FROM ALL OVER THE MARITIME PROVINCES

ROTHESAY

Rothesay, March 13—The annual meeting of Rothesay branch Woman's Auxiliary was held on Monday afternoon at the home of the president, Mrs. A. W. Daniel, and was well attended, those present being Mrs. Daniel, Mrs. W. J. Davidson, Mrs. Domville, Miss Louise Fairweather, Miss Taylor, Mrs. Hibbard, Mrs. Ludlow Robinson, Miss Edith Gilbert, Mrs. Calhoun, Miss Thomson, Miss Coffey, Mrs. J. H. Henderson, Miss Hendricks, Mrs. Thomas Bell, Mrs. P. Chisholm, Miss Elliott. The election of officers resulted as follows: President, Mrs. Daniel; vice-president, Mrs. Hibbard; secretary, Mrs. Davidson; treasurer, Miss L. Fairweather; Dorcas secretary, Mrs. James Domville, with Mrs. Brock and Mrs. Bell as assistants; baby's branch, Mrs. Davidson; extra cent-a-day, Miss L. Currie; junior branch president, Miss Nan Fairweather; delegates to annual diocesan meeting in St. John April 29 and 30 and May 1, Mrs. Hibbard and Mrs. Davidson; substitutes, Miss Mabel Gilbert and Miss L. Fairweather. The opening devotional service was led by Rev. A. W. Daniel, who also gave a short address. At the close afternoon tea was enjoyed. Votes were taken in connection with the several appeals presented.

Miss Celia Secord, of St. John, was among Rothesay friends on Saturday.

Mrs Wetmore Merritt and Mrs. Fred Peters, of St. John, are spending part of this week here, guests of Mrs. Bell.

Mr. Duncan Davidson arrived on Wednesday from the west and on the 25th inst. will be one of the principals in a happy event at Fredericton.

During the last two days it has been a joy to Miss Fannie Fairweather's friends to see her out for a ride after long confinement to her home.

Mrs. John Mitchell too has so far recovered from her recent severe illness as to be able to be downstairs again.

A greatly enjoyed lecture was given in St. Paul's church school house on Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. John H. Thomson, whose subject was Great Philanthropists. After being introduced by Rev. A. W. Daniel, Mrs. Thomson ran through a list of names well known for the good works connected with them and too numerous to emphasize in the time allowed. Mrs. W. J. Davidson, who kindly assisted Mrs. Thomson, read a beautiful selection about Margaret, the friend of the widow and the orphan. Miss Cameron, who also assisted, gave papers on the life of John Howard and Florence Nightingale. The whole programme was most interesting and inspiring. The entertainment was under the auspices of the local W. A. to the work of which the silver collection taken will be devoted. Miss Mabel Gilbert proposed a vote of thanks, which was seconded by Mrs. Hibbard and approved by all present.

There is sincere regret expressed in consequence of the intended removal of Mrs. H. A. Calhoun and Miss Alice Cole from Rothesay to Sackville. Mrs. Calhoun has purchased a desirable lot and expects her new house will be ready for occupancy about October next.

The Woman's Social Circle held a very helpful meeting last evening and made plans for a "David Livingston" celebration to take place about the first of April.

On Saturday a number of the Netherwood Old Girls' Association spent the day here and in the evening entertained the school with a play, "Noah's Ark Junior, for which tickets were held during the afternoon." All the parts were cleverly acted, the play being full of ridiculous situations, provoked much laughter and this pronounced one of the merriest times Netherwood has enjoyed in a long time. After the play the graduates served delicious refreshments and on leaving for home had a great "sendoff" with cheers and thanks. The visitors were Miss Olivia Murray, Miss Muriel Sadlier, Miss Lillie Raymond, Miss Jean Ketchum, Miss Emma Turnbull, Miss Catherine McAvity, Miss Helen Tapley and Miss Maizie Fleming. The return to St. John was by the 9 o'clock train.

Rev. J. A. MacKeigan, of St. John, is expected here on Tuesday evening next to attend a meeting of the Presbyterian congregation at 7.30.

Both Netherwood and the boys' school close next week for the Easter holidays.

Rev. Mr. Nobles, Mrs. Nobles, Mrs. Coates and Miss Roche drove from St. John today and had dinner at the Kennedy House.

Senator Domville came home from Ottawa on Sunday's C. P. R. train.

Mrs. W. E. Flewelling is laid up with a bad cold.

SHEDIAC

Shediac, N. B., March 13—Mrs. Likely, of St. John, returned home on Monday of this week after a pleasant visit of some days in town, the guest of her friend, Mrs. R. Jardine.

The ladies of the Bridge Club are being entertained this afternoon at the residence of Mrs. E. Freeze.

Mr. J. MacDonald, proprietor of the Point du Chene House, recently suffered a stroke of paralysis and is seriously ill at his residence at the Point. Mr. Harry McDonald, of St. John, was called home this week owing to his father's critical state.

Mrs. R. C. Tait accompanied by her daughter, Miss Hilda Tait, spent a few days in Sackville during the week.

Mrs. Bass, of San Diego (Cal.), who has been spending some weeks with relatives in Shemogue, was the guest this week of her brother, Mr. J. A. Murray, and Mrs. Murray, in town, and left recently for the Canadian west, by which route she will continue her homeward trip, visiting friends in Vancouver before proceeding to California.

Miss Beatrice Shannon, of Moncton, was the guest for a few days recently of her friends, the Misses Mary and Elsie Weldon.

Miss Laura Bray, of Hopewell Cape, arrived in Shediac this week to remain for some little time in town, the guest of Captain and Mrs. J. C. Bray.

Miss Emma Price, of Moncton, was the guest for the week-end of Mrs. A. J. Webster. On Saturday evening, in honor of Miss Price, Mrs. Webster entertained at an informal little bridge party, when a few of her young lady friends were present and spent an enjoyable time. Miss Mollie Lawton fell heir to the prize for the evening's game.

Miss Selina Bourque left on Wednesday of this week on a trip of a few months to Rimouski, Quebec and Montreal.

Mr. Avard White, of Fredericton, was in Shediac for a few days recently, the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George White. Before returning to Fredericton Mr. White made a short trip to Sackville.

Mrs. Jos. Moore, on Wednesday of this week, was hostess at an enjoyable little 6 o'clock supper party, the guests remaining throughout the evening. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. I. Howie, Mr. and Mrs. Copp (Baie Verte), Mrs. Vanwart, Mrs. Geo. Steel, Mrs. D. S. Harper. Mrs. Moore was assisted during the evening by Miss Beatrice Harper.

Mr. Raymond Leger has been absent on a trip to Fredericton.

Mrs. C. H. Galland spent a few days during the week in St. John.

Mrs. Givan, who has been spending the past month in Boston visiting members of her family, returned home this week, having greatly enjoyed her trip.

Mrs. T. J. Gallagher entertained a few friends very pleasantly on Wednesday afternoon at an informal little sewing party.

The Misses Leonie and Analyce Doiron were in St. John recently for a few days.

Rev. Mr. Smith, of Hamilton, Ontario, was in Shediac this week, and spoke in the Methodist church on Tuesday evening, when he delivered an interesting and able address on Temperance and Moral Reform. While in town, Rev. Mr. Smith was the guest of Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Steel.

SUSSEX

Sussex, N. B., March 13—Mrs. O. R. Arnold has returned from a visit to St. George.

Miss Hazel Fairweather has invitations out for a bridge Thursday evening.

Mrs. J. T. Kirk entertained informally at bridge Saturday evening, three tables.

Mr. James Graves, of Moncton, is spending the week in Sussex.

Miss Grace Kirk was hostess at the Younger Set Bridge Club Tuesday evening. Miss Carrie Roach won the prize. Those outside the club in for the evening were Miss Jean Peacock, Miss Adah Morison, and Miss McInerney (St. John).

Mrs. Pitt Murray and Mrs. A. B. Pugsley were visitors to Moncton Wednesday.

Miss Damie Warren has returned from Moncton. While there Miss Warren was the guest of Miss May Campbell.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Spears' many friends deeply feel for them in the loss of their little son, whose death occurred Friday of last week. The funeral took place Sunday, Rev. Thomas Mitchell officiating. Interment was at Kirk Hill.

Rev. Canon Smithers, of Fredericton, was here this week, the guest of his mother-in-law, Mrs. McAfee.

Mrs. J. S. Henderson's many friends are sorry to hear of his illness.

Mrs. H. W. Dernier, of Moncton, and Mrs. M. Norfolk, of Winthrop (Mass.), were guests of Mrs. J. S. Henderson the first of the week.

Mrs. J. D. Friars entertained the Guild of Chalmers Presbyterian church Friday evening of last week.

Rev. Mr. Crowfoot, of Hampton, was the guest of Rev. Canon and Mrs. Mrs. Neales Tuesday.

Mrs. John King, of Kings Brook, was a guest at the rectory this week.

Mr. Walter H. Crocker, of Millerton, spent Sunday in Sussex, a guest at the Depot House.

Miss Jean Langstroth will entertain the Younger Set Bridge Club Saturday evening.

Mr. Wm. H. McLeod has invitations out for a dinner Friday evening in honor of Mr. H. T. Begg, who will leave soon for East Florenceville.

Mrs. George C. Roy is spending a few weeks in St. John with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. K. Berton.

Miss Muriel Langstroth, of St. John, is the guest of her grandmother, Mrs. S. H. Langstroth.

Miss Campbell, of Norton, is the guest of Mrs. Thomas Davis, at Smith's Creek.

Mrs. W. Cook Hunter was a visitor to Norton this week.

Mrs. Joseph Hornbrook is spending the week in St. John.

The ladies of Sussex have arranged for a tea for April 3 in aid of the fountain fund.

Mrs. McKay, who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. W. Hatfield White, has returned home.

The women's auxiliary of Trinity church held their fourth annual meeting Tuesday evening at the rectory. Rev. Canon Smithers, of Fredericton, and Rev. Mr. Crowfoot, of Hampton, delivered very excellent addresses. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Mrs. Scovil Neales; 1st vice-president, Mrs. T. E. Arnold; 2nd vice-president, Mrs. Andrew Miller; recording secretary, Mrs. J. S. Goodliffe; Dorcas secretary, Mrs. W. Hatfield White; treasurer, Miss E. Louise White. Delegates to the convention, which is to be held in St. John the last of April, are: Mrs. Scovil Neales, Mrs. Oscar Roach and Miss Kate Manchester; substitutes, Miss M. Campbell, Miss James Jeffries, and Mrs. W. Hatfield White.

MONCTON

Moncton, March 13—Miss Lottie Colline, of Providence (R. I.), is spending a few weeks with relatives in the city.

Miss Gladys Winter has returned from a holiday trip to Toronto.

On Thursday evening Miss Etha Mills entertained the members of the Aberdeen High school graduating class, together with a number of the teachers. During the early part of the evening the party enjoyed a sleigh drive, after which they repaired to the home of Miss Mills where luncheon was served. Those present were the Misses Helena Daly, Marie Belyea, Marjorie Jardine, May Sutton, Bessie Starratt, Dorritt McCully, Eulalia Gillen, Annie Stewart, Ida Stannard, Jean McNaughton and Messrs. Carl Murchie, Harold Humphrey, Rupert Irving, Charlie Porter, Jack Harris, Harold Steeves, Claud Moore, G. J. Oulton and W. H. Irving. The chaperones were the Misses Swanson, Oulton, Jardine and Dawson.

Mrs. E. Tiffin is spending a month at Old Point Comfort (Va.)

Mrs. H. B. Steeves, of Shediac, spent part of the week with her aunt, Mrs. H. S. Bell.

Mrs. A. E. Killam entertained a number of friends at a thimble party on Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Arthur Robinson, of Sussex, is the guest of relatives in the city.

Mrs. John Miller, of Livingstone (Montana), is spending some time with her sister, Mrs. George Wiseman.

A large number of young people went to Dorchester on Friday evening and after enjoying a skate at the rink repaired to the hotel, where luncheon was served. Later the party enjoyed a dance at Hickman's hall, returning home by the early morning train. Among those present were the Misses Myrtle Thomas, Susie McNeill, Jean Bedford, Lillian Ferguson, Emily Bedford, Laura Stultz, Lola Chapman, Mabel McLeod, Georgie Barnett, Irene Haines, Helen Trites, Marian Heine, Maud Cosman, Reine Wiseman, Verna Hunter, Hazel Carson, Bertha Ripley, Janet Baird, Greta Walters, Nellie Woods, Myrtle Rushton, Jean Malcolm, Beulah Gibson, Enid Haines, Josie Lister, Imogene Chapman, Jessie Hicks, Vera Cosman, Christie Mitchell, Pearl Cosman, Grace Buck, Annie Bishop, Maude Buck, Blanche Bishop, Annie Bishop and Messrs. Alfred Fownes, George Hunter, Leo Bourque, Harold Keith, Charles Moore, George Gay, Edgar O'Brien, James Swetnam, Charles Rand, Noble Wilbur, Charles Brown, S. Bingham, M. A. Doucett, Charles James, Colin Heine, Alfred Blanchard, Charles Wright, Robert Powers, Elroy Lewis, V. J. Steeves, Maurice Trites, David Biggs, Bliss Smith, Murray Steeves, H. Mitchell, Charles Cummins, Walter Stultz, Harry Mills, Fred Beers, Fred McLeod, Harry Bleakney, Oscar Frazie, A. Bingham, Gordon Miller, Murdoch Ring, Dale Weldon, Otto Carson, Fred Scott, George McLellan, Fred Cosman, Fred Bingham, Arthur Legere, John McLean, Howard Price, Harold Grace, Ed. Bingham and Alfred Ayer. Mrs. J. C. Cosman and Mrs. W. E. Bishop chaperoned the party.

Mrs. S. H. Bishop is spending a fortnight with friends in Toronto.

Mrs J. W. Y. Smith and daughter Miss Marjorie, spent part of the week in Dorchester, the guests of Lady Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. McCready, of St. John, are the guests of Mrs. Jane Wilson.

Mrs. F. B. Black and Mrs. H. M. Wood, of Sackville, spent Saturday in the city.

Mrs. C. L. Peck and Miss Ethel Peck, who have been visiting friends in the city, have returned to their home at Hopewell Cape.

Miss Wilson, of Derby (N. B.), is spending a few days with her niece, Mrs. Condon.

Mr. Lloyd Bishop spent the week-end with friends at Truro.

Rev. Canon Sisam spent Sunday at Dorchester, his services here being taken by Rev. Mr. Armstrong.

Miss Jean Henderson, of Campbellton, is the guest of Miss Bessie Starratt.

Miss Mollie Wall, of Campbellton, is in the city for a few days, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hopper.

Mrs. Joshua Morrell is visiting friends in New Glasgow.

Mrs. W. A. Humphrey entertained a number of friends from 4 to 6 o'clock on Friday afternoon. At the tea hour refreshments were served. Miss Swanson, Miss Gergie Ryan and Miss Treva McCoy assisted the hostess in serving the guests. Little Miss Irene McCready attended the door.

Miss Muriel Hewson, of Amherst, spent the week-end with Dr. and Mrs. S. W. Burgess.

Miss Margaret Taylor is spending a week in St. John where she is the guest of Mrs. W. A. Lockhart.

Mrs. A. E. Trites and little daughter, of Salisbury, and Messrs. H. H. Trites and W. J. Trites, of Amherst, spent Sunday in the city, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. McDougall.

Mrs. C. A. Murray has gone to New York and will sail from there on a trip to Panama and the West Indies.

Mrs. A. B. Pugsley, of Sussex, is in the city for a few days.

A large number of friends gathered at the home of Mr. A. H. Somers on Monday evening to celebrate the birthday anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Somers. During the evening an address was read by Mr. Vye Gibson and a handsome Morris chair was presented to Mr. and Mrs. Somers by Mr. Joseph Thompson on behalf of the company. Refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

Mrs James Brewster has returned to her home at Hopewell Cape after spending several weeks with friends in the city.

Mrs. H. W. Dernier and Mrs. M. H. Norfolk were called to Sussex Monday afternoon owing to the serious illness of their brother, Mr. Joseph Henderson, who suffered a paralytic stroke. Many friends will regret to hear of Mr. Henderson's illness and will hope for his speedy recovery.

Moncton, March 15—Some eighty girls left this morning for Chamcook to work in the sardine canning factories. Most of the girls were from Moncton and vicinity and quite a large number were girls whom a recent strike in the Moncton cotton mill had thrown out of employment.

As a result of the derailing of a freight train between Cedar Hall and Amqui, Quebec, the Ocean Limited from Montreal was yesterday delayed more than fourteen hours and did not reach Moncton until after 5.30 this morning. The passengers were transferred and sent down the north shore.

H. J. Gordon, manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia here, has been transferred to Yarmouth, N. S., to take charge of the bank there. He and family will remove to Yarmouth soon. They have made many friends here.

At 2.15 o'clock this morning an alarm of fire was sounded on the I. C. R. new shop whistle for a blaze in a small wooden office in the freight car repair shop. The fire was seen before it had gained much headway and was put out without much difficulty. It was seen first by Owen Steeves, night watchman.

NEWCASTLE

Newcastle, Maerh 12—Mr. Harvey Ramsey, of the St. John Valley Railway Co., who has been the guest of his mother, Mrs. H. F. Copp, for the past three weeks, returned to Woodstock last Friday morning.

Miss Addie Parker, who has been the guest of the Misses Stables, returned to her home in Millerton last Thursday.

Miss Lucy Lingley entertained a few friends at the tea hour at her home on Pleasant street, last Thursday evening, in honor of Mr. B. Locke, of Pugwash (N. S.)

Mrs. Dr. Hilson and daughter, Miss Leslie, spent a few days of last week with friends in town.

Miss Jean Morrison, who has been visiting friends in Fredericton for some little time, returned home last Saturday.

Mrs. Daniel McQuarrie returned home last Saturday after a pleasant visit with Moncton friends.

Miss G. Dickie, who has been the guest of the Misses Smallwood, for some time, returned to her home in Moncton last Sunday.

Miss Dorothy Wilson, of Millerton, left last Thursday for Fredericton, where she will be the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Scammell.

Messrs. E. A. McCurdy, Hon. Donald Morrison and Ald. John Clark, spent several days of last week in Fredericton.

Mrs. John Branders' many friends are pleased to hear that she is convalescing from her recent illness.

The weekly social was held last week on Thursday night, in St. James' Sunday school hall and was most successful. The ladies in charge were Miss Williamson, Mrs. Caie, Miss Rae.

Another home has been saddened by the hand of death, in the passing away last Thursday night of Mrs. James Falconer. She had been in failing health for the past two years. Mrs. Falconer is survived by a sorrowing husband, three daughters, Miss Mary and Mis Ethel at home, and Mrs. Pearl Jonah, of Amherst (N. S.), and four sons, Mitchell and Robert, at home; Chas. of Winnipeg, and Harry, of Nelson (B. C.) The funeral, which was held yesterday afternoon, was largely attended, Rev. S. J. McArthur officiating, and interment in St. Jomes' cemetery.

Master Cleveland and Miss Nellie Matheson, left last Saturday for Middleboro (Mass.) to join their father, Mr. Samuel Matheson. The rest of the family plan to go later on.

Miss Annie Russell, who has been the guest of her aunt, Mrs. I. B. Freeman, of Bridgetown (N. S.), for some time, arrived home last week. Miss Russell is to be one of the principals in an interesting event to take place some time in April.

Miss Snowball, of Chatham, left last Monday for Montreal, and after a visit in that city, will go to Jamaica, making an extended visit in the south.

Mr. Ernest Hutchison, who had just returned from a trip south, left last Thursday morning for Boston.

Mr. James A. Rundle spent several days of last week in Fredericton.

Miss Whalen, of Sussex, is the guest of her bother, T. H. Whalen.

Miss Agnes Burns, of Bathurst, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Clifford P. Hickey, of Chatham.

Mr. B. Locke, of Pugwash (N. S.), who has been the guest of his brothe rFred, for some time, returned to his home last Tuesday morning.

Mrs. W. J. Loggie, of Loggieville, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. John Barron.

Mrs. Cameron Smallwood, who has been in Montreal for the past three months, returned to her home last Tuesday.

Mr. Charles McLaggan, of New Glasgow (N. S.), who was called to his home in Blackville by the death of his mother, returned to New Glasgow Wednesday morning.

Mr. William A. Park and Mrs. John McLaggan were in Blackville on Tuesday attending the funeral of Mrs. William McLaggan.

Miss Lou Gilker, of Campbellton, is the guest of Miss Blanch Taylor.

Miss Florence Simpson returned last Monday from a visit to friends in Loggieville.

Mrs. Clifford Crocker, of Millerton, spent the week-end in town, the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Leighton.

Mr. and Mrs. I. P. Jonah, of Amherst (N. S.), spent several days of the past week in town, being called here by the death of the latter's mother, Mrs. James Falconer.

The weekly social of the Ladies Aid Society of St. James' church, was held on Wednesday night of this week, and was a most successful affair. The ladies in charge were Mrs. William Stothart, Mrs. Pearl Russell, and Mrs. Henry Ingram.

Mrs. John R. Johnstone, of Loggieville, spent Tuesday of this week in town, the guest of her mother, Mrs. William Russell.

Mr. J. Mitchell Falconer left last week for the Canadian west, on an extended business trip.

Newcastle, March 13—The last grand carnival of the season was held in Newcastle rink last night. The Newcastle Concert Band was in attendance and the ice was in good condition. Prizes were awarded as follows:

Ladies'—Mrs. R. Waldo Crocker, Samantha Allen at the World's Fair.

Men's—Frank Fitzgerald, Douglastown, Old Sport.

Girls'—Miss Annie Keating, representing the New Bridge Coming to Newcastle. She carried a banner picturing the bridge and on which was the legend, "Hurrah for Hon. John Morrissy and the Coming Bridge."

Boys'—Jack Nicholson, The Striker.

Deserving honorable mention were the Misses Lillian Williamson, Helen Stables, Mollie Robinson, Bertie Rae, Alice and Greta Rundle, representing the Alexander Ragtime Band.

At the meeting Tuesday night of the auxiliary of the Methodist Women's Missionary Society, Mrs. E. A. McLean was elected delegate to the branch meeting in Sackville in June next, with Mrs. H. H. Stuart alternate.

Mrs. D. W. Stothart has returned from a visit to St. John.

At the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Jessamin, Douglastown, last night, Miss Jennie E. Jessamin was married to George H. Blackmore, of Whitneyville. Mr. and Mrs. Blackmore have gone on a wedding trip to Boston and New York.

Newcastle, March 15—Rev. R. Hensley Stavert, of Harcourt, grand lecturer of the S. of T., returned home today after a most successful propagation trip up river. Wednesday night he reorganized Red Bank Division with thirty-one members and the following officers: W. P., Rev. J. F. McCurdy; W. A., Miss Eileen Parks; R. S., Miss Mina Sutherland; conductor, Daniel Cain; F. S., Miss Hattie Parks; treasurer, Miss Martha Sutherland; chaplain, Miss Georgie Tozer; I. S., W. Hubbard; O. S., Anthony Cain; A. R. S., Miss Mary Tozer; A. C., Miss Myrtle McLean; P. W. P., Wilbur Matchett; D. G. W. P., Rev. J. F. McCurdy; S. Y. P. W., Miss Annie Sutherland.

Thursday night Mr. Stavert addressed a meeting in the Baptist church at Lyttleton, the large building being full. The people desired to organize but have no hall. A committee of seven, including the two pastors (Revs. J. F. McCurdy, Presbyterian, and W. E. Piper, Baptist) was appointed to inquire into the matter of organizing a division and building a hall.

The Methodist ladies held a social last night at Mrs. Henry McLean's.

At the meeting of the Methodist Mission Circle last night at Mrs. H. H. Stuart's, Miss Lida Copp was elected delegate to the branch convention to be held in Sackville next June, and Miss Florence Price alternate.

Joseph Ryan, who has been visiting his father, Dennis Ryan, returned this week to Seattle.

ST. ANDREWS

St. Andrews, March 12—Dr. O'Neil left on Friday night on a short trip to Boston and New York.

Mrs. Will Magill, who has been living in South Dakota for a number of years arrived here last week, and is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Will McQuoid.

Mrs. Rort. Parker, Miss Nettie Maloney and Miss Constance Parker spent a few days in St. Stephen last week.

Miss Kaye Cockburn entertained at bridge on Thursday evening in honor of Mrs. R. W. Churchill, of Hantsport (N. S.), and Miss Helen Babbitt, of Fredericton. The prizes were won by Miss Nellie Mowatt and Mrs. R. A. Stuart, jr. The guests included Mrs. R. W. Churchill, Miss Helen Babbitt, Mrs. R. A. Stuart, Mrs. William Morrow, Miss Lynch, Miss Daisy Lynch, Miss Bessie Grimmer, Miss Hazel Grimmer, Miss Nellie Stuart, Misses Alice and Mary Grimmer, Miss Nellie Mowatt, Miss Minerva Hibbard.

Mrs. William Morrow gave an afternoon bridge of three tables on Friday last. Miss Alice Grimmer won first prize and Miss Hazel Grimmer, consolation. Refreshments were served at the tea hour by Misses Minerva Hibbard, Kaye Cockburn and Carol Hibbard. Among the guests were, Mrs. R. W. Churchill, Mrs. R. A. Stuart, jr., Mrs. Robert Clark, Misses Helen Mowatt, Alice and Mary Grimmer, Minerva and Carol Hibbard, Nellie Stuart, Kaye Cockburn, Laura Shaw, Carolyn Rigby, Hazel Grimmer, Emily Andrews, Bessie Grimmer.

Mr. and Mrs. F. P. McColl entertained the Twlight Club on Saturday evening.

Miss S. A. Algar returned last week from a pleasant visit with relatives in St. Stephen.

Miss Gertrude Stinson, who was confined to the house with a severe cold, is out again.

Miss Bessie Grimmer entertained most delightfully at a fireside tea on Saturday afternoon. Mrs. F. P. McColl poured tea and the Misses Daisy Lynch, Kaye Cockburn and Hazel Grimmer served. Among those present were Mrs. R. W. Churchill, Mrs. R. A. Stuart, jr., Mrs. William Morrow, Miss McMullins, Miss Babbitt, Misses Nellie Mowatt, Daisy Lynch, Nellie Stuart, Kaye Cockburn, Minerva Hibbard, Alice and Mary Grimmer, Bessie Wren, Emily Andrews, Hazel Grimmer.

Miss Pearl Graham spent a few days in St. Stephen last week.

Miss Mary Hooper has been visiting friends in Deer Island lately.

Miss Kathleen O'Neil, who has been visiting friends in New York for several months, returned home on Wednesday.

PETITCODIAC

Petitcodiac, N. B., March 13—Mr. Uz. King is in Boston on a business trip.

Mrs. James Patterson, of Campbellton, spent part of last week in town, the guest of Miss Gertrude McLeod.

Mrs. George G. Jones has returned from a very pleasant visit in Dorchester, where she has been Mrs. D. D. McDonald's guest for the past two weeks.

Miss Kathleen Jones entertained a few of her friends very pleasantly at a dance on Monday evening. At midnight dainty refreshments were served. Mrs. Steeves and Mrs. Ray assisted Miss Jones in serving. Among those invited were, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Steeves, Mr. and Mrs. Lee B. Stockton, Mrs. Ray, Misses Hazel Palmer, Eva Stockton, Ethel Ray, Messrs. Jerome Morris, Guy Parkins, M. Girvan (Chatham), White (St. John).

Dr. F. A. Taylor, of Moncton, was in town on Monday, the guest of his sister, Mrs. Stanley C. Goggin.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Keith, Miss Elizabeth Turnbull, Miss Grace Wilmot, Messrs. Evans Burns, Will Lockhart attended the dance in Havelock on Monday evening.

Mrs. Charles Pickard, of Sackville, was a visitor in town this week.

Mrs. Robert J. Wilmot has returned after a pleasant visit with relatives in Boston.

The ladies of the Missionary Society of the Bapist church were very pleasantly entertained by Mrs. Hebert Trites on Wednesday evenig last.

Mrs. William S. Blakney spent part of last week in Sailsbury, the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Wilson.

The ladies of the Missionary Society of the Methodist church, met at the home of Mrs. S. L. Stockton on Tuesday.

Miss Bradshaw is visiting friends in Moncton.

Mrs. Sterling L. Stockton, Miss Eva Stockton and Miss Elizabeth Turnbull spent the week-end with friends in Moncton.

Miss Horton, who has been Mrs. J. E. Hiltz's guest for the past week, has returned to her home in New Glasgow.

SACKVILLE

Sackville, March 12—A social event, the senior's at home, anticipated with pleasure for some time, was held on Friday evening at the University of Mount Allison residence. Of the many invitations issued a large number were accepted and over seven hundred were in attendance. The halls were decorated in the college colors of garnet and gold, the Y. M. C. A. parlors in blue and grey, the senior class colors, and each of the classes and societies were represented by cosy parlors decorated in their own colors. The general effect was a most pleasing one. The guests were received in the reception room by Dr. and Mrs. Borden, Mr. O. R. Atkinson, of Sussex, class president; Miss Florence Hooper, of Digby (N. S.), vice-president; and Mr. Alfred Murdock, secretary, of Truro (N. S.) The senior class this year numbers thirty, fifteen of whom are young ladies. The Citizen's Band rendered a charming programme in the main hall during the evening and in Eurhetorian Hall visitors present were entertained by vocal solos, quartettes, a piano solo, sextette and readings. Refreshments were served in the dinig hall at the close of the evening.

Mrs. B. Trites was the hostess at a dinner on Thursday, when a pleasent evening was spent. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Wood, Dr. and Mrs. Bigelow, Mrs. F. B. Black, Mrs. D. Allison, Miss Frazer, W. T. Wood and Norman Fawcett.

Miss Cowie, of Liverpool, who has been the guest of Mrs. Black accompanied her to St. John.

The Upper Sackville Mission Band were entertained on Saturday from 4 to 6 by Mrs. J. Lawson Smith. Games, music and readings were enjoyed and a delightful time spent. Besides the band members other guests were Mrs. B. J. Harper, Mrs. Ernest Wheaton, Mrs. Leonard Crane, Mrs. Siddall, Mrs. Robinson, Mrs. Scurr, Mrs. George Fawcett, Mrs. C. Hicks, Mrs. Albert Fawcett, Misses Jones, Alward, Foster, Kennedy, Daisy Anderson (Dorchester), Lamb, Neta Fawcett, Jessie Fawcett, Margaret Harper, Doris Ayer.

P. G. Mahoney, M. P. P., spent Sunday at his home in Melrose.

Mrs. George Fullerton, of Southampton, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Fawcett.

Mrs. William Scurr was the hostess at a turkey supper on Saturday, in honor of her guest, Miss Anderson, of Dorchester.

Mrs. E. P. Goodwin, of Baie Verte, has returned from a trip to St. John.

Miss Lou Wheaton and her sister, Miss Bessie Wheaton, returned to the west last week after visiting their home here.

Mrs. Ward, Mrs. George Ayer and Miss Mabel O'Neil left on Saturday for a short visit to Boston.

Mrs. G. H. McKenzie has returned from a pleasant visit to friends in Halifax.

Mrs. Thomas Lowerison, of St. John, is spending a few days at her home here.

Avard White, of Woodstock, was a guest of friends here this week.

Mrs. John Ford and Miss Jessie Ford are visiting relatives in Moncton.

Mrs. Harris Miller, who was in Montreal for some weeks, returned home on Thursday.

Misses Bessie Kilburn, of Andover, and Alice Oulton, of Moncton, are guests of Mrs. A. Lucas.

Miss Jean Thurber, of Millerton, is spending a few days at the Ladies' College.

A baby boy arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hoar on Monday.

Miss Gwendolyn Watters, of Chatham, is the guest foher cousin, Miss Lila Dobson.

Mrs. Dennett Emmerson, of Maine, is spending a few weeks with her mother, Mrs. John Ayer.

A prominent resident of Port Elgin, Mr. David Scrimgeur, passed away last week, aged 68 years, after a month's illness. He is survived by his wife, two daughters and two sons.

Mrs. Black, who has been spending some time in St. John, returned to Baie Verte last week, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Albert Wilson.

The little three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Sears was badly scalded on Saturday by coming in contact with hot water in a pail on the floor. His burns were not considered serious but convulsions followed and the next day he passed away. Much sympathy is extended the bereaved family.

Oliver Goldsmith's celebrated play, She Stoops to Conquer, was presented in Music Hall on Tuesday evening by Mount Allison students and proved highly successful. The comedy was in five acts. The hall was packed to its utmost extent with an enthusiastic audience and the amateur performers were continually greeted with the heartiest applause. Miss Marguerite Atkinson, of Fredericton, has been directing the rehearsals and the cast of characters, several of whom displayed remarkable talent, was as follows:

Sir Charles Marlowe	W. L. Woods
Young Marlowe	W. T. Ruggles
Squire Hardcastle	J. H. Freestone
George Hastings	F. Dickinson
Tony Lumbkin	W. Loring
Diggory	A. R. Wallis
Roger	M. L. Woods
Dick	Bernard T. Williams
Thomas	L. W. Wells
Mrs. Hardcastle	Edith Johnson
Kate, Hardcastle	Mary Allison
Miss Neville	Helen Ford
Maid	Augusta Daniels

Much sympathy is felt for Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Wallace, of Sussex, in the death of their eldest son, James Otty, aged 21, which occurred here on Wednesday after a short illness from spinal meningitis. Deceased had been employed as bookkeeper at the Enterprise Foundry for some time and in the five years of his stay here made many friends. His parents were with him when he passed away.

CAMPBELLTON

Campbellton, N. B., March 12—Miss Beatrice Richards entertained most pleasantly at afternoon tea last Wednesday for her sister, Mrs. Thomas S. Roy, of Digby (N. S.) Miss Richards was assisted in the dining room by Mrs. M. P. Moores and Mrs. Wm. Richards. Miss Kathleen Richards and Miss Gwendoline Richards attended the door. The guests included Mrs. Jas. W. Morton, Mrs. Harold Montgomery, Mrs. John G. Christie, Mrs. George G. Glennie, Mrs. H. E. Mann, Mrs. Geo. F. Miles, Mrs. Donald McLean, Mrs. M. M. Mowat, Mrs. O. Smith, Mrs. S. W. Dimock, Mrs. H. H. Lunam, Mrs. Wm. Millican, Miss Kerr, Miss Gertrude Adams, Miss E. Youdry, Miss Bessie Parker, Miss Robena Miller, Miss Maud Appleton, Miss Emma Mowat, Miss Etta Mowat, Miss Mildred Richards, Miss Tessie Lingley, Miss Bessie Harshman and Miss Annie Anderson.

Miss Mollie Wall was in Moncton this week, the guest of Mrs. W. J. Hooper.

Mrs. W. S. Thomas has returned to her home in Fredericton after a pleasant visit with Mrs. R. M. Hope.

Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Graham left last Saturday for a trip to Toronto.

Mr. Austin Murray has returned from Boston, where he spent the winter.

On Thursday afternoon of last week Mrs. Thos. Malcolm gave an enjoyable tea for Mrs. Morrison, of Fredericton. Among those present were Mrs. H. F. McLatchy, Mrs. John G. Christie, Mrs. Jas. Evans, Mrs. Thos. S. Roy (Digby, N. S.), Mrs. Geo. G. Glennie, Mrs. H. H. Lunam, Mrs. F. W. Napier, Mrs. D. C. Firth, Mrs. R. M. Hope, Mrs. W. S. Thomas (Fredericton), Mrs. A. T. G. McKenzie, Mrs. R. K. Shives and Miss Beatrice Richards.

Mr. Douglas McNair returned home last week from Wolfville Academy, the institution being closed on account of scarlet fever.

Mr. Fred. Sharp left last week for a trip to Montreal and Chicago.

Mrs. McNutt, who was visting her mother, Mrs. A. F. Carr, has returned to her home on the island.

Miss Lizzie Henderson left last week to attend the millinery openings in St. John.

Miss Stella McKenzie, of Dalhousie, visited friends in town last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dickie visited friends in Dalhousie last week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Harker spent Tuesday of last week in Dalhousie.

Mr. Austin Murray has returned from an extended trip to New York and Boston.

Mrs. Jasper Davison and Mrs. Jas. W. Morton were joint hostesses at a very delightful bridge of six tables at the home of Mrs. Davison Tuesday evening. The prize winners were Mrs. A. E. G. MacKenzie and Mrs. Thomas Matheson. The guests were Mrs. Harry Smith, Mrs. S. H. Lingley, Mrs. F. F. Matheson, Mrs. Chas. Payne (Kentville, N. S.), Mrs. H. E. Mann, Mrs. Chas. Alexander, Mrs. H. S. Alexander, Mrs. E. H. Anderson, Mrs. H. H. Lunam, Mrs. Geo. F. Miles, Mrs. W. S. Montgomery (Dalhousie), Mrs. Fairbanks, Mrs. R. M. Hope, Mrs. Thomas Malcolm, Mrs. Thomas Matheson, Mrs. A. E. G. McKenzie, Mrs. Geo. G. Glennie, Mrs. John G. Christie, Mrs. F. W. Napier, Mrs. Nelson, Mrs. A. D. McKendrick, Mrs. H. F. McLatchey, Mrs. R. K. Shives, Mrs. L. G. Pinault, Mrs. M. M. Mow