ed the high state of discipline and martial order ich this fine regiment is kept, and with which Excellency expressed himself highly satisfied.

Saint John Sacred Music Society.—We understand that this Society, are busily engaged in making preparation, for a pleasurable treat to our respectable citizens, by giving another public Concert, and for which purpose, as many tickets will be given out for visitors, as the means of accommodation will admit of. The list of members to this Institution, appears to be increasing weekly, and the numbers of Instrumental and Vocal performers, must strong on each night of practice.

THE THEATRE.—On Friday last, Mrs. Hammer performed Phœbe, in the "Miller's Maid," quite in good style, it was only to be regretted that her voice was rather feeble. Mrs. Tessier as usual performed well and gave great satisfaction in the character of Dame. Mr. Anderson also as Game Keeper sustained his part well, and Mr. Ruffile, as Giles commanded applause. In the admired Farce of "Monsieur Tonson," Miss Angelica, a growing favourite on the Board, performed the part of Adolphine de Courcy in an admirable manner, and was loudly greeted by the audience. The call from the Boxes for Miss Angelica's celebrated dance The Highland Fling, was instantly and cheerfully complied with, altho' the young lady, was at that time labouring under a severe sprain in one of her feet.—Her appearance in the Highland costume, and the pleasing way with which she answered the call, had a happy effect on the audience, who shook the building with their greetings. Miss Angelica has shown herself a good performer in Comedy, much approved of by the audience, and we think, it would give great satisfaction if she was brought more prominently forward whenever a good Comedy is introduced. In speaking of 'Monsieur Tonson,' Messrs. Nickinson and Addis cannot be overlooked. Mr. Nickinson as Mons. Marbleau, and Mr. Addis as Tom performed so well as to keep the house in a roar of laughter.

On Monday night, the celebrated Tragedy of "Richard 3rd." was performed to a full house.—The part of Richard was nobly acted by Mr. Harrison, and the whole of the characters throughout the Tragedy, were well sustained by the respective performers, which gave great satisfaction.

On Wednesday, "Clari, the Maid of Milan," was performed with equal success; Mrs. Harrison as Clari, was admirable, and Vespina by Miss Angelica, gained great applause; and in the two subsequent pieces performed the same evening, the characters sustained by Miss Angelica were highly applauded by the audience.

"The Soldier's Daughter," was performed last evening to a very respectable and crowded audience, among which appeared His Excellency Sir JOHN HARVEY, Lady Harvey and family, His Worship the Mayor, several Officers of the Garrison, and a large assembly of Ladies. Mrs. Harrison, the life of the stage, in the character of Widow Cheerly, succeeded to admiration, and was ably supported by Miss Angelica in the character of Susan. Mr. Bellamy, as Governor Heartall, sustained his part in an able and perfect manner, and Mr. Nickinson, as usual, in Timothy Quaint, was quite at home. Mr. Harrison, whether in comedy or tragedy, always gives satisfaction; and the whole performance of the "Soldier's Daughter" gained great applause.

Miss Angelica again shone forth in one of her admirable fancy dances, and performed so well, as to rivet the marked attention of the whole house, and with which, His Excellency the Governor, appeared highly pleased. At the close, she was loudly encored, and went through a second time to the delight of the whole house. We feel assured, that when the time arrives for this accomplished actress to receive a benefit, that she will have the pleasure of seeing a well filled house to land her pleasing performances.

When Sir John Harvey entered the Theatre, he was greeted with three hearty cheers from the assembled audience, and the sweet Band of the 11th regiment immediately struck up the inspiring national anthem "God save the Queen!"

This evening will be performed the justly celebrated Tragedy of "George Barnwell, or the London Apprentice!" We are also informed, that on Monday next Richard the 3d will be performed for the second time, by particular request.

On Sunday evening a Coroner's Jury proceeded to investigate the circumstances that caused the death of a new born male Infant, of which the mother had been delivered a few hours previous. At a late hour the Jury adjourned until Monday morning, when the investigation was resumed—which resulted in a Verdict being returned, that "The child "was born dead in consequence of the inexperience "of the mother, and for want of necessary help in "giving birth to it,"—and that "Margaret Sheerin, "single woman, was the mother of said child."

TORONTO, July 20.

A gentleman, on whose veracity we can depend, and who has permitted us to make use of the information, states that in a conversation which he had with Lord Durham, his Lordship said that he had not been aware of the transcendant importance of the North American Provinces until this visit, and that this ignorance was but too general at home; that he was now so assured of it, and so delighted with the character of its inhabitants and value to Great Britain, that, as a proof of this, he had recently recommended to Her Majesty's Government to loan, from a fund which they had for investment in public works, £250,000 in Welland Canal Stock, and £250,000 for the improvement of the St. Lawrence. Other matters which prudence permits us for the present not to broach were introduced with singular ability by his Lordship; we shall no further allude to them than by merely saying, that his Lordship has very correct views of American "sympathy."

——McKenny, Esq., of Malahide, and Mr. Henry Stroud, of Durham, last night brought in two prisoners of the names of Enos and Job Scott, accused of rescuing, in the town of Burford, the prisoner Dr. Wilson, who was in custody of Sumner and Bennett, two Sheriff's officers from London. These men have confessed that 19 persons were secretly engaged to each other to rescue the prisoner Wilson and had posted themselves accordingly behind logs of houses, but as Wilson drew near under escort of Sheriff's officers, twelve of the party became panic and drew off, leaving the seven to do the deed. Job Scott confesses that he shot one of the officers and took the pistols from Bennett and gave them to Dr. Wilson. Wilson has been retaken, and with the two Scotts are now safe in Toronto gaol.

☞ Six hundred cords of wood belonging to the steamboat Traveller have been burnt at Rochester, but we are happy to say the boat herself has not yet been burnt.

QUEBEC, July 27.—His Excellency the Governor in Chief arrived this forenoon, a little after eleven o'clock, in the steamer Johnson, and landed about twelve. The heads of departments, with a guard of honour of the Grenadier Guards, received him at the Queen's wharf, and the usual salute was fired from the Cape. The ships of war, in port, manning their yards.—His Excellency was loudly cheered by those who came in attendance to witness his landing.—Gazette.

Capt. Marryatt arrived in Louisville on Sunday, and his presence in the city, created, we understand, considerable excitement. But few of respectable citizens would call to see him, and some even went so far as to talk of Lynching. His notorious toast given in Canada, respecting the burning of the steamer Caroline, is the cause of the hostile feelings of Americans towards him—and they never will forgive him for the savage insult.—Cin. Whig.

NEW ORLEANS, July 20.—The Affair Settled.—We understand that the difficulties growing out of the rescue of the American schooner Lone, between Capt. Clarke, her commander, and the prize officer M. Le Coet, was honourably adjusted this morning, by an exchange of two shots, at 12 paces. We are happy to learn that neither of the parties were injured. M. Le Coet wished to continue the fight until either himself or Capt. Clarke should be wounded or killed; but through the laudable exertions of his seconds, this desperate procedure was obviated. In our opinion they are both honourable and good men; and we hope that, having proved their courage, they will again become friends.—Courier.

MARRIED.

At St. Martins, on the 25th ult., by John Jordan, Esquire, Mr. William Sullivan, to Miss Jennet Cunningham, both of the same place; and

On Monday the 5th instant, at Tynemouth, in the same Parish, by the same, Mr. John S. Parker, to Elizabeth, second daughter of Robert Ellis, Esq., all of that place.

DIED.

On Monday morning, after a lingering and painful illness, which he bore with meekness and resignation, George William, youngest son of Mr. Thomas Trafton, aged 12 years.

On the evening of the 31st July, Isabella Fleming, the infant daughter of Alexander Grant, Esquire, Collector of H. M. Customs, St. Andrews.

At Horton, N. S., on the 22d ult., James Harris, Esquire, in the 98th year of his age.

At Beauport, aged 79, the Hon. Herman W. Ryland, a Member of the Legislative Council of Lower Canada, and Clerk of the Executive Council. Mr. R. was, probably, the oldest servant of the Crown, reckoning from the date of his first appointment, on the Continent of America. During the whole course of his long public life, his services were highly appreciated by the different Governors under whom he served; and in private life he was universally esteemed and beloved. In the year 1781 he came out as Assistant Deputy Paymaster General to the British Forces in America, and after the capture of Lord Cornwallis's and General Burgoyne's Armies, was stationed at Lancaster in Pennsylvania, where he remained till the Peace, when he returned to England with the Commander in Chief, Sir Guy Carleton. In the year 1793, he again accompanied Sir Guy Carleton, (then Lord Dorchester,) to Canada, as his principal Civil Secretary, in which situation he continued to serve until the year 1813.

At Dublin on the 14th June last, in the 30th year of her age, Barbara, wife of Major Charles Levinge, 71st Regt., and second daughter of the late Hugh Johnston, Esq., of this city.

Kinsale, July 1.—The barque Charlotte, Fisher, 17 days from Liverpool for Quebec, put in here last evening, to land a sick passenger, and proceeded this morning.

LISBON, May 30th.—Admiral Ommanney having learned that a dismasted and waterlogged ship had been seen on this coast, not far from the Burlings, despatched her Majesty's brig Trinculo in quest of her, and she was accordingly towed in here on the 25th. She was taken possession of about 26 miles N. N. W. of the Burlings, and turns out to be the Majestic, from [illegible], loaded with ship timber, her burthen is from 600 to 650 tons. No progress has been made towards unloading the cargo, &c., because the Admiral considers himself bound to consult the Admiralty in a peculiar case of this kind, previous to moving at all in the business—the rate of salvage must likewise be fixed by the Court of Admiralty; but, in such cases as the present, it is generally from two fifths to one-half the proceed—only one chain cable, worth £300, has been found on board, from which it must be inferred that she has often been met with and plundered since she was abandoned by her crew. She is a fine ship.

The hull of the barque Britannia, timber laden, has been cast ashore at Ericeira, about ten miles North of the rock of Lisbon.

Cove of Cork, June 27.—Arrived off, for orders, the Peruvian, Miller, 40 days from Sierra Leone, and proceeded for Sunderland.

H. M. Packet Sheldrake, Lieutenant Passingham, arrived at Falmouth on the 29th June, in 15 days from Halifax.

THE WRECKED SLAVER.—Another Cargo of Africans have been cast upon our shores. It appears that the pirates in command of the vessels wished to avoid the chance of falling in with our cruizers betwixt St. Domingo and Jamaica, hauled to the southward, intending to pass by the West end of Cuba, but not being far enough to the westward, they were brought up by the Pedro keys off St. Elizabeth's, when finding the vessel a wreck, they took to the boats, leaving the Africans to perish. Their arrival at Black River, however, created suspicion, and having been interrogated they confessed. As soon as the circumstances could be communicated, two vessels of war were dispatched from Port Royal to save the unfortunate beings.—Jamaica Royal Gazette.
