MUCH SURPRISED MINISTER

Rev. P. M. McEacheren Expected an Endorsation of His Labors.

Waterdown Minister's Call to Charges in Barrie Discussed at the Hamilton Presbytery — James McInerny Gets Six Years—Saltfleet People and H., G. & B. Company —Hamilton News.

Hamilton, Nov. 15.—(Special.)—One of the matters that came before the Hamilton Presbytery to-day was the call of Rev. P. M. McEacheren of Waterdown, to the charges of Uptergrove and Longford, in the Barrie Presbytery. When the case came up Rev. Mr. McEacheren left the decision entirely with the Presbytery, and the result came as a surprise to the minister and his friends. After a discussion it was decided to allow Barrie Presbytery to have the services of the Waterdown minister. It transpired at the close of the meeting that Rev. P. M. McEacheren did not want to make a change, and looked only for a resolution endorsing his labors in Waterdown.

Six Years for McInerny.

James McInerny, the Dundas man, convicted of an unnatural offence a week ago, came before Judge Snider for sentence this morning. When asked if he had anything to say why sentence should not be passed upon him, McInerny solemnly declared that he was innocent. The judge said that the evidence left no doubt in his mind of prisoner's guilt. The offence was a brutal one, accomplished by cruelty, and the sentence was that McInerny go to the Kingston Penitentiary for six years. Prisoner's wife, mother and sister were present, and a painful scene ensued.

When the brethren found that Rev. Mr. McEacheren had been removed, apparently against his wish, they made an effort at this evening's session to put things as they were, but the Waterdown minister had gone home, and the Presbytery decided to let matters stand.

Civic Electric Lights.

The special committee of the City Council held a private conference on a civic electric light plant this evening with Percy Domville, the expert, and went over the estimates of costs prepared by him. A special committee meeting will probably be held next week.

To Fight It Out.

Saltfleet Township Council yesterday afternoon unanimously agreed to press the suit against the H., G. & B. Company to the bitter end. The councillors say they have the support of the entire township, and they instructed their solicitor, Mr. S. D. Biggar, to procure the best counsel available to conduct the case, which will come up at the non-jury sittings next week. A report was presented by the Council's engineer, which, it is said, bears out the allegations made in the statement of claim. A warm legal contest is looked for.

Rewards for Bravery.

The chairman and investigating governors of the Royal Canadian Humane Association have awarded the bronze medal of the association to the following: Cecil Dinsmore, for conspicuous bravery in saving Charles Vine Parke from drowning in Colpoy's Bay on Aug. 3, 1897; Fred J. Hicks, for conspicuous bravery and promptitude in saving Walter T. Wallace from drowning in the Humber River, on Sept. 24, 1898; James C. Mattison, for bravery and promptitude in saving Mrs. Leeds from drowning in Lachine Canal, Montreal, on April 26, 1898.

First Flower Show.

The first flower show, under the auspices of the Hamilton Horticultural Society, opened at 128 King-street west this afternoon. There is a fine display of flowers, including yellow, white and light pink chrysanthemums, roses and potted plants. Mr. George Reeves of Toronto is the judge. There are no cash prizes. Mr. Simon P. Stipe is the superintendent.

Minor Matters.

The will of the late Samuel Woodley, stove-dealer, entered for probate to-day, disposes of an estate valued at $29,690. It is all left to the widow, Joanna Woodley.

"Orator" Cook of the noble army of Grit heelers is after a position in Hamilton. He wants to be mechanical steward, and it is said Hon. J. M. Gibson favors his appointment.

The Court of Revision to-day confirmed the $14,000 personalty assessment of Mr. John Stuart.

City Engineer Barrow will announce, probably to-morrow, the names of the four men he will retain as ward foremen.

A military play, "The Victoria Cross," is billed for to-morrow and Thursday evenings at the Grand Opera House.

The Crescent Bicycle Club held its annual concert in Association Hall to-night. The hall was crowded. The artists were: Miss Tessie McCallum, Toronto, and Mrs. Frank Mackelcan, E. T. Martin and George Allen.

BURGLARS MADE A HAUL.

Municipal Safe at Valton, Manitoba, Blown Open and Robbed of $25,000.

Valton, Man., Nov. 15.—The municipal safe was blown open last night, and about $25,000 stolen. The robbery was only discovered this morning. The money robbed from the municipal safe includes $1100 of the municipality of Rhineland, $800 of the Northern Elevator Co., and $200 belonging to private parties. The attempt is somewhat of a mystery from the fact that all the doors except the front one were barred inside before Mr. Limpseth, clerk of the municipality, left at 12 o'clock p.m. It is thought the parties must have had a key to the front door.

THE SHOW NOT A SUCCESS.

Gardeners and Florists Dissatisfied With Chrysanthemum Show.

In the absence of the secretary of the Gardeners' and Florists' Association, the report of the late Chrysanthemum Show was not read at last night's meeting. The members, however, are not satisfied with the receipts, and financially the show was not a success.

The Carters' Union met in Temperance Hall last night, with 60 members present. After five new members were initiated a deputation waited upon them from the Master Horseshoers, to ask all carters to patronize none but union shops. A discussion followed and it was decided to accede to the Horseshoers' request. A committee was also appointed to meet a deputation from the Teamsters and Horseshoers to discuss the advisability of amalgamating the three unions.

The Anniversary Committee of Albion Lodge met last night to make suitable arrangements for Dec. 9, which is the anniversary of the founding of the Sons of England lodges.

The Outlook Club in connection with the Bond-street Congregational Church will be addressed next Monday night by Rabbi Lazarus, who will take for his subject, "Church and State."

At the usual meeting of Brighton Lodge, S. O. E., last night, it was announced that the election of officers for the coming year would take place at the next meeting.

A committee was appointed at the meeting of Bristol Lodge, S. O. E., last night to look into the scheme that has been proposed for the amalgamation of all the small lodges in the city.

Nine new members were last night initiated into the Horseshoers' Union, and all the members are using their influence to induce the rest of the shops to join the union.

A large number of those interested in stamp collecting met in Forum Hall last night for the purpose of framing a new constitution for their society.

In the Smithfield of Canada.

The premium list of the seventeenth Christmas Fat Stock and Poultry Show, to be held at Guelph, Dec. 6, 7 and 8, has been issued. The prize list is a very comprehensive and liberal one, and as the show is under the auspices of the Guelph Fat Stock Club, South Wellington Agricultural Society and Guelph Poultry Association, it will doubtless be largely patronized by the breeders and residents of the district. The directors and committee are practical men, and this exhibition will show what united effort can do in this district which has often been denominated the Smithfield of Canada.

Eleven and Intoxicated.

At noon yesterday Inspector Armstrong of No. 3 Division found a little girl, 11 years old, helplessly drunk on Portland-street. Her clothes were tattered and soiled, and she was unable to give any account of herself. She was taken to No. 3 Police station, and from there to police headquarters. The girl's friends were sent for, and they remained with the prisoner until she got able to go home with them. Inspector Archabold is investigating, and will endeavor to find out who sold the child the liquor.

"ANTONY AND CLEOPATRA."

The Fiery Roman and the Seductive Egyptian Seen at the Grand.

The Stage Settings of the Play Are Superb—"On the Wabash" at the Toronto — The Princess Draws Crowded Houses—Other Amusement News.

Those who entertained any doubts of Miss Blanche Walsh's ability to fill the roles demanded of her must have had those doubts removed last night, for, without rising to that greatness which is all-absorbing, she certainly gave a splendid performance of the storm-possessed Queen of Egypt. Antony and Cleopatra" was presented at the Grand Opera House to an audience, at once large, fashionable and enthusiastic. After each act the curtain was raised and after each act a cry arose for a speech, which Mr. McDowell and Miss Walsh both honored only by a bow. The piece was presented with all that magnificence of setting and wealth of detail that made the production famous during Miss Davenport's lifetime. Nothing was omitted that would heighten the effect, and, were it stated that the scenery was the most perfect, the most beautiful, ever placed on a Toronto stage, the statement might be depended upon as being not far from absolutely correct. Sir Henry Irving might produce a play as well, but he would not produce it better or more effectively; nay, nor more lavishly in the richness and appropriateness of the costuming and in the accessories. If but as a spectacle, every theatre-goer should hasten to see "Antony and Cleopatra," but when to the splendor of the scenery is added a performance of exceptional, if not of masterly merit, then 'twould be a pity for the public to prove unappreciative. Mr. McDowell must recall John McCullough to everybody's mind. Not, perhaps, quite as tall, or possibly dwarfed by greater breadth, he is yet of the same build, and in act and method is forcefully reminded of one of the greatest Romans that ever walked the stage. As Antony, Mr. McDowell leaves little to be desired. He is a woman's man and has just that presence, tenderness and inflection of voice that suits the character. In his very heroism he is weak and wavering, and is, therefore, as near what should be as can be. Miss Walsh was best in the third act, where she longs for Antony and is swayed by constantly changing moods of expectancy, anger and doubt. Her treatment of the scene with the messenger was admirable. In the invocation scene she rose well to the heights, although it is a portion of the play that reminds the spectator all too vividly of spectacular effect in more ordinary entertainments—to wit, the introduction to a pantomime. It is almost impossible to avoid a feeling that ghosts are necessary to complete the effect. But it was all very grand and very realistic. And then there came the great act of dying in full sight of the audience. If any test of ability is greater than another it is that of being able to die well, and Miss Walsh died most impressively—died in the lingering way required by the situation and brought the curtain down amid a storm of loudly expressed approval. The lady in that one act bestowed upon herself the hallmark of genuine merit. Mr. Arthur Elliott again distinguished himself as Kejhren and Mr. Hugh Arnott played the miserable, awe-stricken slave with a terrible ghastliness that not even our own Franklyn McLeay could probably do more than equal. A word of recognition for Miss Willie Wilton for her voluptuous Octavia, and all has been said, except to bestow as much praise as possible upon the rendering of the music and the entire general arrangement. "La Tosca" will be given at the matinee to-day, but this evening, Friday and at Saturday matinee "Antony and Cleopatra" will be repeated.

"Two Little Vagrants."

"On the Wabash" drew two large audiences to the Toronto Opera House yesterday. Following "On the Wabash," the attraction for Thanksgiving week will be "Two Little Vagrants," with Miss Mildred

Miss Holland as "Fan Fan."

Holland as Fan Fan, the character in which she achieved so much success here last season. The sale of seats is now in progress, and matinees will be given on Tuesday, Thanksgiving Day and Saturday.

At the Princess.

"The Wages of Sin" is making a decided hit at the Princess Theatre this week, and those who have seen this play previously done here will find the Cummings Company's performance a much more finished and refined one than has been seen here before. An audience that filled every part of the theatre last night laughed heartily at the many bright comedy scenes presented, and the play ran with remarkable smoothness. A surprisingly artistic production of "Uncle Tom's Cabin" is underlined for Thanksgiving week, elaborately staged, and the only genuinely artistic performance of this, the greatest of all American plays, when well done, is promised. A really good performance of this play has never been seen in Toronto, and, while the company's production will have all the features and accessories known to the story, the play, presented by a good company, should prove a very uncommon attraction.

Massed Bands.

A large and appreciative audience gathered last night in Massey Hall at the massed band concert of the Queen's Own Rifles, Royal Grenadiers and 48th Highlanders. The concert was under the patronage of His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor and Miss Mowat, Lieutenant-Colonel Otter, D.O.C., Lieutenant-Colonel Delamere, Lieutenant-Colonel Mason, Lieutenant-Colonel Cosby and officers of the regiments. The combined bands played six selections together, and were heartily applauded after each number. Miss Eileen Millett sang with much sweetness "Come Dance the Romaika" and "Paria." Always popular Bert Harvey was also on the program, and needless to say his songs, "Handicap March" and "I Want to be a Soldier," pleased the audience.

SPECIAL TOP GARMENT FOR EVENING DRESS—THE INVERNESS.

THE ROSSIN BLOCK, TORONTO.

A Genuine Comedy Treat.

Seldom does Toronto get genuine English theatrical companies, so that the visit of Mr. H. Reeves-Smith, the celebrated English comedian, and his associates from the Strand Theatre, London, Eng., to the Grand Opera House next week, is bound to be appreciated. The piece to be presented is "A Brace of Partridges," by Mr. Richard Ganthony, and it is described as being one of the great London and New York successes. Besides the regular matinees on Wednesday and Saturday, a special matinee will be given on Thanksgiving Day.

Scalchi Next Tuesday.

The sale of seats for the Scalchi concert opens to-morrow morning at the Massey Hall box office. This concert will be the fourth and last event in the present Massey Hall course, and will be under the patronage of His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor and Miss Mowat. The date is next Tuesday.

After Mr. McDonald concluded his address, Mr. Thomas Crawford, M.L.A., and E. B. Osler and E. F. Clarke, M.P.'s, addressed the meeting, being warmly greeted and applauded throughout.

OFFICERS OF CITY MISSIONS

Re-Elected Last Night—There is No Money in the Till—The Work Done.

The nineteenth annual meeting of the Toronto City Mission was held last night in the Northern Congregational Church. The pastor, Rev. Mr. Hyde and Rev. J. Neil, opened the meeting with devotional exercises, after which the chairman, Dr. W. B. Gelkie, made an appeal for money.

Several Resolutions.

A resolution, moved by Rev. Dr. H. P. Welton, seconded by Mr. David Higgins, adopting the annual report, was then passed by the meeting.

A resolution, recognizing the good work done by the mission, was moved by Rev. William Patterson, seconded by Mr. N. W. Hoyles, and duly carried.

Rev. Dr. McTavish spoke a few encouraging words promising the mission his sympathy and support.

Mr. Robert Hall, the city missionary, spoke of the good results of the Gospel carriage work.

The Work Done.

The annual report shows that the mission workers during the past year have visited 4050 homes, most of them in the poorest districts of the city, and 316 visits have been made to the prisons, hospitals and other institutions. They have held 676 services during the year in prisons, asylums, churches, missions, factories, and from the Gospel carriage on the streets; 16,000 tracts, 12,000 magazines and six dozen Bibles and New Testaments were distributed. Christmas dinners were provided for 408 persons, to be cooked and used in their own homes.

The financial statement shows a deficit of $8.33.

Sir W. Laurier, Sir J. Winter and Mr. Coolidge Arrive at Washington.

International Commissioners Trying to Get Together on the Reciprocity Question—Attention Centred on That Topic, on Which the Whole Business of the Conference Depends.

Washington, Nov. 15.—Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Premier of Canada, and Sir James Winter, Premier of Newfoundland, arrived today to take their seats in the Anglo-American Joint Commission. Mr. T. Jefferson Coolidge of Boston also came on, thus completing the American membership.

The Commission had a brief session at 11 o'clock, and then gave way to meetings of the British and American members separately. These separate conferences were for the purpose of going over the ground on which reciprocity can be discussed. Attention is now centred almost exclusively on this topic. No schedules have been exchanged, but it has been considered best to take up each article separately and discuss the possibilities of tariff concessions upon it.

The expectation is that this work will proceed so that each side will know by the end of the present week just what articles the other side desires to incorporate in a reciprocity arrangement, and what reduction of rates is possible on these articles. It is realized by members of the Commission that this is the most important branch of work before them, and one on which the success or failure of the work on other branches depends to a large extent.

Although the strictest secrecy is observed, the general expressions coming from members of the Commission continue to be hopeful that some kind of reciprocity agreement will be reached, although it is appreciated that the present revenue needs of the United States Government incident to the war make it difficult to find rates which are open to concessions. From the Canadian standpoint also there is felt to be less urgency for gaining access to the American market than there was some years ago, owing to the foreign markets which Canada has developed. Thus far it is understood there has been no general basis for making up the lists of articles which the parties will present for incorporation into a reciprocity agreement, manufactured as well as natural products being considered open to incorporation in the lists.

MR. M'PHERSON IS PRESIDENT

Of the Ward Five Conservative Club—Many Politicians Spoke —Also Aldermen.

Ward 5 Conservatives reorganized last evening in Euclid-avenue Hall.

The first business disposed of was the election of officers, which resulted as follows: President, W. D. McPherson; vice-president, Ald. John Dunn; past president, R. M. Tuthill; secretary, Robert Dunlop; treasurer, Henry Bracken; Executive Committee: Ald. Denison, chairman; W. W. Hodgson, J. Burns, H. Birmingham, R. W. Prittie, W. S. Bell, J. B. Watson, Dr. Clouse, Abe Cahoon, James Orr, P. B. Whytock, W. C. Wells, James McGea, David Clark, JJ. W. Cheesworth, W. J. Brown, H. H. Johnston, Sam McCombe, John Bell, W. F. Johnston, W. G. Burns, W. Hutchinson.

Thomas Crawford, M.L.A., spoke. He went right into politics, calling attention to the fact that Conservatives had been most successful in the election trials.

J. J. Foy, M.L.A., dealt with the maladministration of Ontario's affairs.

Mr. E. F. Clarke, M. P., denounced the Dominion Government unsparingly for not fulfilling its pre-election promises. Laurier's alien labor attitude was shown to be a veritable scandal.

Other speakers were Aldermen Dunn, Woods and Denison, David Clark and W. W. Hodgson.

The city fathers wandered from politics and confined their attention chiefly to municipal matters, reminding the brethren that a certain election would take place in the early part of January next.

The Thespian Club.

A musical and dramatic entertainment was given last night in St. Andrew's Hall in aid of the building fund of St. John's Church. The program embraced the production of two amusing farce-comedies, "Tel On Parle Francais" and "Slasher and Crasher," by the Thespian Club. A large audience greeted the players and all the characters were well sustained.

Almost Distracted

Dreadful Suffering by a Newmarket Woman.

The Bones in the Nose Affected—Face Would Swell Until Her Eyes Were Closed—How Relieved.

NEWMARKET, ONT.—"I have had a good opportunity of noting the great medicinal powers of Hood's Sarsaparilla. My wife has been a sufferer from catarrh for the past four years, and the disease had gone so far that the bones of the nose had become affected and particles had come away through an opening in the left side. Her eyesight was also affected to the extent that for nearly a year she was unable to read for more than five minutes at a time. She suffered and at times was almost distracted. She was treated by four different doctors, one of whom was a specialist. They all said they could not do anything for her, as the disease had gone too far. Her nose would swell about every three days until her eyes would almost be closed. Then it would break through and the swelling would subside for a day or two. About Christmas she commenced taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, and since that time has steadily improved. She has not been troubled with any swelling since, and the sore on the side of the nose has all healed. She is on the road to a complete cure. I cannot speak too highly of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and I cheerfully recommend it to any person who is suffering with catarrh." W. H. FURSIER.

Severe Pains in the Head
