Mr. Peaslee is of the opinion that the [illegible] can't recover in [illegible]

A blockhead, having unexpectedly come into property, sent for a tailor to come and measure him for a coat of arms.

At an agricultural dinner the following toast was given:—"The game of fortune—shuffle the cards as you will, spades will always win."

One asked his friend why he married so little a wife. "Why," said he "I thought you had known that of all evils, we should choose the least!"

John Billings says he has got a good recollection, but not a good memory. He recollects having lost ten dollars the other night, but can't remember where he lost it.

The man who made a shoe for the foot of a mountain is now engaged on a hat for the head of a discourse; after which he will manufacture a plume for General Intelligence.

By the ancient laws of Hanary, a man convicted of bigamy was compelled to live with both wives in the same house. As a consequence, the crime was exceedingly rare in that country.

To a neighboring town, a printer, weighing somewhere about 110 pounds, was married to a woman whose weight is about 250 pounds. His fellow types congratulated him on having got a "fat take."

"Vex not the poet's soul," said Tupper, the other day, to a waiter who pressed him to order something to follow his fish. "Vex not the poet's soul!" "I beg your pardon, sir—I understood you to say salmon!"

A rural editor, speaking of a quill driving contemporary, says: "His intellect is so dense that it would take the augur of common sense longer to penetrate it then to bore through Mont Blanco with a boiled carrot."

When General Gregory went to Texas he once visited a lawyer at his office, and asked him for a copy of the laws of Texas. The lawyer opened a drawer, took out a large and handsome bowie-knife, and gave it to the general.

New York, Oct. 25th—The Herald's Paris correspondence says of the insanity of the Empress Carlotta: The hallucination was evidenced by her insisting that she was surrounded by Mexicans and other enemies, who sought to take her life; so she absolutely refused to quit the Vatican. The Pope treated her with much kindness, inviting foreign ladies of distinction to remain with her during the night, the Empress being accommodated in the palace, contrary to the rule. It is said in Paris that Napoleon's health is considerably improved. On the contrary, it is reported from Berlin that he is in a very serious condition, and his death may be looked for at any moment.

"Such Dunder."

A family in La Crosse, Wisconsin, have been missing stove wood for several weeks past. On the return of the head of the family a few days since, the case was stated, and Sunday night a very pretty stack of fuel was left with others on the wood pile. In the stick were eight ounces of powder for safe keeping. Monday the stick was there,—Tuesday the stick was there, and the laugh was getting on the man who fixed it. Wednesday morning the stick was gone—Wednesday forenoon an explosion was heard in a house near, and a kitchen window was spared no panes. On going to the spot a sight was seen. The stove had joined a piece conference. A kettle of pork and cabbage shot up through the roof like an arrow. A dish of apples that was stewing on the stove, gave the ceiling the appearance of the map of California. A cat sleeping under the stove went through the window as if after the devil, or doctor, and has not been seen or heard of since, but a smell of burnt cat hair pervades the house very thoroughly. A flat iron was hoisted into a pan of dough, a chair lost three legs, the wood box looks sick, while the roof of the house looks like a bursted apple dumpling.—The occupant of the ruin says:

"Such dunder never comes pefore, or I pays a lightenin' rod."

A Boat's Crew Eaten by Cannibals.—The Union Company's Cape Royal Mail Steamship Norseman, which arrived at Plymouth, England, on the 15th of August, with the Cape mail, brings news of a frightful tragedy perpetrated at New Caledonia in the Pacific, employed as a French convict establishment. His Imperial French Majesty's war steamer Fulton, that put into Algoa Bay on June 27th, and left on July 6th for Brest, reported that while she had been cruising round New Caledonia, a boat was despatched into one of the rivers out of sight of the ship for some purpose, and not returning much anxiety was felt respecting it. The steamer then went up the river in search, and upon a small island discovered remains, which left no possibility of doubt that the unfortunate seamen had been captured, and then killed and eaten by the natives. The Fulton then proceeded further inland, and some natives who were taken admitted that the conjectures of the ship's crew were correct; that they had come suddenly upon the boat's crew, taken them to an island, killed them there by splitting their skulls with axes, and had them cooked and eaten them. The officers and crew of the ship, highly exasperated at these horrible details, proceeded to take summary vengeance upon the savages, and killed every one they came in contact with, and set fire to their villages. In addition to those who were burned, no less than one hundred and fifty were either shot or bayoneted.

New York, Oct. 24.—The Times telegram says:—In regard to our affairs with England growing out of the depredations during the war of the privateers Alabama and Shenandoah, Mr. Adams, our Minister to the Court of St. James, was some time since instructed to make peremptory demand for indemnity for loss sustained by our commercial interests. To this demand Mr. Adams received an evasive reply. He was immediately instructed to repeat the demand. He did so, but no definite response has yet been received; but the tone of the English newspapers recently received indicates that these renewed and persistent demands have not been without effect. The British Government is now putting out feelers in their various organs, showing their disposition in the matter. From these it appears that they are willing to submit the claims to arbitration or to a Board of National Commissioners. Our Government will accept no arrangement of this sort, but will insist on a prompt and full payment of the claims. This is our ultimatum, as contained in the instructions under which Mr. Adams is acting.

Oil on the Manitoulin Island.—For some fifteen months past, the Indian Reserve, on the Manitoulin Island, has been the scene of very active persevering operations in the way of oil boring. The great Manitoulin Oil Company have been quietly and noiselessly searching after that much coveted article—petroleum. Twelve months ago oil was struck in "Well No. 1," and in a day or two one hundred and four barrels of oil—which brought eight dollars per barrel in the Toronto market, was obtained. Owing to the excessive flow of salt water in the drill hole this well was abandoned, although the gas and oil indications still continue most promising. The other wells, Nos. 2 and 5 were at once commenced. At the former over one hundred and twenty, and at the latter more than two hundred and thirty feet shale were penetrated. Almost from the surface the presence of oil was indicated by the drilling. We were pleased to learn from gentlemen who had just returned from the island, that oil has been found in both "Well No 2" and "Well No. 5" in considerable quantity.—[Canadian Freeman.
