CERTIFICATE OF THE REGISTRATION OF AN EXTRA-PROVINCIAL COMPANY.

"Companies Act, 1897."

I HEREBY CERTIFY that the "Red Cliff Land & Lumber Company, Limited," has this day been registered as an Extra-Provincial company under the "Companies Act, 1897," to carry out or effect all or any of the objects of the company to which the legislative authority of the Legislature of British Columbia extends, except the construction and working of railways and the business of insurance.

The head office of the company is situate at the City of Superior, County of Douglas, State of Wisconsin, U. S. A.

The amount of the capital of the company is four hundred thousand dollars divided into four thousand shares of one hundred dollars each.

The head office of the company in this province is situate at Victoria, Vancouver Island, and F. Dallas Helmcken, Barrister-at-Law, whose address is Victoria, Vancouver Island, is the attorney for the company.

The company is limited.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, province of British Columbia, this 23rd day of September, one thousand nine hundred and seven.

[L.S.] S. Y. WOOTTON,
Registrar of Joint Stock Companies.

The objects for which the company has been established and registered are:—

(a.) To carry on and conduct a general timber, logging and lumbering business, and the business of manufacturing timber and forest products into any and all articles of merchandise, and the business of handling and dealing in timber, forest products and articles manufactured therefrom;

(b.) To improve, and to improve the navigation of, and to erect and equip any structures and fixtures in any water-way, body of water and its tributaries, in any manner as shall be necessary for or facilitate the handling and transporting thereon of logs, timber and timber products;

(c.) To acquire, construct and operate ships and vessels of any and all kinds;

(d.) To carry passengers and goods in any ships and vessels between such places as the company may determine, and to collect money for fares and freight for the carriage of passengers and goods;

(e.) To carry on all or any of the business of ship owners, exporters, importers, carriers by land and water, stevedores, warehousemen, wharfingers, forwarding agents, general traders, dealers, merchants, commission merchants and storekeepers;

(f.) To construct, equip, maintain and operate any mills, buildings, machinery, manufactories, railways, works, plants, fixtures and structures as shall be necessary for the purposes of the company, and to contribute to, subsidize or otherwise aid or take part in any such operations though undertaken, constructed or operated by any other person or corporation;

(g.) To direct, take and carry away water from any stream, river, and lake, the right whereto may be lawfully obtained, and to acquire water and water power by records or otherwise, and water or by the purchase of water records of water privileges for the purpose of rendering water and water power available for use, application and distribution or the transformation thereof into power of any other kind, and to operate and carry on the business of a power company;

(h.) To enter into any arrangement with any government or authority, supreme, foreign, local, municipal or otherwise, or with any corporation, foreign or domestic, company or individual that may be conducive to the interests of the company, and obtain and acquire therefrom and hold, possess and enjoy any right, licence, lease, privilege, franchise or concession that the company may deem desirable or necessary, and to carry out, exercise and comply with the same;

(i.) To carry on business as general contractors for the carrying out, construction, installation and completion of works, erections and contracts of all kinds;

(j.) To lay out land for building purposes and, to build, improve, let on building leases, advance money to persons building, or otherwise develop the same in such manner as may seem expedient to advance the company's interest;

(k.) To obtain by purchase, lease, hire, discovery, location, or otherwise, and hold, possess and enjoy mines, mineral claims, mineral leases, prospects, mining lands, mining rights of every description or any interest therein, or options or rights for or in relation thereto;

(l.) To prospect or search for, dig for, win, raise, get, quarry, crush, wash, smelt, reduce, amalgamate, dress, assay, analyze, refine, extract, prepare for market or otherwise treat or render to the most profitable merchantable value and market, quartz, ore, minerals, mineral or metallic substances and compounds of all kinds, coal, oils, stone, and precious stones whether belonging to the company or not, and generally to carry on any metallurgical operations;

(m.) To carry on the business of a mining, smelting, milling and refining company in all or any of its branches;

(n.) To purchase, hire, take on lease or licence, or take by gift or devise, or otherwise acquire any and all kinds of property whatsoever, real, personal and mixed, and any estate, interest, licence, easement, right, privilege or franchise, in, connected with or growing out of, any property whatsoever, including without limiting the foregoing words, timber, timber limits, timber berths, and licences to cut and remove timber from any land in the province of British Columbia, or elsewhere, and to invest, in traffic in, deal in, own, hold, possess and enjoy any thereof and to grant, sell, convey or authorize to be conveyed, exchange, dispose of, lease, let, improve, cultivate, turn to account, manage, hypothecate, pledge, mortgage, borrow on the security of, charge or otherwise deal with all or any portion of the property owned by the company or subsequently acquired by it, and its franchises, tolls and revenue whatsoever, and to subscribe for, take and hold, in its corporate capacity, stock or shares in any other corporation, foreign or domestic, and to do any and every act and thing necessary or proper to conduct the business and accomplish the purposes of the company;

(o.) To purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire any business similar in character to the herein stated objects, and to acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, goodwill, assets, stock-in-trade, credits, effects and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which this company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this company, and to pay for the same either in cash or in shares of stock in this company;

(p.) To apply for, purchase or otherwise acquire any patent or patent rights containing any exclusive or non-exclusive or limited rights to use, which may seem calculated to directly or indirectly benefit this company, and to use, exercise, develop and turn to account the property or rights so acquired;

(q.) To procure the company to be registered, licensed, recognized and authorized to transact business, or to enable it to acquire the legal status of a corporation in any other state, territory or country, foreign or otherwise, and to establish local agencies and branch businesses in any places;

(r.) To carry on any other business which may seem capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the foregoing, or otherwise calculated, directly or indirectly to enhance the value of, or render profitable any of the company's property or rights;

(s.) To invest, lend and deal with the moneys of the company in and upon any securities and property, and in such manner as from time to time may be determined;

(t.) To do any and every act or thing that is or shall be necessary or expedient to effect and accomplish the objects and purposes for which this company is organized.

WILL RECOMMEND AN INCREASE IN GARRISON

Dominion Officer Has Just Completed an Inspection of Esquimalt Defences

Lieutenant Colonel P. Weatherbe, O. C., R. C. E. at Halifax, whose departure for the east was mentioned in the Colonist of Saturday, has just completed an official tour of the Canadian military stations, commencing at Halifax and including Quebec, Toronto, London, Kingston, Montreal, St. Johns, P. Q.; Ottawa and Victoria. He has been on the road for the past month.

As a result of his visit it is altogether likely that he will recommend an increase in the number of men stationed here. The number stationed here is about 130, including engineers, artillery, ordnance, pay department, army service corps and army medical corps. At Halifax there are over 1,500 men and any supplementary draft will probably come from there.

The complement at present is quite inadequate to take charge of the work at Work Point and Esquimalt fortifications, and the matter will probably be brought to the attention of the authorities by Colonel Weatherbe.

Confessed His Guilt

Dawson, Oct. 7.—Fred Wright, a deckhand from the Yukon steamer Seattle No. 3, who confessed to the robbery of the mail pouch containing the gold dust shipment, was turned over to the American authorities at Fairbanks for prosecution. The gold dust was recovered from the bottom of the Yukon river by the officers.

RED DEER PEOPLE HEAR MR. BORDEN

Representative Audience of Alberta District Gives Him Encouragement

Red Deer, Alta., Oct. 7.—About six hundred people filled the large Massey-Harris warehouse here tonight to hear R. L. Borden, the leader of the opposition in the House of Commons. The hall was filled early, and when the evening trains came in, large crowds from Olds, Didsbury, Innisfail, Lacombe and other small towns arrived. The hall was filled to over-flowing.

At eight o'clock Dr. J. Collinson conducted Mr. Borden, amidst hearty cheers, to the platform, where the following local Conservatives were seated: M. S. McCarthy, M.P.; Dr. Reid, Mr. Hiebert, M.P.P.; J. G. H. Bergeron, M.P.; Mr. McDonald, of Olds; J. A. Jackson, Ponoka; Mr. Gilmore, Lacombe; Mr. McDonald, Calgary; Geo. F. Root, Mr. Cockshutt, M. P.

Around the hall were large streamers bearing words of welcome and planks of the Conservative platform, some of which were: "Welcome to our guest," "Borden a man for the people," "The old flag and the old party," "The same measure of self-government as the other provinces in ownership of our timber and crown lands," "Improved postal facilities," "Honest expenditure of public money," "Abolition of party patronage."

The president of the Red Deer Conservative association, Dr. John Collinson, first called upon Mayor P. P. Gaetz, of Red Deer, to make the opening speech. Mr. Gaetz, in a few choice remarks, expressed his great delight at welcoming Mr. Borden to the town. He was glad to see the large mixed audience present and that there were so many Liberals present.

Geo. F. Root, of Erskine, one of the most prominent cattlemen in Alberta, and who was a resident of the United States until four years
