"Fingerprinting" Puppies.

To protect pedigreed dogs, Parisian fanciers are having their canine's pawprints taken at birth in order to verify identification later on, so that it will make it impossible for unprincipled dealers to pass off mongrels as the progeny of dogs of high degree.

WOMEN and THE HOME

Origin of the Word "Caliph."

Caliph, the high-sounding title which has just been officially abolished in Turkey, meant "a successor," and was first adopted by the father of the Prophet's wife Ayesha, who became the second ruler of Islam.

DANCE RECITAL PLEASES MANY

Miss Marion Stark Presents an Attractive Program at Central Collegiate.

LOVELY COSTUMES

The large audience which was present at the Central Collegiate Institute last night was delighted with the dance recital given by Miss Marion Stark and her class of thirty-two clever little dancers. The program presented under the auspices of Absit Invidia C. G. I. T. Club of the First Presbyterian Church was skillfully arranged. There were six scenes in all. First of all came the Scotch dances, with their highland costumes and merry steps. The second scene transferred the audience to France, with its French ballet and graceful costumes. The third scene was reminiscent of Cossack Russia. Scene four found the dancers in old Madrid. Scene five was back in France again, but this time the dancers appeared in the stately steps and costumes of the Versailles court. And last of all came the rollicking steps of the Irish dances, and the scene was entitled "Erin Go Bragh." Several of the dances were arranged by Miss Stark herself, and showed talent in creative work.

The dancing throughout was beautifully executed to music provided by an orchestra under the direction of J. F. Fitzgerald, while Piper Soutar and his Kiltie Band played for the Scotch dances. Miss Stark appeared several times on the program, and was received with the customary enthusiasm.

Give Special Numbers.

Special numbers on the program included a clever Scotch song by Sam Munro; a vocal number by Miss Josephine Campbell, and a pretty little dance, Oriental Phantasy, by Miss Gladys Tullet; the Sailors' Hornpipe by a group of Stratford girls; very fine violin solos by Walter Rennie; the Dutch Clog, a vocal solo by Gordon Knapp; a gypsy dance, Dixie; a skipping rope dance and an Irish air by the orchestra.

The main dance program was as follows: Scotch dances—Reel O'Tullock, Highland Fling, and a Scotch Reel; French ballet, La Petite Rose, a clever little toe dance by Miss Constance Stothers; Le Secret, Jingle Bells, Narcissus by the tiny tots, and Dance of the Butterflies. In Cossack Russia—Gopak, Kamarinskaia and Krakewiak, the latter beautifully danced by Miss Fredda Freud and Miss Marion Stark. In Old Madrid—Spanish quartet, Spanish Rhapsody given by Miss Gladys Tullet and Miss Marion Stark. Versailles Court—Old Court Minuet, Marie Antoinette, Fontainebleau Waltz, Minuet Royal by Misses Kathryn Davies, Jean Sutherland, Dorothy Munro, Sam Munro, Gladys Tullet, and Marion Stark; Erin Go Bragh—Irish Tilt, Maid of Killarney, Irish Jig, Clog Medley and Irish Reel.

Names of Dancers.

GROUP OF CITY GIRLS ADOPTS ORPHAN CHILD

Hold Tea at Home of Miss Ina Seaborn To Raise Funds For Clothing.

Just an afternoon tea. But an afternoon tea with a special incentive, the incentive being a little three-year-old girl at the Salvation Army Shelter Home, whom a number of young girls in the city have adopted. The girls, under the influence of Miss Ina Seaborn, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Edwin Seaborn, have banded themselves together under the name of "The Blue Guild," and their object is relief work.

The recent tea and sale of home-cooking was held at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Edwin Seaborn, and was for the purpose of raising money to purchase materials to make clothing for their young protege. The rooms were attractively decorated with lilies of the valley and tulips for this important event.

The guild membership includes: Miss Dorothea Laidlaw, president; Miss Ina Seaborn, secretary-treasurer; Misses Eleanor Burdick, Ruth Thompson, Audrey McLennan, Mary Ware, Lucile Hayman and Helena Hungerford.

"TIZ" FOR TENDER, SORE, TIRED FEET

Ah! what relief. No more tired feet; no more burning feet, swollen, bad smelling, sweaty feet. No more pain in corns, callouses or bunions. No matter what ails your feet or what under the sun you've tried without getting relief, just use "Tiz."

"Tiz" draws out all the poisonous exudations which puff up the feet; "Tiz" is magical; "Tiz" is grand; "Tiz" will relieve your foot troubles so you'll never limp or draw up your face in pain. Your shoes won't seem tight and your feet will never, never hurt or get sore, swollen or tired.

Get a box at any drug or department store, and get relief for a few cents.—Advt.

CLUB NEWS

BRICK STREET W. M. S.

Mrs. Owen Tunks was the hostess of the regular meeting of the Brick Street W. M. S., held yesterday afternoon. An interesting report was given by Mrs. Tunks, who attended the branch convention, held recently in St. Thomas, as a delegate. Solos by Mrs. Basil Cornell were greatly enjoyed. Following the meeting, which was presided over by Mrs. S. D. Dawson, tea was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Dawson and Miss Mair.

CHRIST CHURCH, PORT STANLEY

Miss Carrie Raynor of the Hill Crest Inn, Port Stanley, was the hostess of a delightful tea and musicale given in aid of the Ladies' Guild of Christ Church, Port Stanley. The large reception rooms of the inn were attractively decorated with lilacs, tulips and lilies of the valley. Dancing and cards were part of the entertainment provided, while a very fine program of music was presided over by the Rev. J. R. Bythell, the rector. The numbers included vocal solos by Mrs. Beckman, Miss Gardner of St. Thomas, and Harry Lindop of St. Thomas, a violin number by Master Billy Ellison and recitation by Miss Hepburn. Mrs. Mair acted as convener of this most successful event.

RECTORY STREET MOTHERS.

The Rectory Street Mothers' Club is planning a program of picnic sports to be held in the school grounds on Friday night, to be followed by a banquet. Mrs. Keene and Mrs. Styles are the conveners.

C. E. F. CHAPTER.

The members of the C. E. F. Chapter, I. O. D. E., are meeting at the city hall at 3 o'clock on Sunday afternoon before they proceed to Mount Pleasant Cemetery for the official decoration of soldiers' graves.

ST. JAMES' GARDEN FETE.

Among the delightful affairs being held this month will be St. James' garden fete taking place at the lovely home of Mrs. Rowland Stephens on the Base Line, the afternoon and evening of Friday, June 20. A special feature will be dancing on the lawn and music will be provided by Miss Dorothy Cahill's orchestra, including Bruce Wells, Gladys Udy, Roy Jones, Ted Hart, and Jack Martin. Mrs. A. C. Hunt is acting as general convener and conveners of the various booths follow: Mrs. John Dillon and Mrs. John Dawson in charge of the tearoom; Mrs. Spear, candy; Mrs. C. 150 GUESTS ATTEND RUTH CHAPTER PICNIC

Fine Program of Races Features Jolly Eastern Star Outing.

Ruth Chapter, O. E. S., held a jolly picnic yesterday afternoon at Springbank with over 150 guests present, including the chapter members nd their friends. A splendid program of races was enjoyed, followed by a baseball game, with Mrs. L. Brigham and Miss Gertrude Dann as captains. The former's team won, with a score of 12 to 11, but as the game was called, it will be continued in a fortnight's time.

The results of the races are as follows: Children under 7, Master Sam McCoy; boys from 8 to 11, Jack Southcott and Bill Southcott; girls 8 to 11, Mary Garrow; boys 12 to 15, George Burns and Jack Bowman; girls 12 to 15, Gladys Routledge, Ella Henderson and Mary Graham; Paul Jones race, Mrs. Hemixer and Sam McCoy; marshmallow eating contest, Mrs. Southcott and Mrs. Bendle; relay race, Minnie Malone, Ruth Hemixer, James Carrothers and J. Fashions by Wire

Special to The Advertiser.
Copyright.

Paris, June 11.—The somewhat banal combination of black and pink is one which finds itself in fashion at present. A tricorne hat of black picot straw is in vogue and it is trimmed with a wide ruffle of pink moire ribbon.

Flower Bands For Hair.

London, June 11.—Single delicate bands of forget-me-nots, heather, lilies of the valley, and tiny, pink French roses, are being worn in the evening coiffure by many of the young girls dancing these evenings at the Berkeley and Claridge's.

Flat Crepes Modish.

New York, June 11.—Flat crepe is perhaps the most fashionable of the summer materials. In madonna blue a flat crepe two-piece costume is especially effective. The frock is pleated from neck to hem and has a self-embroidered girdle with double ties. The cape is pleated also and has a collar of American ermine.

Swimming Girdles.

New York, June 11.—Swimming girdles of silk and rubber are fearfully and wonderfully decorated this season. Not to be outdone by the costume beneath which they are worn, these girdles have blossomed forth with strange flora and fauna of brilliant hues.

With Deep V Neck.

New York, June 11.—Sport sweaters are likely to have a deep V neck nowadays. This allows the softening effect of a lacy blouse.

W. M. S. OF KINTORE PLANS WOMEN'S DAY

Appoint Committees To Arrange For Interesting Event in September.

The home of Mrs. G. B. Anderson, Sen., was the meeting place of the Ladies' Aid and W. M. S. of the Presbyterian Church recently when over 50 women were present. The Ladies' Aid meeting was held first, the president, Mrs. F. R. Thornton, presiding. A committee was appointed to order a special communion table and pedestal for the church. The collection and fees amounting to $4.50 was received.

The W. M. S. meeting took place immediately after the Ladies' Aid. Mrs. Walter Oliver, the president, occupied the chair. Mrs. J. H. McKay gave the Bible reading and Mrs. D. E. Henderson led in prayer. It was moved and seconded that each member donate 50 cents to the society to take the place of the money usually raised through a strawberry festival. Mrs. I. H. Macdonald and the president were appointed to secure a speaker for Women's Day in September. Mrs. Chalmers and Mrs. Walter Oliver were asked to visit each of the sick and shut-in members this month. Mrs. I. H. Macdonald read an excellent report of the provincial W. M. S. held recently in Hamilton. This report was one which the president of the provincial W. M. S., Mrs. J. D. Walker, had written for the press. Two splendid papers, based on the study book, "The Island Beautiful," were given by Mrs. F. R. Thornton and Mrs. Lawrence Skinner. Mrs. Thornton's subject was "What of the Future?" and Mrs. Skinner spoke on "Social, Intellectual and Religious Hindrances to the Christian Work in Formosa." These papers impressed every one with the great need for more workers for Japan. Mrs. Chalmers, Mrs. I. H. Macdonald, Mrs. Walter Oliver, and Mrs. R. A. McDonald were named a committee to gain information about sending the church's own missionary, Miss Lenora Armstrong, to Japan.

Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess at the close of the meeting and a social half hour spent over the tea cups.

TRAFALGAR MOTHERS PLAN GARDEN PARTY

Mrs. Ed. Pellow Gives Inspiring Talk on Mothers' Club Movement.

"The Mothers' Club and What It Means to the Community," was the subject of an inspiring talk given last night before the members of the new Trafalgar Mothers' Club by Mrs. Ed. Pellow. The speaker traced the growth of the mothers' club movement from its early meetings of kindergarten mothers here in London to its present Dominion-wide development. As a climax to her talk she gave a report of the meetings of the great Home and School Federation in Toronto, and pointed out how this organization had originated with the mothers' club idea evolved in London.

As an example of the most beautiful incidents in the history of the movement, Mrs. Pellow told of how the Oshawa Mothers' Club had made the entire trousseau of one of the school teachers who was to be married. The teacher had no home of her own, so the mothers' club acted as her mother.

The Trafalgar Club has decided to hold a garden party, probably in the school grounds, on Wednesday night of next week. Mrs. Ed. Pellow has been appointed general convener and has on her committee, Mrs. Mennel, Mrs. Fred Barnard, Mrs. Charles Shute, and Mrs. E. S. Little.

The club is also arranging to hold an old-fashioned picnic in the woods over the river from the school.

Conveners of the different club committee were named as follows: child welfare, Mrs. George Blinkhorn; social, Mrs. Smithers; relief, Mrs. Greatorex; program, Mrs. Mennel; music, Mrs. E. S. Little; visiting, Mrs. Sussens.

The program included a vocal solo by Miss Irene Tinghey; a violin solo by Miss Egan, Miss James acting as accompanist; and piano solos by Miss Elsie Coleman, and little Miss Marjorie Lewis, the latter but a child and yet playing beautifully.

A FINE COMPLEXION

Can Be Had Through Keeping the Blood Rich and Pure.

A girl's complexion is something more than a matter of concern to her vanity. It is an indication of the state of her health. Pallor in a growing girl means a thinning of the blood. Eruptions mean impurities in the blood. Mothers should be watchful of their daughters complexions, and see to it that these signs are corrected—not covered up.

When a girl in her teens becomes pale and sallow, especially if, at the same time, she shows an inclination to tire easily, a listlessness and inattention to her work or studies, she needs Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, a tonic which directly and specifically corrects the condition from which she is suffering. A chemical analysis of the blood of such a girl would show it to be deficient in just the elements that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills can supply, but the physical signs are plain. The girls with a bad complexion, or who suffers from occasional headaches, who is easily tired and restless after slight exertion, should begin taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills at once. A good appetite, sparkling eyes and rosy cheeks follow the fair use of this medicine.

You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills through any dealer in medicine or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50, from the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont. —Advt.

Mr. and Mrs. Tremeer will visit friends in Calgary and Denver, Col., where Miss Mountjoy expects to spend the coming winter.

A charming affair of the week was the reception given by Mrs. James Little, formerly Miss Irene Handsford, when she received for the first time since her marriage at her home in Ingersoll. The bride, who wore a lovely gown of brocaded crepe, was assisted in receiving by Mrs. Lorne Finn of this city and Miss Bessie Little. Tea was poured by Mrs. William Godwin of London and Mrs. Scott. The tearoom assistants included: Miss Marion Robinson, Miss Marjorie Grieve (London), Miss Vivian Tait and Miss Kate Little. During the tea hour, Miss Hilda McMillen sang a number of delightful solos and piano selections were given by Miss Helen Oliver.

Mrs. Robin Is Frantic When She Cannot Free Herself

By THORNTON W. BURGESS.

Never had the Old Orchard seen a more frightened small person than was Mrs. Robin when she discovered that she was held fast by one leg. You know the piece of string she had been carrying had become caught around a couple of twigs in an apple tree, and the other end had become fastened around one of Mrs. Robin's legs. Her fright was so great that she quite lost her head. Her screams brought Welcome Robin hurrying over to see what the trouble was, and had brought all the other feathered folk of the Old Orchard.

Mrs. Robin struggled and struggled until she was so tired out that she couldn't flap her wings. Then she hung head down. You see she was so badly frightened that she couldn't think. If she had done a little thinking she would have perched on the twig to which the string was fastened. But she didn't think of that. And so she hung head down from the end of that piece of string.

Of course all the other feathered folk were very much excited. There was a great screaming and chattering. But no one offered to do anything for her. The truth is, no one knew what to do. When Mrs. Robin had rested a little she once more began to struggle and try to fly away.

Poor Welcome! He was completely upset.

All her neighbors seemed trying to help her with their voices. Of course she was no more successful than before, and this time she became tired a great deal more quickly than before.

None of the other birds came very near, for they regarded that piece of string as a trap. They were afraid of it. After a while one by one they left. You see, they had matters of their own to attend to. At last there was no one there but Welcome Robin. Poor Welcome! He was completely upset. He flew about and hopped about in the tree near Mrs. Robin, all the time chirping mournfully. He wouldn't go off and leave her as the others had done. Several times he pecked at the string, but he wasn't able to get it free.

As for Mrs. Robin, her struggles grew weaker, and she would hang for some time just panting. She had given up all hope. She was sure that she would hang there until she died. Welcome Robin left her long enough to find a fat worm and bring it to her. But poor Mrs. Robin couldn't eat. Then Welcome Robin resumed his mournful chirping. It was the only way he had of expressing his sorrow and fright, for he was frightened, too. It was mysterious, and you know mysterious things are very apt to frighten one.

Now and then one of the other feathered folk would come for a look at Mrs. Robin, and then go away shaking his or her head sorrowfully. Not one of them could think of a single thing to do. Certainly Mrs. Robin was in dreadful trouble. It could hardly have been worse.

Alkali In Shampoos Bad For the Hair

If you want to keep your hair looking its best, be careful what you wash it with. Do not use prepared shampoos or anything else that contains too much free alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it.

The best thing for steady use is Mulsified cocoanut oil shampoo, which is pure and greaseless, and is better than anything else you can use.

Two or three teaspoonfuls of Mulsified is sufficient to cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excess oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy, wavy, and easy to manage.

You can get Mulsified cocoanut oil shampoo at any drug store. It is inexpensive, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months. Be sure your druggist gives you "Mulsified." Beware of imitations. Look for the name Watkins on the package.—Advt.
