LOCHINVAR FOR SALE.

An estate with romantic associations is to be sold—Lochinvar—a Galloway domain of nearly 10,000 acres in the midst of beautiful scenery. The property includes Lochinvar, one of the prettiest lochs in the district, in which on an island are the remains of an old castle once the stronghold of the Gordon Knights of Lochinvar. The place is the scene of Lady Heron's songs in "Memoirs," and thither gallant "Young Lochinvar" brought his not unwilling Graham bride, as told by Lady Heron at the Court of James IV. Lochinvar was also the home of "Wat of Lochinvar," a hero of "the clan of the Moss Hags." The lands of Lochinvar continued to belong to the Gordons till 1787.
