No Present Prospect of Its Settlement.

A Daughter Born to the Czar and Czarina.

Christened Olga—Prayers for Her Solicited—The Murder of Stokes—The Chinese Indemnity.

"OLGA."

London, Nov. 16.—A dispatch from St. Petersburg announces the birth of a daughter to the Czarina. Other dispatches confirm the report. At the religious services held according to the orthodox Greek rite after the birth the infant was named Olga.

ALL DROWNED.

London, Nov. 16.—A dispatch from Helsingsfors says the Finnish schooner El Pis has been wrecked in a hurricane of that port and all on board have been drowned.

A heavy westerly gale is prevailing along the Cornish coast. Loss of life and property is feared. A Fife fishing boat was capsized and five of the crew were drowned.

STEAMERS COLLIDE.

London, Nov. 16.—A dispatch from Bremen states that the British steamer Suez, Capt. Higginbotham, from Charleston, Oct. 24, for Bremen, while anchored at Bremer Haven today was cut down to the water's edge amidships by the German steamer Condor, which came into violent collision with her. The cargo in the forehold of the Suez was damaged.

THE ASHANTEE UNPLEASANTNESS.

London, Nov. 16.—A dispatch from Accra, Gold Coast, says: Two messengers sent from Coomassie by Prompeh, King of Ashantee, against whom a British expedition is now preparing, have arrived here. The governor has declined to receive them, regarding them as being without rank and unqualified to treat with the British as representatives of the King.

GERMANY GETS AN ISLAND.

London, Nov. 16.—A special dispatch received here from Shanghai says that it is positively stated that China has agreed that Germany shall occupy one of the Islands near the entrance to the seaport of Amoy for the purpose of establishing a naval yard and a coal depot.

It is added that it is feared this step will be followed by international complications, as France and Russia are certain to seek similar privileges.

THE CLYDE STRIKE.

London, Nov. 16.—The prospects of the settlement of the strike of the shipbuilders on the Clyde grows more remote. The employers refuse to submit the dispute to mediation, and will only treat with delegates from the men. The Government recently appointed Gerald Balfour, Chief Secretary for Ireland, to use his good offices to secure a settlement of the strike, but it appears that the employers do not propose to submit to any Government interference, and will settle the dispute on terms to be decided upon after conference with representatives of the strikers.

SPAIN'S COSTLY CONTEST.

Madrid, Nov. 16—El Liberal estimates that the Cuban revolution is costing Spain 750,000 pesetas daily, or about $140,000, as that amount is required to maintain the troops and naval squadron engaged in the war. Dispatches from Havana state that there is much anxiety in that city in consequence of the concentration of the rebels in the Province of Santa Clara, and troops are being hurried to that Province. Marshal Campos has even drawn reinforcements from Santiago, and will endeavor to force a decisive encounter in the Seguines district.

PRAYERS FOR THE PRINCESS.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 16.—An Imperial manifesto was issued today announcing the birth of a daughter, subsequently named Olga, at 9 o'clock last night to the Czar and Czarina. It says: "Inasmuch as we regard this accession to the Imperial house as a token of blessings vouchsafed to our house and empire, we notify the joyful event to all our faithful subjects and join with them in offering fervent prayers to the Almighty that the newly-born princess may grow up in happiness and strength."

ARMENIA LAID WASTE.

Ex-United States Minister to Turkey, Oscar S. Strauss, has received from Rev. Dr. Henry Dwight, head of the Bible House Mission in Constantinople, the following cablegram: "Armenia laid waste; quarter million of souls destitute. Will you start humanitarian work forming strong non-partisan relief commission, independent of missionaries?" Referring to the dispatch, Mr. Strauss said Dr. Dwight had been in Turkey for twenty years, and his statements could be relied upon. "He would not cable thus," said Mr. Strauss, if he were not sure of the facts. There evidently must have been some terrible conflicts between the Turkish troops and the Armenians. There should be more, Mr. Strauss thought, co-operation on the part of the various committees which have formed for the relief of the Armenians. Steps will be at once taken with this end in view."

TROUBLED TURKEY.

London, Nov. 16.—The London Daily News' special from Constantinople says: The police and gendarmes, acting under orders from the Porte, are arresting every unemployed Armenian in the capital and shipping them daily to Asia Minor. The Armenians arrested are mostly inoffensive, and are not charged with any wrongdoing.

An official communication states that with a view of quelling the disorder and insuring peace in Anatolia the Government has summoned 128 battalions of reserves apart from the contingents of the fourth and fifth army corps. It has also reinstructed the valis and military commanders in peremptory language to assure just and equal treatment to all subjects of the Sultan, irrespective of race or religion.

Nearly every steamer arriving at Odessa from ports in Asia Minor brings numbers of Armenian refugees who are mostly destitute. They receive assistance from rich Armenians at Odessa. Crowds of refugees daily cross the Armenian frontier into Russia.

AN AWFUL SITUATION.

Constantinople, Nov. 16.—Three prison officials at Moosh, who were dismissed on the complaint of the British ambassador because of their brutality to Christian prisoners, have been reinstated by the Sultan. The British charge has again demanded their removal.

The Porte has published an official statement to the effect that all the recent disorders were provoked by the Armenians, who are said to have burned schools and mosques, massacred Mohammedans and used bombs.

A careful estimate makes the total of persons killed outright in the massacres 15,000, and it is probable that 30,000 will die of starvation during the coming semester. It cannot be realized in Europe how awful is the situation.

The Sultan finds it impossible to get respectable men to enter the Cabinet. An outbreak is said to have occurred in the palace, but the story is probably false. Stories of fresh outrages come in every day.

THE PASSING OF TIM HEALY.

Dublin, Nov. 16.—The vote by which the Irish Parliamentary's party's representative adopted a motion to expel Mr. Timothy M. Healy and Mr. Arthur O'Connor from the governing committee of the party was 33 to 24.

The Daily News states that as a consequence of the expulsion of Healy from the executive committee, Mr. Edmund Francis Vesey Knox has resigned his position on the committee.

The Times says: Timothy M. Healy's acquiescence in his own suppression will hardly be made easier by the triumphant announcement that Mr. Thomas Sexton, Anti-Parnellite, is to climb back to a Parliamentary position, and that the reversion of leadership is to take place over his prostrate body. With a majority of only nine against him, Mr. Healy may hope, if he remains within the party, to soon reverse this vote of expulsion.

Mr. Healy, in an interview, declared that he did not intend to form a third party, and that he did not expect to belong to any other party than the Anti-Parnellite party, of which he is still a member. His removal from the inner circles and from various committees he added, was merely a snub, and would not make any difference in his conduct.

CABLE NOTES.

The Cuban rebellion is costing Spain $150,000 weekly.

The Corean Government has resolved to establish a school system.

The Mexican Government will soon issue 20-cent pieces and call in the quarters, in order to make the monetary system purely decimal.

Reports from Rio de Janeiro are to the effect that seventeen political prisoners have been executed. A strong feeling in favor of the monarchy is said to be permeating the army and navy.

The Morning Post says the indemnity agreed to be paid to Japan for her evacuation of the Liao Tung peninsula will be handed over to the Japanese representatives by the Bank of England on Saturday.

The indemnity of £6,000 paid by the Congo State for the illegal execution of Stokes, a British trader, by Capt. Lothaire, of the Congo State's army, relates to only one phase of the matter and does not dispose of Great Britain's demand for an inquiry into Capt. Lothaire's conduct.

The Armenians arrested are mostly inoffensive, and are not charged with any wrongdoing.

An official communication states that with a view of quelling the disorder and insuring peace in Anatolia the Government has summoned 128 battalions of reserves apart from the contingents of the fourth and fifth army corps. It has also reinstructed the valis and military commanders in peremptory language to assure just and equal treatment to all subjects of the Sultan, irrespective of race or religion.

Nearly every steamer arriving at Odessa from ports in Asia Minor brings numbers of Armenian refugees who are mostly destitute. They receive assistance from rich Armenians at Odessa. Crowds of refugees daily cross the Armenian frontier into Russia.

AN AWFUL SITUATION.

Constantinople, Nov. 16.—Three prison officials at Moosh, who were dismissed on the complaint of the British ambassador because of their brutality to Christian prisoners, have been reinstated by the Sultan. The British charge has again demanded their removal.

The Porte has published an official statement to the effect that all the recent disorders were provoked by the Armenians, who are said to have burned schools and mosques, massacred Mohammedans and used bombs.

A careful estimate makes the total of persons killed outright in the massacres 15,000, and it is probable that 30,000 will die of starvation during the coming semester. It cannot be realized in Europe how awful is the situation.

The Sultan finds it impossible to get respectable men to enter the Cabinet. An outbreak is said to have occurred in the palace, but the story is probably false. Stories of fresh outrages come in every day.

THE PASSING OF TIM HEALY.

Dublin, Nov. 16.—The vote by which the Irish Parliamentary's party's representative adopted a motion to expel Mr. Timothy M. Healy and Mr. Arthur O'Connor from the governing committee of the party was 33 to 24.

The Daily News states that as a consequence of the expulsion of Healy from the executive committee, Mr. Edmund Francis Vesey Knox has resigned his position on the committee.

The Times says: Timothy M. Healy's acquiescence in his own suppression will hardly be made easier by the triumphant announcement that Mr. Thomas Sexton, Anti-Parnellite, is to climb back to a Parliamentary position, and that the reversion of leadership is to take place over his prostrate body. With a majority of only nine against him, Mr. Healy may hope, if he remains within the party, to soon reverse this vote of expulsion.

Mr. Healy, in an interview, declared that he did not intend to form a third party, and that he did not expect to belong to any other party than the Anti-Parnellite party, of which he is still a member. His removal from the inner circles and from various committees he added, was merely a snub, and would not make any difference in his conduct.

Children at the Library.

Want Comic and Illustrated Papers, and Sometimes Are Disappointed.

They Stay Too Late—Do Any Play "Hookey" from School?—The Chattering Nuisance—Silence Will Be Insisted Upon.

As soon as comes 4 o'clock a great many school boys and girls flock to the Public Library. They stay till the pangs of hunger compel them to go home for supper, and return again in the evening, when many remain until long after they should be getting their "beauty" sleep. Already the board has recognized the necessity of a remedy for this state of affairs, and at its next meeting a resolution will be introduced prohibiting school children from using the library after 6 p.m. This will be better for the children's studies and will not be unwelcome to school teachers.

"Of course we are glad to see the children during the day," said Librarian Blackwell.

"Do you think that any of your youthful visitors during the day are playing truant?" was asked.

"No, I hardly think so," answered Mr. Blackwell. "We have very few children until 4 o'clock."

However if it is known that children are using the library to play "hookey" in, the truant officer will keep an eye on it.

The actions of some of the smaller children are laughable. It is necessary before obtaining a magazine to leave your name and address with the clerk. The predilection of the little fellows is for pictures of comic papers, but the funny part of their selection arises from their inability to distinguish comic papers from others. A little fellow barely 12 years of age, whose head was just level with the counter, handed in a slip requesting the Edinburgh Review. He trotted off complacently to the reading room, but in a few moments returned the paper with a rather unsatisfied air. Allowing a reasonable space of time to elapse he again presented a slip. This time it was marked "Monetary Times." The young lady clerk smiled inwardly as she handed it out, and her smile had increased to a laugh when a few minutes later the same youngster handed it back with a lugubrious look which said more plainly than words could tell, "No pictures and no jokes." The little fellow thought he had ventured enough for one day and went home.

One thing that many visitors to the library have yet to learn, and that is that silence is more than golden in a public place where people are reading or studying. In the British Museum a silence reigns as of the tomb. When a reader has a remark to make to a companion he writes it out. There has been some complaint about this incessant chattering which goes on in the library, and Mr. Blackwell has been obliged to send away a couple of bevies of school girls after several warnings.

"When you are content not to talk and disturb others, you may come back," said he in parting.

Absolute silence will be rigidly insisted upon.

FOR CONSUMPTIVES.

Toronto, Nov. 16.—At the sitting of the Provincial Board of Health Dr. P. H. Bryce read a paper, in which he stated that whether the proposed hospital or sanitarium for the treatment of consumptives was located in Muskoka, in Calgary, or Kamloops, it would have as happy results from the standpoint of cures as any sanitarium situated in similar climates in other countries. Dr. Bryce advocated establishment of sanitaria in every province.
