Growing Mash
In order to secure rapid and steady growth you must feed the young birds properly. We have now that ration in Morgan's Growing Mash. The price is fair, you will admit, $4.00 per 100 pounds.

Fattening Mash
Separate the young cockerels from the pullets and they both will do better. Feed the cockerels and old hens you intend to market Morgan's Fattening Mash and watch them increase in weight. The price is $4.50 per 100 pounds.

Lay Food
After the young pullets are four or five months old change their feed from Growing Mash to Lay Food and start them laying while the old hens are molting. This is the system to always have fresh eggs. The price of Lay is $4.00 Phone us; we deliver.
