BUSINESS has been quiet, and in heavy goods decidedly dull. Pig Iron has been without movement, Bar receiving also very little attention. There has been rather more doing in Nails, with sales of some 10,000 or 12,000 kegs during the week, the bulk for Ontario account, prices ranging from $2.60 to $2.65. At these figures, however, only round lots would be sold and as manufacturers have in some instances already taken all the orders they will be able to fill before the close of navigation, there is now no pressure to sell. Tin Plates are inactive, and prices if anything less firm. A few exceptional sales have been made at prices somewhat below our quotations.

THE LEATHER TRADE.

Akin & Kirkpatrick. N. S. Whitney. Seymour, M. H.

BUSINESS in this branch of trade is still very quiet. Receipts for the week have been fair, and prices are not changed.

The Pacific Mail Company advertise that they will soon run weekly steamers from China to San Francisco, increasing their abilities for transportation in order to meet the demand for immigrants. The new vessels will also convey Chinese at lower rates. The company intend to petition Congress for an increase of subsidy to compensate the increased service.
