A very pleasant surprise party was held on the evening of the 22nd at the home of Mrs. J. W. Daley, in honor of Mr. Harry Farris, of Wolfville, who has spent some months here in the local canning concern of C. S. Murphy. He is very popular among his young acquaintances, as was evidenced by the large number who gathered and the valuable gifts with which they presented him. The gifts consisted of a pair of gold cuff links, a set of military brushes and mirror. The large company enjoyed the evening thoroughly. The presentation was appropriately made by a neat speech by Mr. L. C. Beach, to which Mr. Farris feelingly replied.—Yarmouth Light.

Cash Paid for Hides at the Willow Vale Tannery. Highest market price. tf. D. B. SHAW.

Attention is directed to an important announcement made in this issue by the Illsley & Harvey Co., of Port Williams. This firm has decided to conduct their business in future upon a cash basis, and expects to be able to make the change advantageous both to themselves and their patrons. The credit system is undoubtedly a hindrance to successful business and in the long run an injury to the buyer as well as the seller. The cash system is to a very large extent the explanation of the success of the large department houses, and in order to compete on fair terms our business firms must employ similar methods. The departure now being made by the Illsley & Harvey Co will be watched with interest, and in the end should operate to the advantage of the community as well as to themselves

In Grateful Memorial.

Edward Perry Bowles, M.D., laid to rest in the Episcopal Church yard at Wolfville on a tranquil evening of a peaceful life, Nov. 23rd, 1912.

He was born at Centreville, Kings County, N. S., 1845. For one-third of a century Dr. Bowles was on this field and served his fellow men with a fidelity and benevolence unparalleled among us. He loved the animals and humankind. The generous spirit of life were deeply laid and were strengthened by a soulful purpose of usefulness to humanity within his reach. He was the people's Dr. MacClure of 'Bonnie Briar Bush' fame. He did commonplace things as plain duties, and his Christ-like deeds stand out in many Alpine Peaks to mark his well trodden pathway. A suffering world is thirsting for more of this greatness, and sorrowing hearts low bent put their stamp of approval on him. The reverent view of God's ideal marked in him, the Creator has a fresh accentuated loving deeds to men, above their words. W. C. A.

S.—Imported Paris gown of yellow silk crepe de chine draped with white wide Battenburg lace and colored sequined chiffon, pale-pink satin roses catching up the draperies and on the corsage handsome antique amber ornaments and bouquet large yellow chrysanthemums.'

This game was very close and exciting, and not until the whistle blew was the result sure. On Tuesday the Academy met an overwhelming defeat at the hands of the Seniors, score being 50—6. The standing of the teams is as follows:

The Doctor's Question.

MUCH SICKNESS DUE TO BOWEL DISORDERS.

A doctor's first question when consulted by a patient is, 'are your bowels regular?' He knows that ninety-eight per cent. of illness is attended with inactive bowels and torpid liver, and that this condition must be removed gently and thoroughly before health can be restored.

Rexall Orderlies are a positive, pleasant and safe remedy for constipation and bowel disorders generally. We are so certain of their great remedial value that we promise to return the purchaser's money in every case when they fail to produce entire satisfaction.

Rexall Orderlies are eaten like candy, they act quietly and have a soothing, strengthening, healing, influence on the entire intestinal tract. They do not purge, gripe, cause nausea, flatulence, excessive looseness, diarrhoea or other annoying effect. They are especially good for children, weak persons and old folks. Two sizes, 25c. and 10c. Sold only at our store—The Rexall Store, A. V. Rand.

Home Wedding

A pretty home wedding was solemnized at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Colin W. Roscoe, Acadia street, Wednesday afternoon, when their daughter, Amy Viola, was united in marriage to Mr. H. Rae Bennett. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. D. Webber, pastor of the Baptist church, in the presence of immediate relatives of the contracting parties. The bride, attired in a very pretty costume of cream satin with pearl garnitures, net yoke and sleeves, with ribbon trimmings, looked very charming. After the ceremony a short reception was held, after which the bridal party was driven to the station and took the express for Halifax on a short wedding trip. Many handsome and valuable presents, including chinaware, cold and gifts, gave evidence of the popularity of the bride, which had already been shown a few weeks since by a bounteous 'shower' given by her girl friends. Mr. and Mrs. Bennett have the congratulations of a host of friends.

Last Friday afternoon Mrs. D. J. Munro, our most recent bride, received her post-nuptial visitors at the home of Mrs. A. J. Woodman. Mrs. Munro received in a beautiful gown of hand-embroidered blue crepe de chine, and Mrs. Woodman, receiving with her, was becomingly attired in silvery grey and black striped silk with touches of pink. Wedding cake and bride's cake were served to the many visitors by the Misses Woodman, while Mrs. D. R. Munro, gowned in accordion pleated rose-colored voil with cream lace, presided at the tea-table. Little Miss Maudie Burgess, dressed in daintily-embroidered linen, assisted at the door. Mr. and Mrs. Munro are at the Royal Hotel for a few months.

A sudden death occurred last Saturday at the home of Mr. Archibald Vaughn, Grand Pre, when his nephew, Mr. Burpee Vaughn, son of the late Harding Vaughn, aged 25 years, passed away The deceased had suffered from a stroke of paralysis some time ago, but his death was wholly unlooked for. He was a popular young man and will be much missed.
