LUCAN STAGE HORSE HATES AUTOMOBILES

Shied When He Saw a Man Walking and Wearing Auto Glasses.

It seems that an automobile hat and the odor of gasoline are alone necessary to frighten horses.

This morning a local automobilist was walking across Carling street, when the Lucan stage happened along.

One of the horses took one look at him and shied, being restrained with some difficulty by the driver.

"I guess that horse must have known me," said the autoist. "I pass him several times a week on my trips, and I have come to the conclusion that he does not require a machine to make him act up.

"If there had been a runaway, I wonder if I would have had to pay a fine for not having my number on."

The incident caused not a little amusement.

HON. ADAM BECK IS EXPECTED NEXT WEEK

Then the Campaign for Well Water Will Be Commenced in Earnest.

Hon. Adam Beck is expected home some day next week, when the campaign for the wells will be commenced in earnest.

The bylaw will be presented at the council meeting on Monday evening next and will be given a second reading.

There may be some debate on the water commissioners adding $25,000 for mains, but it will not be very long, as the council will likely stand by the recommendation of the water commissioners.

Say Mains Are a Necessity.

The commissioners will not make any change, as they state that the extra mains are a necessity to enable them to distribute the water to the best advantage.

The story that only well water would be used in the north end is stated to be untrue, as the well water will be mixed with the city water in the old mains.

The temporary pumping plant is being made ready, and the work will be completed by July 1.

Mr. H. J. Glaubitz, the consulting engineer of Toronto, has in charge the preparation of the machinery for the wells, and he will have everything in readiness to supply the water when it is needed.

Five More Wells.

The additional five wells have been sunk on the McGregor farm, and the pump will be installed to test the capacity of the six wells.

As was expected there is water in every one of them, but, of course, the exact quantity is not known.

No proposition has been made to the water commissioners at yet, so Mr. Barfett stated. The contractors are waiting until they have sunk three more wells before making the proposition.

Whether they will offer the property and wells intact, or whether they will sell the city so much water at a price to be named, has not yet been decided upon.

Good Wells.

The wells are stated to be good ones, and will yield almost a million gallons at the present time, it is claimed.

At all events the offer of the company cannot be considered until the Beck wells are voted on, but there is no doubt it will be presented in plenty of time to be used in the campaign against the Beck scheme.

BLACK HOLE FIXED UP FOR OBSTREPEROUS

Misbehaving Female Prisoners Will Occupy It Henceforth.

The jail authorities have been busily engaged in getting the black hole, used for the coercion of misbehaving female prisoners, in a fit condition for occupancy. The black hole is an institution that has practically gone out of use in the local jail, and not for fifteen years has there been any occasion to confine prisoners in it. The other day, however, it became necessary to exercise that restraint in the case of two female inmates, because of insubordination and unbecoming conduct. So the ancient cell was transformed from the peaceful occupation of storeroom, and cleaned, aired and whitewashed, that it may be used, if it should be again found necessary.

MRS. GARNIER'S DEATH

Wife of Former Mayor of Montana Town Has Relatives Here.

The Livingston, Montana, Enterprise says: Death claimed one of the most popular and estimable of Livingston ladies at 4:30 Wednesday morning, when Mrs. Charles Garnier, sen., wife of the former mayor of the city, and one of the earliest of Livingston residents, passed away at the family residence on South Yellowstone streets, after an illness of less than one week.

Mrs. Mary Garnier was born in Cornwall, Province of Ontario, Canada, in 1860. When a young girl she removed with her parents to Wisconsin, where she was afterward united in marriage to Charles Garnier. Of this union two children were born, Charles Garnier, jun., and Miss Camille. In 1884 they removed to this city, and for many years made their home on Second street, where the Garnier cigar factory now stands.

Mr. Charles Garnier, sen., is a son of Mr. Garnier, of Grey street, this city.

Catarrhozone reached the sore spots and gave immediate relief. Since using it I have not had a single attack." Every physician who is asked about Catarrhozone says it is a sure cure, so will you if you try it. Sold everywhere, 25 cents and $1.

EAST END MAN WAS STRUCK BY AUTO

Peter Hriskos Injured as He Alighted From an Ottaway Avenue Car.

Peter Hriskos, a Greek, who runs a restaurant at 691 Dundas street, was struck in the back by a touring car, owned by Frank Buhl, of Sharon, Pa., at the corner of Dundas and Lyle streets, last evening, when stepping off an Ottaway car. He was hurled to the ground, his side and back being bruised. Dr. Mugan, who is attending him, states that it will be impossible to tell if the spine is injured for some time.

Hriskos had just stepped from the car when the auto, which was running at a fair rate, struck him in the back. He claims that the driver did not stop, but that he returned about ten minutes later.

The police have been notified by Hriskos, but no information has been laid against Mr. Buhl.

STREET RAILWAY MEETING BEING HELD TODAY

Many Matters of Importance to Citizens Likely to Come Up.

The semi-annual meeting of the directors of the London street railway will be held this afternoon.

Mr. E. W. Moore, of Cleveland, one of the directors, is in the city to attend the meeting.

It is probable that many matters of importance will be discussed at the meeting, prominent among them being the question of power and track extension.

Mr. Moore was closeted with Mr. Ivey, the solicitor of the company, for several hours this morning, but it could not be learned what was the topic of discussion.

"The meeting is merely the regular meeting," said Secretary Treasurer Bentson. "Only the ordinary business matters will be taken up."

Mr. T. H. Smallman, the vice-president, will preside in the absence of Mr. Everett, the president, who is still unable to come to London.

REV. FATHER DURKIN TAUGHT MAN LESSON

Forcibly Ejected Disturber From a New York City Parochial School.

Rev. Father John J. Durkin, formerly of this city, but at the present time rector of St. Vincent Ferries Roman Catholic Church, New York City, was the hero of an exciting adventure on Wednesday last and later of police court proceedings.

John Downs was creating a disturbance in the church parochial school, of which Father Durkin is principal, and after several warnings was ordered to leave.

Downs did not elect to go quietly, but placing his hand on his hip pocket he threatened to shoot.

Father Durkin immediately seized Downs, with the result that the latter was shot out the doorway rather forcibly, alighting on his head, which was bruised considerably.

In revenge, Downs had Father Durkin summoned before Magistrate Barlow, of the Yorkville police court.

Complimented the Priest.

After hearing the evidence Magistrate Barlow complimented Father Durkin on his presence of mind, and quick action, and declared that no charge had been made against him.

"If you are as good a clergyman as you are a pugilist, I would like to go to your church," was Magistrate Barlow's comment. "You are not under arrest, and I dismiss the case with thanks to you for coming here."

Father Durkin is the son of Mr. Michael Durkin, the well-known Grand Trunk engineer, living on Hill street. He received his early education in the city, and made a considerable reputation as an athlete, being a particularly good ball player. He was extremely popular, and the incident related above is considered highly characteristic by his friends. On his vacations to London he has occupied the pulpit of the Catholic churches of the city, officiating in St. Mary's Church on the occasion of his visit home last summer.

C. O. O. F. GRAND LODGE

Laws Committee Turns Down Several Recommendations.

Hamilton, June 16.—The C. O. O. F. grand lodge today dealt with recommendations in the committee on laws. That in reference to the suggestion that subordinate lodges pay the expenses of their delegates to grand lodge was turned down, as was also the recommendation that all members initiated prior to Sept. 1, 1890, be placed on the Hunter scale. The recommendation that special provision be made for the representation of the lodges of the northwest was referred to a committee, which will report on it tomorrow. Other recommendations turned down were: (1) That the official organ be discontinued; and (2) That the question of optional insurance be reconsidered.

During the morning W. F. Montague and W. F. Campbell tendered fraternal greetings from the Chosen Friends.

At the session yesterday afternoon Mayor MacLaren and Aldermen Peregrine were introduced, and gave the delegates a hearty welcome to the city.

R. H. Foster, representing the Foresters, tendered fraternal greetings.

The discussion during the afternoon was on endowment policies, and a committee of the policyholders was appointed to confer with the executive to see if some satisfactory method of cancelling them cannot be arranged.

Blenheim, June 17.—Fire broke out at 4 o'clock this morning in James Cox's implement shop. The building was a frame structure, and was soon a mass of flames and was destroyed. Charles Sheldon's livery barn also was destroyed, though the horses and rigs were saved. Cox's blacksmith shop and house, and Dr. McTavish's office and barn were saved. Mr. Cox had his building covered by insurance, but Sheldon had no insurance.

AWARD REJECTED

Only About Ninety of the Owen Sound Dockers Return to Work.

Owen Sound, June 17.—Seventeen cents an hour for day work, 18 cents for night work and Sundays, 23 cents an hour for grain and 25 cents for coal is the majority award of the board of conciliation on the labor dispute of the longshoremen and the Canadian Pacific through freight department. The award was signed by Donald Ross, chairman, and Wallace Nesbitt, K.C., arbitrator for the C. P. R., while Mr. J. G. O'Donoghue, representing the men, filed a minority report.

A meeting was held yesterday morning in the Workingmen's Club rooms, and it was decided to strike again rather than accept the award.

An interview was held with Agent Simpson and a demand presented for a scale of 20 cents for day work, 22 cents for night and 25 cents an hour for Sunday work. This was refused, and many of the men declined to go to work. About 60 of the older employees decided to accept the award and went to work under police protection. In the afternoon about a hundred men went down to No. 3 shed, where the unloading of the Manitoba was in progress. They were warned off, and quietly dispersed. Later about 30 more men took out their checks and went to work.

INTELLECTUAL TREAT

Lecture Recited in the Conservatory of Music Last Night.

A decidedly intellectual treat in a musical way was the lecture recital, given in the recital hall of the London Conservatory of Music, by Mr. Louis C. Stanton, of Boston, on "The Art of Listening to Classic Music."

Mr. Stanton in an informal talk, illustrated by various selections on the piano from the works of the great masters, showed how the composer would take a simple theme and clothe it in any and every conceivable form of harmony which the fancy of his genius could devise, and pointed out that active and discriminative listening was essential to a proper understanding and enjoyment of worthy music. Only in this way could the hearer appreciate the beauties and intricacies of detail of the garment which the composer fashioned.

Part II. was devoted to showing the material a composer has at his command in the way of alteration of his theme, especially in sequence of form.

The Binary form was defined, and illustrated, showing the place where two themes are to be found, and the parts of the composition where the composer has ample scope for the display of his ability and resource. All this was to lead up to an analysis of the movement of one of the early sonatas of Beethoven.

The last part of the evening was devoted to shorter sketches, among which might be mentioned an intermezzo by Schumann and a serenata by D'Albert, which Mr. Stanton played in a masterly manner, which was thoroughly appreciated and enjoyed by a warmly sympathetic audience.

The occasion of Mr. Stanton's visit to London is the midsummer examinations of the London Conservatory of Music, at which Mr. Stanton was the examiner of the graduating pupils.

Munson—Martin.

A very pretty wedding took place yesterday afternoon at the home of Mr. William Martin, in Adelaide Township, near Strathroy, when his daughter, Miss Carrie E. Martin, was married to Mr. Bert A. Munson, of Westfield, New York, Rev. A. K. Birks, of Askin Street Methodist Church, performed the ceremony in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends. The bride was given away by her father, and looked very pretty in a gown of point d'esprit net over cream silk. She carried a beautiful bridal bouquet. Following the ceremony, a dainty luncheon was served, after which Mr. and Mrs. Munson left on the evening train for Westfield, New York, where they will reside. Miss Martin was until recently a member of the choir and Epworth League of Askin Street Methodist Church, and a large number of her friends gathered at the station last night to meet her on her way to Westfield.

THE GILLIES' TENDERS

The Government Lets Go Vast Tract For $74,643.

Toronto, June 17. — Of the 870 acres of mineral land in the Gillies limit being offered for sale by public tender, the Government has, it is understood, decided to dispose of 283 acres, receiving therefor a sum of $74,643. This amount is the total of the recent tender which alone was accepted.

In all there were 116 tenders received for the 38 parcels of land offered. Only the fifteen highest tenders have been accepted. Considerable others were rejected because the amount offered was not deemed satisfactory, and a few because the conditions were not complied with.

The department deems the bidding to be low, and the Government will not at present dispose of the other offer for the tenders received.

Statistics from Washington give the number of pensioners on the Government rolls as 951,687, but owing to the McCumber age laws and the Solloway widows' law the appropriations to pay pensions increased to $153,093,062 for the last year. In 1908 more than 60,000 pensioners died.
