CITY ORANGEMEN TO COMMEMORATE DEFENCE OF DERRY

Dance and Parade Will Be Held Tonight to Honor Anniversary.

MEET AT HYMAN HALL

Two hundred and thirty-five years ago the gates of the city of Derry were closed in preparation for the long siege which was to follow and which was to become so intimate a part of the history of the Orange order that it was to be celebrated year by year for more than two centuries.

Tonight London Orangemen will commemorate this great defence of the principles of their fait hby their heroic ancestors by a masquerade dance and carnival to be held in Hyman Hall at 8 o'clock. The dance will be preceded by a parade through the streets headed by the Forest City Fife Band. The hall will be decorated in accordance both with the event in history and with the Christmas season.

The committee in charge of arrangements for the evening is composed of Joseph Murray, A. Nevin, L. Summers, R. Wollner and G. B. Say. Representatives from all the Orange lodges in the city have promised to attend, and the officials are certain that this will be the largest Orange dance to be held in London for many a day.

GEORGE COOK'S ILNESS IS REPORTED SERIOUS

Owner of House Where Miss Durston Was Slain Suffering Nervous Shock.

George Cook, owner of the boarding house at 318 York street, where Miss Geraldine Durston and Miss Viola McNaughton were shot several weeks ago, remains in a serious nervous condition as a result of the affair.

While serving overseas with the Canadian forces, Mr. Cook was gassed and shell-shocked. He spent several months in an English hospital in an effort to recover from a severe attack of nervousness.

As a result of the tragedy at his home on York street, he was unable to attend to his work for several weeks. He is employed by the Gorman-Eckert Company. According to his wife, the morning following the death of Miss Durston at Victoria Hospital, he suffered a recurrence of the nervous attacks brought on in France. His physician ordered that he should have complete rest and quiet.

Two days ago he attempted to go to work again, but yesterday he suffered another breakdown. His wife stated today she considers his condition serious.

ADANAC PROGRAM COMMITTEE PLANS WORK

The program committee of the Adanac Club met last night in the Y. M. C. A. and drew up a real interesting program for the winter months. This club is composed of the senior employed boys and the program is to take the form of vocational talks. Tomorrow night they are to have a talk on "Newspaper Work" by A. R. Ford.

Some of the subjects listed for discussions are: Life insurance, sporting goods, banking, thrift, books, public ownership, citizenship, advertising, art and drafting, photography, printing and lithographing, birds, association, postal, justice, fire prevention, farming, music, commercial travelling, lodges, bridges, and telephone. The members of the committee are Harry Sugden, Elgin Speirran, and W. H. Spearman.

MAYOR WANTS BETTER RELIEF WORK IN CITY

Mayor Wenge stated at last night's council session that, in his opinion, the city's relief department at the city hall did not function adequately as a "pinch hitter" when occasion demanded. He favored strongly the recommendation to the 1924 council by Ald. Douglass that better provision be made in the estimates for "relief and charitable" purposes.
