AYER'S Hair Vigor

restores, with the gloss and freshness of youth, faded or gray hair to a natural, rich brown color, or deep black, as may be desired. By its use light or red hair may be darkened, thin hair thickened, and baldness often, though not always, cured.

It checks falling of the hair, and stimulates a weak and sickly growth to vigor. It prevents and cures scurf and dandruff, and heals nearly every disease peculiar to the scalp. As a Ladies' Hair Dressing, the VIGOR is unequalled; it contains neither oil nor dye, renders the hair soft, glossy, and silken in appearance, and imparts a delicate, agreeable, and lasting perfume.

MR. C. P. BRICHER writes from Kirby, O., July 3, 1882: "Last fall my hair commenced falling out, and in a short time I became nearly bald. I used part of a bottle of AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, which stopped the falling of the hair, and started a new growth. I have now a full head of hair growing vigorously, and am convinced that but for the use of your preparation I should have been entirely bald."

J. W. BOWEN, proprietor of the McArthur (Ohio) Enquirer, says: "AYER'S HAIR VIGOR is a most excellent preparation for the hair. I speak of it from my own experience. Its use promotes the growth of new hair, and makes it glossy and soft. The VIGOR is also a sure cure for dandruff. Not within my knowledge has the preparation ever failed to give entire satisfaction."

MR. ANGUS FAIRBAIRN, leader of the celebrated "Fairbairn Family" of Scottish Vocalists, writes from Boston, Mass., Feb. 6, 1880: "Ever since my hair began to give silvery evidence of the change which fleeting time procureth, I have used AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, and so have been able to maintain an appearance of youthfulness—a matter of considerable consequence to ministers, orators, actors, and in fact every one who lives in the eyes of the public."

MRS. O. A. PRESCOTT, writing from 18 Elm St., Charlestown, Mass., April 14, 1882, says: "Two years ago about two-thirds of my hair came off. It thinned very rapidly, and I was fast growing bald. On using AYER'S HAIR VIGOR the falling stopped and a new growth commenced, and in about a month my head was completely covered with short hair. It has continued to grow, and is now as good as before it fell. I regularly used but one bottle of the VIGOR, but now use it occasionally as a dressing."

We have hundreds of similar testimonials to the efficacy of AYER'S HAIR VIGOR. It needs but a trial to convince the most skeptical of its value.

A MARVELOUS STORY

TOLD IN TWO LETTERS.

FROM THE SON: "28 Cedar St., New York, Oct. 25, 1882.

"Gentlemen—My father resides at Glover, Vt. He has been a great sufferer from Scrofula, and the inclosed letter will tell you what a marvelous effect has had in his case. I think his blood must have contained the humor for at least ten years; but it did not show, except in the form of a scrofulous sore on the wrist, until about five years ago. From a few spots which appeared at that time, it gradually spread so as to cover his entire body. I assure you he was terribly afflicted, and an object of pity, when he began using your medicine. Now, there are few men of his age who enjoy as good health as he has. I could easily name fifty persons who would testify to the facts in his case.

Yours truly, W. M. PHILLIPS."

FROM THE FATHER: "It is both a pleasure and a duty for me to state to you the benefit I have derived from the use of

Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

Six months ago I was completely covered with a terrible humor and scrofulous sores. The humor caused an incessant and intolerable itching, and the skin cracked so as to cause the blood to flow in many places whenever I moved. My sufferings were great, and my life a burden. I commenced the use of the SARSAPARILLA in April last, and have used it regularly since that time. My condition began to improve at once. The sores have all healed, and I feel perfectly well in every respect—being now able to do a good day's work, although 73 years of age. Many inquire what has wrought such a cure in my case, and I tell them, as I have here tried to tell you, AYER'S SARSAPARILLA. Glover, Vt., Oct. 21, 1882. Yours gratefully,

HIRAM PHILLIPS."

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA cures Scrofula and all Scrofulous Complaints, Erysipelas, Eczema, Ringworm, Blotches, Sores, Boils, Tumors, and Eruptions of the Skin. It clears the blood of all impurities, aids digestion, stimulates the action of the bowels, and thus restores vitality and strengthens the whole system.

Charlottetown, May 2, 1883—3m

Roman Intelligence.

ROME, Sept. 12.

The condition of Cardinal de Luca's health is stationrry. There is no new cause for alarm, although he is by no means out of danger.

The Sacred Congregation of Propaganda has just sent 20,000 francs to the missions of Central Oceanica, 10,000 to the missions of Ceylon, and a like sum to the missions of Zambesi.

The Moniteur de Rome announces that only a portion of the United States Episcopate will come to Rome in the month of November, to assist at the assembly which will then be held. These Bishops will hold, it is said, under the the direction of the Sacred Congregation of the Propaganda, conferences in which the questions will be prepared which will constitute the object of the council shortly to be held in the United States.

The distrust of Italy which prevails in France, and the hatred of the latter country which is so general amongst Italians, have been made evident during the past week. Many causes combined to produce this display of feeling. The absence of the Italian ambassador from the Ischia fetes at Paris, and the commentaries hostile to France, on the threatening article of the North German Gazette, at the moment when most generous efforts were being made in Paris for the assistance of Italians, furnished sufficient cause of complaint to France. Hence a series of articles in the French press taxing Italians with ingratitude, and even conveying threats of future war against Italy. There is no doubt French anger was more or less justifiable. But when Henri Rochefort described the attitude of the Italian press as ignoble, and King Humbert as "a crowned mendicant who should, at least, refuse French money," it was felt that the boundaries of decency had been overstepped, and Italian national pride deeply wounded.

The Holy Father, has published, with the date of 1st September, a Pontifical Encyclical addressed to all the Bishops of the Catholic world. In this he exhorts the Bishops to celebrate with extraordinary fervor the solemnity of the Most Holy Rosary; and he relates how the founder and father of the Dominican Order, who was raised up by God against the scourge of Albigensian heresy, advanced against the enemies of the Church, not with violence or with arms, but with the most absolute faith in this devotion of the Holy Rosary, which he was the first to promulgate, and which his children have carried to all parts of the globe. His Holiness dwells on the good fruits which followed from the use of this devotion; piety, faith, concord began to take root, and the designs of heretics fell into ruin; many were brought back to a life of virtue, and error has been driven back by Catholic arms. The present times are calamitous for the Church and for governments, for kings and nations. In the days of her distress the Church called upon her children to invoke the patronage of her to whom it has been given to conquer all heresies, and who is addressed as Help of Christians. The Blessed Virgin, fervently and unitedly invoked, will obtain from God those remedies, lights and graces of which society in our days has so much need. When Europe was threatened by the Turks, St. Pius V. invoked the patronage of the Most Blessed Mary, and the victory of Lepanto was obtained, whilst in Rome prayers were being addressed to the Blessed Virgin by the recital of the Rosary. Vienna was liberated from a terrible invasion, whilst by order of Pope Innocent XI. supplications were addressed to her in all the churches of the Eternal City. The Holy Father recommends the recital of the Rosary not only in private but in public, in processions, and that the people attend to these exercises of piety.

Forgiveness of Sins.

The Right Rev. P. J. Ryan, Bishop of St. Louis, in the course of a sermon preached recently in Baltimore, replied to several objections of non-Catholics to the mode of forgiveness of sins within the pale of the Church. He said that no priest had the power to forgive sins without sorrow for them on the part of the penitent; that the priest was merely God's agent, as he is in forgiving original sin by baptism. Some persons have supposed that the facility of forgiveness of sin in the Church led to a lessening of the horror of sin, that the sinner, not doubting that his sins were forgiven, soon forgot them and soon relapsed into them. But as the doctrine and discipline of the Church required not merely a turning away from sin, but a life of penance in expiation for them, there was no such fatal facility. The Catholic had to do what all the non-Catholics had to do, repent before God, and promise amendment, make restitution of character and property, and then, besides, the humiliation of a confession. And after that confession his whole life had to be a perpetual recollection of his past disloyalty to his God. The Bishop alluded to the condition of the prodigal son after his reconciliation with his father—how, though his father forgave him, the prodigal could not forgive himself, but probably wept at every act of tenderness which that father performed towards him. He spoke of two kinds of the love of God: The love undimmed by any act of disloyalty, such love as that of the Blessed Mother of Christ, and the angels, who remained faithful, and also that great penitential love of those who having fallen, desire to wash out in their life's blood the record of their shame. Such penitent saints as Peter, Mary Magdalen and Augustine never forgot their sins and never forgave themselves. The royal penitent David wept over his iniquities for years after he was assured that God had forgiven him. His cry for mercy the Miserere—was the most eloquent appeal to God that ever sprung from the human heart.

KING'S COUNTY EXHIBITION.

Nothwithstanding the very disagreeable weather which prevailed last Thursday, the King's County Exhibition was largely attended. Our eastern friends seem to have entered into the spirit of the affair with a will, and a resolve to appear at their very best, and we congratulate them upon the success which attended their efforts. It might almost be supposed that with the greater attractions of the Centennial Fair at St. John, and the prospective General Exhibition in Charlottetown this week, the show would be tame and uninteresting, but such was not the case. Georgetown was gay and lively, and the square was crowded with people from all parts of the country. All the arrangements were in capital order, for which the committee deserve credit. There were over eight hundred entries in the various classes, a proof that King's County is determined not to be behind the times. Owing to the absence of the Lieut. Governor at the St. John Exhibition there was no formal opening. The live stock made a very good exhibit in spite of the weather, which told unfavorably upon them. Grains, vegetables and roots were excellent, as also were the samples of butter, cheese and woolen goods, which latter were shown in great variety. The following is the prize list:
