News Gathered From Belleville's Many Suburban Districts

PHILLIPSTON

Phillipston.—The Farmers' Club met in the I.O.O.F. hall recently to re-organize and appointed the following officers for the coming year—
Pres.—Benj. Sayers
Vice Pres.—Everett Sills
Sec.-Treas—Peter Robinson
Program Com.—Percy Caverly, Burdon Phillips, Earle Sayers, John Orr and Herbert Prindle.

There was a very good attendance and nearly all who were present, had belonged to the club before and all joined with the exception of a few.

Dr. Clarence G. Salisbury, formerly a Moira boy, has written briefly to friends here stating that he is on his way to South China, where he has been appointed to take charge of a hospital. The doctor has not seen any of his relatives for six years, with the exception of his father who visited him in Boston while attending the College of Physicians and Surgeons there, some four years ago. Mrs. Salisbury is accompanying him and as she too, is a graduate missionary and trained nurse they are likely to do some work for China when they are once there and settled. Before going Dr. and Mrs. Salisbury intend visiting the former's parents, brothers and sisters at their home in Calgary, Alta, as one little sister and two brothers the doctor has never yet seen. We wish the doctor and his wife every success in their labor of love and it looks to your correspondent as though the Foster and Salisbury families, who are so closely connected, should feel very proud that they can boast of one real Medical Missionary who with his noble wife are bidding goodbye to friends and loved ones to start for the foreign field in the near future.

Our Christmas entertainment which was held on the Tuesday evening before Christmas was not a real success on account of the snow storm was held again on New Year's evening. There was a good attendance and a good program. Quite a number from Moira, Halloway, Zion and other places. The proceeds amounted to $61. Our superintendent Mr. John F. Ketcheson should feel encouraged as this is his first Christmas entertainment since he has assumed the duties of superintendent.
