A DAMP DAY FOR SPORTS.

RAIN MARS THE PLAY AND PLEASURE OF THE VISITING IRISHMEN.

The Game at the Rosedale Grounds Won by the Home Team—The Baseball Games Totally Ruined—The Poisoned Trotters at Chicago.

Yesterday's rain dampened nothing quite so effectually as the spirits of the Toronto Lacrosse Club Special Committee who had in charge the reception of the Irish Lacrosse Team. Early in the day it was evident that all hopes of a "big gate" must be given up and, though the clouds broke a little and the rain ceased for a time at 3 o'clock, not more than 600 or 700 people found their way to the Rosedale Grounds in the afternoon. For the unfortunate weather and the consequent small attendance, no one is to blame. It is altogether probable that the team will play here again on Saturday, either at Rosedale or at the Baseball Grounds.

The visitors reached North Toronto by the 7.55 Canadian Pacific Railway train from Montreal and were met at the depot, among many others by John Massey, Lyman Dwight, Dr. J. F. W. Ross, C. E. Robinson, C. H. Nelson, E. J. Smith, F. W. Garvin, W. Logan, W. C. Bonnell and John Henderson of the Reception Committee; E. S. Cox, H. S. Mara, Dr. McCollum, W. M. Fisher, W. K. McNaught, Percy Greene and J. S. Garvin, Field Captain of the Torontos. Duncan E. Bowie of the Montreal Lacrosse Club, and Ross Mackenzie, "the Toronto's big mascot," both of whom cherish fond memories of their kind treatment in Belfast in 1883, accompanied the Irishmen and came in for their share of welcome.

The visitors were driven immediately to the residences of the gentlemen on whom they had been billeted. After breakfast Boyd Bond's four-in-hand and drag called for them and all hands were on the way to the Baseball Grounds when the rain commenced and the drag turned back. The rest of the morning was put in at the National Club.

Canada's national game is played rain or shine. Weather has the effect only of regulating the number of spectators. Therefore, as has been observed and as might have been expected from the state of the weather, the attendance at the match in the afternoon was comparatively small. There was present the usual proportion of ladies.

The match lasted for a little over an hour, and resulted in favor of the Torontos by five games to two. At the end of the first half the teams changed ends. The Torontos altered the positions of their men, and played in the following order: Goal, Stowe; point, Bonnell; cover point, Eckardt; defence field, Martin, Coulson; centre, Sewell; home field, Macdonald; Drynan, Garvin; home, McHenry, Dixon. Gibb of the Irish team retired with a damaged knee, and Irving went off with him.

The Torontos played their usual game—good all round.

The play of the Irishmen was unique. Its most striking feature was the entire absence of the use of the body, and this at times gave onlookers the idea that the man engaged was "funking." Such was not the case. The rules under which the Irish team plays at home forbid body checking, and the players scrupulously observe this rule. Of course it injured their cause materially. They caught well, picked up cleanly, and in some cases ran like deers. Their manner of throwing was most peculiar. All overhand shots were made, the favorite throw being an underhand one, the ball being tossed high. Their defence was strong, although a little inclined to take things easily. The field was good. The home team played an "uncover" game, and thereby, in the person of Sinclair, won both the games. Macdonald, Gibb, Ross, Blow and Sinclair especially distinguished themselves.

Dinner to the Irish Team.

At the Queen's in the evening the Toronto Club dined their Irish visitors in royal style. The veterans, John Massie and C. H. Nelson, were in the chair and vice-chair, and on their either sides were the guests, including the Irishmen, Governor Robinson, Mayor Howland, H. P. Dwight and many old and present players. The menu was gotten up in first-class style and everything was done to make the guests enjoy themselves, and this they succeeded in doing. His Worship the Mayor proposed the health of the Irish Team in a neat speech, and Capt. Kelly made a suitable reply. Good songs were interspersed with the toasts and speeches, and the company broke up at midnight, all sorry to part, glad to meet again.

Toronto Lacrosse Club Prospects.

The Torontos have now defeated the Shamrocks and Cornwalls twice each, the Ontarios and Montrealers once each, and have played a draw with the Ontarios. They have beaten New York on her own hill and have extended hospitality to their Irish visitors. And now for the Montrealers. On Saturday the 28th inst., the Torontos play the champions in Montreal. The Montrealers have defeated the Cornwalls and Ontarios twice each and have been defeated once each by the Torontos and Shamrocks. Hence the match on the 28th may decide the year's contest. If the Torontos win, they have the pennant "in their mitt," in lacrosse parlance. If the Montrealers win they will stand an equal chance with the Torontos. Both clubs will strain every nerve to "get there." It believes the Torontos, however, not to go back on their previous record this year. Commencing to-night they will start practice nightly at 6 sharp, taking tea on the grounds.

Oxford C. C. v. Oshawa C. C.

Owing to rain, this match did not take place until about 4 o'clock. Oxfords commenced their innings upon a very wet wicket which rendered good cricket impossible. The last wicket fell for 22 runs. The bowling of Holland and Ham was excellent. Oshawa had nine wickets down for 8 runs, when the last two men made a determined stand and by a few good hits raised their score to 25, or 3 runs ahead of their opponents. Henderson made 14 by good hitting and the bowling of Cameron and Foley was excellent.

Rain Interrupts the International Cricket Match.

MONTREAL, Aug. 16.—The international cricket match between the West Indian team and the Montrealers was commenced here to-day. Wickets were pitched at 12 o'clock. Montreal went in first and scored 99 runs for a loss of five wickets. The game was then discontinued on account of rain.

Holiday Games.

The bachelors and single men of the north-eastern part of the city played a game of baseball in Rosedale yesterday. The single men proved too much for the bachleads; score:

	R.	H.	E.
Bachelors	0 4 3 0 2—	8	13 6
Single men	3 2 4 2 7—	18	11 10

Batteries: Bachelors, T. Guardhouse, p.; E. Lawson, c.; single men, Boxall, p.; E. McCormack, c.

Eagles 21, Baysides 21. Batteries: Baysides, Webb and Battle; Eagles, Smith and Bates.

A match was to have been played on Saturday between the Grocers and John Macdonald & Co., but owing to the non-appearance of the Grocers the game was given to the Macdonald team, 9 to 0.

Two Games Postponed on Account of Rain.

A big crowd went over the Don yesterday forenoon to witness the Toronto-Hamilton baseball match. The Torontos went first to bat and did not score. Hamilton followed suit. In the second innings Toronto had scored one run and had two men on bases when the umpire called time on account of rain. Another crowd, attracted by a rumor that a game was to be called at 4 o'clock, went down in the afternoon, but as the announcement proved to be unofficial they were not admitted to the grounds.

THE POISONED TROTTERS.

The Devilish Work of "Texas Tom"—Excitement in Chicago.

CHICAGO, Aug. 16.—The arrest of Thomas Redmond, alias "Texas Tom," for alleged complicity in the attempt to poison Ed. Corrigan's mare, Lizzie Dwyer, is liable to lead to startling developments. "Texas Tom" now confesses that the report of his meeting Charles Price at Englewood was correct, and that Price gave him $400 to bet on Brunette against Lizzie Dwyer.

Price had obtained the money through Mamie Hunt defeating Pearl Jennings on July 17, where the latter was a very strong favorite. It is almost certain Pearl Jennings was drugged and thus prevented from winning. Many who saw the behavior of the mare at the post that day were convinced that something was wrong with her. "Texas" is still silent as to his confederate, and refuses to divulge the name of the people who were at the back of the transaction.

There is a strong suspicion directed in certain quarters, and it is more than probable that the officials are on the right scent. When the attempt was made to poison Lady Golden at the Lake as St. Louis, two years ago, Sam Bryant, the owner, forced "Texas Tom" to to produce the bottle of poison which he had intended to give the filly. He then told Redmond that if he would give the names of the people who employed him he would not deal harshly with him. Redmond consented, and in the presence of Detective Browning, of St. Louis, gave the names of two bookmakers. The detective for some reason best known to himself told Redmond that it was of no use giving up these names, as it would not help him in the least, whereupon Redmond said he would take the whole statement back, and that what he had said was not true. The names of these bookmakers are, however, known, and as one of them has been doing business during the Washington Park meeting, though he was not there the last few days, it is expected he may know something of the business. It is further claimed that money was sent from Chicago to St. Louis to defend Redmond when he got into the Lady of the Lake trouble, and that some Chicago gamblers are implicated in Redmond's work.

Harry Davies in going in good form, and is confident that he can down the Yankee flyers who are going to compete.

Matterson Defeats Perkins.

LONDON, Aug. 16.—Matterson, the Australian sculler, beat Perkins to-day in a race over the Thames course from Putney to Mortlake. The stakes were £200 a side. Matterson led throughout winning easily by six lengths. The betting was 5 to 2 on Perkins. Time 25.12.

The Empire Ahead.

There's a symmetry of motion
To my sympathetic notion
In the pitcher as he curves the ball;

There's an idyl, great in diction,
Quite exciting as a fiction,
In the batter when he flies the wall.

And the pose of grace and beauty
Of the catcher doing duty
Is an epic quite exceeding all.

But for poetry of motion,
To my unpretentious notion,
There's nothing like the umpire's gall.

CANOEISTS JOURNEYING.

Toronto Boys Making a Trip of Over 1000 Miles.

From the Kingston News, Aug. 14.

The members of the Ubique Canoe Club, Toronto, left Ottawa for Kingston on Thursday night. The party was composed of the following: Mr. Waters, Uxbridge, commodore; Mr. C. Fraser, Toronto, vice-commodore; Mr. J. N. McKendrick, Galt, purser, Mr. W. E. Evans, Galt, steward; Mr. W. A. Fraser, Fernhill, boatswain; Mr. W. P. Thomson, Mr. John Brant, M. A., Toronto, and Mr. George A. Smith, Galt. The start was made from Bradford on July 1, the route pursued being up the Holland River to Lake Simcoe, thence via the Severn river into Georgian Bay, along which they coasted to the mouth of French River. Passing through this river Lake Nipissing was reached and crossed, and the party proceeded down the River Mattawa to Ottawa. At the Thousand Islands the boys will meet with the American Canoe Association and after spending a few days out there the will then proceed home by way of Lake Ontario. The fleet consisted of the following canoes—the Unda, Edna, Enid and Lorne.

The King of Beaumark Saves a Man's Life.

From the London Daily News.

On Sunday, July 25, King Christian and the Duke of Chartres were riding through the forest of Klampenborg, accompanied by a groom. On a narrow road in the forest they met a char-a-banc containing a party. The carriage stopped to let the King and Duke pass, and some of the company rose to show their respects.

At the same moment the horses with the carriage got frightened and became most unsteady. Whereupon an old gentleman of the party lost his balance and tumbled out of the char-a-banc in such a position that one of his feet got entangled in the carriage and his head was under one of the wheels. The danger was great. A single movement of the carriage would be fatal.

Quick as lightning King Christian jumped from his horse and caught hold of the gentleman's head, which he carefully lifted, while the Duke of Chartres spurred his horse forward and seized the carriage horses by the bridle. In this way the gentleman's life was saved, and the King, together with the rest of the party, helped him to ascend the char-a-banc. But the King's horse had made use of his liberty to run away, and the King was obliged to mount the groom's horse to get back to Bernstorff Palace.

The King's horse—his favorite riding horse—was not found until many hours afterward. The animal had hurt itself very much by running against some fences, and is, perhaps, entirely spoiled. The King has since officially stated that he does not wish any one who is riding in a carriage to rise when they meet him.

Good-Bye, Great Western.

From the St. Thomas Journal.

The name of the old Great Western Railway of Canada will shortly be entirely obliterated. When the fusion of the Great Western and Grand Trunk took place in 1883 the name Great Western was retained in the name of the division, and the cars which went into the shops all came out with "G. W. Division" marked on them to distinguish them from those of the main line. Now the cars have been changed, and instead of bearing the lettering, "Grand Trunk Railway, G. W. Division," as in the past, the new wine color cars bear simply the name "Grand Trunk."

Newsdealers and Subscribers are requested to provide boxes or paper slits in their doors; otherwise their World will be exposed on the step for two hours or more and liable to be stolen. Our morning delivery is now so large that the carts and boys start out on their rounds at a very early hour.

Rothschild's Carriage.

Baron Rothschild drives the finest four-in-hand turn out in Hyde Park, London, (England). His horses cost £100 each, the carriage (or "drag," in English) cost £10,000, and his harness is mounted with solid silver (rings and buckles included). The difference between his "gaudy" harness and the "durability" of the goods manufactured by the Canadian Harness Company is worthy of the greatest consideration. 246
