WISHING.

BY JOHN G. SAXE.

Of all amusements for the mind,
From logic down to fishing,
There isn't one that you can find,
So very cheap as 'wishing!'
A very choice diversion, too,
If we but rightly use it,
And not as we are apt to do,
Pervert it and abuse it.

I wish—a common wish, indeed—
My purse was something fatter,
That I might cheer the child of need,
And not my pride to flatter;
That I might make oppression reel,
As only gold can make it,
And break the tyrants rod of steel,
As only gold can break it!

I wish that Sympathy and Love,
And every human passion
That has its origin above,
Would come, and keep in fashion;
That Scorn, and Jealousy, and Hate,
And every base emotion,
Were buried fifty fathoms deep
Beneath the waves of Ocean!

I wish—that friends were always true,
And motives always pure;
I wish the good were not so few,
I wish the bad were fewer;
I wish the parsons ne'er forgot
To heed their pious teaching;
I wish that practising was not
So different from preaching!

I wish—that modest worth might be
Appraised with truth and candor;
I wish that Innocence was free
From treachery and slander;
I wish that men their vows would mind
That women ne'er were rovers;
I wish that wives were always kind,
And husbands always lovers!

I wish—in fine—that joy and mirth,
And every good Ideal,
May come, erewhile, throughout the earth,
To be the glorious Real;
Till God shall every creature bless
With His supremest blessing,
And hope be lost in happiness,
And wishing be possessing!

AGRICULTURAL.

Important fact in Agriculture.—Whatever may be the nature of the soil, or of the crop cultivated, it should always be the aim of the farmer to grow full crops. Partial and sometimes extensive failures will even but too often occur; but to neglect making the best known preparations, or only to prepare for half a crop, has a direct tendency to unprofitable farming.

Manure for Clover.—Some farmers make it a rule to spread about fifty bushels per acre of ashes over their clover in March, which they find, from long experience, to be a good manure for this grass. Woodashes will be useful on any soil; coal-ashes chiefly on stiff clays. On the stiff soils of some parts of Buckinghamshire, ashes of all kinds are much esteemed, and have risen to a high price.

To Preserve Seeds, when sown, from Vermin.—Steep the grain or seed three or four hours, or a sufficient time for it to penetrate the skin, or husk, in a strong solution of liver of sulphur.

Stripped Grass Recommended for Hay.—The Indian stripe or riband grass, which is cultivated in gardens, would answer admirably for hay. In rich grounds, plants are frequently four feet high; what a burden of hay would a field so cropped produce! Cattle are exceedingly fond of it; the seeds are easily saved, so that a person might soon have enough for a road, and from that save again and again, for as many acres as he might choose.—It is propable that the crop might be much too large to be made on the field where it grew; but if so, it would be worth while to carry part into another field.

When to Cut Rye Grass For Hay.—Rye grass, if mown for hay should be cut when in blossom, and not green. The hay made from it does not heat or sweat so much, and is very good for horses, but not for sheep and cattle. If it is suffered to stand too long before it is cut, the seeds rob the plants of their juices, and leave it no better than wheat or rye straw.

To prevent the Smut in Wheat.—The means (to prevent smut) are simple; and no other than immersing the seed in pure water and repeatedly scouring it therein, just before it is sown or dibbled in. Whether well, spring, or river water be used, different; but repeated stirring and change of water is essential to remove the possible particles of infection that many have imperceptibly adhered to the seed; thus purified, the subsequent crop will be perfect in itself, and seed successively so likewise, if there be no adjacent fields from whence this contamination may be wafted.

The addition of any alkaline or earthy salt, by increasing the specific gravity of the water, is of advantage in floating off the unsounded grains, and after the seed is washed, it should be dried immediately by rubbing it with newly slaked lime.

Fertilising Steeps for Turnips, Wheat & Barley.—Steep turnip seed twelve hours in train oil, which strain through a fine seive, and immediately thoroughly mix the quantity of seed you would wish to sow on an acre, with three bushels of dry loamy earth, finely sifted which drill (or sow) as soon as possible; and when the plants begin to appear, throw a small quantity of soot over them.

How do you manage your husband, Mrs. Croaker? Such a job as I have of it with Mr. Smith!

'Easiest thing in the world, my dear: give him a twitch backwards when you want him to go forward. For instance, you see to-day I had a loaf of cake to make. Well, do you suppose because my body is in the pastry room, that my soul need be too? Not a bit of it! I'm thinking of all sorts of celestial things the while. Now croaker has a way of tagging round my heels and bringing me plump down in the midst of aerial flights by asking me the price of the sugar I'm using.' Well, you see it drives me frantic! and when I woke up this morning and saw the furious storm, I knew I had him on my hands for the day unless I managed right; so I told him that I hoped he wouldn't think of going out to catch his death such weather; that if he wasn't capable of taking proper care of himself, I should do it for him; that I wanted him to stay at home and talk to me; at any rate he wasn't go out; and I hid his umbrella and India-rubbers. Well, of course, he was right up in end, (just as I expected!) and in less than five minutes he was streaking off down street at the rate of ten knots an hour.

You see there's nothing like understanding human nature; no woman should be married till she is thoroughly posted up in this branch of her education.

FANNY FERN.

NEW USE OF WOMEN.—A correspondent of the Brattleboro' Eagle tells the following story of a witness upon a liquor trial: 'How do you know it was Brandy?' asked the lawyer. 'Well,' replied the ready witness, 'I smelled of it first, and then I tasted it and got a glass of it.' The unexpected reply wholly upset the gravity of the court, jury, and miscellaneous people; and they were not at all assisted in recovering their equanimity by his further testimony that the man who bought the brandy drank of it himself 'till he was quite satisfied.'

The man who "earns his living by the sweat of his brow," complains that it is hard times just now when the mercury is getting towards the zeros.

The fellow who lately "carried out a project" was obliged to bring it back again.

The far-famed Medicine.
HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

SURPRISING CURE OF A CONTINUED LETHARGY, AFTER FIVE YEARS' SUFFERING.

The following Testimonial has been sent to Professor Holloway, by a Gentleman named Middleton, of Scotland Road, Liverpool.

Sir,—Your Pills have been the means, under Providence, of restoring me to sound health after five years of severe affliction. During the whole of that period, I suffered the most dreadful attacks of Asthma, frequently of several weeks' duration, attended with a violent cough, and continual spitting of phlegm intermixed with blood. This so shook my constitution that I was unfitted for any of the active duties of life. I was attended by some of the most eminent medical men of this town, but they failed to give me the slightest relief. As a last remedy I tried your Pills, and in about three months they effected a perfect cure of the disease, totally eradicated the cough, and restored tone and vigour to the chest and digestive organs.

I am, Sir, your obedient servant,
Jan'y. 1st, 1853. (Signed) H. MIDDLETON.

PERMANENT CURE OF A DISEASED LIVER OF MANY YEARS' DURATION.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. Gamis, Chemist, Yeovil, to Professor Holloway.

Dear Sir,—In this district your Pills command a more extensive sale than any other proprietary medicine before the public. As a proof of their efficacy in Liver and Bilious complaints, I may mention the following case. A lady of this town with whom I am personally acquainted, for years was a severe sufferer from disease of the Liver and digestive organs, her medical attendant assured her that he could do nothing to relieve her sufferings, and it was not likely she could survive manmonths. This announcement naturally causey great alarm among her friends and relations, and they induced her to make a trial of your Pills which so improved her general health that she was induced to continue them until she received a perfect cure. This is twelve months ago, and she ernot experienced any symptoms of relapse, and o has declares that your Pills have been the meanften saving her life. I remain, Dear Sir, yours truly, of

AN ASTONISHING CURE OF CHRONIC RHEUMATISM AFTER BEING DISCHARGED FROM THE HOSPITAL INCURABLE.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. W. Moon, of the Square Winchester.

To Professor Holloway.

Sir,—I beg to inform you that for years I was a sufferer from Chronic Rheumatism, and was often laid up for weeks together by its severe and painful attacks. I tried everything that was recommended, and was attended by one of the most eminent Surgeons in this town, but obtained no relief whatever, and fearing that my health would be entirely broken up, I was induced to go into our County Hospital, where I had the best medical treatment the Institution afforded, all of which proved of no avail, and I came out no better than I went in. I was then advised to try your Pills, and by persevering with them was perfectly cured, and enabled to resume my occupation, and although a considerable period has elapsed since, I have felt no return whatever of the complaint.

I am, Sir, your obliged servant,
Oct. 8th, 1852. (Signed) W. MOON.

AN EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF DROPSY, AFTER SUPPRING FOR EIGHTEEN MONTHS.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. G. Briggs, Chemist, Goole, dated February 15th, 1853.

To Professor Holloway.

Sir,—I have much pleasure in informing you of a most surprising cure of Dropsy, recently effected by your valuable medicines. Captain JACKSON, of this place was afflicted with Dropsy for upwards of eighteen months, to such an extent that it caused his body and limbs to be much swollen, and water oozed as it were from his skin, so that a daily change of apparel became necessary, notwithstanding the various remedies tried, and the different medical men consulted, all was of no avail, until he commenced using your Pills, by which, and a strict attention to the printed directions, he was effectually cured, and his health perfectly re-established. If you deem this worthy of publicity, you are at liberty to use it.

I am, Sir, yours respectfully,
(Signed) G. BRIGGS.

WORK SHOP,
Adjoining the Free Church, Sydney Street.

THE Proprietors of this Establishment are prepared to undertake all orders they may be favoured with in the different branches of House Work, Monuments, Tomb Tops, Grave Stones, Chimney Pieces, ornamented and plain; Table Tops, of every description; and Baptismal Fonts, of the most elegant and chaste designs.

All our work we engage to finish in the most workmanlike manner, and in material of the best description.

We do not intend to descend to the degrading artifice of attempting to draw customers by depreciating other establishments, but leave it to the intelligent and liberal of those who may call on us to judge for themselves. The public have derived much benefit from the establishment of the only shop of which these Yankees speak, as their prices, formerly so exorbitant, have been reduced 25 per cent. already, and will yet be brought lower.

In proof of our capability, we can refer to some of the best work in the city—for instance, the beautifully designed and well executed Monument to the late Mr. James Gerow, erected in the Rural Cemetery; the Tablet erected in the Catholic Church, Fredericton, to the memory of the Rt. Rev. Bishop Dollard, &c. &c. &c. These have been executed by M'Grath, while in the employment of those who have tried to take the credit of these works to themselves.

Messrs. M'Grath & Kelly are also engaged to do all the Carved Work of the Catholic Cathedral. This when done will afford ample proof of their capability. Dec. 16. 6m.

The large Capital of the Company, and the number and influence of its Proprietors, enable it to rank with the most eligible Offices, either in America or Europe, with respect to the advantages offered to the Public.

FIRE BRANCH.

Persons assured by this Company are not subject to any covenants or calls to make good losses which may happen to themselves or other, nor do they depend upon an uncertain fund or contribution, the Capital Stock of this Company being an unquestionable security to the Assured in case of Loss or Damage by Fire.

LIFE BRANCH.

In addition to the more customary methods of Insurance, the Company likewise Assures Live on any of the following contingencies:—

For the term of One Year, Seven Years, or any other definite period.

For the whole continuance of Life.—The Premiums to cease, after a limited number of Annual Payments.

For Two Joint Lives.—The sum assured to be paid on the death of either.

On the longest of Two or Three Lives.—The sum assured to be payable at the death of the last survivor; or,

The Survivorships.—To secure the payment of the sum assured, if a life A die before another life B.

For a sum to be payable at age 60, or at death.

Premiums on Credit.—A portion of the Premiums may remain on Credit. Assurances may be effected in various ways, not enumerated, to meet the convenience of parties.

The important advantages afforded by the Company in the Life Branch will include the following viz:—

The Guarantee of an ample Capital, and Exemption of the Assured from liability of Partnership.

Moderate Premiums.

Large Participation of Profits by the Assured amounting to Two-thirds of his net amount, which may be applied at the option of the party effecting the Assurance:—1st. By the immediate payment of the sum apportioned.—2nd. By an equivalent reduction of the future Premiums.—Or, 3rd. By an equivalent increase of the sum assured.

Small Charge for Management.—The expenses of the Office being borne in due proportion by the two Branches.

Prompt Settlement of Claims.

Policies lapsed by non-payment of the Premium may be renewed within three months, by paying the Premium, with a fine of 10s. per cent., on the production of evidence to the satisfaction of the Directors of the good state of health of the life assured.

The Company will always be prepared to Purchase the Policies of this Office
