TRUDO DEFEATS GREEN JUMPERS

Jenny Geddes, Another Favorite, Wins the Second Stake—Sam Rank Beats Stalmore.

BALTIMORE, April 29.—Trudo, an odds-on favorite, won the Baltimore Steeplechase to-day in a field largely composed of green jumpers, while Jenny Geddes, another favorite, won the other stake feature scheduled. There is considerable dissatisfaction among the owners owing to the fact that only two stake events are to be run each day, and as a result many good horses have been sent to Lexington and to other western tracks.

Appreciative Fans.

Nearly 200 seats were sold yesterday at 117 Bay street for the opening game at the island next Monday, the fans showing their appreciation of the ball club opening an extra office, for it was a steady procession from 10 o'clock in the morning till 9 o'clock at night. Today another office will be opened at 33 West King street, and if the rest of the week is anything like yesterday the plan should be all sold before Saturday. The sale of the combination tickets found favor with the fans, the latter killing two birds with the one stone, as they do not wish to get in line at the ferry dock. The office hours for the sale of tickets are from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m.

Business in Horses Is Brisk at Maher's

There was a good attendance at yesterday's auction sale at Maher's Horse Exchange. The offerings were large and varied, every type of horse being well represented. Auctioneer Jackson opened the sale at 11 o'clock, with the consignment of horses from the Midland Lumber Co., Blind River. These were soon sold and many a bargain was secured by the purchasers of them.

As the sale proceeded Auctioneer Fitch took the stand and business continued merrily. Spirited bidding and quick buying of the cheaper qualities featured the sale yesterday and many a lively passage was witnessed, causing much humor among the spectators.

The management stated they were well pleased with the day's sales and intimated there would be a number of fresh consignments on hand for Thursday's auction. The following were the purchasers: Mrs. Herron, Woodhill; W. Kirkwood, Paisley; T. Smith, Montreal; George A. Mitchell, Huttonville; F. Morley, Weston; B. Boylen, Weston; Dr. F. R. GUELPH, April 29.—"I am well satisfied with the showing made by our pitching staff, tho it has been very poor weather for workouts," said Manager Needham to-day. They have shown that they have speed and control and curves, and it looks like a good season. The diamond has been skimmed, and when the work has been completed the diamond will be second to none in the league. Hemlock, the Indian catcher, arrived on Saturday night, and a majority of the team came in at six o'clock this evening, while a few late ones will get here on Tuesday, and practice will be immediately commenced.
