PUBLICATIONS.

LILLY WAIT & Co.—BOSTON.

To Parents, Teachers, School Committees, and all who feel an interest in the Improvement of Youth.

It is only one year since Parley's Magazine was commenced. During that short period the number of subscribers has increased to 20,000 and the work has received, every where, the most unqualified approbation. It has found its way to thousands of families, and while it has entertained the social circle, its unobtrusive lessons have, we hope, often had a salutary influence on the Juvenile mind and heart. It has also found its way to the school room; and many classes of young pupils have been cheered twice a month by the welcome voice of the teacher bidding them to lay aside, for a few days, the class book which they have read over and over, perhaps twenty imes, and read the pages of Parleys Magazine.—The demand for the work, to be used in schools, is rapidly increasing. Encouraged by such unexampled success, the Publishers resolved to render it still more worthy of so liberal a patronage and not to remit their exertions till they see it introduced into families and schools, through the whole length and breadth of the United States.—In this view they have secured the aid of the late Editor of the Juvenile Rambler; who has the advantage of many years experience, not only as a writer for the youth, but as a Teacher.

Among the topics which we propose to present in this volume are the following:

I. Natural History—Beasts, birds, fishes, reptiles, insects, plants, flowers, trees, the human frame, &c.

II. Biography Especially of the young.

III. Geography Accounts of places, manners ustoms, &c.

IV. Travels and Voyages, n various parts of he world.

V. Descriptions of the Curiosities of Nature and Art, in the United tates, and in other countries.

VI. Lessons on objects around Children in the Nursery, Parlor, Garden. &c. Trades and Employment

VII. Particular duties of the young—to Parents Teachers Brothers, isters, &c.

VIII. Bible Lessons and tories.

IX. Narratives—uch as are well authenticated Original Tales.

X. Parables, Fables and Proverbs, where the moral is obvious and excellent.

XI. Poetry adapted to the Youthful capacity and feelings.

XII. Intelligence Embracing accounts of Juvenile Books, ocieties, and Remarkable Occurances.

Many of these subjects will be illustrated by numerous and beautiful engravings prepared by the best artists, and selected not only with a view to adorn the work, but to improve the taste, cultivate the mind, and raise the affections of the young to appropriate and worthy objects. We would make them better children, better brothers, better sisters, better pupils, better associates, and in the end, better citizens.

May we not ask the co-peration of all who receive this Circular, in the great work of forming the youthful mind and character? Will you no lend us your aid and influence, in endeavouring to introduce to the American schools, and parlours, and fires ides, the stories and lessons of Parley's Magazine?

The yearly subscription being but ONE DOLLAR our friends will perceive the impracticabity of keeping open so many thousand accounts. It is therefore indispensible that we should require payment in advance.

The price of the Magazine is $1 year six copies for $5: twenty copies for $15 or twenty five quarterly parts for $5. Payment in all cases to be made in advance.

Subscriptions for the above received at the Office of the Standard.

Apprentice Wanted.

Wanted a Boy, about 12 or 14 years of age, of good moral habits, who has received a tolerable good English education, as an Apprentice to the Printing Business, good references will be required, as to character &c Enquire at this Office.

NOTICE.

The Subscriber finding that but little attention has been paid to his former advertisement respecting the settlement of out-standing debts, has now to inform delinquents, that as fast as the accounts can be prepared, they will be placed in the hands of his Attorney.

July 2d JAMES BOYD.

PROSPECTUS OF A TREATISE ON AGRICULTURE,

ADAPTED TO THE CLIMATE AND CIRCUMSTANCES OF CANADA.

A BOUNTIFUL Providence has furnished Canada with inexhaustible sources of wealth, in her most fertile soil and climate, which is by no means unfavourable to Agriculture. The due improvement of these, and other natural advantages, is capable of giving riches and every reasonable enjoyment to her present, and a vastly increasing population.

The importance of Agriculture to Canada, must be obvious to every one capable of forming a sound judgement in such matters. It is Agriculture that must afford the direct supply of all her greates wants. It must in this, and in every other country be the parent of Manufactures and Commerce, and the best means of promoting civilization and population; consequently it ever will be the most universal and useful of arts. To almost all nations, the most powerful individuals derive their wealth and consequence from their property in land, cultivated and managed by the husbandman.

Agriculture, therefore, and agriculture alone can support us without the help of others, in certain plenty and real dignity. While our ground is covered with corn, and cattle we can want for nothing. Manufactures and delicacies that we may require from without, Corn and Cattle will purchase, if we will only raise them in abundance, and excellence.

From the importance of Agriculture and the great interest that is consequently felt on the subject, in the British Isles, and other countries of Europe a varied and voluminous mass of knowledge has been accumulated, which would be most useful to every one who would wish to practice the art with success himself, or understand when well practiced for him by others. To combine as far as practicable the portion of this knowledge which I conceive to be most useful and necessary for the study of the Canadian Agriculturist, is the object of the treatise which I have now nearly ready for the press, and the plan of which I submit with great deference to the consideration of all those engaged in the art.—The sources from which I have made selections are the modern British and French Authors, of decided reputation and merit, with my own observations and experience, during my early years in the occupancy of extensive farms in Ireland, chiefly as a Grazier, and for a period of nearly seventeen years that I have been a farmer in Canada. Several years of the latter period I have had the honor to be Secretary to the District and County of Montreal Agricultural Society.

I propose to publish the work in four or five parts The first part will give a short view of the origin progress; and present state of Agriculture, among some of the ancient and modern nations particularly Great Britain, France, Flanders, the United States &c. I am aware the past state of Agriculture can do little more than gratify the curiosity. Not so its present state, which is calculated both to excite our curiosity and affect our interests. There is probably no country which I shall refer to, that does not possess some animal or vegetable production, or pursue some mode of culture, or management, that might be beneficially introduced into Canada; but with the exception of the countries I have named and parts of Italy and Switzerland, there are no very interesting Reports of the Agriculture of other parts of Europe, with which I am acquainted at present. The second part will exhibit a concise view of the science of Agriculture, and the principles on which the operations and results thereof are founded The third, and remaining parts, will apply these principles to the practice of Agriculture, adapting them to the climate and other circumstances of Canada; and conclude with a few observations on that portion of the trade and commerce of this country in which farmers may be directly or indirectly interested.

Convinced as I feel, that the produce of Agriculture is the only riches that the people of this country can call their own, and which they never can be deprived of, it has often astonished me, that men of liberal education should, in general, appear so little to regard its improvement or prosperity—in fact, it is treated as a subject quite remote from common life, by nearly all who are not immediately engaged in it They, perhaps, cannot allow themselves to believe that Agriculture alone can furnish the means by which trade and commerce can be carried on successfully in Canada.

I sincerely hope to induce all who may take the trouble of reading my book, to reflect on the subjects I shall submit for their consideration, and that they will join heartily in promoting necessary improvements, and thus advance the wealth and prosperity of the land of their birth, and of their choice.

As a work of this description cannot be published in English and French without incurring considerable expense, it would be necessary for me to have as many subscribers as would insure my expenses. Subscription lists will be left at the several Book Stores in Montreal. The work, I expect, will not exceed four parts, at 1s 3d. each part. The first part to be published when there are a sufficient number of Subscribers. I expect the whole might be published before the first of May next.

The four parts will contain from 250 to 300 pages and may be bound in one volume. I shall do all in my power to make the book worthy of the patronage of all who desire to promote the prosperity of Agriculture, as well as of those who practice the art. WM. EVANS.

GENTLEMEN'S VADE MECUM.

EMBRACING DRAMATIC LITERATURE—SPORTING—THE TURF—FASHIONS—AND VARIOUS SUBJECTS OF INTEREST AND AMUSEMENT.

About the first of January, 1835, will be commenced in Philadelphia, a new periodical, bearing the above comprehensive title. Its contents will be carefully adapted to the wants of that portion of the public who patronize Dramatic Literature, the Turf, Sporting, and the Fashions. From the growing wealth and increasing population of the United States, and the near assimilation, of the national appetite with whatever promotes the Rational recreations of Life, it is presumed that this Journal,—possessing, as the projector of it will, ample means to diversify its pages, and a determination to render them subservient to the formation of a correct taste in all matters relating to its design, cannot fail to meet with a liberal and creditable support from an enlightened community in every quarter of the country The difficulty of sketching out such a plan as might be fancifully strewed with any of the charms of novelty to ensure it popularity and encouragement, has been not the least embarrassing obstacle which the projectors of this work had to surmount in its inception. Feeling confidently assured, however, that its success is certain, when its character becomes properly known, they have already incurred considerable expense in forming correspondents over the Union; and have also ordered regular supplies of the best selected English periodicals to assist in procuring materials for its columns.

It is not altogether feasible, when a new publication is contemplated, to present in detail to the public its prospective attractions. It is necessary, nevertheless, that its principal features should be drawn out, as it is by them that its merits, if it has any, shall be judged. This is the more readily accomplished, the publishers being satisfied that whatever industry and a watchful zeal can effect in completing the filling up, will be done, and that they never will be found deficient or neglectful in the prosecution of this enterprize, and in striving to produce a beneficial and profitable result to themselves and to others.

THE DRAMA—Will form a material portion of the Gentlemen's Vade Mecum It is intended to publish alternately, every week, one entire play and farce—to be selected with a single eye to their merits alone; a preference, however, will be extended in all cases, to native productions when they can be obtained. Independent criticisms, carefully excluding all invidious comparisons, and recommended by their brevity, will be inserted,—besides Biographical Sketches, Anecdotes, and Bon Mots, of prominent Comedians of the present and past ages, of which a Care and inexhaustible compilation is in store.

THE TURF—A faithful record will be kept of all the Running and Trotting matches in this country and England. Biographies and correct Portraits of celebrated thorough bred Horses will be published once a month. Every fact relative to the breeding, management, keeping, and the diseases of this invaluable animal, will be particularly selected.

SPORTING.—Under this caption will be enumerated accounts of Shooting Matches, Pedestrian Feats, Gymnastic Exercises, Aquatic Excursions, Fishing, Gaming, &c. with Anecdotes of noted Dogs.

GENTLEMEN'S FASHIONS.—A quarterly review will be presented, explanatory of the various improvements and changes costumes worn in the fashionable circles constantly undergo, by which it will be rendered an easy task for drapers and tailors at a distance, to suit their customers with the most approved colors and modern style of dress, at the earliest possible periods Provided sufficient encouragement shall be given by this portion of the public, a full length engraving, illustrative of the same, will also be prepared and published.

MISCELLANY.—Although the purposes of our sheet may appear to be confined to the four leading subjects which have been stated—we deem it proper to say, that there will be, in addition to these, a considerable space allowed for Miscellaneous matters—such as Tales—Poetry—an Epitome of News—List of Hotels in this city, and places of Amusement—Statistics—the Grain Market—Agriculture—Prices of Stock—List of Broken Banks—Counterfeit Note Detector—and all other matters, regarding which an interest may be supposed to exist at home or abroad.

This work, then, as will be seen by the above explanation of its probable character, is particularly designed as a companion for the patrons of the Turf, the Drama, Sporting, the Fashions, &c. &c. It will prove, also,—as all its publication of facts will be authentic,—a ready Record of Reference for Travelling Gentlemen, and should consequently be kept in every hotel in the United States. It is worthy of notice, that its patrons, in the course of one year, will be furnished with fifty-two popular Plays and Farces—the price of which, separately at any of our book stores, would be at least THIRTEEN DOLLARS! Here there is an absolute saving of ten dollars in the purchase of a well-stored Dramatic Library—to be had for an unprecedented small sum!—not taking into consideration the multiplied variety which is to accompany it without additional charge! Tailors who desire to procure early and correct information of the changes in dress, will find this an invaluable guide.

The Gentlemen's Vade Mecum, &c. will be published every Saturday, on fine imperial paper, of the largest class, at three dollars per annum, PAYABLE IN ADVANCE.

By enclosing a FIVE DOLLAR NOTE to the publishers, postage paid, two copies of the paper will be forwarded to any direction ordered, for one year. It is respectfully requested that those who desire to subscribe for this Journal will forward their names immediately—the terms will be strictly adhered to.

A Monthly Magazine, containing,
Tales, original and selected, Moral and Scientific Essays, Poetry, from the best Authors, the Quarterly representation of Ladies' Fashions, adopted in Philadelphia colored. Music of the newest styles &c. &c.

Published regularly on the first day of every month
At No. 3, Athenian Buildings, Franklin Place, PHILADELPHIA.

Embellished with a beautiful and extensive variety of engravings, from original and selected designs, both coloured and plain, with two engraved title pages, and two distinct indexes, (intended to perfect separate volumes in the year) also, a choice collection of Music original and selected, arranged for the piano or guitar, with nearly 600 pages large octavo letter press, and only

$3 PER ANNUM.

Each number of this periodical contains 48 pages of extra royal octavo letter press, printed with clear, new, and beutiful type, (arranged after the manner of the London "La Belle Assemblee,") on paper of the finest texture and whitest colour. It is embellished with splendid Engravings on copper and steel, executed by artists of the highest skill and destinction, and embracing every variety of subject. Among these are illustrations of Popular Legends, Romantic Incidents, Attractive Scenery, and portraits of Illustrious Females. The number commencing each quarter contains a picture of the existing Philadelphia Fashions, designed, engraved and coloured expressly for this work, by competent personssepialely engaged for that purpose. The Embellishments of this character which have appeared in former numbers, are confessedly superior to any which have been furnished in any other similar American publication, and from the arrangements which have been made, there is every reason to believe they will be improved in the coming volumes. In addition to the Embellishments just referred to, every number contains several engravings on wood, representing foreign and native scenes, curious and interesting subjects, Natural history, Entomology, Mineralogy, Conchology, Humorous incidents, Ordamental Productions, Embroidery, and other needle work, Riding, Dancing &c. besides one or morpieces of popular Music, arranged for the Piano or Guitar.

Persons in this quarter who feel desirous to patronize the Lady's Book, can have their names enrolled at the Standard Office and forwarded to Mr. Godey.

RE-PUBLICATION
OF THE
LONDON, EDINBURGH, FOREIGN, AND WESTMINSTER
QUARTERLY REVIEWS.

Plan of the Work.

The numbers of each work are published separately, and form an exact reprint of the original copies. They are issued as soon after they are received from Europe, as is consistant with their proper publication.

Price for the whole series, comprising the regular numbers of the London, Edinburgh, Foreign, and Westminster Reviews, $8 per annum.

To those who take less than the whole, the terms will be as follows:—

For three of them $7 per annum.
For two " 5 "
For one " 3 "

These subscriptions are invariably to be paid within three months of the time of subscribing From this rule there will be no deviation.

Subscribers at a distance must enclose at least one half of a year's subscription in advance, otherwise a second number will not be sent—the terms being so low as not to justify any hazard in obtaining payment.

The cost of these works when imported is $32 Of the three at present republished, two of them alone, the London and Edinburgh, cost $10. The Westminster, not being re-published, can only be obtained at the importing price $8 per annum, or $2 per number. The Foreign Quarterly is re-published in weekly parts in connexion with two other periodicals. When obtained separately, its cost is the same as the Westminster.

TO MAIL SUBSCRIBERS.

Mail subscribers will be furnished with the numbers of this publication free of postage, upon the following terms, to wit:

For either of them $4 per annum.
For two 6 "
For three 8 "
For four 10 "

The publisher is only enabled to do this by its saving the expense of agencies, consequently communication must be made with him personall FREE OF CHARGE.

It will be seen by these conditions, that the subscriber who receives all four of the Quarterlies, will obtain them for $6 exclusive of postage, or $2 cheaper than he otherwise could, the postage being about $4 per annum, or 25 cts. on each number that is forwarded upwards of one hundred miles.

☞ Postage will not be paid on any number unless payment is received for at least one year's subscription in advance, according to the terms, as here given.

☞ No letters will be taken from the post office, unless sent free of charge.
