LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS.

A MAN was sentenced at Ottawa the other day to three months' imprisonment for ill-treating a horse.

A BRAKEMAN, named Sutton, fell off a train in New Brunswick on Friday last and was instantly killed.

THE competition of the Canadian Pacific from Vancouver has forced the San Francisco and China line to take off two of their eight steamers.

THE Legislative Assembly of the North-West Territories has adopted resolutions in favor of the abolition of separate schools and the French language in the Territories.

A LAWYER and ex-alderman named Adams, has absconded from Ottawa, after embezzling a large amount of money entrusted to him by his clients for investment.

THE residence of A. J. Christie, a prominent Ottawa lawyer, was entered by burglars a few nights ago, and a large quantity of jewelry and silverware was stolen.

DEPUTY MINISTER of the Interior, Burgess, who recently returned to Ottawa from the Northwest, says Dumont is very unpopular among the half-breeds on the Saskatchewan.

IT is said that the Furness line of steamers have entered into a contract to bring from England twenty thousand tons of machinery and iron work for the Chignecto ship railway.

JUDGE MATHIEU, of Montreal, decided the other day, that the nuns of the Hotel Dieu, who have a case in court, need not leave the cloister to give evidence, and that their depositions could be taken by commissioners.

A NEW YORK despatch says that no news has been received there to confirm the report of the serious illness of the Prince of Wales, which was recently published, and the rumor is generally discredited.

REPORTS from Quebec say that the cod-fishing in the Bay Chaleur this season has been the best for many years. It is also reported that a rich asbestos mine has just been discovered in the township of Metis, Rimouski county.

A LOT of dynamite cartridges, which were to be used for blasting purposes, exploded in Montreal a few days ago, killing one man and wounding two men and three women and wrecking several houses. The damage to property is estimated at $100,000.

THE Cunard steamer Cephalonia, which sailed from Liverpool for Boston a few days ago, put into Holyhead on account of an explosion of her boiler, by which the second engineer and four firemen were seriously injured. She put back to Liverpool for repairs.

HERE is another prognostication regarding the coming winter: Men who are used to the woods state that there will be a mild winter, as the fur-bearing animals have not half a coat on. This was stated in 1884, when one of the hardest winters on record succeeded.—Exchange.

THE great ocean race between the City of New York, the Inman flyer, and the White Star's crack steamship Teutonic, from New York to Queenstown, ended on the 23rd inst., in the defeat of the latter. The correct time of the City of New York was six days, twelve hours and thirty-five minutes.

IN its usual earlier will be found Beer Bros announcement. Every season finds this firm advancing in popularity, and in many departments they lead the Island for Fashionable Goods. Special attention is drawn to their Dress Goods, Mantles and Astrakan Sacks—the quality of which is guaranteed.

OFFICIAL letters, recently received at Washington from Montevideo, Uruguay, bearing date of the 11th September, state that reliable reports show that yellow fever is breaking out in various parts of Brazil, besides the city of Rio Janeiro. Commencing so early would indicate an unusually sickly season.

THE three-masted schooner "Forest Fairy" sailed from Boston, August 22nd, for Flores Fayal and Graciosa, Western Islands, with 10 of a crew and 27 passengers. The vessel was nearly 30 years old and was owned by John Medina, hair dealer, of Boston. He could not get her insured, owing to her age.

A LONDON despatch of the 25th inst., says: The explosion on the Cunard line steamer Cephalonia, shortly after her departure from Liverpool for Boston yesterday, resulted more seriously than at first expected. Three of the men who were injured have died, and it is believed one of the other men hurt will not recover.

ADVICES from Point Amour, Straits of Belle Isle, state that the wreck of H. M. S. Lily has broken in two amidships, and that the parts have been twisted around by the current, so that the bow points right into the shore. The wreck has been sold to Quebec parties for $80. The ship's big guns have been recovered by the Emerald's divers.

NEPTON R. HAICH, ex-cashier in the New York office of the Baltimore and Ohio express company, was arrested in Chicago on the 24th inst., charged with embezzling $8,000 of the company's funds a year ago, and flying to Canada with the plunder. While in Toronto he secured several thousand dollars worth of goods under false pretences.

THE LATEST WRINKLE.

The world moves. Our prices also move downward every time ever since we began talking business to purchasers of BOOTS & SHOES.

They have discovered that they can and do carry home more first-class goods from our Store for less money than they ever did in their lives. Buyers from all parts of this Province tell us every day that they save snug sums by purchasing from us. This was seen by the rush for our EXHIBITION BOOTS & SHOES. Our Fall supply is large, well assorted, and so well adapted to the wants of the Public that we can and will distance all in the race. Don't wear old Boots this season when you can buy from us a new pair for less than half what you used to pay. Drop in and see us before you buy your FALL & WINTER BOOTS.

We can suit every age and sex in Style, Prices and Quality. A good article at the lowest price is our motto.
