Nova Scotia News.

We learn that "Doctor's Island," in this harbor, has been leased by the town, and that a powder magazine is to be built thereon. The property known as Bunker's Island, and for some years past owned by Mr. Jas. D. Archibald, has been purchased by the Dominion Government, and we understand a Marine Hospital is to be established thereon.—Yarmouth Herald.

A little girl about four years of age was severely burnt at Halifax during the absence of its mother, by its clothes catching fire at the stove. It is not known whether it will live or die.

The amount of gold produced in Sherbrooke gold mining district for the year ending Dec. 31st, 1874, says the New Glasgow Chronicle, was 4020 ounces, the value of which was $76,000.

At Halifax, on Thursday last, a mother nearly murdered her son for being intoxicated. The instrument used was a poker. She afterwards caused him to be tied up and left maimed and bleeding, without any attendance, all night. His recovery is doubtful. "Halifax still ahead."

Windsor has had an immense public meeting on the Temperance question. Resolutions were passed condemning the traffic in strong drink, and measures for suppressing the same in the County were adopted.

"We are Pained to Learn."

A Louisville reporter, having accumulated a fortune here, resolved to abandon city life, with its glittering shams, and he went South, where he got a situation on a country newspaper. The village being rather dull, he had only seven or eight items when the week was about to close, and one or two of these were puffs of tarnips which had been left at the office. They were, however, well written, he thought, and he handed them to the editor. As each of the turnip paragraphs came under the editorial eye, a smile of approval lit up the editorial countenance, and continued to light it until the last of the items was reached. Here the editorial visage underwent an awful change. The item was about an accident that had happened to a "well-known citizen." Reading it over several times, as if to gain time to check the indignation which seemed to be boiling within him, he turned upon the reporter. "Young man," he thundered, "your services are no longer required: I can't have any man about me that doesn't say at the beginning of his paragraphs, 'We are pained to learn'"—Courier-Journal. "We regret to learn" is the St. John style.

What the Promised Land Flowed With.

Little children sometimes give very strange answers to questions propounded on the subject of the "Promised Land."

A Sunday school teacher asked:—

"Who led out the Israelites?"

"Moses," was the prompt reply.

"And where did he lead them?"

"To the Promised Land, sir."

That's right, my little dears. Now what did that land flow with?

"With honey," said three or four.

"And what else?"

Here was a stick—no reply.

"Come, children, some of you surely remember. When you were babies, what did your mammas give to you? What else did the Promised Land flow with besides honey?"

Again a blank pause.

"I know, thir," said a little five-year old, springing to his feet and elevating his little hand. "I know what it wath, thir, I know, thir."

"What was it, my dear?"

"Why, it wath 'titty.' thir!"

The teacher, amid the laughter of the adult spectators, proceeded to change the subject by singing a hymn.

CURRENT COIN.

Evening calls are in vogue in Russia. Patti had sixty calls (before the curtain) in one opera night at St. Petersburg.

"Now is the time when prudent parents see to it that the part of the boys on which they slide down hill are properly half-soled with leather, tin or sheet-iron."

An honest dentist in the Pine Tree State frankly advertises that "no pains will be spared in endeavoring to give perfect satisfaction," though his name is Gammon.

Why are sheep the least moral of animals? Because they gambol in their youth, spend much of their time on the turf, many of them are blacklegs, and they all get fleeced at last.

Queer names they have in New England. A switchman on the Worcester Railroad, who accidentally shot himself last week, rejoices in the cognomen of Preserved Thatcher.

Questions put to his sweetheart by a bashful lad, during their first tete-a-tete: How's your father? How's your mother? How are your parents? How are your father and mother? How are they both?

A Frenchman is about opening an "hymenial academy" in Covington, Kentucky, at which young ladies will be taught marriage service, with all the proper sobs, sighs and hysterics in three easy lessons.

A horse who is in the habit of gnawing his crib can be cured of the practice by applying a strong wash of cayenne pepper and hot water, or a coating of tar, to the crib. If this don't cure him, nothing will.

The present system of penal servitude for women in England is one of solitary confinement, and it is asserted that not one woman in twenty undergoes imprisonment of over a year's duration without showing signs of temporary insanity.

A Chicago boy of ten says that when his parents get into a fight, and his mother calls for a flat iron, and his father yells for the stove-handle, he is placed in a most embarrassing position, as he is sure to get licked, no matter whom he minds.

The city of Berlin wants to become a separate province of the Empire. A bill is now in preparation to be brought before the Reichstag with that end in view. The proposition is to divide it into three districts, which shall be represented in a Parliament to be held once a year, of which the Mayor of Berlin is to be the presiding officer, and the new province to be represented in the Reichstag as other States of the Empire are.

A Frenchman was about to be hanged for a criminal offence; as there was no professional executioneer available for the occasion, the painful duty of carrying out the sentence devolved upon an amateur, who apologized for possible shortcomings to the person principally concerned. "I hope you'll pardon me," said he, "if I put you to any unnecessary inconvenience; but the fact is, I have never hanged any one before." "Pray do not mention it," replied the other, with the greatest sangfroid. "For that matter, I have never been hanged before. We must each do our best."

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

For the relief and cure of all derangements in the stomach, liver, and bowels. They are a mild aperient, and an excellent purgative. Being purely vegetable, they contain no mercury or mineral whatever. Much serious sickness and suffering is prevented by their timely use; and every family should have them on hand for their protection and relief, when required. Long experience has proved them to be the safest, surest, and best of all the Pills with which the market abounds. By their occasional use, the blood is purified, the corruptions of the system expelled, obstructions removed, and the whole machinery of life restored to its healthy activity. Internal organs which become clogged and sluggish are cleansed by Ayer's Pills, and stimulated into action. Thus incipient disease is changed into health, the value of which change, when reckoned on the vast multitudes who enjoy it, can hardly be computed. Their sugar coating makes them pleasant to take, and preserves their virtues unimpaired for any length of time, so that they are ever fresh, and perfectly reliable. Although searching, they are mild, and operate without disturbance to the constitution, or diet, or occupation.

Full directions are given on the wrapper to each box, how to use them as a family Physic, and for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:—

For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Listlessness, Languor and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach, and restore its healthy tone and action.

For Liver Complaints and its various symptoms, Bilious Headache, Sick Headache, Jaundice or Green Sickness, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For Dysentery or Diarrhœa, but one mild dose is generally required.

For Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Back and Loins, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear.

For Dropsy and Dropsical Swellings, they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For Suppression, a large dose should be taken, as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.

As a Dinner Pill, take one or two Pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these Pills makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus.

THE

ILLUSTRATED LIBRARY OF POETRY AND SONG!

Edited by

DR. J. G. HOLLAND,

Author of "Kathrina," "Bi ter Sweet," etc.

FAVORITE SONG is a royal octave volume of over 700 PAGES, printed in the best style of the art, on the finest tinted paper, and illustrated with 125 thoroughly dainty and delicate engravings, FROM ORIGINAL DESIGNS, by the most eminent artists, together with fac similes of the original autograph copies of (20) famous poems.

The illustrations are numerous and exquisitely wrought. What can be more beautiful than the one which reflects the enchanting spot where—

"Maud Muller, on a summer's day,
Raked the meadows sweet with hay;"

One of those lovely New England landscapes, which the engraver has represented in outlines as beautiful and artistic as the song it adorns.

Conspicuous, also, for its rare beauty, is the illustration accompanying the "Song of the Brook," where the streamlet, dashing beneath the rustic bridge, goes chattering

"Over stony ways,
In little sharps and trebles,"

"Till lost in Philip's farm it flows,
To join the brimming river."

Altogether, this is one of the most charming and elegant books ever issued by the American press—a fitting gift for lover or friend; an attractive ornament for the parlor table; a valuable addition to any family library.

For this purpose, the Legislature of the State of New York has granted a charter to a number of our most wealthy and respectable merchants, and these gentlemen have purchased no less than eight blocks of the most valuable land in the city of New York. The building to be erected will be seven stories high (150 feet in height) surmounted by a magnificent dome, and will cover a space of 2½ acres. It will be constructed of iron, brick and glass, and made fire-proof. The bonds which are all for $20 each, are secured by a first mortgage on the land and building, and for the purpose of making them popular, the directors have decided to have quarterly drawings of $150,000 each; this money being the interest on the amount of the whole loan.
