Miscellaneous.

The universal visible supply of cotton is now 3,458,136 bales, against 3,023,219 bales a year ago and 2,745,996 bales two years ago.

The official Russian crop report says: "Quality considered, the wheat crop is the smallest ever raised—195,000,000 measured bushels, weighing 55 pounds."

The first flour mill in California is stated to have been erected in Sacramento in 1852. During the fall of that year flour was made and sold at $40 a barrel. Wheat then cost 12½ cents per pound. Many millers long for a return of these good prices.

The largest load of hay on the street market this year was brought in on Saturday. It weighed 4560 lbs. and was from the farm of Capt. Rowe of Pickering.

Business Embarrassments.

It is probable that Boyd Bros. & Co., the whole sale drygoods merchants, Front and Bay-streets, will go into liquidation. It is claimed that the firm will pay 100 cents on the dollar

The creditors of Jaffray & Macdonald, the insolvent Midland general merchants, have refused the firm's offer of 35 cents on the dollar. A better offer is anticipated.
