ROYALS BUMPED M'HALE IN PINCHES

Montreal Takes the Fourth Straight From the Jersey Skeeters.

PESTS HAD EARLY LEAD

Scored Three Runs in First Three Innings, Then Royals Got to McHale.

MONTREAL, July 23.—Montreal took the fourth straight game from Jersey City today, bumping the offerings of McHale when they hurt most. Jersey City had an early lead, making five of their eight hits in the first three innings, but Dale improved as the game advanced. Hits by Purtell, Allen and Burns each drove in a pair of runs for Montreal. Costello, a young infielder from the New York Americans, was at short for Jersey City and mixed three errors with some fast fielding. Score:

JORDAN IS SOLD TO BUFFALO PICK AND KROY ARE COMING

Home Run Tim Leaves Toronto Club—Kent and Herbert Are the New Pitchers Coming—Pick and Kroy Here Saturday—A New Outfielder Bought.

The expected shake-up in the Toronto team has arrived. President McCaffery announced last night that "Mighty Tim" Jordan has been sold to the Buffalo Club. Jordan has been in a batting slump all season, and his 1912 hitting has been sadly missed.

The Toronto Club is close to the salary limit with the new players secured within the last few weeks and somebody had to go. Buffalo has been chasing Jordan for many a day, and Manager Billy Clymer is the most pleased man in the International League today. Jordan will report to the Buffalo Club at once.

With Fitzpatrick on the hospital list, the team is without a utility infielder, and President McCaffery closed the deal last night whereby Pick and Kroy, the two youngsters secured from Terre Haute, of the Central League, will report at once. Pick is an infielder and Kroy an outfielder. They will be here about Saturday.

Pitcher Kent has left New York and will get in this morning. President McCaffery spent a day in Scranton on his way home from New York to see Herbert work. The big fellow is going in grand shape and is leading the New York State League. He will likely be asked to report to the Leafs early next week.

While in New York Mr. McCaffery tried hard to secure McHale, the Jersey City pitcher. The price offered was $3500, but Frank Farrell, the New York American owner, went higher and he will likely get him.

Hugh Bradley is now the property of the Toronto Club, and will be the regular first baseman. Bradley has been hitting well and fielding in top notch order since joining the Leafs. Jordan has not been of much use to the Toronto Club this year, and Bradley should fill the bill all right.

W. D. Jones, an outfielder, has been bought from the Wheeling Club of the Inter-state League, and will be farmed out to Scranton for seasoning.

President Barrow of the International League arrived in town late last night, and will watch the Leafs and Birds battle today.

CRIPPLED BISONS ARE BEATEN AGAIN

Newark Drives Mains From Box and Score an Easy Victory.

BUFFALO, July 23.—Newark made it three straight over the crippled Bisons today, driving Mains from the box in the first innings and holding the lead safe thruout, winning by the score of 8 to 3. Matteson, a former Buffalo semi-professional pitcher, made his debut before the local fans and pitched a good game. Swacina was the hitting demon of the game, driving in four runs and scoring one himself. He got a triple, a double and two singles. President Barrow was a spectator. The score:

ST. THOMAS, July 23.—After the third innings of today's contest, Baker settled down, and the Hamilton Kolts found it difficult to bat his benders safely. A couple of walks and a hit gave the visitors a run in the first. They got another over in the third, which was their last. The Saints took the lead in the fourth, and added one in the eighth on Wright's walk and steal and Gurney's single. CUBS GAVE PHILLIES AN AWFUL BEATING

PHILADELPHIA, July 23.—Chicago defeated Philadelphia today, 13 to 8. Manager Dooin used six twirlers, some being driven off the rubber and others being taken out to permit pinch hitters to bat for them. Chalmers was taken out in the second innings on account of his wildness, Rixey finishing the session and was hit hard. The visitors kept up their attack on Brennan, he yielding seven hits and four runs in two innings. Marshall was touched up for four hits and two runs in the next two innings, and in the seventh forced the visitors to accept their first blank of the game. The Chicagos resumed scoring in the eighth by getting one run off Imlay, but Mayer blanked them in the ninth. Philadelphia also hit the ball hard at the start and drove Cheney into retirement in the fourth innings. Humphries took his place and put a check on the home players' slugging. The score:

LEAFS UNABLE TO WIN WITH FOUR HITS OFF COTTRELL

Birds Clouted Offerings of Hearne and Gaw to All Corners and Easily Defeated the Kelleyites With a Four to Two Score — Locals Were Unable to Hit Cottrell's Southpaw Shoots.

Gloom, and more gloom. It was a gloomy afternoon, the Leafs played in gloomy fashion, and the gloomiest thing of all was that the Birds captured the third fixture of the series by 4 to 2.

The fans were in a gloomy mood some few minutes after Bunny Hearne started in the box for the locals. The North Carolina gentleman could not get them breaking, but the Orioles had no trouble penetrating the gloom to slam his offerings to all corners, and then continued the horrible work by batting the offerings of our bright young hope, Gaw, to the three fields many times. It was a gloomy afternoon for Toronto pitchers.

Old Sol was not a visitor at Maple Leaf Park, but Cottrell, a southpaw that travels in Dunn's Flock, didn't mind a bit, and made it just a little bit darker by tying the Kelley hitsmiths in several brands of knots and letting them get away with just four solid clouts for the afternoon. Not even a break in the dark and gloomy clouds.

The Dunnites had a great afternoon and there was no gloom on their side of the field. Sixteen times did they swing their clubs—seven times against Hearne and nine times against Gaw. Once again let us impress it on your mind that it indeed was a very bad day for the Kelley heavers.

Cottrell bowled over the Leafs as fast as they came at him in all but two innings, and the four hits collected by the champions came two apiece in these two sessions. Bill Bradley, the terror of all scuthpaws, had a grand chance to put the Leafs in the running in the third, but Cottrell put something on the ball and our William lifted to left field, with every corner occupied. Here is how it happened:

Peaches Graham came thru with the Leafs' first hit for a starter, and Hearne gave Capron a high one to catch. McConnell teased Cottrell into giving him a walk after Graham got him going by tipping off Egan's signs while at the middle station. O'Hara singled into left when Twombley just failed to grab his fly ball. Shultz forced O'Hara at second, but Graham scored on the play. Northen was passed, and every base had a warmer. Bradley could not do it, and Cottrell was saved.

The Leafs couldn't do a thing with Cottrell's offerings for the next four innings, and not a hit was registered off his delivery in this time. In the eighth, after McConnell had filed out to Capron, O'Hara came thru with the Leafs' third hit of the day and O'Hara's second safe one. Shultz got a free ticket, and then the bases were full again when Northen poked to centre. Capron got behind the hit by fast running and robbed Northen of at least a double and stopped a couple of scores. O'Hara came home on Bradley's long sacrifice fly to centre, and Shultz evened up for not being ready to move to third on the throw-in by stealing third. The best that Hugh Bradley could do was to force Northen at second. A hit would have meant at least two more runs. The Leafs were easy in the ninth.

The Birds waited until two were out before they stepped into Hearne in the first innings, and then Ball opened fire with a single and next stole second on a close decision. Derrick was the ready little pinch hitter with a wallop to left, and the first run was in, O'Hara let the hit get by him and Derrick moved up to second. Houser rolled out.

Capron opened the second with an infield hit, but Twombley lined into McConnell's hands and Capron was doubled at first. Egan singled back of second, but Cottrell gave Holly a liner to handle.

The Birds kept banging away at Hearne, and three singles and an infield out gave them another run in the third. Gaw was sent in to stop the Birds in the fourth, but two innings was as far as he could clip their wings. The Orioles came right back with some base hits, and these, coupled with some poor baseball by the Leafs, gave them two runs. This happened in the sixth. Gaw handed Houser a walk to begin with. Capron laid a bunt down the first-base line, and, with H. Bradley and Gaw both trying to field it, he was safe, for nobody covered the bag. Twombley sacrificed. Egan hit over second with the infield playing in, and two runners scored. Cottrell also got a life when Gaw and Bradley repeated their trick of chasing the ball, leaving the first corner without a guardian. Maisel grounded to H. Bradley, and Cottrell was doubled up. This ended the scoring.

BOEHLING SETS NEW RECORD FOR SEASON

Makes His String Eleven Straight Wins—White Sox Easy For Senators.

CHICAGO, July 23.—Joe Boehling of the Washington club established an American League record for the season today, when he won his eleventh consecutive victory. His latest victim was the Chicago club, which he held to six scattered hits, the visitors taking the game, 7 to 1. The Washingtonian was helped by the ragged fielding of Callahan's men, who booted and threw like amateurs. Score:
