THE DUTY ON TOBACCO.

The Tobacco industry in Kent and Essex is developing to such an extent that it is to be hoped the Laurier government will not dare to carry out its threat to reduce the duty on the imported article. The excuse for the change was that the high duty encouraged smuggling. Now, we are raising as good tobacco here as the Americans can, and selling it to the manufacturers at from 10 to 15 cents a pound. No one is going to smuggle tobacco into Canada at that figure. The profit is too small and the risk too great. Tobacco is a bulky article, and smugglers could not handle it in quantities sufficient to give them an adequate profit.

We imagine the real reason the government would like to kill the tobacco industry in Canada is, that, if the raw material were all imported, the revenue of the country would be largely augmented. Formerly, the manufacturers imported all their raw material. Good Canadian money went by millions into the pockets of the tobacco growers of the Southern States. Now, the Canadian farmers propose to raise our own tobacco, and keep that money in the country. Seeing this, the government alleges that it may be necessary to reduce the duty.

It is not in this case love for the American farmer that suggests such a foolish idea. The fact is, the Liberal economists have increased the running expenses of the country so frightfully, have boodled so gigantically in contracts and offices, that they must raise money somehow, and thus their extravagance will compel them to kill the growing of tobacco in Canada, so that they may again get the duty to squander, which they would receive if the American farmer grew the raw material and shipped it here.

If the government decides next session to lower the tariff, there is nothing to stop them. The voters of Kent have lain down and allowed themselves to be trampled on so often by Grit politicians without a murmur, that the latter think they can do anything they like now.

How were they served in the matter of the natural gas export by Archie Campbell, M. K. Cowan, and Wm. McGregor? Wasn't their corn put on the free list? Were they not promised free coal oil, agricultural implements and cheap binder twine? Where are they? Are not the Americans still rafting over our logs to keep their mills going? Are not our Georgian Bay mills as a consequence closed? And the men who cannot get work in them, if they follow our logs over to the American mills are they not turned back by the alien labor law? Has not the government refused to put an export duty on pulp wood and nickle ore? Both are being secured here and carted across the border to keep American works going, which would otherwise have to move to Canada. What, then, in the matter of tobacco, can be expected from the government or its party unless the people of Kent wake up and show some independence? As soon as the Liberal bosses realize that the majority of the electors in this peninsula are not mere party slaves, ready to jump every time at the crack of the whip they will begin to consider its interests, and not before.

The Stratford Beacon announces a "Peninsular War" for Chatham on Sept. 27, 28 and 29. George England must be coming back to do some more umpiring.

A Chicago policeman arrested a man for using insulting language to him. He called the policeman "a lobster" and said he was no good. The court dismissed the case on the ground that a citizen had the right to call a policeman a lobster if he wanted to so long as he was not otherwise breaking the law.

The antiquated geographies still in use in the public schools, and for which children are compelled by the monopolists to pay 75 cents, describes Chatham as a place noted for shipbuilding, the manufacture of fire engines, and Wilberforce Institute (colored).—Ridgetown Dominion.

That's all very true, but don't go and make a fuss about it or it will give Hardy & Co. an excuse to issue another monopolist book no better than the present one and the parents of Ontario will have to cast aside those for which they have already been robbed and submit to robbery over again.

DANGEROUS GROUND.

Toronto Telegram.

East Wellington, which has just been opened by the death of John Craig, is counted as one of the safest Liberal constituencies in the province.

When the municipalities of the constituency divided on straight party line the Liberal majority is anywhere from six hundred to one thousand. East Wellington is pronounced in its antipathy to Conservatism, but there is a streak of independence in its make-up which prevents the constituency from being the mere chattel of party leaders.

The party yoke sits so lightly upon the necks of the Liberals of East Wellington that William Kirkwood, of Erin, ran as an Independent after failing to secure the Liberal nomination in 1893 and defeated John Craig, the regular nominee by an overwhelming majority, even when Sir Oliver Mowat was in the hey-day of his power.

Temperance enthusiasts are numerous among the Liberals of East Wellington, and they turned from Mr. Craig, who opposed the Scott Act, to help William Kirkwood, who was an out and out temperance man. At the general election of 1894 Mr. Kirkwood sacrificed his own ambition for the good of his party, and stayed out of the fight. Mr. Craig carried the constituency by a majority of 66 over Park, of West Luther, a Liberal Patron. At the general elections last March Mr. Craig secured a plurality through the folly of the Conservatives in running a candidate of their own instead of throwing their strength to Park.

The latest figures show that John Craig, with the local enthusiasm of Fergus and Elora to help him, just polled two or three hundred more than a third of the votes in East Wellington. The fact that the Government candidate last March polled one thousand votes less than the combined Patron and Conservative nominees, ought to make Mr. Hardy stop and think. East Wellington is not a constituency to try experiments on. The temperance Liberals smashed Mr. Craig when he first offered for the constituency. The farmer Liberals almost smashed him on his second trial, and if the Conservatives had not withdrawn their party strength from Park, the Patron candidate, Mr. Craig, would have been a thousand votes behind in 1898.

Mere partisan enthusiasm is on the wane in many parts of the country, and East Wellington is a constituency which is used to going its own way. A strong local candidate from Erin township could probably carry the constituency against the Patron Park, or anybody else, and thus give the Ontario Government a good start in the bye-election campaign. But, if the Government decides to try an outsider on East Wellington, there is no telling what will happen.

A. Darnell, of Hayden, Neb., writes: "For 12 years I was tormented with itching piles, the agony at times was almost beyond bearing. I tried a dozen or more so-called pile remedies without any lasting benefit. One box of Dr. Agnew's Ointment cured me." This remedy cures eczema when all else fails.

SALT RHEUM FOR YEARS

Leg From Knee to Ankle Swollen All the Time. Pain Intense.

Doctors in Three Cities No Avail. Completely Cured by Cuticura.

I have been troubled for years with Salt Rheum. My right leg from knee to ankle was raw and swollen all the time, and the pain was most intense. I tried doctors in Hartford, Waterbury, and New Haven, but to no avail. I read an advertisement about CUTICURA REMEDIES and bought two bottles of CUTICURA RESOLVENT, some CUTICURA (ointment), and a box of CUTICURA SOAP, and now it is all gone and I am completely cured. I recommend CUTICURA to all afflicted with skin diseases.

Baby Cured of Eczema

Our little boy was only three months old when he was taken with Eczema that broke out in the most horrible state. His face was full of scabs, and some parts of the flesh were raw. We used CUTICURA SOAP, and one box of the CUTICURA (ointment), and in one week this boy was as good as ever, and we can say the child has been O. K. ever since. We are willing to recommend that the CUTICURA SOAP and CUTICURA did it. You can publish this statement for it is nothing but the truth.

BROTHER THOMPSON

Claims His Charges Were Just—Prays for His Brother Preachers.

Editor of The Planet.

In relation to the item which appeared in the columns of the Blenheim News on Aug. 18, 1898, I wish to say that some folks came down from Blenheim as a would-be fishing party but from their actions I scarcely think they deserve that name. The loss of fishermen sometimes is great, for their nets are often carried away and hundreds of dollars could not restore the damage; then if 25c would scare the fishermen away they must have had but a very small capital to invest in the fishing business. My advice to such people would be, never set out again on an expedition of this nature without being well enough equipped in finance to allow you to invest 25c without so much confusion.

If you are going to make such a kick about 25 cents then it is an easy matter for the public to come to the conclusion that you were an exceptionally cheap crowd to give what has been published through the Blenheim News what it deserved the slightest consideration imaginable. This is logic, my readers. I trust you will investigate the matter, then I think you will sympathetically concur with me.

The request of those parties was that I should take them out on the Wave Crest, and it was granted, no further arrangement being made, as they had been with me before and knew my price. I had to wait for them about half an hour at shore, while they were taking tea, so when they got ready we started. It was now about 6 p. m. We remained out until their request was to come in, as they thought they had been out long enough and it would then be late before they got home. The 25 cents each which I charged them was the cause of all this false report being published. Some of the men said that they had quite a number of ladies along and that they did not expect to pay for them. Of course this was none of my business. It is quite pleasant indeed to have the ladies along, but if you wish to be what you would have us think you are, "sports," then you must have 25c. to spare for each lady present and never grumble over it.

The cause of all this trouble was that I did not reduce the price so they would not have so much to pay for the ladies. Gentlemen, if this be all the respect you have for the ladies when you take them on a fishing party, were I you I would not take them along next time as they serve as a medium through which your "cheapness" is exposed.

Several of the gentlemen became quite angry. Rev. Mr. Jamieson, Rev. Mr. Holmes and Rev. Mr. Greenwood bitterly declared they would have it published far and near, and said it was outrageous robbery. Dr. Story was also one on the angry list that day. We had, previous to taking out this Blenheim party, landed Dr. Stevenson and several others from Morpeth, and they paid the sum of 25c. each without a murmur. They came for pleasure, had it, paid for it like gentlemen, and went home contented. Every man is charged alike. We have no respective persons.

It is quite evident that Mr. Denholm editor of the Blenheim News, has been requested to not give away the secret of who had the item published, on the 18th ult., as I have repeatedly insisted on his telling me, but he refused each time. Then I came to the conclusion that "birds of a feather flock together in order to keep these little cats from being let out of the bag. In conclusion I will say unto you, "Oh, ye generation of vipers; I warn you to flee from the wrath to come, for behold, the day cometh that shall burn as an oven and all the proud, yea all the wicked shall be stubbled and the day that cometh shall burn them up saith the Lord God of Hosts, that it shall leave them neither root or branch." We, as preachers, should be very careful how sell each other to the world for 25c. We should be careful and be certain that we possess what we profess, or in other words, practice what we preach. This 18-inch religion is very fashionable now. It works all in the head and none in the heart. Christ says that he whom He loves He chastises. So I am chastising to-day, because I love the souls of men. In conclusion I will say let us pray together as dear little children—Lord, I ask thee, as a merciful Father to look upon us and forgive us all things that has been said amiss; give us more brotherly love for one another. This is my prayer; for the Redeemer's sake. Amen.
