Attempted Burglary at Duck Cove.

An attempt to break into the summer cottage belonging to J. D. Evans of Hampton, at Duck Cove Sunday, was apparently frustrated by the timely appearance of George Craigie on the scene. Mr. Craigie's father is the owner of a cottage in the vicinity and yesterday he went out there to spend the day.

While inside the house he heard a noise at Mr. Evans' place, and knowing that the family was in Hampton, he proceeded to investigate. He came upon a man on the verandah on one side of the cottage, who immediately took to his heels. One shutter had been torn off its hinges, and the glass in the window broken. The young man did not enter the house to see if anything had been disturbed, but contented himself with nailing the window up securely. He describes the tramp as a hard looking customer and as he was alone he was not go in chase of him.

REPORTS AND DISASTERS.

Portland, Oct. 8—The six-masted schooner George W. Wells loaded with coal for this port, dragged her anchors and was driven ashore inside the harbor Tuesday but later was floated.

Boston, Oct. 8—The schooner Alma, Captain Godfrey, bound for this port from Cape George, run ashore during the night on the southeasterly end of Lovell's Island and remained there until high water when she was floated.

Melbourne, Aug. 20—Stmr Largo Law, arrived at Wellington (N. Z.), 8th from Newcastle with damage to lifeboat and fittings.

Vineyard Haven, Mass, Oct 8—Schr Ella M Storer, from Hoboken for Belfast, while lying here in heavy westerly gale today, parted starboard chain and lost anchor; dragged and fouled schrs Ravola (Br), from Stonehaven (N B) for New Haven (Ct), and Calvin P Harris, from Rockport (Mass) for New York. The Ravola had jibboom and all gear attached carried away and starboard cathead and bow rail broken and stern rail, davits and stanchions carried away. The Harris had bobchains, jibstays and martingale carried away and stem started. The Storer had stern damaged, rail broken and davits carried away. All the vessels will repair and proceed.

CHARTERS.

British bark Eurydice, 1,096 tons, from Annapolis (N. S.), to Montevideo or Buenos Ayres, at or about lumber $9.50; British schooner F. W. Pickles, 386 tons, from Mobile to Havana with timber, from the water, $8.25.

Sail tonnage has been reported in steady request for off shore and coastwise business, and generally steady rates have prevailed in all trades. The most of the demand comes from West India and South America shippers, the requirements in the coasting trades being lighter than is usual at this period of the year owing to the scarcity of coal at the shipping points.

OBITUARY.

Martin Ryan.

Martin Ryan, who had resided at Coldbrook for twenty-four years died Tuesday at the advanced age of eighty-five years. He leaves five sons and one daughter—John, William, Patrick, Hugh and Rhody, and Mary, all of whom reside at home.

home. The body will be taken to St. Martins for interment on Friday morning.

John McKenzie.

Woodstock, N. B., Oct. 8—(Special)—John McKenzie, fifty-four years of age, died this morning at his residence. The cause of death was heart failure, but his health had been in a precarious condition for a year or more. He has been confined to the house for a few months with a broken ankle.

His widow, formerly Miss Gould, of Woodstock, and one daughter by a previous marriage, survive. A sister resides in St. John. The funeral will take place on Thursday afternoon in Woodstock.

In his removal by death the community has lost an ever ready and obliging neighbor and an honest and upright citizen. He was born in St. John and learned the painting trade with Price & Shaw. He removed to Chicago for a time, thence to Yarmouth (N. S.), where he married, was made a member of the Masonic fraternity and became a past master of the lodge there.

He came to Woodstock nearly thirty years ago, establishing a business and, his first wife having died, he married Miss Gould. He has been affiliated with the local lodge of Masons ever since, is a past master in the lodge and past high priest in the chapter. He has always taken an interest in civic affairs and local and federal politics, and when he died he was president of the Liberal-Conservative organization of the town of Woodstock. The first attack of the malady that caused his death came upon him a year ago last month, while on a visit to St. John, when he collapsed on Prince William street, and was removed by some Woodstock friends to the New Victoria hotel, but he quickly rallied and came home the next day.

E. S. Outhouse.

Moncton, N. B., Oct. 8—(Special)—The death occurred this morning at Petitcodiac of E. S. Outhouse, one of the best known residents of Albert county. He was also well known in Moncton, having made his home here for the last few years. He lived for the greater part of his life in Coverdale, where he owned a large farm. Deceased was seventy-three years of age, and his illness lasted eight weeks, his death taking place at the residence of Herbert R. Trites, of Petitcodiac.

In his younger days Mr. Outhouse lived for some years in St. John, and was a school teacher. He represented Coverdale parish at the county council board for a number of years with the late Hon. James Ryan. He was highly esteemed and had a great many friends throughout Albert and Westmorland counties. Mrs. Norah Steeves, of Coverdale, a sister, is the only surviving members of a family of twelve. Judson Steeves and Hazen Steeves, of St. John, are nephews of the deceased. The funeral will take place Thursday at 12.30, at Petitcodiac; interment at Lower Coverdale.

Mrs. Rebecca Toole.

The death of Mrs. Rebecca Toole, widow of J. H. Toole, of this city, occurred on Tuesday at Kars, Kings county. James Manson.

The death of James Manson, one of the best known and most highly esteemed dry goods merchants in St. John, occurred Thursday morning. The announcement came as a great shock to friends as many did not know of his illness. He had been sick only about two weeks, but being well along in years he was not able to survive the disease.

Mr. Manson was born in Wick, Caithness, Scotland in 1832 and was therefore in his 76th. year. He came to St. John about 1856 from the well known dry goods warehousemen J. & W. Campbell of Glasgow. A few years later he started in the millinery and dry goods business on his own account finally doing one of the largest retail businesses in this city and having several retail branches throughout the city and towns of the provinces.

Many of the older citizens will remember the time when Mr. Manson conducted what was known as the "Commercial Palace," in King street, just above the Bank of Montreal building, which was considered the handsomest store in Canada and which has not been equalled since. This beautiful structure, with its facing of white marble was destroyed in the big fire of June 20, 1877 as well as all Mr. Manson's city branches they being all situated in the fire district.

Mr. Manson was considered one of the heaviest losers in that great conflagration. He, however, with great pluck and ambition, built and started anew. The present place of business is in Charlotte street.

Mr. Manson was one of the oldest elders in St. David's Presbyterian church and always took an active part and a warm interest in all church work. He was also one of the oldest members of St. Andrew's Society and a justice of the peace.

He married Miss Kennedy, daughter of the late John and Elizabeth Kennedy, who with four sons, survives.

The sons are James W., cashier in the customs house; John B., of J. & J. Manson; Candlish G., of this city and William W., of New York.

Mrs. Lawrence Gosnell.

Mrs. Margaret Gosnell, wife of Lawrence Gosnell, died Thursday at her home, 104 Harrison street, after illness extedding over some time. She is survived by her husband; her mother, Mrs. Jeremiah Quinn, of this city; four sisters—Mrs. J. Shea, Mrs. Gosnell and Miss Bridget Quinn, of St. John, and Mrs. Dalhman, of New York; and two brothers—Jeremiah Quinn, who is in the States, and James Quinn, of this city.

Samuel Buckman.

Samuel Buckman passed away at Westport on the 30th Sept., after several weeks' illness, aged 75 years. He leaves a widow, one son, Charles, the North Point Lightkeeper, five daughters, two brothers and two sisters to mourn their loss. Mr. Buckman's home was always open to shipwrecked men and St. John pilots, and many have been cared for at the North Point of Brier Island the last fifty years by the Buckman families. —Yarmouth Herald.

G. M. Heine.

The death of G. Melbourne Heine, of North Asbury Park, New Jersey, is announced. He was the father of M. Caswell Heine, barrister, of New York, and brother of the Rev. G. Colborne Heine, pastor of Chalmers Presbyterian church, Montreal.

Mr. Heine was a son of the late Henry Heine of Norton, K. C. He was also a relative of Hon. Geo. E. Foster. He had lived in the United States for many years.

Mrs. Stephen H. Forsyth.

A telegram received Wednesday night in this city brought the news of the death of Mrs. Eliza J., wife of Stephen H. Forsyth, a lady particularly well known here. She died in Barre, Vermont, Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Forsyth, who had been ailing for about two years, was the only daughter of the late William McGinley, of this city. With her husbandl, also a native of St. John, she went to Red Beach, (Me.), and later to Barre, Vermont, almost a quarter of a century ago. Mr. Forsyth is now engaged in the granite quarry supply business there under the firm name of Forsyth & Ingraham. This firm was one of the pioneers in the grey granite industry and their operations extended all over the United States.

Mrs. Forsyth received an injury from a slight fall sustained about two years ago, and it developed into a serious malady to which she succumbed. Besides her husband she leaves one brother, William A. McGinley, of this city, three nephews, A. E. McGinley, of the Times staff; Harris A. McGinley, of Moncton, and Willard G. McGinley, of Halifax. Miss A. Beatrice McGinley, at present attending Mount Allison University, and Gertrude Eliza, now in Barre, Vt., with her mother, Mrs. W. A. McGinley, are nieces of the deceased.

The late Mrs. Forsyth was a most estimable Christian lady, held in high regard both in her birthplace and in the home of her adoption.
