Arhangha Pass Captured From the Rebel Tribesmen.

The Insurgents Said to Be Full of A arm.

Ottoman Consuls Ordered to Resume Their Duties in Greece—The German Cabinet Crisis Tided Over.

BLANCO IN COMMAND.

Madrid, Nov. 1.—Marshal Blanco, the new captain-general of Cuba, has arrived at Havana, and has taken over the command of that island from Captain-General Weyler, who retires.

THE TRIBES "FULL OF ALARM."

Simla, Nov. 1.—The Ameer of Afghanistan received a deputation of the Afridis and Orakzais at Cabul, his capital, on Oct. 17. In notifying the British agent at Cabul of the fact, he wrote that the tribes were "full of alarm and repentance," and had asked him to submit their apology to the British Government and to ascertain the conditions of pardon. He inquired of the agent whether negotiations were possible, adding: "If orders have already been issued for the punishment of the tribesmen mediation is useless, as they deserve every punishment." In concluding his letter to the British agent, the ameer warmly asserted his "undeviating friendship for Great Britain."

In a separate letter to Lord Elgin, the viceroy, the ameer says that he is trying to arrest the haddah mullah, and that if he succeeds he will expel the priest from Afghanistan. He also promises to prevent Afridis who take refuge in Afghanistan from interfering with British territory.

The ameer has been thanked by the government for both these friendly communications, and has been furnished with a copy of the proclamation which Gen. Sir Wm. Lockhart issued to the tribesmen prior to beginning the advance of the punitive expedition.

CABLE NOTES.

The Patrie, of Paris, on the authority of a member of the court-martial which condemned Dreyfuss, declares that the proofs of the latter's guilt involve a state secret which might become a casus belli.

An imperial irade issued at Constantinople authorizes the Ottoman consuls to resume their duties in Greece. The Ottoman minister will return to Athens immediately after the peace treaty is signed.

The admiralty court has allowed to the officers of the Dominion liner Memnon £2,650 as salvage for towing the disabled Anchor line steamship Circassia into Queenstown harbor. The captain of the Memnon receives £350 and the crew £600.

The crisis in the affairs of the German Government has been temporarily adjusted, and Prince Hohenlohe, the chancellor, will remain in office for the present.

THE FRONTIER CAMPAIGN

Arhangha Pass Captured by the British Forces.

Simla, Nov. 1.—According to a dispatch from Karappa the expected advance to the Arhangha Pass was made. Gen. Westmacott seized the villages covering the line of advance, and the artillery soon expelled the tribesmen from the Sangars. Only slight opposition was encountered. The crest was reached and the pass captured by Gen. Westmacott in two hours. The British sustained only trifling loss. Capt. Earl, of the Sikhs, was lightly wounded.

The mullah of Sailhakhar has fled to Jelalabad, and Sir Wm. Lockhart is now descending into the Afridi Tirah.

The Arhangha Pass is thirteen miles from the Afghan frontier, at Safed-Koh.

The comparatively easy capture of Sempagha Pass was due to a maneuver of Gen. Lockhart, who feigned an attack upon the enemy's right, which was immediately reinforced by the commanders of the insurgent tribesmen. By so doing the chiefs weakened their center, and the British commander, acting with great quickness, threw the main column of his troops against the enemy's center. The tribesmen were thus taken by surprise, and their leaders did not have time to recall the forces sent to reinforce their right, and they were obliged to abandon their positions, as a hurricane of shells swept entrenchment after entrenchment, which were immediately occupied by the British troops. Only four British soldiers were killed and twenty wounded during the engagement.

TROUBLE IN HAYTI.

The German Minister at Port-Au-Prince Hauls Down His Flag.

Port au Prince, Hayti, Oct. 31.—Serious trouble has arisen between Hayti and Germany. The German minister to this republic, Count Schwerin, has hauled down his flag, and according to current report three German warships are expected here to back up the ultimatum of the minister to Hayti demanding an indemnity for the alleged illegal arrest and imprisonment of a German citizen. The affair has caused considerable excitement among the native population, and some of the people have threatened to kill the German minister and all the Germans in this place and vicinity. The affair grew out of the arrest here a few weeks ago of a young German named Linders. The Germans say that a dozen policemen entered Linder's house and arrested one of his servants. Mr. Linders went to central police headquarters to complain against this action of the police, but was himself arrested, charged with assaulting and attempting to murder police officers in the execution of their duty. Linders was condemned to pay a fine of $48 and to undergo one month's imprisonment. Claiming he was innocent, Linders obtained a second trial, and was condemned to pay a fine of $500 and sentenced to one year's imprisonment.

When the second judgment was rendered the minister telegraphed to Berlin asking for instructions. He then went to the president of Hayti, Augustin Simon Sam, and demanded that Linders be set at liberty, and also demanded for every day he had spent in prison, 23 in all, an indemnity of $1,000 in gold, adding that for every day Linders was kept a prisoner after that notification he (the German minister) would demand an indemnity of $1,000 in gold. At first the Haytian president refused to grant the German minister's demand, and Mr. Linders remained six days longer in prison. This caused the German minister to notify the Haytian Government that he had hauled down his flag and had sent the archives of the German legation to the legation of the United States, thus breaking off all relations with the Haytian government. The minister had to go on board a steamer to escape threatened violence.

Killed by His Father.

A Toronto Tailor Stabs His Son with a Pair of Scissors.

Frenzied with Drink — The Young Man's Wife a Witness of the Awful Deed.

Toronto, Nov. 1.—The body of John Hutton, 39 years of age, lies in the city morgue, and Jas. Hutton, aged 69, his father, is under arrest charged with having murdered his son.

The scene of the dreadful occurrence was a small tailor shop at the corner of Richmond and Victoria streets. Here the accused, with his son, made up garments for various city clothing establishments. He also has comfortable private custom. Saturday afternoon father and son were sitting on the same table sewing. The latter's wife was working at a machine with her back to both. James Black, a friend of the family, was also present. The younger Hutton, according to his widow, sent Black out for a quart of beer. This was about a quarter to 5 o'clock. While Black was absent the son handed his father a coat to be pressed, telling him to hurry with it. The old man, who had been drinking heavily during the day, took offense at the manner in which his son had spoken to him, and, according to the story of Mrs. Hutton, grabbed up a pair of large scissors, exclaimed: "You ——!" and, after a scuffle, which lasted but a moment, plunged the point of the scissors into his son's right breast. The latter instantly fell back on the floor, gasping: "My God, he has killed me!" Black had returned by this time, and he hastily summoned Dr. Garratt, 160 Bay street. The doctor arrived about 5:50 o'clock, but the man died five minutes later without speaking again.

The wretched man whose mad frenzy had wrought such fearful havoc, was sobered sufficiently to appreciate the situation to some extent. With every appearance of pitiable anguish he watched his son's struggle for life, and when the poor fellow gasped he would exclaim: "See, he is all right; he is breathing." When at length death ended the suspense he sat down dazed and dumfounded, and offered no resistance to the constables who led him away to the cells.

MGR. CLEARY'S DECREE.

Kingston Catholics Must Not Enter Protestant Churches or Cemeteries.

Kingston, Ont., Nov. 1.—At all the masses in St. Mary's Cathedral yesterday, Vicar-General Kelly, Archbishop Cleary's secretary, by request, interpreted the meaning of his grace's mandate in regard to Catholics attending the Protestant funerals. Catholics are allowed to go as far as the church door, or cemetery gate, but cannot participate in the ceremonies at the graveyard or church. The mandate had no references to offenses committed before its publication. The social relations are the same as they always were, and have not been interfered with in any way.

THE POISONOUS JIMSON WEED.

New York, Nov. 1.—Carl Gerber, 4 years old, is dead from the effects of eating the fruit of the jimson weed, or thorn apple. William Roth, 6 years old, who also ate some of the poisonous stuff, is in a precarious condition. The two children spent Saturday afternoon playing in Riverside Park.

Worth $10 a Bottle.

Any person who has used Nerviline, the great pain cure, would not be without it if it cost $10 a bottle. A good thing is worth its weight in gold, and Nerviline is the best remedy for all kinds of pain. It cures neuralgia in five minutes; toothache in one minute; lame back at one application; headache in a few minutes, and all pains just as rapidly.

A special from Ludlow, Pa., says the large tannery of John J. Curtis, together with a large quantity of bark has been totally destroyed by fire.

The only permanent cure for chronic catarrh is to thoroughly expel the poison from the system by the faithful and persistent use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. This wonderful remedy proves successful when all other treatment has failed to relieve the sufferer.

A Raid on Dawson City.

Sensational Story in the N. Y. Sun.

Filibustering Scheme to Seize the Klondike Capital and Open the Reserved Claims.

New York, Nov. 1.—The Sun today prints a letter from Juneau, Alaska, outlining what purports to be a raid into British territory, and the capture of Dawson City. The letter bears the date of Juneau, Alaska, Oct. 21, and reads as follows:

"In the same mail in which this letter goes there will go to Attorney-General McKenna at Washington, warning of a wildcat filibustering scheme, which, for daring, can be likened only to Jameson's raid on the Transvaal. It is nothing less than a plan to in the name of the United States, and open up the reserved claims for immediate operation. The story comes here from United States Commissioner J. N. Smith, at Dyea, and it has general belief at that place. The United States marshal has considered it of sufficient importance to

at once. Jones, of Port Townsend, the newspaper man, who was the first man appointed United States commissioner at St. Michael, and J. J. Rutledge, the United States deputy marshal at Circle City, are said to be the chief filibusters. Jones did not get to St. Michels promptly on his appointment, and it was said at once that he resigned. So Sheppard, of Nebraska, was appointed in his place. Both Jones and Rutledge are quite capable of conceiving and trying to carry out such a scheme. According to the story, Jones and Rutledge figure it in this way: They mean to declare that the Klondike gold fields are in United States territory, taking advantage for that purpose of the fact that the boundary line has not been definitely declared, although they know as well as anybody else that the disputed part of the boundary line does not affect that territory. There are about 5,000 miners in the Klondike region, and nearly all of them are United States citizens. They are very indignant at what they consider the oppression and unjust exactions of the Canadian mining laws.

TO HOIST THE STARS AND STRIPES.

It is alleged that Jones and Rutledge propose after all communication is cut off for the winter to go to Dawson and formally hoist the Stars and Stripes, declaring that all the fields are on United States soil and therefore open for entry. They rely on the hearty support of the 5,000 American miners to overawe the few British mounted police and to defeat them if it comes to a question of fighting. They mean to with themselves as commanders, and their gang of filibusters as officials, and no one will be allowed to leave for the coast. In the meantime all the claims now reserved for the crown will be located and worked to their full capacity. In this way millions of dollars worth of dust will be taken out and secured before either government can raise a hand to prevent it.

TO START IN JANUARY.

Midland, Ont., Nov. 1.—A party has been organized here to go to the Klondike. It includes Town Treasurer Kelman, A. A. Osborne, general merchant, and Norman Thompson, lumberman. A start will be made in January. The party will be accompanied by a number of Barrie men. It is intended to travel by dog power for 1,000 miles to the Pelley River, when the party will embark in canoes and paddle a distance of 400 miles.

GREENWOOD CEMETERY

The Resting Place of Henry George's Remains.

New York, Nov. 1.—After a short, simple funeral service, the body of Henry George was finally laid to rest in Greenwood cemetery today. Dr. Kramer, of Bath Beach, the officiating clergyman, referred to the fact that today was All Saints' Day, and therefore a fitting occasion to commit the remains of Henry George, one of the greatest of latter day Christian saints, to the grave. Dr. Kramer testified very strongly to the personal religion of Henry George. He said that one time the power of religion in social problems was questioned by a man who was talking to Henry George, and, with flashing eyes, Mr. George replied: "If religion be nothing more than you think it to be, our cause is lost, because unless there is reality in religion, and we can appeal to it through humanity, we shall never get back God's land for God's poor children."

After the Lord's Prayer had been repeated, Dr. McGlynn also paid a personal tribute to Henry George.

There was no demonstration of any kind. The pall-bearers were: John V. George, Thomas L. George, Maurice R. George, brothers of the deceased; Jas. Shoemaker, and J. B. Chapman, brothers-in-law; Thomas L. Johnson and Louis F. Post. Only the immediate relatives and a few friends were at the grave.

A DINNER PILL.—Many persons suffer excruciating agony after partaking of a hearty dinner. The food partaken of is like a ball of lead upon the stomach, and instead of being a healthy nutriment, it becomes a poison to the system. Dr. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills are wonderful correctives of such troubles. They correct acidity, open the secretions and convey the food partaken of into healthy nutriment. They are just the medicine to take if troubled with indigestion or dyspepsia.

The most efficacious stimulants to excite the appetite are ANGOSTURA BITTERS, prepared by Dr. J. G. B. Siegert & Sons. Beware of counterfeits. Ask your grocer or druggist for the genuine article.

Glassford Run Down.

Arrested in a Piece of Woods Near Chatham.

Had an Open Knife in His Hand, a Club Beside Him and a Rope With Which to Hang Himself.

Chatham, Ont., Nov. 1.—Constables McRener and McGregor early yesterday afternoon arrested John Glassford, who escaped from the London jail over a week ago, where he was confined, awaiting trial on a charge of attempting to criminally assault Miss Maude Blaine, a 15-year-old girl, while on her way along the Hoganty road to the Wardsville high school, a few weeks ago. Glassford escaped by climbing up the water-pipe at a corner of the building, near the jail wall, over which he dropped and ran, shoeless and without a coat, for some miles, chased by one of the turnkeys, who saw him escape.

About 10 o'clock yesterday morning Chief Young, heard that Glassford was along the Harwich road. He communicated with the chief of police of London, and word was at once sent to Jailer Boston. The latter instructed Chief Young that the constables' expenses would be paid if officers were dispatched to arrest him.

Accordingly, Chief Young detailed Constables McKener and McGregor. They went out about 11 o'clock and found no difficulty in locating the fugitive. All the farmers in the neighborhood seemed to know him. A boy on the roadside told the constables that a man was seen looking in the church window, a short distance up the road. Glassford was not seen until the afternoon, and each time the officers closed in upon him he cut across the fields and concealed himself in swamps and bushes.

Glassford entered a bush on the 6th concession of Harwich, and was followed closely by the constables, who found him hidden behind a tree, with an open jacknife in his hand. He was covered with revolvers and surrendered, offering no resistance. Beside him was a club, which he had no doubt placed there for fighting purposes. He admitted his guilt, and walked towards the constables' vehicle. He said he passed through Chatham at 7 o'clock yesterday morning. While on the way back to the station, Glassford kept his feet over the side of the buggy, as though ready to spring out and run, but he was too closely watched. In his pocket was found a long piece of rope, with which he said he intended to hang himself.

He will be brought here this afternoon by Chief Young.

A Windsor dispatch says: According to the new customs arrangements, residents of the United States are allowed to bring their horses into Canada by the year, in bond, by paying $20 annually. A large number in Detroit are taking advantage of this clause and bringing their horses to this side of the border for the winter. They take them to the farmers around Windsor and have them wintered for a nominal sum. This is far cheaper than the animals can be fed at home, besides giving them a chance to run through the winter without work.

Diseases often lurk in the blood before they openly manifest themselves. Therefore keep the blood pure with Hood's Sarsaparilla.

The hair of criminals is allowed to grow for three months before they are discharged.
