British and Foreign.

[By Telegraph to Associated Press.]

LONDON, May 7.

General John Hall of the British army is dead.

Isaac Butt, member for Limerick, in a letter on "Home Rule," asks for an Irish Assembly in which Home-rulers shall be fully represented. He approves of a plan for the future union between Ireland and England guaranteeing the authority of the Crown, and draws the outlines of a Federal Union which, he says, will be a satisfactory settlement of the relations of the two countries.

Bismarck is again indisposed, and his physicians insist on absolute rest or the consequences may be serious.

There is considerable excitement in Copenhagen over the arrest of the President and Treasurer of the International Society in Copenhagen.

Some demonstrations of violence were made but they were suppressed.

The public buildings are under guard.

Leading members of the Society will be prosecuted for high treason.

The New York Tribune's present stockholders, that is dating January 1, 1872, are Horace Greeley, Mrs. Greeley, Bayard Taylor, Thomas N. Rooker, Solon Robinson, Samuel Sinclair, Geo. Ripley, Theodore Tilton, Oliver Johnson, Chas. E. Wilbour, C. A. Runkle, John Hooper, Ellis L. Price, Silas E. Cheney, John F. Cleveland, Patrick O'Rourke, Philip A. Fitzpatrick, Whitelaw Reid, Parsons Harnham, E. H. Jenny, J. C. Ayer, and the estates of A. D. Richardson and S. T. Clarke—twenty-two owners and 100 shares. Any owner who wishes to sell a share can readily get $10,000 for it, and something over.

— Forty-eight thousand dollars in prime stocks and bonds were last week handed to the Trustees of the "New Hampshire College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts" by Hon. John Conant, of Jaffrey, N. H., the income to be devoted to scholarships in the maintenance and education of young men of the State. This is the second instance of munificence from the same source, Mr. Conant having previously bestowed $30,000 on this New Hampshire College.
