Weddings.

In the cathedral yesterday morning the marriage of Miss Elizabeth Frances, daughter of William Duke, and Jas. L. McDonald, was solemnized. Quite a large number of friends were present. The bride looked charming in royal blue veiling offset with white silk, medallions and applique. Her hat was of blue miroir velvet with iridescent ribbon trimming and she carried a beautiful bouquet of cream bride roses. The bridesmaid, Miss Elizabeth F. Hayes, wore a filmy gown of pale tint, with an effective white hat, bouquet of pink roses. The groomsman was Wm. P. McDonald. After the ceremony the bridal party went to the home of the bride's parents, where a wedding breakfast was served to a large number of friends. Among the presents was a magnificent coat of black Persian lamb with sable trimmings, the groom's gift. To the bridesmaid he gave a gold ring with diamond setting. Mr. and Mrs. McDonald left on the Boston express for a visit to Boston and New York, the bride wearing a gown of grey cheviot with felt hat. They will reside at 353 Haymarket Square.

Dorchester, N. B., Sept. 20—A very pretty double wedding took place at St. Edwards' church, Dorchester, this morning at 10 o'clock, Rev. Father Cormier officiating. The contracting parties were respectively, G. B. Papineau, assistant to the surgeon of the Dorchester penitentiary, and Miss Rebecca D. Chambers, ex-teacher in Dorchester High School, and G. E. Gallant, of Kent county, and Miss Annie L. Chambers. The brides, who are sisters, and daughters of Lorenzo H. Chambers, trade instructor at the penitentiary here, are counted among the most popular and nice looking of Dorchester's young ladies. After a wedding breakfast at the brides' parents, the bridal party left by C. P. R. train. Mr. and Mrs. Papineau will visit Montreal, Mr. and Mrs. Gallant Boston, before returning. The presents to the brides were numerous and handsome McKenna-Hayes.

Halifax, Sept. 20—Miss Agnes B. Hayes, daughter of Capt. John Hayes, pilot, and Daniel P. McKenna were married this morning at 7 o'clock in St. Mary's cathedral by Rev. Father Moriarty. The bride wore a tailor-made suit of champagne colored cloth, with large picture hat, and carried a bouquet of white roses. Miss Mary Greany, of St. John, was bridesmaid. She was dressed in pale blue silk trimmed with white chiffon. Her present from the groom was a pearl sunburst. J. J. McKenna, of Sydney, was best man. The groom was formerly an operator in the C. P. R. telegraph office in this city, but was transferred to Montreal. The bride received many handsome presents. Mr. and Mrs. McKenna left on the Ocean Limited for Montreal via St. John.

Morrison-Stevens.

Chipman, Sept. 10.—A very pretty wedding was witnessed by a very large congregation in the Baptist church in Upper Salmon Creek on the 7th inst. at 8 p. m. The groom, Eben Bruce Morrison, was supported by his brother, William Morrison. The bride was escorted by her father, William Stevens, who gave her away. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. T. Miller. A large company was present at the reception at the bride's home after the wedding.

Dibblee-Robinson.

Fredericton, Sept. 21.—Many beautiful marriage ceremonies have taken place in Christ Church Cathedral, but not for many years has the stately edifice been the scene of so fashionable and brilliant a wedding as that which was solmenized at 2.30 o'clock this afternoon, when Miss May DeLancey Robinson, daughter of J. DeLancey Robinson, of this city, and granddaughter of the late Colonel John Robinson, of Her Majesty's 10th Regiment, was united in the bonds of matrimony to George Younge Dibblee, clerk assistant of the Legislative Assembly of New Brunswick.

Hundreds of invitations had been issued to relatives and friends of the bride and groom in all parts of Canada, and long before the appointed hour the cathedral was filled to overflowing with a fashionable and expectant congregation including many from distant places. The church itself was a veritable garden of palms and ferns, with its columns encircled with smilax and many overhanging festoons, presenting, with the beautiful costumes of the bride, attendants and the guests a scene of enchanting beauty.

The bride entered the church through the western door leaning on her father's arm and preceded by the ushers, her flower girls, Miss Edyth Cudlip, daughter of J. Bright Cudlip, of St. John, and Miss Edyth Smith,, daughter of W. Emile Smith, of Fredericton, and her bridesmaids, Miss Frances Snowball, daughter of Lieutenant Governor Snowball, and Miss Frances Domville, daughter of Senator Domville, of Rothesay.

Wall-Ross.

St. Stephen, Sept. 21—(Special)—A pretty wedding ceremony took place this afternoon at the home of the bride in Milltown, when Miss Sara E. Ross was united to John N. Wall, a popular merchant and optician of St. Stephen.

Rev. W. J. Buchanan performed the marriage ceremony. The house was prettily decorated with asparagus and sweet peas.

The bride, who looked charming, was attired in crepe de chene over silk and was attended by her little niece, Ruth Harmon, who performed the duties of flower girl.

After the ceremony dainty refreshments were served, after which the bride changed her costume for a brown venetian traveling suit with white silk blouse and brown hat.

The newly wedded couple then drove to the C. P. R. depot en route to St. John, Moncton and other cities.

Many very handsome presents testified to the esteem in which Mr. and Mrs. Wall are held.

Watson-Cowie.

At the Church of the Good Shepherd, Fairville, Wednesday morning Miss Susannah May Cowie and Melbourne Watson were married by Rev. LeB. McKiel. Mr. and Mrs. Watson left on a trip to Boston and other American cities.

Martin-Duffy.

At St. Agatha's church, New Ireland, Albert Co., on Tuesday, the wedding of Miss Nellie A. Duffy, daughter of the late Patrick Duffy, of New Ireland, to T. H. Martin, of Cardwell, Kings Co., took place. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. J. McAuley. They will reside at Caldwell, Kings Co., after a tour of the province.

Chapman-Dunn.

Houlton, Me., Sept. 21—The marriage of Miss Deborah C. Dunn, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Bancroft Dunn, and granddaughter of the late E. G. Dunn, of St. John, to Dr. Henry Milton Chapman, which occurred this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Unitarian church, Houlton, was one of the prettiest and most charmingly conducted social functions which has ever occurred in Aroostook county.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. James Burgess, assisted by Rev. L. Daniels, pastor of the church.

Ellis-Spear.

Sussex, Sept. 21.—A very pretty wedding took place this afternoon in the Presbyterian church, when Miss Alice, eldest daughter of Mrs. Joseph Spear, was united in marriage to Godfrey Ellis, operator I. C. R., Bathurst. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion, and packed to the doors with spectators. The bride received numerous and costly presents, among which was a gold locket and chain from Mr. Ellis.

The bride was attired in a navy blue travelling suit, hat to match. The happy couple left by the Boston train for St. John where they will attend the exhibition.

Fulton-Dick.

Yesterday morning at the bride's home Miss Addie Dick, niece of Mr. and Mrs. Nevin Cameron, of 74 Queen street, was married to Captain Gordon Stewart Fulton, son of the late Capt. Reuben Fulton, of Liscard (Eng.). The ceremony was performed by Rev. Christopher Burnett. Before leaving on the Halifax express for a wedding tour in Nova Scotia, a reception was held at 74 Queen street. Mr Fulton is captain of one of the fleet of steamers owned by the Standard Oil Company, New York. Mr. and Mrs. Fulton will reside in St. John.

Edwards-Crowe.

Annapolis, N. S., Sept. 21.—(Special)—St. Luke's Anglican church was today at 12 noon, the scene of a very interesting event, the occasion being the marriage of Elizabeth Constance, second daughter of J. Edwards, of the D. A. R., and Gordon W. Crowe, of Middleton.

The bride was very becomingly attired in a travelling suit of gray cloth with hat to match, and looked charming. The bridesmaid, Jennie Edwards, sister of the bride, was dressed in white cashmere, while Boyd Crowe supported the groom. The ushers were Harry Crowe and Thomas Buckler. The church was tastefully decorated with plants and flowers and the contracting parties were made one by the Rev. H. How under a floral arch. After the ceremony the bridal party left the church as the strains of the wedding march were played on the organ by Mrs. How, wife of the rector, and were driven to the station, where amid showers of rice and explosions of torpedoes they boarded the Bluenose train on a wedding tour which will include Halifax, St. John and Fredericton, returning by Prince Rupert across the bay to Annapolis when a reception will be held, after which they leave for Middleton, their future home.

The bride was the recipient of numerous useful and costly presents, showing the high esteem in which she is held.

Wyman-Jolly.

Yarmouth, N. S., Sept. 21.—Trinity church was the centre of attraction to the fair sex at 8 o'clock this morning, when Miss Catherine B. Jolly was married to Harold J. Wyman, son of ex-Mayor Wyman, and science teacher of the Academy. The church, which was profusely decorated, was filled to overflowing long before the hour of service. The ceremony was performed by the rector, Rev. Mr. Bambrick. The bride wore a handsome travelling suit of grey tweed, and chenille hat to match and carried cream roses. Her sister, Bessie, attended as maid of honor, dressed in fawn cloth with hat to match. Mr. Camber Killam officiated as best man and Messrs. Arthur K. Vanhorne and James Bingay were ushers. The bride was given away by L. J. Vickery, at whose residence the wedding reception was given, the bride having been in his employ for several years. Mr. and Mrs. Wyman left by the Bluenose train for Digby, where they will remain today, crossing to St. John tomorrow en route for Boston.

WELL KNOWN ST. STEPHEN COUPLE ENGAGED

N. Mark Mills and Miss Winifred Todd the Happy Couple--Announcement Made in a Unique Way.

St. Stephen, Sept. 22—The palatial residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Todd, on Tuesday evening, was the scene of a pretty gathering, when a large number of the elite of both sides of the river were present; on invitation to a German whist party, and which proved also somewhat of a surprise to the guests by the announcement that evening of the engagement of Miss C. Winifred, the handsome and accomplished daughter of the host and hostess, and N. Marks Mills, the well-known and popular young attorney of this town.

Many beautiful flowers were sent to Miss Todd, making the floral decorations simply magnificent. American beauty roses were in profusion, placed on pedestals in the rooms. A cornucopia of silver and blue hung from the chandelier in the room in which the whist party enjoyed their contest, this cornicopia was well filled with favors in silver and blue and which were distributed to the prize winners at the end of each game. Partners were drawn by dainty cards bearing, in silver, the names of the young ladies participating. At the close of the contest, Miss Vera Young was awarded a handsome silver whip cream ladle, as first prize for ladies and Arthur Ganong, a silver match safe, as first prize for gentlemen.

Previous to the serving of a dainty supper, the engagement of Miss Todd and Mr. Mills was announced by the presentation to each guest of an envelope containing the cards of the principals neatly tied with a blue ribbon "true-lover's knot," in silver letters. Needless to say the surprised guests showered their sincere felicitations for a happy future, on this popular young couple.

Thus ended a very pleasant evening which will long be remembered by those present.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Todd will this Friday evening be the scene of another German whist party and which will end in a tin shower party in honor of Miss Louise Murchie, of Calais, who will be married on Wednesday, 23rd inst., to Frank Lane, of Bangor. The favors of Tinware won at the games of whist were presented to Miss Murchie. This party was conceived and carried out by Miss Belle Woodcock, of Calais, and Miss Winifred Todd, ably seconded by Mrs. W. F. Todd. Festoons of tin hanging from the chandelier to the table, made a very unique decoration. Music, songs, jokes and cake will be enjoyed by the young people present.
