One day last week James, son of Robt. Wright, of Minto, had his arm broken in a very peculiar manner. He went into the stable beside a young horse, gave it a slap and told it to stand over, but the colt did directly the opposite, as he crowded young Wright against the stall with such force as to break his arm between the wrist and the elbow. This is the fourth of this family who have had an arm broken.

A very successful entertainment was held at Eagle the other evening. It opened with an address by the chairman, Mr. Gunne, principal of Dutton high school, after which the Glasgow string band gave some splendid selections, accompanied by Miss Buchanan. Songs were rendered by Mr. Lang, Miss Lucy Ash, of London, and Miss Maggie Spencer, of Bismarck; humorous recitations by Miss Ash and Messrs. Vosden and McGregor. The rendering of "The Crookit Bawbee" and "When Ye Gang Awa', Jamie" by Miss Ash and Mr. Lang were the features of the evening. Miss Ash's voice showed to much advantage in "There's a Light in the Window," and was heartily encored. Miss Tina Mowbray, of Ridgetown, acted as accompanist in her usual good style. The entertainment closed with the singing of "Auld Lang Syne" and "God Save the Queen."

A very pleasing incident occurred on Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. C. W. Sifton, Mason, when about 50 members and friends of St. Johns Methodist Church came to offer their congratulations to his daughter Emma, on the occasion of her marriage to Rev. John Locke, of Thornhill. Their good-will was expressed in a beautifully worded address and the presentation of a very handsome Davenport (writing desk) finished in sixteenth century oak. The infant class of the Sunday school also spoke their love for the teacher in a nice little gift, which was warmly received. Mrs. Locke has been actively engaged in church work as organist, choir leader and Sunday school teacher for the past six years, and now that she leaves for a wider sphere she carries with her the best wishes of the entire community where she was well known and popular.

Once again have the Liberals of Lambton West demonstrated their principles and their confidence in James F. Lister by electing him by a largely-increased majority. In 1887 Mr. Lister was elected by 558. In this election he is returned by fully 700 majority. Every village, town and township in the riding gave Lister a majority. The Town Hall was crowded as it had never been before on Thursday night to hear the returns as they came in from all points. Cheer followed cheer as the reports showed Liberals gains. Cheers that met their echo in the far east went up when the announcement came that Carling and Colby were crushed, Mills had swamped his opponents in Bothwell, and that our old citizen, Alex. Mackenzie, had again been returned. But how different were the feelings of the handful of dejected Tories, who had assembled at Victoria Hall, when they heard that Ontario and Quebec had been torn from the combinesters of the country.

Valetta might well be called the bee hive. The people there are ever at work in the discarding of evil and the promotion of the happiness of their fellow-men. The Y.P.S.C.E. held their consecration meeting on Monday night. The attendance was not so large as on former occasions, perhaps owing to the state of the weather and the roads. The reports of the committees were not so incouraging as last month, but the work still goes on. Notice was given that a conference of all the societies in Tilbury and Raleigh will be held there in the church on March 16 for the purpose of forming a local union. The object is to bring about more friendly relations among the people.

He has always been one of Donovan's best admirers and without doubt Pataey will eclipse his previous records under Chapman's instructions.

Pets of Other People.

The mouse-catching household serpents of the American tropics are more cleanly than the best-trained cat; can follow rats into the furthest recess of their hiding places; never steal; never make midnight hideous by howling on the housetops; never complain if the good wife should forget to feed them for a month or two.

Do not scatter your powers.

Engage proper employes.
