The addresses of Prof. Davidson, Principal Mullin, and A. T. Hoben, were listened to with great attention, and were all well written papers. Prof. Davidson's criticism, however, of the school system was made without a knowledge of the facts. Mr. Mullin's address was particularly able and was delivered in excellent form. The subject for the Douglas gold medal competition next year was announced by the Governor as the relation of science to the state.

The students raised the usual racket Thursday night, discharging the cannon, blowing horns, etc.

Wedding at Marysville.

The wedding of Miss Alice Gibson and Prof. Chisholm, of Sackville, is to take place at the bride's home, Marysville, at 6 o'clock this evening. A large number of invitations have been issued, and it will be a brilliant affair. The bride will be attended by her sister, Miss Alma Gibson, and after the wedding Prof. and Mrs. Chisholm will drive to Fredericton Junction and take the western train for a bridal trip to Boston and New York. On returning they will spend a couple of months at Lunenburg, N. S., where the Prof. has classes in music, and will settle at Sackville on the re-opening of college there. Prof, Chisholm is a native of Pictou, N. S., and is to be congratulated on securing so charming and popular a young lady for his wife. THE HERALD in advance tenders the young couple its hearty congratulations.

Thomas Ross, who died Monday evening at the age of 78 years, was an old and respected citizen of Fredericton, and one of the earliest curlers. He worked for many years in the N. B. foundry as a blacksmith. Deceased leaves two sons, one of whom is Geo. W. Ross, and his daughters include Mrs. A. Estabrooks, Mrs. John McKeen and Mrs. Fred. Whittaker, all of this city.

John Patterson and Chas. Whery, two colored men, who had just returned from Richardson's drive on the Miramichi, reported to the police Saturday morning that each had lost his watch Friday night. They stopped at Clark's hotel, and the same room was occupied by two others. They laid no information and so far nothing has been done about the matter.

The Fredericton Bridge.

A return was laid on the table of the House of Commons last week regarding the relations between the Fredericton & St. Marys Bridge Co. and the Dominion Government. The papers brought down, however, are only part of what was moved for. A statement submitted shows that the amount of tolls for traffic collected up to June 30, 1889, was $1,546; for the year ending June 30, 1890, $2,461; 1891, $2,908; 1892, $3,360; 1893, $3,011; 1894, $4,544. Total, $18,830. According to the agreement entered into, the bridge and other property belonging to the company is now the property of the government. This interesting clause of the agreement reads as follows: "In case the company shall make default in payment of the interest on the said advances of $300,000 for the space of one year after the same becomes due, or in case they fail to repay the Dominion government all the said advances and interest within fifteen years from the date of the advance of the first sum, then in either case all their property, real and personal, and all their rights, franchises, easements and privileges, shall be and become, by act of default, and without any proceedings for condemnation, foreclosure or possession, forfeited to the crown, and her Majesty, by her officers or agents, may thereupon enter and take possession of the same and the same shall thenceforth be the property of her Majesty, as represented by the Dominion government." The agreement is signed by J. H. Pope, Minister of Railways, and Alex. Gibson, President of the Bridge Company. No copies of the correspondence that has passed between the government and the bridge company with regard to the defaulted interest is brought down. According to the Auditor General the bridge company have repeatedly been written to, calling attention in the ordinary way to the unpaid interest account, but these appeals, so far as shown by the correspondence brought down, appear to have been treated with silent contempt.

County Court.

The June sitting of the York county court opened Monday morning, Judge Steadman presiding.

The following grand jurors were sworn: Chas. A. Sampson, C. A. Tupper, Chas. A. Burchill, Robert Fleming, Frank McGolderick, Harry Walker, Wm. Gibson, Mark Neville, Hugh Edgar, H. D. Creed, Ernest Crewdson, W. A. Adams, A. Tweedale, Wm. McGinn, Michael Shea, Andrew Lottimer, H. C. Chestnut, and F. A. McCausland; Andrew Lottimer was elected foreman.

The only indictment presented to them was one against the prisoners Harry Finnamore, John Brady, James Slavin, Frank Slavin and Herbert Downey, charging assault on Isaac Samet, with intent to rob. Judge Steadman in his charge, directed the grand jury that there was ample evidence in the depositions which had been handed to him to find a true bill, which in the afternoon was found against the prisoners. The following civil docket was made up:

Kinghorn vs. Thibedeau—Wesley VanWart, Q. C., files record.

Palmer vs. Bourgeois—Black, Bliss & Nealis file record.

George A. Hughes read the naturalization papers of Joseph Abraham, Mathew Abraham, George Peter, Terbich Abraham, George Noufe and Dominick Stevens, all Syrians.

O. S. Crocket read the naturalization papers of Barnet Jacobson, a Russian Jew.

The Board of Health.

A meeting of the board of health was held in their office in the city hall Monday afternoon. Resolutions were passed ordering landlords and occupants to clean their premises, and the Whittaker tannery came up for discussion and the following resolution adopted in regard thereto:

Resolved, that Charles Whittaker be ordered to make before the 12th day of June, inst., the following cleansing on the old tannery premises, fronting on Sunbury street, owned by him, viz.: all the old tannery vats and other parts of said premises to be emptied of all water and other foul matter in them, and so arranged that hereafter any water running into them may drain off and not become stagnant; and further, that when so drained each pit or vat be filled to the depth of at least two feet with dry earth to absorb the dampness; also that all noxious substances and filth about the yard of the said premises be cleared up and removed; and further resolved, that unless the above order of this board be complied with, Mr. Whittaker be proceeded against without further order according to law.

A Book on Canada.

G. R. Parkin, formerly principal of the Fredericton high school, but now a resident of London, G.B., has collected and edited his papers on Canada, contributed two years ago to the London Times, and has published them through Macmillan & Company. These articles were written after an actual inspection of the conditions of life dealt with in them; and as Mr. Parkin was further qualified to write on Canadian topics, says the Montreal Herald in a lengthy and complimentary review of the work, by a long residence in this country, the book, which is called "The Great Dominion: Studies in Canada," is perhaps, all things taken together, the best comprehensive summary of Canada's present position that has ever been published. Every section in Canada is described—its present condition, its material resources, its potential wealth, its problems and its future.

The Canada Eastern Railway station house at Blackville, was burglarized Thursday night. The burglars forced an entrance into the waiting room, passed through the ticket window into the office, pried open the cash drawer and skipped with $110 belonging to the Western Union Telegraph Co. There is no clue to the identity of the robbers. On Monday freight agent Dunn was surprised to find the station had again been entered; but the result was more satisfactory to him. A letter addressed to him contained $58.70 in cash returned, the thief expressing his regret at having made Dunn liable for the loss, and assuring him that the smaller amount was all he stole.

Robt. Hickey, of Campbell Settlement, was drowned in the river at Grafton, opposite Woodstock, Monday. He was washing wool in the river in company with Mrs. Hayden and was getting a couple of logs together to work on when he fell between them. The water was only twelve feet or so. Mrs. Hayden waded in the water and tried to reach him with a pole, but to no purpose. She made several further attempts, unsuccessfully, and the young man, who was about twenty years of age, was drowned. The body has been recovered.

A report is current that the gentlemen who control the water works system are laying their plans for the employment of an additional engineer at the pumping station, a piece of extravagance altogether unwarranted by the circumstances, unless, indeed, it be that the new quality of cheap and inferior coal introduced there necessitates another hand. We do not think the citizens are prepared at present for the enlargement of the civic salary list.

Lee Lint, who was Monday tried under the Speedy Trials Act, on the charge of robbery of Jas. Neill's hardware store, was discharged yesterday by Judge Steadman.

Rev. H. W. Little, the much advertised rector of Sussex, who is addressing meetings in this county on the Manitoba school question, spoke at the temperance meeting Sunday evening.

Mrs. Linforth has paid her fine and been released from the county jail.

JAMES S. NEILL.

The value of the goods entered at the Custom House during the month of May aggregated $39,104, and the duty collected thereon $3,424.88, as against $18,762 value and $2,149.40 for the corresponding month of last year. The exports for the month aggregate $16,991, as against $17,480 for the same month last year, the principal shipments being laths, planed hemlock boards, shingles, scantling, potatoes and cotton waste.

The body of James Cannon of Oromocto, who was accidentally drowned at Tobique a few weeks ago, was found floating in the river near McGinley's ferry, Thursday, and was taken to his late home for interment.

Charlie Boyle's trotter, Helena B., is in the hands of trainer Taylor, of Maine, and will take part in the Rigby races shortly, near Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. M. McDade's Fredericton friends congratulate them on a domestic event recorded elsewhere.

The Correct Thing.

The folding furniture which Fred B. Edgecombe is giving away as premiums to cash purchasers of dry goods, is very popular. As each table, chair, rocker, and book rack or screen is quite portable, and from the fact that they can be folded into small compass and put aside when not wanted, they are just the correct thing for camping out parties, summer cottages and such like. Holders of tickets should hurry up and get them all punched out that they may secure some of these articles for summer vacation. The veranday chairs are very handy.

THERE was a lively debate in the House of Commons Friday, when Mr. Brodeur, a Quebec member, made a demand for the production of papers previously ordered in the case of a postmaster wrongfully dismissed. After Sir Adolph Caron, Sir Hibbert Tupper, and Mr. Haggart had united in opposing the demand, Mr. Foster announced that the return would be brought down. To add to the confusion of the Ministers, Sir Adolph Caron had stated previously that the inspector's report, the principal document in the case, was lost. The discomfiture of the Government was complete, and Hon. D. C. Fraser in firing a parting shot, said it was like firing at a dead duck.

Almeda Chattele, the murderer of Jessie Keith, was hanged at Stratford, Ontario, Friday. At 2 o'clock in the afternoon of Oct. 19, 1894. Jessie Keith, 14 years old, started from town for her father's farm. She walked on the railroad track. Two hours later a section man found groceries scattered along the track and notified Mr. Keith. Search was made and the girl's body was found entirely nude in a swamp. She had been assaulted and cut to death. Chattele was arrested and he confessed the crime. His trial in March last occupied but one day. When sentence was pronounced Chattele remarked, "correct." Chattele was 60 years old, and had travelled several times round the world.

Dalton McCarthy, M. P., is expected to visit Manitoba and British Columbia in July and will speak at the Orange demonstration at Victoria on the 12th and in Winnipeg on his return.
