GOLF—THE HUNTER MEDAL.

A. W. Smith Defeats Gordon Mackenzie in the Semi-Final Contest.

On Saturday last the semi-final competition for the Hunter gold medal between Gordon Mackenzie and A. W. Smith was played, when the latter won with a score of 78 plus, against 89 required by Mr. Mackenzie, after deducting his handicap allowance of 16 strokes. It now falls to the lot of Mr. Smith to try conclusions with Mr. W. H. Blake for the custody of the medal for the season.

On Thanksgiving Day, Thursday, at 10 o'clock, the handicap competition for the Brantford medal will take place, and intending competitors are requested to send in their names to the secretary not later than noon on the day previous to the competition.

Tuesdays and Thursdays are the special days set aside for the lady associate members enjoying the game, but on this occasion they will of a necessity require to give this day up entirely to the gentlemen players, who will occupy the links the whole day long. With this exception the privileges of the lady members will not be disturbed. Should the weather prove favorable for the sport, doubtless Thursday will witness the largest gathering since the formation of the Toronto Golf Association.

Games for Everybody

If you are looking for something novel in the way of indoor games and amusements we should advise a visit to the establishment of P. C. Allan, 35 King-street west. A recent look through his stock convinced us that the would-be purchaser who could not find something to suit his fancy in this varied assortment must be hard to please. We saw card games and board games, table games and floor games, youngsters' games and old folks' games in endless profusion, and at a variety of prices to suit every pocket. Mr. Allan informed us that his new illustrated catalog and price list of games, toys and novelties will be ready this week, and that copies of it may be obtained by anyone on application at the store, or will be mailed free to any address.

The Bons' At Home.

The Don Rowing Club's annual At Home will be held in Victoria Hall on the evening of Thanksgiving Day. The following energetic committee is making arrangements for a great success: F. Lloyd, T. Mitchell, A. J. Trayling, T. Friend, J. O'Connor, P. Kennedy, L. Kennedy, F. Hogarth, J. Sullivan, C. Gloster, J. Hedley, F. Liston.

Hal Braden, 2.07 1-2, the famous pacing stallion, by Brown Hal, died at the Meadville kite track Saturday morning. Hal's greatest race of the year was the winning of the big Sensation pacing stake at Buffalo.

OTTAWA COLLEGE BY 8 TO 7

QUEEN'S RUGBY MEN DEFEATED FOR THE CHAMPIONSHIP.

Three Thousand People Saw a Desperately Fought Contest—Queen's Kicked With Sun and Wind in the First Half, When Ottawa College Had the Best of It, 5 to 3.

Ottawa College defeated Queen's at Rosedale Saturday afternoon by the smallest possible margin, 1 point. After two halves of 45 minutes the score stood 8 to 7 in the Capital City kickers' favor. Queen's won the toss and took the apparent big advantage of sun and wind. Queen's had all the advantage in the first half, yet were outpointed by 5 to 3. For 30 minutes of the first 45 Queen's forced the play and for fully 20 minutes the Kingston students were dallying near the College line, and all for a paltry three points. Near the close of this half Ottawa took the agressive, the result being a try and a rouge. Play was pretty even out urning over. The breeze, although somewhat lessened, was quite noticeable and the bright sun was a detriment to the Queen's men. And again, paradoxically, with the antagonistic elements Queen's had a majority of points—four to three—that left them in a bare minority when the whistle blew.

It was a desperately fought contest, as far as the individual players were concerned. Little team play was attempted on either side, and none of Ottawa's expected musse plays materialized. In fact Father Fallon explained that they never intended to make any. The superb condition of the 30 men was evident up to the close. All the tackling was most vigorous, and every man was on the ball. Ottawa gained invariably on the throw-in. Capt. Gleason would rush up to the opening in the line when the ball came from the side, and grasping it, would go on or pass back for sure gains. Queen's scrimmage did the best work. Quarter-back Fox was the best man on the field as a ground-gainer. His low running around the scrimmage made scores of yards during the contest. Besides he frequently stopped most dangerous rushes by judiciously falling on the ball. The back divisions were nearly even up on punting. Queen's had the best of it in the first half and Ottawa in the second. Ottawa had the advantage of accurate kicking into touch. Queen's gained considerable by their dribbling game.

Referee Ballantyne and Umpire Senkler performed their arduous duties most capably. They were compelled to penalize frequently for off-side play, and both sides suffered about equally.

Little betting was indulged in, few large amounts being put up. The betting was at even money, and if $1000 changed hands it was the outside figure.

About 3000 spectators were in attendance. Queen's had the most clubhouse supporters, while in the grand stand the College cheer was most frequent. But around the fence Ireland asserted herself, and many wild huzzas went up there for the Capital City's Catholic kickers.

Levecque made a short kick-off. Fox stopped and punted into touch at centre-field. Shea and Murphy made a passing run, and the first rocket went up for the red and gray. McCammon made a flying kick and the ball was at Ottawa's 25. Rayside made a weak attempt to place a goal from an off-side free kick. A free for the College sent the ball to midfield and an exchange of punts left the oval at Ottawa's 40 yard line. Fox passed to Farrell, who sent on to McRae, who punted over and Belanger was forced to rouge.

Queen's 1, Ottawa College 0.

Queen's had the ball right on Ottawa's line for the next five minutes. They even got a free kick in at 25 yards, and all they could do was to score a single point—a touch-in-goal, kicked in by McRae, after Fox's pass.

Queen's 2, Ottawa College 0.

Fox jumped over his scrimmage, but the ball did not come out and he was off-side. Gleason's punt was well returned by Curtis. Then Gleason made a pass that Murphy could not reach, but McRae did. He sent on to Wilson, who made another flying kick to touch-in-goal.

Queen's 3, Ottawa College 0.

After Fox ran around for 15 yards, Curtis' free kick for 20 more and Kennedy's 15 yard rush along the line Ottawa got in an open dribble nearly the whole length of the field that landed the ball on Queen's 25-yard line. A free kick for Ottawa left the leather right at Kingston's goal. They rushed the ball over and Lee fell on it for a try. Gleason missed the goal.

Ottawa College 4, Queen's 3.

Two minutes later Shea punted over and Wilson rouged.

Ottawa College 5, Queen's 3.

Queen's put in a passing run for 30 yards and the whistle blew for half-time with the ball in their opponents' territory.

Curtis gained 15 yards on his short kick-off and a rush by his men. Levecque punted and the College dribbled to Queen's 25. Vincent punted over and Wilson rouged.

Ottawa College 6, Queen's 3.

This was Ottawa's greatest lead, and Queen's started in to reduce it. Three pieces of passing and dribbling took the ball from Queen's 25 to the 25 on the other side. Fox gained five more around Baker. Then Kennedy broke through for a try. McRae missed the kick. Now the Presbyterians were ahead.

Queen's 7, Ottawa College 6.

McRae made his mark near mid-field. Shea accepted the punt, kicked back, and James banged the ball on the fly over the line. Wilson rouged and they were even up.

Queen's 7, Ottawa College 7.

Little Belanger stopped a dangerous dribble and punted back where the ball came from. It turned the tide, for the Ottawa men continued to press, Murphy kicked to almost touch-in-goal. Wilson was cheered for a dodging run of 25 yards. Here Farrell made a wild pass that Murphy took and kicked past the line to the brick dust bicycle track. There was a minute left and this was used up in Queen's territory.

Ottawa College 8, Queen's 7.

Ottawa showed a marvelous defence when danger was near. Queen's banged away for half an hour in the first half, near their line, but couldn't get over and Curtis' kickers thereby threw away their chance. It was this magnificent defence that won the Canadian championship for the College and they are entitled to every credit. Neither team was up to Osgoode Hall's form when the legalites won the cup, certainly as far as scoring ability went. The teams and officials were:

Queen's (7): Wilson, back; McRae, Farrell, Curtis (capt.), halves; Fox, quarter; Cranston, Kennedy, Baker, scrimmage; Horsey, Rayside, Ross, McCammon, Moffatt, Johnston, Elliott, wings.

Ottawa College (8): Back, Belanger; halves, Murphy, Gleason, Shea; quarter, Levecque; wings, O'Brien, Prudhomme, Foley, James, Lee, Vincent, McDougal; scrimmage, Clancey, McCredie, Boucher.

Referee, A. W. Ballantyne; umpire, E.C. Senkler, Osgoode Hall; touchline judges, M. S. McCarthy, W. H. Bunting; goal judges, Sweny, Meek.

How Montreal Beat Osgoode Hall.

Saturday was a great day for the Quebec Rugby Union's teams. In the morning Montreal's victory over Osgoode Hall was much easier than that of Ottawa College over Queen's in the afternoon. But soon after the start it pointed the other way; for within two minutes of the start Osler fell on the bounding ball over the line for a try. No goal. Cameron punted soon after for a rouge. Richardson and Pape each punted to touch-in-goal, and the score was 7 to 0. Smart work by Routh, R. McDougall and Hagar put the ball in Osgoode's territory, and James kicked over for a rouge. 7—1. Montreal was starting a rush from their own quarter way, when Pape collared the ball and punted behind, when W. McDougall was compelled to rouge, 8—1. This was the score at half-time. On turning over Montreal had sun and wind behind them, and they forced the play from the start. They shoved Peter White over his own line for a safety touch, and the score was 8—3. The visitors dribbled down and a try resulted. No goal, 8—7. The next point was a rouge for Montreal, and the score was 8-all. A touch-in-goal came next, and the red and black was ahead, 9—8. Another try for the visitors was now recorded, but the goal was missed, 13—8. Then came another rouge and Hagar tried to drop a goal from the field. He was only close, but it was worth a point, as McLaughlin had to touch-down, 15—8. This was the last tally, and the whistle blew with the ball in Osgoode's half. The result was somewhat of a surprise, as the visitors were short five of their men that put up the stiff game two weeks previous against Ottawa College, their places being filled, however, by lively second team players. On the other hand, the Legalites were assisted by McCarthy, Peterson and Pape, former Hall men. It was a well-played contest, and besides showing much clever individual work there were pieces of brilliant team passing at times on both sides.

Osgoode Hall (8): Back, McLaughlin; halves, Gilmour, Pope, Brown; quarter, Richardson; scrimmage, Ballantyne, Sweny, Young; wings, Cameron, Osler, Bain, Peterson, Hoskin, McCarthy, White.

Montreal (15): Back, W. McDougall; halves, Savage, R. McDougall, Hagar; quarter, Brock; wings, Baird, Buchanan, G. James, E. James, Patten, O'Brien, Rankin; scrimmage, Routhe, Redpath, Walker.

Referee—H. R. Grant, Queen's. Umpire—George Clayes, Varsity.

Toronto Meds Outbat Trinity.

There was great excitement in the baseball grounds Saturday morning, when Toronto and Trinity medical students met for the second time this fall on the diamond. Trinity won the first contest by a single run, but this time the Toronto nine turned the tables, and won by 19 to 15. It was a slugging game from the start, although Westman pitched for Toronto had slightly the best of it over Martin of Trinity.

THE SILENT STEED.

Johnson Makes Flying Miles on Louisville's New Track.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 17.—The new third of a mile cement track was opened here to-day, and Johnson christened it by lowering all the world's records from two to five miles, standing start, all at one sweep. He was excellently paced by the quadruplet, triplet and tandem teams. The pick-ups were beautiful. Quite a breeze was blowing at the time, but Johnson succeeded in the attempt, cutting the records for the distances as follows: Two miles, 4.01; three miles, 6.09; four miles, 8.16 1-8; five miles, 10.22 3-5. After 20 minutes' rest and a rub-down Johnson came out for the two-mile flying start record. The quad paced him the first mile and the triplet the second in 4.02 4-5, lowering Tyler's record. The performances were properly officiated. Should the weather prove favorable Johnson will go for all records up to the hour.

Good Roads Potter Elected.

New York, Nov. 17.—The treasurer and secretary of the League of American Wheelmen, New York division, started in at 10.30 o'clock this morning to count several thousand votes which the members of the L.A.W. have cast for a new executive board. There have been two tickets in the field. Dr. E. M. Santee of Cortland and Isaac B. Potter of Brooklyn running for the office of chief consul, E. S. Homer of Troy and William E. Underhill of Schenectady vice-consuls, George P. Pennell of New York and W. S. Bull of Buffalo for secretary-treasurer. The official count resulted as follows:

Chief consul, Isaac B. Potter of New York; vice-consul, W. S. Underhill of Schenectady; secretary-treasurer, W. S. Bull of Buffalo.

The total vote cast in the State of New York was 2220.

Potter's majority over Santee was 944.

IVES' RECORD RUN.

The Napoleon of Billiards Scores 331 and Schafer Is Beaten.

New York, Nov. 17.—Jacob Schafer was the first to settle down to right good billiards to-night in the final struggle that he had matched himself to make against Frank Ives. Schafer never had a tougher game to stack against than he has had this week, and to his credit, it should be said, he has done his level best. The chances of victory were greatly in Ive's favor, as he had only 600 points to go, while Jake had 1051 to make in order to win.

The game was opened in a dashing manner. For on the second inning Ives rolled 331, breaking Schafer's Chicago run of 271. In the seventh inning Schafer made a run of 235, these two being the largest runs of the evening. The others were all below 100. Summary:

Ives—28, 231, 0, 39, 29, 69, 14, 23; 26, 41—grand total 3600.

Schafer—93, 13, 0, 36, 24, 10, 235, 21, 2—grand total 3074.

Ives' run for the night, 600; Schafer, 525.

Ives' average for the night, 60; grand average, 48 48-74.

Schafer's average for the night, 58 1-3; grand average, 41 40-47.

When Ives had made his last shot of the game Schafer crossed over to him and shook him heartily by the hand, amid the cheers and yells of the spectators. Thus ended one of the greatest billiard games that was ever played in this city.

QUEBEC WINS.

Ottawa Defeated in the N.A.L.A. Intermediate Championship.

Montreal, Nov. 17.—The Quebec lacrosse team met the Ottawas this afternoon in the final match of the season and are now intermediate champions. After a stubborn contest the Quebecs won the match and the championship by a score of four to two, as follows:

Game.	Club.	Score.	Time.
First	Ottawa	Burns	20.48
Second	Ottawa	Robertson	1.18
Third	Quebec	Walsh	2.04
Fourth	Quebec	Kennedy	36
Fifth	Quebec	Watson	9.28
Sixth	Quebec	Kennedy	4

Buffalo for the New League.

Chicago, Nov. 17.—After announcing this morning that they had adjourned until Nov. 30, the delegates of the American Baseball Association in the afternoon reconsidered this action, and held another meeting, at which Buffalo was favored as the eighth club in the circuit, by four out of the six delegates. Another meeting will be held Nov. 30.

AGAIN VARSITY AND THE VALES TIE

A Great Association Football Match Between Toronto's Two Crack Elevens—How the Six Goals Were Scored.

The Association match Saturday on the Baseball grounds between the Gore Vales, champions spring '94, and Varsity, champions fall, '93, was witnessed by a large crowd, which evidenced the fact that Association football is still satisfying the public taste. The teams tied in the Toronto Football League series, and this match was arranged to settle the championship for the fall season.

Gore Vale won the toss, and elected to play with a slight wind from the west and sun in their back. Varsity kicked off, and after an attack on the Gore Vale goal, which was cleverly cleared by Gordon, the Gore Vale left rushed the ball up, only to lose it to Livingstone, who passed to Buckingham. Little checked him, and Hume secured the ball, and passed to McDonald, who beat the Vale's goal-keeper by a swift screw shot. First blood for Varsity. On resumption of play the ball was kept for some time in Varsity territory, but Gonin and Burnett were playing a good, true, fast game, and which bothered the Vale forwards considerably, but from a pass from Anderson the Vales' left wing secured the ball, and passed it over to the right, who, being hard pressed, centred on goal, and Humphrey headed through. Score 1—1. Both teams were playing hard and fast, and for some time honors were even, but the forwards of each team were playing too swift for the defences, which fact caused the goal-keepers considerable trouble. The next goal was put through by McDonald, but was disallowed for off-side. The ball shortly after was shot through the Varsity goal by a clever combination of Humphrey, Bulmer and Singer. Score 2—1, with the Vales ahead. The Vales still kept up a furious assault, which resulted in another goal through a clever shot of Bulmer's from a drop pass of Humphrey. Score 3—1. The Varsity defence was apparently rattled, which fact their opponents were quick to take advantage of. Although another goal was scored by Purvis, the umpire decided the ball was played off-side. Half-time score 3—1 in Gore Vales' favor.

The Varsity team now realized that their high hopes of winning the championship were vanishing, and without herculean efforts their opponents would for the second time in succession win the city championship. This fact waked the Varsity players to action, and all through the second half of the game they had, possibly, the best of it. The play was fast and furious, and the Varsity forwards made repeated assaults. One ball was shot through the Vales' goal by Hume. Score 3—2. Play of a give-and-take order was indulged in for some time, the quick and accurate passing of the players arousing the spectators to a high fever of excitement, and as time was nearly up the question of "Will Varsity score?" was in the minds of most of the persons present. Varsity now determined to do or die, and attacked their opponents' goal time and time again, only to be repulsed, and one time the Vales' left secured, and with the assistance of their attack, came very nearly scoring. Sims cleverly cleared his goal, and Duncan took the ball down, assisted by Buckingham, who passed to the left wing, and they, being closely pressed, passed across again, and Duncan took a shot at goal. The ball struck the bar, and bounded up in the air. As the ball came down in front of the goal Gordon secured it, but Hume was too quick for him, and kicked it out of his hands through the goal. Score 3 all. As only 15 seconds of time was left neither team scored. The match was declared a draw.

Everyone played well. From goal to goal the best players of Canada showed the spectators that Association football, properly and scientifically played, is a fine, exciting game to witness. The teams were:

Varsity: Goal, Sims; backs, Jackson, McArthur; halves, Burnett, Livingstone, Gonin; forwards, Buckingham, Hume, Lingleback, Duncan, McDonald.

Gore Vale: Goal, Gordon; backs, Mott, Dickson; halves, Anderson, Little, Hunter; forwards, Purvis, Humphrey, Bulmer, Singer, Johnston.

A RUN WITH THE HOUNDS.

Fine Weather Brought Out a Large Concourse—Those in the Saddle.

The Toronto hounds had a capital run on Saturday, and the fine day and good going brought out a very large concourse of ladies and gentlemen on horseback and in carriages. The hounds threw off near Macfarlane's on the Vaughan Plank-road, Reynard running west for a short distance, and then north for four miles, whence he turned east, and was overtaken south of Hogg's Hollow, near Yonge-street. Captain Forster on Dodo secured the brush and presented it to Miss Beardmore. Among those mounted were: Mr. George W. Beardmore, M.F.H. on Malign, Captain Forester on Dodo, Mr. Fred N. Beardmore on Cockade, Mr. N. J. Balfe, New York, on Bishop, Dr. Peters on The Skier, Mr. J. P. Patterson on Lassie, Mr. James Carruthers on Grey Friar, Mr. Bridgman Simpson, Mr. A. R. Colley on The Spider, Dr. Capon, Mr. Harvey Beatty, Dr. F. A. Campbell on Aide-de-Camp, Dr. Grasett, Mr. F. N. Grey on Trilby, Mr. A. Pennycross Macleay, Mr. A. W. Godson, Mr. Arthur Ardagh, Mr. Graham on Waterloo, Mr. Phelan on Eblis, Mr. Edgar Carruthers, Mr. Fred Doane. Among the ladies were: Miss Helen Beardmore on Lassie, the Misses McKenzie, Miss Grace Cawthra, Miss Lee on Sweetheart, Miss Edna Lee on Laddie, Miss Janes on Woodstock.

There will be a special run on Thanksgiving Day.

Football Kicks.

Since the Canadian Union managed the Inter-Provincial contests there have been three contests: Osgoode Hall defeated Montreal in the snow at Rosedale in '92 by 45 to 5; Queen's defeated Montreal at Montreal last year by 29 to 11, and this year Québec's representatives, resident in Ontario, take the cup.

Dr. Carver won two matches at Chicago Saturday and lost one. The first was with Charles Mott of Chicago at 100 birds, Carver winning by a score of 95 to 89. In the second match Carver was in poorer form and lost to Charles Grimm of Iowa, the score being 87 to 84. The third was with "Roland" of New York, Carver winning, 33 to 29.

After a pleasant dinner at the Walker House Saturday evening, tendered by Osgoode Hall, the Montrealers left for home at 9 o'clock. Queen's also went east the same evening, and the Canadian champions left over the C.P.R., being given a great send-off by their many friends in the city. They will be banqueted in Ottawa to-night.

The weather on Saturday was phenomenal for this time of year. It was a perfect day for football as far as the players were concerned. The big crowd at Rosedale sat right to the close, and the chilly November air could not frighten any of the 500 well-dressed ladies away. Its very closeness made the contest more interesting, and everyone was on the tiptoe of expectancy all through. The turf was in perfect form, and Old Sol showered his autumnal rays on the players from the start at 2.40 to the finish at 4.40. Several of the players were winded, and their mending up wasted considerable time. Not a man was ruled off, and the big contest finished as it started, 15 men aside.

Several of Hamilton's football fossils appeared quite lively around the Rosedale clubhouse Saturday, and they say they will make it even more lively for their Toronto brethren next Saturday. They now prefer the new style of wing play, and anything will suit the locals. The Hamilton fossil team was chosen Friday, giving the last year of active service: C. W. Ricketts, 1882; A. Murray, 1885; A. D. Stewart, 1885; R. S. Martin, 1886; H. G. Gates, 1887; W. W. Osborne, 1887; Dr. Bertram, 1888; Walter Ramsay, 1889; R. M. Hamilton, 1889; R. Moreton, 1891; A. B. McKay, 1891; R. H. Labatt, 1891; W. A. Stewart, 1892; J. W. Amberey, 1892; W. A. Logie, 1892. Manager Duke Collins hereby challenges Manager Mayor Stewart to a race from goal to goal after the match, which will start at Rosedale at 2.30.

CHIMES WINS THE BIGGEST PRIZE

Stamboul Second in the Contest for Trotting Stallions With Four of Their Get—Close of the Horse Show.

New York, Nov. 17. — It was not the fate of the Horse Show to get through without a second wet day, but the weather had little or no effect on the popularity of this great annual display. The storm kept the attendance down this morning, but everybody that is anybody was at Madison Square Garden this afternoon and evening. The Herd prize for trotting stallions was awarded this afternoon. Stamboul, Chimes and Lavalard were up for inspection, with four of their get ranging from 2 to 5 years in age, as specimens of their breeding qualities. Chimes was accompanied by Fantasy, with a record of 2.06, the fastest 4-year-old trotter of the season; Charming, Chimes who scored 2.18 1-2 at 3 years, and wore a blue ribbon for himself on Tuesday; Silvery Chimes, 5 years, with no record but the distinction of having beaten his sire in the ring two days ago, and Princess Royal, a foal of 1890, who trotted in 2.30 at 2 years. Stamboul was represented by Pawnee, 5 years old, with a mark of 2.26 1-2, and out of the noted dam Minnehaha; Hilda S., a lovely filly of 3 years, with a race record of 2.19 1-4; Silverboul, 3 years old, and Almaboul, 2 years old, both prize winners this week. Lavalard had among his four only the one fast record of 2.19 1-4, held by Prince Lavalard, and the others shown with him were Havalard, Lightmoon and Miss Martha. Of the three chiefs of these broods, Stamboul was the only one that was able to show any speed in the ring, and his herd also caught the crowd, and won applause in turn by their bold, rapid way of going. Fantasy did not lead well, but it was evident that her turf career weighed heavily in favor of Chimes. The result was that Chimes received the biggest prize of the week for his kind, as $500 went with the blue rosette in this herd competition. Stamboul was, of course, second, and Lavalard third.

Immediately after this class, the special exhibit of record breakers made a pleasant diversion to the ordinary routine. Monroe Salisbury had brought most of his crack campaigners from Fleetwood Park, the most famous of them being Alix, the Queen of Trotters. She was introduced first among the Salisbury lot. Robert J., with his faster record at the pace, preceded her. Neither could show any speed in the circumscribed space, Alix being particularly at a disadvantage. Her magnificent form won general admiration, and even the hackney men acknowledged that she was a superb specimen of a horse. Directly, the 2-year-old pacing wonder, with a record of 2.07 3-4, and Flying Jib, who has made a mile in 2.15 in a trial running mate, were also driven to sulky, while Azote and Answer were hitched together to a skeleton racing wagon. The contributions from the Hamlin string, in addition to Robert J., were Fantasy, to a road wagon with safety wheels, and Nightingale, the three-mile champion, to a road cart of the old-fashioned sort.

The driving classes for trotters included a special prize for matched pairs, which went to Col. L. Kip's Emoleta and Mambrino Belle, and another for mare or gelding and best appointed road rig. In this Col. Kip was again successful with Mambrino Belle, and he also got third money with Emoleta. The horse counted but 50 per cent. in his competition, so that Miss Alice, despite her good looks, was unplaced, Stanford, a son of Whips, coming in for second prize, while ex-Congressman Charles M. Reed's June was fourth.

The smart set was chiefly concerned in the disposition of the challenge cup offered by the American Hackney Horse Society for the best stallion of that breed in the show. Only winners of first prizes at this or previous exhibits were eligible, and besides the four originally entered there were seven post entries. The contest lay between Matchless and Londesboro and Rufus Jr., many thinking that the latter, who is only 4 years old, while Matchless is 10, would wrest the honors from Dr. Webb's great actor. The old horse, who won the cup last year, made the effort of his life to-day, and the English judge, Harry Livesey, found him entitled to the tri-colored ribbon again. Under the conditions, the cup, worth $500, becomes the property of Dr. W. Seward Webb, the owner of Matchless, who was also fortunate in the special prize for four-in-hands as well.

Another prize of $200 in plate for the best amateur driving of four-in-hands had six candidates, none of whom did very well in tooling the coaches between posts. Richard F. Cannan, who is a sort of gentleman dealer, did the best work, and was fairly entitled to the honors he received.

The show ended to-night with a grand parade of prize winners, a small lot of high steppers, and two classes for jumpers that required them to go over some stiff fences. Not only have the horses outdone themselves this week, but as a social event the Tenth Annual Horse Show has been the greatest affair of the kind ever held in this country. The box office receipts have also been in excess of all former years, and it is proposed to extend the exhibit over two weeks in 1895. On Monday the sale of hackneys, hunters, saddlers, ponies and carriage horses, including several prize winners, will begin at the Garden.

Athletic and General Notes.

The Wilmot-Maroon baseball match was postponed after the first innings until next season.

The Intermediate League game between the Athletics and Tecumsehs on Saturday resulted in favor of the Athletics by 1 goal to nothing.

Chris Clune, the well-known trainer of the Wanderers, has been engaged at the Hayden House, Toronto Junction, which changes hands on Tuesday next.

A London cable says that if Yale will challenge Oxford there is every likelihood that the latter university will send an athletic team to the United States in 1895.

Financially the New York Horse Show has been a stupendous winner. A conservative estimate of the total attendance for the six days is 70,000.

Young McQuirk, Philadelphia, and Joe McCloskey of Pittsburg, middleweight pugilists, fought to a finish Saturday night at Baltimore for a purse of $500 a side. The former won in 12 fierce rounds.

A large crowd attended the sparring exhibition Saturday evening at Profs. McDole & Burns' Academy in Adelaide-street. Some fast set-tos took place. The wind-up, between Murphy and Pickens, was a lively exhibition of fisticuffs, Murphy winning in the second.

The Field states that the New York Yacht Club committee have criticized Lord Dunraven regarding the contests for the America's Cup in a friendly spirit. The construction of Lord Dunraven's new yacht, with which he intends to contest for the America's Cup, will not be begun until all the points now being discussed shall have been finally settled.

The committee of management of the Central Y.M.C.A. gymnasium have decided to give an exhibition of gymnastic and acrobatic work in Association Hall about the middle of next month. Besides the athletic program, musical and literary numbers will be introduced. The popularity of these exhibitions in the past and the success that has attended them will, it is hoped, be exceeded in the coming event, which will without doubt attract all admirers of amateur athletics.

The Lornes will close their season on Thanksgiving Day. They are trying to arrange a match with Peterboro to be played in Toronto on Thursday morning. As the Junior Lornes, champions of Ontario, could not arrange a match with Port Hope, they have disbanded for the season. It is likely that an entertainment in the shape of an at home or smoker will be given the early part of December.

Their victory Saturday gives Varsity II. the Intermediate championship, with 11 points out of a possible 12, having defeated all the other clubs, but the Riversides, with whom they drew. Varsity II. will probably close the season with an exhibition game at Mount Forest or Bradford on Thanksgiving Day.

The Slavins Fined.

John and William Slavin, brothers of the pugilist Frank Slavin, who were arrested for creating a disturbance Friday night, appeared in the Police Court Saturday morning, when John was fined $10 and costs and William $1, and costs.

SATURDAY EVENING CONCERTS.

The First Entertainment of the People's Course in Massey Hall.

A large and appreciative audience gathered at the Massey Music Hall on Saturday evening, the occasion being the first entertainment of the "People's Course." The attraction was the Torbett Concert Co., including Miss Ollie Torbett, violinist; Herr Rudolph von Scarpa, pianist; the famous Lutteman sextet, from Stockholm, Sweden; and Mr. Francis J. Brown of this city. The entertainment was opened by His Worship Mayor Kennedy, who explained the nature of the People's Course, and said that these entertainments were intended to carry out Mr. Massey's design of providing good music, lectures and other intellectual feasts for the people at a nominal cost.

Miss Ollie Torbett, though not by any means a great violinist, was pleasing in all her numbers, especially Musin's "Mazourka de Concert," and her encore number to the same, "Dixie," with rather intricate variations of the principal theme. Rudolph von Scarpa is an excellent pianist. His work is clean, crisp and sparkling.

Of the Lutteman Sextet, naught but the highest praise can be given. As soloists, none of the members can be said to be more than average vocalists, but, as a whole, they present a capital tout-ensemble, their phrasing being perfect. Perhaps their best number was the "Swedish Wedding March," with which we are comparatively familiar as an organ or piano solo. As given by these Swedish singers, it takes on a new charm, displaying, as it does, new beauties. Mr. Francis J. Brown, as a reader and elocutionist, is well known.

The Grand To-Night.

Three nights of rare enjoyment are assured the patrons of the Grand Opera House, commencing to-night, when Sadie Martinot, supported by Max Figman, will be seen in the remarkably successful comedy, "The Passport." Wherever Sadie Martinot has appeared she has been greeted by audiences composed of the fashion and society of each place. She has a reputation which few other actresses enjoy, of being able to simulate the sweetness and tenderness of a girlish disposition, and at the same time imbue it with all the comedy that is possible. The piece itself is refined and free from coarseness or horse-play, while it is filled with humor and ludicrous situations. The company selected is in the strictest order for excellence, and includes many well-known names. The production as a whole is promised to rival any other production of comedy ever seen upon the road.

A Great Attraction.

The attraction at the Academy this week is Sherman & Morisey's Comedians, presenting a long and very excellent variety program, and in addition a burlesque on the "White Tent" show, "A Jay Circus," and what is unusual with organizations of this sort, it's to be presented with circus paraphernalia and circus ring effects. The supplementary olio includes Sherman and Morisey, the premier comic acrobats of America, whose specialty is distinguished by original funny situations. The Brothers Ancoletti are said to do the most marvelous aerial specialty of modern times; they have caused many a shiver to run down the spinal columns of the more nervous people—a sensation, however, that has only emphasized the enthusiasm which has invariably greeted the successful accomplishment of their daring and reckless mid-air evolutions. Emery and Marlow will present a comedy sketch, and Mr. Emery will introduce his wonderful skill in painting, when he will paint a large picture in 50 seconds, doing it upside down.

MLLE. DELMORE.

Mlle. Delmore, the celebrated transformation dancer, will be seen in her captivating terpsichorean dance with calcium and stereopticon effects. Others on the program are the famous Pumpinellos, Carr and Ingram, Mr. John Patten, Mr. Howard, Mr. Russell, Mr. Tenny and Mr. Talbert. In addition to the regular program, Major, the $10,000 wrestling and fighting pony, will meet all-comers. A grand street parade will be made on Monday.

Corinne in "Hendrick Hudson."

The latest achievement of that remarkable manager and producer of stage representations, Mrs. Jennie Kimball, is "Hendrick Hudson," or "The Discovery of Columbus," which will be seen at Jacobs & Sparrow's Opera House to-night, with the same special cast that presented this operatic extravaganza for six consecutive months at Chicago during the World's Fair; 500 nights in New York and eight weeks in Boston. All of the beautiful scenery, costuming creations, electrical and mechanical effects will be exhibited. The announcement in behalf of the diversion is as follows: The costumes have been most lavishly supplied, the materials are of the finest and richest qualities, and the colors such as blend so harmoniously and picturesquely that in the successive groupings the most critical eye cannot detect a jarring shade. The scenery is rendered striking by a series of ingenious transformations. Every scene is a kaleidoscope of rare beauty, and is constantly changing. The production contains much that tends to an enjoyable evening. A grand scenic effect is followed by some artistic specialty, then a song is succeeded by a grand character ballet, in which beautiful and symmetrical young ladies, dressed in gorgeous costumes,
