Published For Nobles Only.

London society is talking about the coming aristocratic weekly publication intended exclusively for the nobility. Nothing can be more anti-democratic than the tone of the preliminary prospectus, which informs those privileged to read it that the new production in no sense caters for general popularity. Its price will be half a crown weekly and for its columns the princesses and duchesses are to tell their secrets and to permit descriptions and photographs to be published of heirlooms and family treasures, the existence of which is not known to the community at large. Georgina, lady of Dudley, is to be the editor.

WORST ECZEMA DOCTORS EVER SAW

Spread Rapidly Over Body—Limbs and Arms Had to Be Bandaged and Scalp Looked Dreadful—Suffered Untold Misery for Three Years—Better in Two Months.

MARVELOUS CURE BY CUTICURA REMEDIES

"My son, who is now twenty-two years of age, when he was four months old began to have eczema on his face, spreading quite rapidly until he was nearly covered. We had all the doctors around us and some from larger places, but no one helped him a particle. The eczema was something terrible, and the doctors said it was the worst case they ever saw. At times his whole body and face were covered, all but his feet. I had to bandage his limbs and arms; his scalp was just dreadful. I used many kinds of patent medicines before trying the Cuticura Remedies,—all to no avail.

"A friend teased me to try Cuticura. At last I consented, when my boy was three years and four months old, having had eczema all that time, and suffering untold misery. I began to use all three of the Cuticura Remedies; the Cuticura Soap helped as well as the Ointment. He was better in two months; in six months he was well; but I gave him the Cuticura Resolvent one year,—using twelve bottles, I think,—and always used the Cuticura Soap for bathing, and do now a good deal. He was four years old before he was well, and his skin became perfectly fair when cured. I give you permission to publish this letter for I am always glad to do good when I can. I think I have told you all there is necessary to tell." Mrs. R. L. Risley, Oct. 24, 1905. Piermont, N. H.

Complete External and Internal Treatment for every Humour, from Pimples to Scrofula, from Infancy to Age, consisting of Cuticura Soap, Ointment, and Resolvent, (also in form of Chocolate Coated Pills in vial of 60), may be had of all druggists. A single set often cures the most distressing cases, when all other remedies, and even the best physicians fail. Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Sole Props., Boston, Mass., U. S. A.

Black and White recalls a story of Mr. Justice Grantham, who is one of the Parliamentary election petition judges. At one time, before he took his place on the Bench, he was a well-known political speaker, and used to appear on many Conservative platforms. On one occasion, while he was delivering an address, a man got up in the body of the hall and shouted, "It's a lie!" "Thanks!" retorted Mr. Grantham. The interrupter was not to be appeased. "It's a lie!" he shouted again. Mr. Grantham was becoming nettled. "You're a gentleman," he exclaimed sarcastically. "It's a lie!" burst out his opponent again, carried away by his wrath.

That Whoop!

Have you had it in your house? It's cough and cough and cough, and then that terrible whoop! Don't upset the stomach more by giving nauseous medicine. Just let the child breathe in the soothing vapor of Vapo-Cresolene. It goes right to the spot that's diseased. Relief is immediate, and in a very few days the cure is complete. You can't say the same of any other treatment. For asthma, catarrh, and colds it's equally good. 66

Vapo-Cresolene is sold by druggists, or sent prepaid on receipt of price. A Vapo-Cresolene outfit including a bottle of Cresolene, complete $1.50. Send for free illustrated booklet. LEEMING, MILES CO., Ltd., Agents, 288 St. James St., Montreal.

INTERNATIONAL BIBLE LESSON FOR TO-MORROW.

"A Fierce Demoniac Healed." — Mark 5, 1-20. Read Matt. 8, Luke 8, 26-39.

9 Golden Text—"Go home to thy friends and tell them how great things the Lord hath done for thee."

Verses 1 and 2—The little ship with its mission crew and their great Captain, Jesus Christ, is a type of the Church, and its saving from the storm by the Master's presence and power, an illustration of His presence with His people through all storms and hindrances; as water in the ship is more dangerous than water outside, so the world in the Church endangers her more than the world without. As they land they are met by a strange delegation of men and demons. See Matt. 8, 28. The maddest man is described in verses 2, 3, 4 and 5, and is a picture of horror. Note his confused utterances, now human, now demon, as the wretch prostrates himself at Jesus' feet.

Verse 6—Our Lord commands the evil ones to depart from him.

Verses 7 and 8—It tortures devils to release from their clutch poor, helpless, sinful men. Our Lord asks the man his name. My name is Legion, for we are many, is answered.

Verse 10—Reads as if the wretch earnestly besought Jesus to be merciful to his masters, the demons, and they asked permission to take possession of a herd of about 2,000 hogs —V. 13—feeding near by. On receiving permission they entered the swine, who made for the lake at once and were drowned—this was worse than hog cholera and no government compensation either. The swineherds fled to the city and reported, when numbers come out and see Jesus, and his man rescued from the demons, sitting quietly, clothed decently, and in his right mind, and they were awe-struck, as the eye-witnesses described the whole thing.

Verse 17.—Tells us there was license in Gadara for hogs and demons, but no room for Jesus Christ, who, as he went on board the boat, was entreated by the poor fellow He had saved, to take him aboard also; but Jesus said, no; go to thy house, unto thy friends, and tell them how great things the Lord hath done for thee, and how He had mercy on thee. The man went—and so should we go—honored as Christ's ambassadors, and far safer and more happy with Christ's spiritual presence and sustaining grace.

If we, or our friends, have yielded to known sin and are helpless slaves of the wicked one, the blessed and only remedy is found in Jesus Christ, the Son of God, the same yesterday, to-day, and forever.

LANTERNS AND UMBRELLAS.

How and Why They Are So Generally Used In China.

Chinese lanterns are made of paper, silk, horn, crystal and many other materials. Those made of silk are usually richly embroidered with figures of animals, birds or flowers. Those of horn are prettily decorated with paintings. Some of the most ornamental and expensive lanterns are mounted on beautifully carved frames of wood and ivory.

If a Chinese leaves his home after night without taking with him a lantern, such as is assigned to the use of the class to which he belongs, he is liable to arrest by the police.

As soon as it is dark every city seems ablaze with lanterns. They light up the homes of the rich and poor; they are attached to the angles of the pagoda; they are seen at every port and on every river. In fact, they make their appearance everywhere, and to call China the "land of lanterns" is by no means a misnomer.

Umbrellas, too, are of much importance in China, because there the umbrella is a mark of rank. Two large red silk umbrellas signal the approach of the Governor-General of a province. A red silk umbrella with three ruffles on it is the kind assigned to the four highest ranks of mandarin. The nobility of lower rank are entitled to an umbrella of red silk, but may have only two ruffles.

The two highest ranks of gentlemen commoners are entitled to a red state umbrella surmounted by a knob of tin. The third and fourth ranks have the knob of wood instead of tin, but it is always painted red. An umbrella of blue cloth with two ruffles and surmounted by a red painted wooden knob distinguishes the fifth rank.

Exit the Famous Oriole.

The schooner yacht Oriole, the best known yacht on the great lakes, and the largest in Toronto, is to be broken up immediately. The Oriole was built in 1886 by Melancthon Simpson for the late Mr. George Gooderham, and has flown the Gooderham burgee for nearly 20 years. Owing to the death of her owner she was not put into commission last season. Her most famous victory was over the Chicago yacht Idler, an America Cup candidate, at the Straits of Mackinaw. She was the winner of the Prince of Wales' Cup, a Royal Canadian Yacht Club trophy, oftener than any other yacht—five times in succession after she came out and again in 1892. She was worth at one time $20,000.

Most Appropriate.

A student at one of the theological colleges had written a sermon with much care and passed it to the professor for criticism. After two weeks he called on the professor and stated that he left his manuscript with him and had called for it and would be glad of any suggestion from him. It was returned without any criticism or suggestions. The student, well pleased with his own production, was intent on having the opinion of his teacher and called again and, referring to the sermon, asked what hymns would be appropriate in connection with it. The professor replied, "The most appropriate hymn I can think of is 'Now I lay me down to sleep.'"

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

Is a powerful, invigorating tonic, imparting health and strength in particular to the organs distinctly feminine. The local, womanly health is so intimately related to the general health that when diseases of the delicate womanly organs are cured the whole body gains in health and strength. For weak and sickly women who are "worn-out," "run-down" or debilitated, especially for women who work in store, office or schoolroom, who sit at the typewriter or sewing machine, or bear heavy household burdens, and for nursing mothers, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has proven a priceless benefit because of its health-restoring and strength-giving powers.

As a soothing and strengthening nervine, "Favorite Prescription" is unequaled and is invaluable in allaying and subduing nervous excitability, irritability, nervous exhaustion, nervous prostration, neuralgia, hysteria, spasms, chorea, or St. Vitus's dance, and other distressing nervous symptoms commonly attendant upon functional and organic disease of the womanly organs. It induces refreshing sleep and relieves mental anxiety and despondency.

Cures obstinate cases. "Favorite Prescription" is a positive cure for the most complicated and obstinate cases of "female weakness," painful periods, irregularities, prolapsus or falling of the pelvic organs, weak back, bearing-down sensations, chronic congestion, inflammation and ulceration.

Dr. Pierce's medicines are made from harmless but efficient medical roots found growing in our American forests. The Indians knew of the marvelous curative value of some of these roots and imparted that knowledge to some of the friendlier whites, and gradually some of the more progressive physicians came to test and use them, and ever since they have grown in favor by reason of their superior curative virtues and their safe and harmless qualities.

Your druggists sell the "FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION" and also that famous alterative, blood purifier and stomach tonic, the "GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY." Write to Dr. Pierce about your case. He is an experienced physician and will treat your case as confidential and without charge for correspondence. Address him at the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., of which he is chief consulting physician.

Jap Colonies In China.

The growth of an outer Japan is one of the more marked developments in the far east and constitutes an element which politically cannot be lost sight of. In Shanghai, where but a few years ago the number of Japanese residents within the settlements was insignificant, the Japanese population now ranks next to the English. Even in remote inland towns Japanese colonies are forming.—Hong Kong Daily Press.

Alas how great the number of people who have existed without having lived.

AFTER 18 YEARS OF SUFFERING

An Ontario Farmer Finds a Cure at Last in Dodd's Kidney Pills.

The Direct Cause of His Trouble Was a Strain in the Back Which Affected His Kidneys—Dodd's Kidney Pills Cured Him.

Ardoch, Ont., May 7.—(Special.)—Mr. Ami Jeanneret, of this place, gives a very interesting account of his experience with Dodd's Kidney Pills. He says:

"I hurt my back and strained my kidneys and for 18 years I suffered on and off intense agony. I was subject to attacks of Rheumatism and Lumbago. My joints were stiff, my muscles cramped, I lost my appetite, my flesh began to fall away, my nerves were shaken, I could not rest or sleep at night and I was sinking into a deplorable condition when I was advised to try Dodd's Kidney Pills. I used six boxes and I am now as strong and healthy as ever I was. I am certain I owe my cure wholly to Dodd's Kidney Pills."

Industry is cheap. It is laziness that costs. It has cost many a bright young man a bright career.

SUBMARINE SIGNALS.

The new Atlantic steamships, Empresses of Britain and Ireland, will be fitted with the new appliances for receiving sound signals through the water. At certain important points in the St. Lawrence River submarine bells have been placed, which in thick and foggy weather are sounded automatically by pneumatic pressure. In the bow of the new Empresses, and on the port and starboard sides, transmitters will be fitted and connected by wires with a telephone box in the chart room, thus the officer in charge of the ship will hear the warning bells when they are still miles away, and be able to fix the position of his ship whatever the state of the weather. Inasmuch as the submarine signals travel through the water without interference, are not subject to wind or waves, and give an exact location of the source of danger, it is apparent that they become an important factor of safety. The steamer James S. Whitney, of Boston, when running at full speed, picked up these signals at eight miles distance, and the officer in charge said the bell sounded distinctly. Another captain reported that he heard these signals clearly in a gale, when all other signals failed.

The question of expense has never been considered by the Canadian Pacific Railway when appliances can be introduced which will add to their passengers safety.

In the light of love the least may be the largest.
