BASE BALL

The executive of the Inter-Society League met in the rooms of the St. Peter's Y. M. A. last evening. The regular league season is due to close on Saturday, July 20, but there are several postponed games yet to be played so that it will be late in July or early in August before the base ball fans are left without their exciting sport.

On account of the wet weather no games have so far been played this week but St. Peters and the F. M. A. team will meet tonight and the old rivals, St. Joseph's and St. Peter's, will play on Thursday night. On Saturday night St. Rose's and St. Joseph's will come together.

The St. Rose's and F. M. A. teams, according to the printed schedule, were to play on Saturday night next but these two teams have played their allotted number of games so the St. Rose's and St. Joseph's will fill in with one of their postponed games.

St. Rose's have yet six games to play, the F. M. A.'s seven, St. Joseph's nine, and St. Peter's ten. Three nine innings games are also to be contested, viz., F. M. A. vs. St. Peter's; St. Joseph's vs. St. Rose's. The first two were postponed from July 1 on account of the wet weather.

As yet the champion team for the present year is in doubt. St. Peter's, St. Rose's and St. Joseph's have all a chance to come out on top. St. Peter's have lost but two games, St. Joseph's five and St. Rose's six. A victory or a defeat at the present stage means much to all three organizations, so that the games yet to be played should be more hotly contested than those already decided.

The F. M. A. team is putting up good ball and is liable at any time to make one of the three aspirants for the first place take the short end of a game. The last named team has in some instances been defeated by but a small score.

THE TURF

ASBESTOS HORSE SHOES

A special despatch from Honolulu to the New York Herald of July 1, says: "Asbestos horse shoes! This is an invention that is being considered by a local blacksmith. There has long been a demand for such an article to protect the feet of the horses in the island of Hawaii. For six months or more the violence of Kilauea has shown continued activity. There has been more fire and more spouting lava in the pit of Halemauman than before, and steam in far vaster quantity, has been rising from the floor of the big crater. Visitors to the volcano usually ride from the Volcano house down into the pit and across to the Halemauman pit on horses. But the heat under the floor of Kilauea has been increased to such a degree that the horses suffer from the trip. Some means of protecting the horse is necessary. This is the reason that asbestos horseshoes are being considered.

A REMARKABLE HORSE

A French veterinary surgeon some years ago had a horse which acquired remarkable skill in unfastening doors. He was kept in a stable under a loft, whence the oats were sent down through a wooden shaft, at the lower end of which, about 4 feet from the ground, was a little door sliding in grooves. The horse learned to lift up this door and allow the oats to flow out on the floor. When it was discovered that he did this, the door was fastened by means of a wooden peg driven into the shaft. The horse drew the peg out without the least difficulty, and got the oats again. Then he was put in a box in another stable, the lower end being bolted outside, while the upper half had a small door secured by a bolt inside. The next morning both bolts were found unfastened, and the horse was loose in the yard.

HORSE NOTES.

W. J. Furbush has sold Ijams, 2.21 1-4, to Concord parties.

Ruddy Kipp has set the Lincoln, Me., track record at 2.12 1-2.

Sweet Marie was quite lame when she went that mile in 2.06 Thursday.

Jimmie Gatcomb will put the finishing touches on Audubon Boy over the Providence track.

Mondocino, 2.19 1-4, is dead He was the sire of Monte Carlo, 2.07 1-4, Mendolita, 2.07 1-2, Idolita, 2.09 1-4, and three others with records.

Angus Pointer looks good for a crack at the big line free for allers. Last Thursday he went an exhibition in 2.07 1-4 over the half-mile track at Albany.

Ed Bither has Mack Mack in great shape. The son of McKinney can equal his record right now. A mile in 2.12 1-2 to wagon was nothing more than a jog for him last Wednesday.

Phoebon W. finished 2, 2, 2 in the free-for-all pacing at Combination Park, Boston, Thursday. The race, which was in half mile heats, was won by Nervola; best time 1.03.

Vina Belle, 2.15 1-4, is now a double producer. Azema, 2.18, and Burma Girl, 2.22 1-2, are her record performers. One of her daughters by Arion is the dam of the fastest three-year-old at Johnson farm, a filly by Peter the Great.

No less than 20 American trotters having records of 2.10 or better have been exported to Austria in the last decade according to the late Col. Chester's compilation. Of this number 15 were stallions, destined for use in the stud. Of well-bred horses having records between 2.10 and 2.30, the Austrians have taken over scores from the United States, and they now have both sires and dams that are just about as likely to produce two-minute speed as anything remaining in this country. Next to Austria Russia has taken away more of our 2.10 trotters than any other country, six in all having gone there. Jupe, 2.07 1-2, the fastest stallion owned in the land of the czar, is now in the stud at Tomsk, a city in Asia, about midway between St. Petersburg and Vladivostok on the Trans-Siberian railway. Italy has taken four 2.10 trotters, including Onward Silver, 2.08; Germany three, the fastest of which was Dolly Dillion, 2.06 3-4; England two, both of which were brought by Louis W. Winans, and Denmark one, Lamp Girl, 2.09.—Sports of the Times.

Out at Readville the fastest move to date has been by the pacing mare Phalla, 2.04 1-4, who turned the course in 2.10, last half in 1.03, and quarter in 30 seconds. Grace Bond, 2.09 1-4, still holds the trotting mark for the track this year with a trial of 2.12 1-2, last half in 1.04 1-2, quarter in 31 seconds. Trainer Woodridge let his green pacing mare Easter Direct step it off in 2.11 1-2, last half in 1.03; and quarter in 30 1-2 seconds. George Graves worked Mack Mack, 2.08, to matinee wagon in 2.14 1-4, last half in 1.06 1-4, and quarter in 32 seconds. Ed. Bither worked the pacing mare Bessie Barnes along with Mack Mack. Henry Titer gave his futurity candidate, Blue Hill, 2.15 3-4, several repeats around 2.19, coming the last quarters in 32 seconds, but the final eighths were near to a 2.00 clip. Bob Bever, who has been working the largest string at Greendale track in Worcester, shipped Lady Iona, 2.17 1-4, Babe Allerton, 2.17 1-4, Marion, 2.21 1-3, and Allen K., 2.22 1-4, to Hohokus, N. J., Wednesday, for the meeting that opens there next week. Dr. F. H. Kendrick of Worcester, shipped along in the same car his pacing gelding Ben Como, 2.12.—Edward E. Cogswell, Boston, Mass., June 29, in The Horse Review.

SPURIOUS MONEY PLANT FOUND

Ottawa, July 9—In connection with the arrest of Charles Burke, for counterfeiting, Colonel Sherwood, commissioner of the dominion police, stated that off and on for the last two years the detectives of the dominion police had been engaged in ferreting out the men who were passing the spurious money.

The counterfeiting was not steady, being done by fits and starts. The detectives were puzzled for a time, as to where the plant was situated, but an arrest in Montreal gave the local men the desired clue. Burke was watched for some time, and then arrested at his home. A search of the house revealed a complete plant for the making of $5 bills of the Montreal, Dominion and Traders Banks.

Detective James Parkinson, who made the capture, resides at 86 College avenue. He has been on the force for upwards of twenty years, and is one of its cleverest men.

The trade and commerce department has received reports from J. S. Larke, Canada's trade agent in Sydney, and D. H. Ross, agent at Melbourne. Mr. Larke says that trade in New Zealand is prosperous. In New South Wales and Australia generally the harvest will not be an average one. The early part of the year was too dry. The prospects for developing the leather trade are good. A firm to secure the trade must do its own business. The population of New Zealand increased from 714,162 in 1896 to 908,726 in 1906.

Mr. Ross gives figures to show that Canadian trade with Australia is increasing. In 1906 Canada exported £303,751, an increase of £72,770 over 1905. The imports to Canada from Australia were £72,688, an increase of £29,400.

Rev. W. J. Stewart, D. D., of Whitman, formerly pastor of Main street and Brussels street Baptist churches, arrived in the city yesterday on the steamer Yale, and is at Elliott's hotel.

HOME-SICK THIEF GIVES HIMSELF UP

English Defaulter, Made Remorseful by the Fourth, Asks to Be Returned.

NEW YORK, July 10—William Greenwood, who says he is seventeen years old, but looks to be twenty-five, accosted Lieutenant Galvin, at the White Star line pier and, describing himself as a thief said he wanted to be arrested and sent back to England, whence he had just arrived on the steamer Majestic.

He said his home was in Close, Newcastle-on-Tyne, and that he had run away from Newcastle with $1,200 belonging to the Campania Sansinena de Carnes Congelenda, a brokerage firm that employed him as clerk.

The trip he had just ended, he said, completed his second voyage across the Atlantic within one month. In June the manager of the firm gave him $1,200 in paper, several drafts and checks and a bag of silver to take to the bank. He put the silver in his overcoat and, leaving the checks and drafts behind him, left the place quietly through a side door. He went to a ticket office and engaged passage for America, and sailed on the Campania the following morning.

When he reached New York, he continued, he went to one of the big hotels over night, but he became homesick and boarded the Adriatic for home the next day. Fearing to remain in England he engaged a second passage and took the Majestic, which reached this port yesterday. He had hardly left the gangplank when he heard the Fourth of July celebration, and again became homesick.

He told Lieutenant Galvin that he had only a dollar and a quarter in American money when he landed, and thought it best to give himself up.

Greenwood told Lieutenant Galvin that about one year ago he went to Canada, and while employed in a store there stole $80 from his employer and went to England. He was arrested there, he said, but the Canadian authorities did not want the trouble of bringing him over and he was not detained.

CABINET MET YESTERDAY

Federal Ministers Appoint Judges to Manitoba Courts --Governors Get Leave of Absence.

Ottawa, July 9—A meeting of the cabinet was held this afternoon, the first in two weeks. Sir Richard Cartwright, acting premier, presided.

Police Magistrate Dawson, of Winnipeg, and ex-Attorney-General J. D. Cameron were appointed judges of the court kings bench for Manitoba. Both judgeships were provided for by an act passed at the last session of parliament.

Leave of absence was granted to Sir Mortimer Clark, lieutenant-governor of Ontario, and to Lieutenant-Governor Dunsmuir, of British Columbia. Sir Mortimer Clark will leave for a holiday. During his absence Chief Justice Moss will act as administrator.

Three applications for commutation of the death sentence were considered by the council. One case was that of a man named Dale, who was convicted and sentenced for the murder of two Frenchmen in Carine (B. C.) last November. Dale, while intoxicated, ran amuck in the village and fatally shot the men and wounded others. The cabinet decided to let the law take its course. Similar action was taken in the case of a Chinaman who fatally stabbed a man employed in one of the camps in the Kootenay district just one year ago today.

The third case considered was that of an Italian named Frank Capelli, who is under sentence to be hanged Aug. 1 for the murder of William Dowe at Whitestone, in the Parry Sound district, on Christmas day. Pending the receipt of a further report on the case by the minister of justice, no action was taken.

J. V. JACKSON CHOSEN CHIEF OT THE ORDER

I. O. G. T. Grand Lodge Re-elects Him to Chief Executive Office.

The Grand Lodge I. O. G. T. resumed its session at 2.30 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

Lawson read the report of the committee on the state of the order. The report of the committee on juvenile work was presented by Mrs. J. V. Jackson, and M. G. Harmer reported for the committee on the official organ.

The finance committee said in their report: We regret that the financial report of the grand secretary shows a deficit of $97.22 on the year's work, but we note that practically the whole amount is caused by shortage on Templar account, this showing that our executive committee has not only done a large amount of work but has practically raised funds necessary to cover all their expenses.

We recommend that the salary of the grand secretary be $150 a year, and that the sum of $50 be set aside for juvenile work.

The reports of the auditors were accepted as correct.

The committee on political action reported in the evening, as follows:

Your committee are glad to note the marked and rising tide of temperance sentiment in this province, and the growing determination on the part of the people to abolish the drink traffic, and recommend the adoption of the following:

Resolved, That in the opinion of this grand lodge the time has now come when a stringent prohibitory act should be placed upon the statute books of this province, and this grand lodge pledges itself to support candidates pledged to the enactment of such a law, regardless of party affiliations.

We endorse the action of the N. B. Temperance Federation in appointing a committee to conserve the interests of the temperance people in the approaching provincial elections.

OPEN VERDICT GIVEN AT CRYSTAL STREAM INQUEST

Jury Does Not Attempt to Fix the Cause of the Fire.

Cole's Island, N. B., July 9—(By telephone)—The inquest into the death of the four men who lost their lives in the burning of the river steamer Crystal Stream, here on June 21, was closed tonight and the verdict handed Coroner Earle by the jury was that William Logan, Allan Logan, Fred Smith and Edward Baxter came to their death by burning in the Crystal Stream on the night of June 21; cause of fire unknown.

Herbert McCleery, mate of the Crystal Stream, one of the survivors of the fire, gave evidence. It was his duty, he said, to look after the stowing of freight and look after the lights after the boat was tied up. He made his rounds as usual the night of the fire and saw nothing unusual. There was no sign of fire. He had no reason for suspecting the Crystal Stream would be burned.

He told of his remarkable escape as before recorded, and saw the two Logan boys get out of bed when he did and William Logan helped him to force up the trap into the cabin.

He told of the cargo of hay, hoop poles and general freight. Planks lay from the boat to the shore, and the forward gangway was open as customary.

Mate McCleery said he had no idea of the reason why the four men did not follow him when he got out through the trap. He thought they were following him. He was sure that William Logan had leaped behind him.

In answer to a question as to whether he considered the men's quarters safe, he said that he thought frequently that they would be dangerous in case of fire.

Mrs. G. H. Perry, wife of Capt. Perry, of the Aberdeen, gave evidence as follows: "On the night of the fire we were awakened by a crackling noise. We lay down again, but the noise continued and we got up and gave the alarm, that something was wrong."

To Mr. Trueman she said she knew Mrs. Chase, but never heard her husband use the words which Mrs. Chase laid to him, nor were they on the Crystal Stream four years ago.

John Johnson, engineer of the Aberdeen, told of being aroused by the call of fire. He ran out and saw the Crystal Stream afire He at once ordered the firemen to get up steam which was done in about ten minutes, by using two gallons of paraffine and birch bark.

Wilfred Akerly, mate of the Aberdeen, said he was aroused by the call of fire. He described getting the scow out of range of the fire.

He added that he saw Capt. Perry on the deck of the Aberdeen and on the wharf.

Capt. Perry, on being recalled, gave a direct contradiction of the statements of Mrs. Chase that he made threat to have vengeance on the Crystal Stream.

E. H. McAlpine represented D. J. Purdy, M. P. P., owner of the Crystal Stream. A. A. Wilson appeared for Capt. Perry, of the Aberdeen, and W. H. Trueman was looking after the interests of the crown.

At a private session of the treasury board yesterday on the question of winter port rates, it is understood that no decision as to the rates next season was arrived at. The board have under consideration a proposal to place a charge on lumber loaded in the stream, and are said to have been advised by the recorder that there is no legal barrier which would prevent this being made an additional source of revenue.

DR. BONAR CHOSEN

He Will be the Head of the New Canadian Mint.

Montreal, July 9—A special London cable says: Dr. James Bonar, head of the civil service commission here, will sail for Ottawa by the Corsican on Thursday to assume the position of master of the new Canadian mint.

Dr. Bonar is aged fifty-five, and is one of the best known English economists. He is the author of a standard work on Adam Smith and is also prominently associated with industrial co-partnership and other social movements here. He will go for a month to complete arrangements in Canada, and then will return here to take out his family.

A GOOD PICTURE SHOW AT NICKEL

Very large and appreciative gatherings continue to attend the Nickel, and the perpetuity of first-class entertainment is keeping the interest keen. This half week's leading feature is a long picture of western cowboy life, in which a heroic mail carrier is attacked by "bad men" and Mexican greasers. A lot of excitement enters into the showing of the views and spectators cannot restrain themselves at times. The cartoon pictures are brand new to the business, and the living faces emerging from chalk delineations is amusing and mystifying. For downright laughability the pictures entitled A Troublesome Tenant and Moving Under Difficulties are the limit of humor. Besides all this, the novelty song, Two Dirty Little Hands, with real moving illustrations, is a hit.

M. C. Leman, of Halifax, was registered at the Dufferin yesterday.

MORMONS STILL FOR POLYGAMY

Roberts, Once Excluded From Congress, Spoke for Church at Salt Lake City.

SALT LAKE CITY, July 8—Elder Brigham H. Roberts of the Mormon Church, excluded from Oregon because of polygamy, said there in a public speech that the Mormon Church still believed in polygamy and would continue to practice it in spite of any law. There would be no new polygamous marriages however.

The speech was in connection with the controversy which has been waged between the ministers of the Evangelical churches and the Morman priesthood. Roberts spoke in reply to an open letter published by the ministerial association. He frankly declared that the church had surrendered not one iota of its belief in the principle of polygamy. Of himself he said:

"I stand exactly where I did ten years ago, namely, that though the church proclaimed against the continuation of this relationship, though the State proclaimed against it, neither the church nor the State may absolve the moral obligations I am under or release me from that moral duty."

Mr. Roberts characterized the evangelical ministers as being neither real men nor real women and that they were better qualified for pink teas than statesmanship. All of the high officials of the church, including President Smith, were present and tacitly indorsed the address of Mr. Roberts was an utterance of the church.

Indigestion

Stomach trouble is but a symptom of, and not in itself a true disease. We think of Dyspepsia, Heartburn, and Indigestion as real diseases, yet they are symptoms only of a certain specific Nerve sickness—nothing else.

It was this fact that first correctly led Dr. Shoop to the creation of that now very popular Stomach Remedy—Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Going direct to the stomach nerves, alone brought that success and favor to Dr. Shoop and his Restorative. Without that original and highly vital principle, no such lasting accomplishments were ever to be had.

For stomach distress, bloating, biliousness, bad breath and sallow complexion, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—and see for yourself what it can and will do. We sell and cheerfully recommend
