deceased member, a gratuity of $1000, and also the amount which the deceased member may have paid by way of assessment, so that the subscribing member will always be sure of a return to his heirs of the amount paid in. The balance of each assessment which, in the event of 500 members contributing, would be $2000, would be added to the gratuity fund, the management and distribution of which will be vested in trustees, elected by the members, and when the same reaches a certain sum the interest thereon will be applied to the reduction of assessments. It is calculated upon the most reliable statistics obtainable, that the probable death rate would not exceed one per cent. or thereabouts, and at this rate there would be a rapid accumulation of the gratuity fund. The report went on to say that for the purpose of giving effect to this scheme it was proposed that an entrance fee of $200 be charged to all persons joining the board after January 1, 1886, or when the membership shall reach six hundred.

As this last clause was to effect a notice of motion made last June by Mr. Chapman, that gentleman desired that it be submitted separately and not as part of the report. He contended that the two questions should not necessarily be united. He was supported by several other members, but the president ruled that, as parts of the same report, both subjects should be discussed together.

The opponents of the gratuity scheme were few. Hugh Blain said that he had investigated co-operative assurance, such as he claimed this scheme to be, and had no hesitation in pronouncing it the greatest fraud of the nineteenth century. He was not at all sure that a member paying $200 to join the board would be adequately recompensed by the advantages the board afforded. He thought that a system of insurance that would embrace an old man and his grandson indiscriminately, was radically wrong.

The supporters on the scheme claimed that it would be a strong bond of union between the members of the board, and would be a potent influence in persuading them to retain their membership.

After a lengthy discussion, on motion of W. D. Matthews, it was resolved that the report of the council on the scheme as outlined generally be adopted, and that the council make application to the dominion parliament at its next session for legislation necessary to carry it into effect. After strong opposition from some members to fixing the entrance fee at $200, it was resolved that after Jan. 1, 1886, the fee of $100 be charged.

Yesterday's Police Court.

James Daley, John Menogal and William Pollard, convicted of playing "shinney" on Dorset street, got 24 hours in the cell. John Holmes, for stealing an overcoat from Alex. Keith, got two years in the penitentiary; he received the same sentence for stealing another coat from Moses Paul, the two sentences to run concurrently. Thos. Mishaw obstructed Sergeant Duncan when entering a Victoria street whisky dive and got $10 and costs or 30 days for his pains. Donald Doherty was committed as a lunatic. Joseph Varcore, stealing stamps from W. H. Knowlton, 30 days in jail. Thos. Downes pleaded guilty to being an inmate of a disorderly house on University street and was fined $20 and costs or 60 days. William Martin, William Bacon, Thomas Davis, J. J. Ryan, C. Turner, David Clarke, John Jennings, William Budge, Samuel Adams, William Wright and John Fogarty were each fined $20 and costs on one charge of selling liquor illegally at the exhibition, the other two charges being withdrawn.

City Council Notes.

A largely signed petition was presented for the construction of a sidewalk over the Kingston road bridge.

A number of residents in the vicinity urged the council to proceed at once with the straightening of the Don in order to give work to the unemployed during the winter.

Taxes to the amount of $1,121,692 have been paid in this year, there being a balance of $183,020 outstanding.

Twenty-two patients were admitted to the general hospital at the city's expense during the past fortnight; twenty-four applications were refused.

Joseph Clegg asked for the appointment as housekeeper of the city hall.

Ministerial Association.

The regular fortnightly meeting of the Toronto Ministerial association was held yesterday morning at Shaftesbury hall, Rev. Dr. Rose presiding. The following gentlemen were elected members of the association: Rev. T. R Reid, Gerrard street Methodist church; Rev. Ira Smith, Bathurst street Baptist church; Rev. W. Haryett, Louisa street Baptist church. The discussion on the report of the committee appointed to consider a communication received from the head masters of public schools respecting the book of Scripture readings recently issued by the Education department, was deferred.

Claims Against the Corporation.

Coatsworth & Hodgins wrote that their client, Mr. Bowrey, would accept $100 in satisfaction of his claim. Ritchie & Gilray, on behalf of W. Watson, 638 Queen street west, asked $300 as compensation for damages to his premises by reason of the bursting of a water main. Bigelow & Morson asked compensation for the widow and five children of Wm. Garton, who was killed by falling into the Garrison creek two months ago, the railing against which he was leaning having given way owing to faulty construction.

Defective Gas and Electric Lamps.

Major Draper last night reported to the council: The gas lamp at College street and Spadina avenue was out all Sunday night. The electric lamp at John and King streets was out from 2 a.m. yesterday morning. All the electric lamps along Queen street west were out November 12 from 1.15 a.m. to 2.15 a.m. The electric lights in St. Paul's ward have been giving very poor light recently. These complaints will be sent to the fire and gas committee.

Grand Opera House.

Miss Rosina Vokes and her London comedy company opened to a good house last night. The bill consisted of In Honor Bound, My Milliner's Bill and The Tinted Venus. Miss Vokes is too well known to require much laudation, and last night in the excellent bill offered she displayed that versatility and the proper conception of whatever role she played, which has rendered her name famous. Her support was all that could be desired. Courtenay Thorpe as Sir George Carlyon, and W. G. Elliott as Philip Graham, in In Honor Bound, showed themselves to be finished artists, as did Miss Lizzie Chester as Lady Carlyon, and Miss A. Miller as Rose Dalrymple. Nothing in the line of light comedy could be more pleasing than the acting of Brandon Thomas and Miss Vokes in My Milliner's Bill, and The Tinted Venus, with Weldon Grossmith as Tweedle and Miss Vokes as the Venus suited the audience like a charm. In the last named play Miss Vokes proved herself a graceful danseuse and posturante, and the make up of all the company was perfect. The whole entertainment was fresh, charming and enjoyable; and there is no doubt, without disparaging some other good people, that Rosina Vokes and her company are so far the engagement of the season. Same bill to-night.

True Sayings.

—General Middleton says there is not a finer and truer lot of soldiers in the world than the volunteers of this province. They are made of the right kind of stuff. He has also said there is no cigars in the world equal to the brands made by W. E. Dobson, 159 King street east, Toronto, known by the names of Our Brave Boys and General Middleton. 246

Big Railway Suits.

The Canadian Pacific railway company has taken actions against Mr. Conmee and Mr. McLennan, contractors for part of the line, to get back $600,000 which it is alleged was paid by the company in fraudulent certificates given as estimates of the work done by the company's engineers. Plaintiff yesterday made an application to Master Dalton for trial without a jury on the ground that juries regarded corporations in an unfavorable light. Judgment was reserved.

People's Dime Museum.

Harry Lindley and his comedy people opened for a week yesterday. There was a large house at the matinee and a big audience at night. Divorce was played in good style. Mr. Lindley furnished any amount of fun in the comedy part. The bill was supplemented with Irish specialties by Sol Walters, ballad singing by J. H. Lopez and Miss Blanche Murray and recitations by Miss Ida Burgess. Same bill this afternoon and evening.

The Rectory Lands Case.

In Langtry v. Dumoulin, the supreme court at Ottawa yesterday granted leave to the churchwardens of St. James to appeal against the decision of the courts here dividing the revenue of the rectory lands among the city clergy. It will be remembered that Canon Dumoulin declined to appeal in the matter, and that the churchwardens applied for permission to do so.
