MISSIONARY WORK.

Last Day of the Woman's Meeting—Numerous Reports—Election of Officers.

At the resumed meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society yesterday, Mrs. James Gooderham presided.

It was agreed that for the coming year an effort should be made by the society to raise the sum of at least $30,000.

Mrs. Strachan of Hamilton read a letter from Mr. Huntington, in which work among the Indians at White Fish Lake reserve was stated to be in an encouraging condition. He had decided to remove the Indians under his charge to the Hudson Bay post. The Board was requested to appropriate $250 to pay expenses involved in the removal.

A letter from Mrs. Lund, Tokio, Japan, was also read, and she considered the teaching of domestic duties to be the most desirable training in the missionary school, and a letter from Mr. Laumby, Kofu, Japan, urged the necessity of a lady missionary there. From other places requests of a similar nature were received, the writers stating they were prepared to pay the expenses of teachers. A resolution testifying appreciation of Mrs. Youmans' interest in the work of the society and sympathy with her in her present illness was passed.

How Money is Spent.

The report of the Committee on Appropriations recommended the granting of these amounts: Tokio school $5750, Schidzuoka school $1530, dressmaker $650, Kofu $550; total for Japan $8480. French work: Acton Vale mission school $1200, interest on $10,000 for six months for furnishing the new building $300; total $2500. Northwest and British Columbia work: Crosby Home $1400, McDougall Orphanage $1200, Chinese work at Victoria $1200, Chilliwhack Home B. C. $2150, Rev. Dr. Huntington Home $250 subject to order of Executive Committee. Total appropriation $17,180.

Resolutions Passed.

These resolutions presented by the committee were adopted: That the Executive Committee be authorized to send a lady to Kofu, Japan, if occasion arise, and that $550 be appropriated for the purpose; that the council at Tokio be authorized to purchase land near the school if a favorable occasion arise; that it has not been deemed advisable for the Society to take the two extra lots purchased in Victoria by Dr. Sutherland.

Afternoon Session.

The Literature and Publication Committee moved a resolution to appoint a special committee to provide literature. The members of the committee to be composed of Miss Palmer, New Brunswick branch; Miss Selwin, Nova Scotia branch; Miss M. Wilkes, Central branch; Mrs. Fowler, Western branch.

Election of Officers.

The election of officers took place with the following result: President, Mrs. James Gooderham, re-elected; vice-president, Mrs. Dr. Carman, of Belleville, re-elected; recording-secretary, Mrs. Dr. Wilmott; corresponding secretary, Mrs. E. S. Strachan, re-elected; treasurer, Mrs. Dr. Rosebrugh, re-elected.

A vote of thanks was passed to Mrs. Dr. Parker for her services as editress of the "Outlook." Mrs. Dr. Parker was re-elected to the same office for the coming year. As editress of the Society's column in The Christian Guardian Mrs. Dr. Briggs was re-elected.

Montreal was fixed on for next year's meeting. This concluded the annual meeting.

No lengthy advertisement is necessary to clear up Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. 25

THE HUMANITARIANS

Read Papers, Elect Officers, Hold a Public Meeting and Adjourn Till To-Day.

The Humane Convention reassembled in the Normal School yesterday morning under the presidency of Mr. Jas. H. Pearce. Mr. J. J. Kelso read a paper written by Professor L. H. Eaton, of Pittsburg, on "Children's Humane Organizations." A discussion ensued on the best means of caring for children whose natural guardians fail in their duties.

At the afternoon session a paper by Miss Richmond, of Grand Rapids, on "Cruelty to Animals," was read by Mr. Burnham. An interesting discussion ensued.

The Nominating Committee presented their report, which was adopted, and these officers were elected:

President, E. Gerry, New York, with over thirty vice-presidents.

Executive Committee—E. Burnham, Cincinnati; J. Shortall, Chicago; E. F. Jenkins, New York; T. E. Hill, Chicago; Mrs. C. E. White, Philadelphia; J. J. Kelso, Toronto; E. Webster, Philadelphia; Mrs. L. L. Tifft, Buffalo; G. H. Smith, Philadelphia; A. W. Landon, Chicago; E. A. Rockwood, Buffalo; B. T. Atkinson, Milwaukee; F. B. Fay, Boston.

Treasurer, Martin V. B. Davis, Philadelphia.

Secretary, Robert C. Wilton, Brooklyn.

It was decided to leave time and place for next convention in the hands of the committee, with a recommendation that Philadelphia be the place of meeting.

Professor Whitehead, New York, sent a paper on "Prevention of Cruelty to Poultry," which Mr. Burnham read. After a short discussion a vote of thanks was accorded the Press and the convention adjourned till 10 a.m. to-day.

A Public Meeting

Largely attended was held in the evening. Hon. G. W. Ross, Provincial Minister of Education, presided, welcomed the delegates and strangers, and highly recommended the work of the Humane Society. Addresses were given by F. Fay, of Boston; E. Burnham, of Cincinnati, who exhibited a model cattle ambulance and expressed a hope that Toronto would have one, as most of the American cities had; Rev. Mr. Laidlaw of Albany, J. G. Shorthall of Chicago, Col. Rockwood of Buffalo, and Alderman Hallam, who said that a very large percentage of hides were found to have been injured whilst cattle were alive by barbed fences, which caused much cruelty and greatly reduced the value of the hides.

To-Day's Program.

The convention re-assemble at 10 a. m. today for transaction of business, and at 2.30 the City Council Reception Committee takes them for a drive round the city. Hon. J. Macdonald has invited the company to lunch at Oaklands.

Gilbert Laird, St. Margaret's Hope, Orkney, Scotland, writes:—"I am requested by several friends to order another parcel of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil. The last lot I got from you having been tested in several cases of Rheumatism, has given relief when doctors' medicines have failed to have any effect. The excellent qualities of this medicine should be made known, that the millions of sufferers throughout the world may benefit by its providential discovery."

UNITARIAN CONVENTION.

The Opening Sermon Last Night—To-day's Program.

The first meeting in connection with the Unitarian Church Conference was held last evening in the First Unitarian Church, Jarvis-street.

Rev. Chas. G. Ames, of the Spring Garden Unitarian Society, Philadelphia, preached the sermon. His text was: "I and my Father are one." From these words he gave a doctrinal sermon, acknowledging the divinity of Christ, but also asserting that of all men, Christ solved the mystery of his being, felt the divine spark within him, and gaining the knowledge of his relationship to God taught other men theirs. The thought to man of being the son of God was inspiring, elevating. Christ made this very distinct in His Sermon on the Mount. He addresses God as "the Father" once but tells His hearers 15 times that they are the children of God. Men know that they have the divinity within them and are aware of the duty they owe God; but also, they even go astray. Christ was the great exemplar. He had a clear conception of His duty and fulfilled it to the uttermost.

Music was furnished by the choir during the service.

To-Day's Program

Is as follows: 9 a.m.—Devotional meeting, conducted by Rev. H. H. Woods, Church of Our Father, Newburg, N.Y. 9.30 a.m.—Addresses on "Our Missionary Work and Opportunity," by Rev. Geo. Batchelor, Western Secretary of the A. U. A., Boston, Mass.; Rev. Edward A. Horton, Second Unitarian Church, Boston, Mass.; Rev. A. T. Bowser, First Unitarian Church, Toronto, and others. 11 a.m.—Three twenty minute addresses will be given on "The practical work of a Unitarian Church," as follows: 1st. What it must be and what it must do in order to promote the moral and spiritual welfare of its adult constituency, Rev. Thomas R. Slicer First Unitarian Church, Providence, R. I. 2nd. Its Work for the Young, Rev. Edward A. Horton, Second Unitarian Church, Boston, Mass.; 3rd. Its Social and Philantiropic Work, Rev. James. T. Bixby, First Unitarian Society, Yonkers, N. Y. The discussion to follow will be led by Rev. Geo. Batchelor. At the evening session at 7.30, the great distinctive Unitarian doctrines will be presented in five fifteen minute addresses.

THE CROP OF MISSIONARIES.

Bidding Godspeed to Toronto Volunteers for China.

All the seats on the ground floor of Association Hall were occupied last night, the occasion being a farewell to Mr. J. S. Gale and Mr. Robert Harkness, missionaries for Corea, China. Mr. Robt. G. Kilgour, presided. Short addresses were delivered by Mr. H. B. Gordon, Rev. Dr. Kellogg, the two missionaries and others. The Y. M. C. A. choir sang a number of missionary hymns. Mr. Henry English was the soloist.

Mr. Gale left by the 11 o'clock train last night for Vancouver. Mr. Harkness will leave in about ten days.

More Missionaries for India.

The dedication of Miss McKay of Stellarton, N.S., as a missionary for India, took place last night at Knox Church. Rev. Dr. Parsons acted as Chairman. Rev. Dr. Wardrope, convener of the Foreign Mission Committee, presented Miss McKay with a Bible on behalf of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society. The newly appointed missionary was also the recipient of a very handsome travelling bag with a hand satchel and purse enclosed. This was presented by Mr. Mortimer Clark on behalf of the Topp Mission Band of Knox Church. A number of short addresses were delivered.

Miss McKay sails on the Polynesian for Liverpool on the 24th inst., from which point she will go to Indore, India. Rev. Dr. Buchanan also leaves for the same place and by the same steamship to engage in similar work.

Miss McKay is an M.D., having obtained her degree at the Toronto School of Medicine.

Presentation to a Missionary.

At a meeting in the University building of the Y.M.C.A. yesterday, Mr. A. H. Young presented Mr. J. S. Gale, missionary for China, on behalf of the students with a letter writer. Sir Daniel Wilson presided.

City Hall Small Talk.

Mr. W. R. Hughes, the late City Auditor, announces that he will be a candidate for municipal honors in St. David's Ward at the coming civic elections.

Ex-Auditor Hughes is the latest authority on city finance. Yesterday he expressed his views on the subject to the Mayor, who requested him to put them in writing.

The Plumbing By-law Special Committee meets this afternoon.

The Drill Shed arbitration was again in progress yesterday. The property owned by Mr. Adam Armstrong on the corner of Osgoode and University-streets was under discussion. Valuators for Mr. Armstrong thought it was worth from $19,000 to $23,000, while a witness for the city gave the value at $12,000.

A meeting of the Special Committee re Don Improvement has been called for to-day.

The question of who will be the next Chairman of the Courthouse Committee is agitating the civic mind. There are three names mentioned, Ald. Hill, Pells and Gibbs.

MASTER PLUMBERS' RE-UNION.

After the Strife Comes the Piping Time of Peace.

All the trouble connected with the Plumbers' strike is over, at least for a time, and to celebrate this happy condition of things the Master Plumbers' Association gave a supper at Hughes' Restaurant last night and invited the Executive Committee of the Federated Association of Contractors and Builders to join them. Mr. A. G. Wahl, caterer, placed upon the tables a choice repast. Mr. J. J. Withrow made an efficient chairman. The toast list was: "The Queen," "Governor-General and Lieutenant-Governors," "Our Guests," "Mayor and City Corporation," "The Ladies," "The Press." Harmony and good-will characterized the proceedings, which were a success in every respect.

BANFF SPRINGS HOTEL.

A perfectly constructed Summer and Winter Hotel, costing a quarter of a million dollars, situated on the line of the Canadian Pacific Railway, near the summit of the Rocky Mountains in the Canadian National Park.

The house is electric lighted, and has every comfort and convenience found in city hotels of the highest grade. The numerous hot sulphur springs in close proximity vary in temperature from 80 to 121 degrees, and perfect bathing facilities are supplied. Testimony to the wonderful curative properties of the waters is plentiful. A first-class livery of driving and saddle horses forms part of the establishment, and there are excellent roads and walks in all directions, built and maintained by the Government. The house is 5,000 feet above sea level and is surrounded by magnificent mountain peaks 5,000 to 8,000 feet high. In grandeur of scenery and purity of atmosphere the region is immeasurably superior to any similar health resort on the continent. The hotel rates are from $3.50 a day upward, and special terms for longer time may be had by addressing GEORGE HOLLIDAY, MANAGER, Banff, Alberta, Canada. For further information and for excursion tickets, apply to any Canadian Pacific Ry. Ticket Office, or at 110 King-street West, Toronto.
